

Investigate the News

YOUR TOWN

In your print or online newspaper, look for information about your town that answers the following questions. Be sure to make inferences based on what you read.

1. Where is your town located?
2. Who lives in your town?
3. What issues concern the citizens of your town? (Check letters to the editor, comments to online stories and community blogs.)
4. How do people earn a living?
5. Where do people go for fun?
6. What else did you learn about your town?

SHARE with friends something you learned about your town. What's unique about your town?