

COMPARING NEWSPAPERS: LOOKING AT THE COMMUNITY

Communities have many different sides. Use your newspaper to find headlines, articles photos or ads that present a picture of your town. Paste the items in the boxes below or display them on separate paper. Write the name of your community on the line in the center of the boxes.

Interesting people:

Places to work:

Places to eat:

Places to have fun:

Things have stayed the same:

Things have changed:

FOLLOW-UP: Use its newspaper to become acquainted with a town or city other than your own. As you fill in the information, look for ways in which the town is similar to and different from your own. Record the name of the community and newspaper that you study.