

Investigate the News

GALLING for HUMAN INTEREST!

Do you like to read stories about people? Your newspaper offers stories about interesting people in profiles, also called “human interest” stories.

Choose a story about someone who interests you.

1. Who is the subject?
2. What do you learn about the person?
3. Did you learn anything that you might not have known otherwise? Explain.
4. Does the person express a value or belief shared by others in your community? Explain.
5. What attitude does the writer show towards this subject?
6. What do you find most interesting about the subject? About the writing?
7. Identify interesting people in photos and stories. If you interviewed the people, what would you ask them?

SHARE with friends the news and information you learn about interesting people in your community and explain what makes them interesting to you.
