

Investigate the News

MANY PEOPLE!

In your newspaper, locate information about the many people who live in your community.

Write their names in the spaces below.

_____ someone who grew up in your town _____ someone who moved to your town _____ someone who's younger than you _____ someone who's older than you _____ someone who shares an interest or talent with you _____ someone who has an interest or talent different from yours _____ someone who speaks out about a local issue

Collect photos of people in your community from your print and online newspapers. Create a collage that represents the mix of people who live in your community.

SHARE what you learn about the ethnic, religious and other groups who make up your community. Interview knowledgeable citizens and conduct additional research to find out more about the history of your community.