

2017 News, Editorial & Photojournalism Contest

COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS, SPECIALTY PUBLICATIONS & ONLINE NEWS ORGANIZATIONS BROCHURE

RULES

- Although you may have participated in the past, all newspapers must re-register in the contest system. Use the SEC code 'ncpress'. Once you register, respond to the email you receive. You should be able to login to the contest system after that.
- The deadline for all uploaded entries is 5:00 p.m. EDT, Oct. 27, 2017. The mailed portion of Hugh Morton Award entries must be postmarked on or before Oct.20.
- All story entries, including columns, must be submitted as cropped clips – not whole pages – unless specifically called for in the category description.
- All entries must have been published between Oct. 1, 2016 and Sept. 30, 2017.
- Each article/story/photograph can only be submitted in one contest category. If the same entry is found in two categories it will be disqualified. The only exception to this rule is found in categories where an entry consists of multiple different pieces. When an entry appears as one element within one of these composite categories, it may also be entered into another eligible category for judging individually on its own merits. Composite categories in the editorial contest include:
 - General Excellence
 - Appearance and Design
 - Sports Coverage
 - Use of Photographs
 - News Coverage
 - Best Community Coverage
 - Special Section Headlines
 - Ledes
 - Editorials
 - Editorial Page
 - Special Awards

For any questions on this rule, please call Phil Lucey at (919) 516-8013 or email phil@ncpress.com

- If the entry appeared in multiple publications, it can only be entered by one of them. Publishers have the final say over which newspaper submits an entry appearing in multiple publications.
- The entry fee for each individual entry you submit is $9. Click on “Entry Billing” to see the total amount due. Credit cards payments can be made over the phone by calling (919) 516-8009. There will be a 3 percent convenience fee for this service. Checks should be made payable to the North Carolina Press Association, postmarked by the entry deadline, and mailed to NCPA, 5171 Glenwood Avenue #486, Raleigh, NC 27612.
- All entries must be from newspapers or online news sites that are members of the North Carolina Press Association. Entries may not be submitted from sister publications/news sites unless they are also members of NCPA.
- Materials published exclusively online can be submitted in appropriate categories and do count against the total each entrant is allowed per category. Online material must be published on the newspaper’s website during the time frame of the contest when submitted, must be submitted from the first time it appeared on the web, must depict its original publication on the web and not its subsequent update or alteration. An online link to material must remain active during the judging period and must not require paid access to view the entry. For ease of judging, the URL should be as brief as possible.

General Info

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO ENTER? Any North Carolina newspaper or online news site that is a member of NC Press Association and has paid its 2017-18 annual dues by October 1, 2017 may enter this contest. Entries must be submitted through the newspaper, not by individuals.

At the time the entry was written, a contestant must have been a full-time or regular part-time employee or exclusive contributor to the newspaper. A story, photograph or any entry that was published in more than one newspaper may be entered only one time. Publishers have the final say over which newspaper submits an entry appearing in multiple newspapers. Entries that violate this rule will be disqualified.

Journalists who worked at more than one newspaper during the contest year may enter work from more than one newspaper (community, daily or both), but the person will still have to obey the maximum entry rules for the category. In case of doubt, entries from the current employer will take precedence.

All entries become the property of NCPA and may be used for promotional, display and news purposes.

YOUR DIVISION: For this contest, NCPA community/specialty newspapers are divided into three divisions based on circulation and one online division for NCPA's online-only members. The division for your newspaper/news site is already in the contest website based on the most recent information NCPA has on file and cannot be changed once the contest has begun.

Community newspaper divisions are calculated by multiplying the number of days of publication in a week by the listed circulation number. For example, if you publish three times per week and your daily circulation on file is 7,000 your total circulation would be 21,000.

Community Newspaper Divisions:

- Division A - Under 3,500
- Division B - 3,500 to 10,000
- Division C - Over 10,000

Specialty Publications: Specialty publications - members whose primary product is business or leisure publications or those publications whose content is directed to a specific audience - will be judged in the same circulation divisions along with community newspapers EXCEPT for the categories of General Excellence, Appearance and Design, and Special Section. These categories will be judged against other specialty publications only.

Online Publications: For contest purposes, online publications are defined as online-only members who do not publish a newspaper product. Online members compete strictly against each other in a unique division. They do not compete against newspapers.

For any questions about your division, please contact Phil Lucey at (919) 516-8013 before uploading any entries.

LIMIT ON STORIES IN GENERAL NEWS REPORTING: For newspapers/websites in all divisions, each entry in the General News Reporting category may contain no more than five stories. Jumps are not considered separate stories, but sidebars are.

THE ENTRIES: Pay careful attention to the category/class number for each entry. Category/class numbers are not necessarily consecutively listed in this brochure. Please also read the instructions for each category to make sure you are entering the appropriate item(s). Entering full pages when cropped clips are required will result in disqualification. Also pay particular attention to the need to combine multiple files into one before submitting. Remember, judges will view your entries online, so make the file sizes as small as possible before combining them.

The name of the entry and writer/photographer name that you enter into the contest system is what will appear on printed certificates and plaques should you win. Make sure the entry title and name of the author(s) are correct on every entry!

Each entry must be uploaded to the contest site. Entries for the Hugh Morton Photographer of the Year award should be entered both online and mailed. For entries that include URLs, make sure the links will remain active through Dec. 2017.

Any entry discovered to contain plagiarized material in any form will be disqualified. Any award will be automatically rescinded if it is later discovered that the original entry contained plagiarized material.

Worked at more than one newspaper? Journalists who worked at more than one newspaper during the contest year may enter work from more than one newspaper (community, daily or both), but the person will still have to obey the maximum entry rules for the category. In case of doubt, entries from the current employer will take precedence.

Entries with multiple bylines: A person's name may appear only once as an entrant for any category in which only one entry per person is allowed. If the entered story is "by Joe Brown and Joan Green," neither Brown nor Green can enter anything else in that category, whether or not they did the additional story by themselves or with anyone else.

- In categories that allow two entries per person, an individual's name may appear only twice.
- Up to four people who collaborate on an entry may be listed in the contest system. More than four people must be recorded as a "staff" entry.
- Being part of a "staff" entry does not count toward the total number of entries an individual may submit.
- In categories where only one individual entry is allowed, the newspaper may enter only one staff entry. In categories where two individual entries are allowed, the newspaper may enter two staff entries.

Photography categories: In addition to uploading full-page tear sheets, individual photo files may be uploaded as part of an entry but not as a replacement for tear sheets. These uploaded photos should be cropped exactly as they appeared in print. Entries that do not include the uploaded full newspaper page will be disqualified. To aid the judges in the photography category, indicate the photo entered by adding an arrow pointing at (but not on) that photo.

NOTE: Photojournalists have the responsibility to document society and preserve images as a matter of historical record. Electronic technologies provide new challenges to the integrity of photographic images. The guidelines for fair and accurate reporting should be the criteria followed in judging what can be done electronically to a photograph. Images may not be digitally altered beyond traditional cropping, lightening, darkening and color balancing.

Pick a month: In any category that specifies months for eligible entries, entrants may pick from any dates in one (but not both) of the listed months. Entries that include items from more than one month will be disqualified.

JUDGES AND AWARDS: Entries will be judged by newspaper professionals from the Hoosier State Press Association. Their decisions are final. If there are fewer than five entries in a category judges may choose to award only first place.

Certificates will be awarded for first, second and third place winners. Plaques are awarded in several categories, including General Excellence. Each winning entry will receive two copies of the certificate: one for the newspaper and one for the individual. Additional copies may be purchased for $7 each. Awards will be presented at the 2018 Winter Institute, February 22-23, at the Raleigh Marriott Crabtree Valley.

HAVE QUESTIONS? If you have any questions after reading this brochure or of any of the terms used in category descriptions please call Phil Lucey at (919) 516-8013 or email phil@ncpress.com.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What file formats are accepted for uploading? The contest system accepts many file formats. However, uploading PDF or JPEG files ensures our judges will be able to view your entries.

How can I make my PDFs smaller? Most newspaper PDFs include high resolution grayscale or CMYK images for printing. However, PDF contest entries will be viewed and judged on a computer monitor, which displays at low resolution (72-96 dpi) in RGB color. Changes in resolution and color mode of images are the most effective ways to reduce file size without sacrificing quality.

In PDFs, text is always clear regardless of resolution. Resolution only relates to photos and rasterized graphics. Reducing resolution by half reduces image file size by 75 percent. The recommended maximum resolution of 96 dpi can be enforced by Distiller settings.

Color Mode: Converting from CMYK to RGB color will reduce image file size by another 25 percent. This color conversion can again be enforced by Distiller settings.

If you reduce image resolution and/or convert color mode in your entry PDFs with a PDF editor (Enfocus Pitstop or Quite A Box of Tricks) or use the native profiling/editing tools in Acrobat 6 or later, you will NOT gain the expected reduction in file size unless you redistill the PDF afterward.

What is the most efficient way to collect entry files? Extract entry-related pages from any multi-page PDFs or delete non-entry pages. Give each resulting file a clearly descriptive name. Combine into a single PDF file the pages that comprise each article. See below for instructions on extracting/combining PDFs.

Once you've created all your entry PDFs, redistill each one as explained above to reduce it to the smallest practical size. It is not productive to try to reduce sizes of individual files before combining them into complete entries. Like all changes, combining pages can increase overall file size.

How do I extract pages from full-issue or full-section PDFs? Open the PDF file in Acrobat and choose "Extract Pages..." from the Document menu. This will allow you to save individual or sequential pages in separate files anywhere on your computer.

How do I combine PDFs into a single file? Open the PDF that you want to appear first in the entry. Choose "Save As..." from the File menu and give it the name of the final entry. Choose "Insert Pages..." from the Document menu, choose the file that you want to appear next in the entry, then specify where that file should be inserted. When all insertions have been made, save and close the PDF. You'll need to redistill the final PDFs.

How will NCPA prevent fraud? We prefer to trust our member publishers not to submit embellished or edited entries. However, NCPA members have pointed out that electronic contest entries will not necessarily represent published pages because they can be changed before submission. It is true that ads and articles can be re-edited, photos can be retouched or replaced, and page layouts can be changed. However, major deception probably would be noticed, if only because winning PDFs will be available to the public and NCPA members on the NCPA website. If fraud is suspected with any entries, a full investigation will follow.
