Goodaker and Horinek boys praise God for heartfelt gifts

With Valentine’s Day coming up, these stories provided to the Beloit Call share heart gifts of a special kind

By Gary Van Cleave
Special to Beloit Call

It’s a story of two friends from St John’s/ Tipton High School who have overcome similar heart issues. A story on two boys who battled issues in which the odds for two people from the same small school were astronomical.

“It was mind blowing to think two boys from the same tiny class could both be diagnosed with such a rare condition,” Clint Horinek, dad of Edward Horinek, said.

“Grant had just been cleared when Edward received the news. I was in disbelief because how could this happen to two boys in the same small school,” Christina Carr, mom of Grant Goodaker, said. “My husband and I questioned is it more common than known. Grant was absolutely devastated. He didn’t want one of his friends to go through what he did.”

Meet junior Grant Goodaker, who was diagnosed with an anomalous right coronary artery and had surgery for it in Dec. 2023 and had to recover all of last season.

“He was born with this. We found it by accident when he had an echocardiogram done,” his mom said.

And say hey to junior classmate Edward

Horinek, who for his entire life has had pectus excavatum (sunken chest).

“His doctors have been monitoring it for years to see if it needed correction,” Clint said. “During his sophomore year it was decided that his sunken chest was putting pressure on his heart and lungs and needed fixed.”

Last March, Edward underwent surgery to place two bars in his chest to push his sternum back out and relieve the pressure on his organs.

“While that surgery was a success, Edward developed an infection and while they were running all the tests to find it, they discovered he had a heart anomaly,” Clint said. “Basically, a valve in his heart was not in the correct place. When this was first discovered, the doctors told us Edward may have to avoid all sports for three years until the bars in his chest were removed.”

Grant’s heart actually stopped beating during a heart catheterization to determine the extent of his heart issue.

“They had to do CPR. I was very anxious after being told this and started praying,” Christina said.

Power of Prayer, Part I

It was a roller coaster of emotions for nine months, Christina said.

“There was a lot of waiting for tests to be done and then waiting for doctors to discuss and determine what was best,” she said. “He continued to play sports and be very active until September 2023 when they restricted him from strenuous activity. At first I was very nervous about letting him continue to be active but knew that I couldn’t take away the things he enjoyed. I put a lot of trust in God and that he would take care of Grant.”

On Dec. 12, 2023, Grant underwent open heart surgery at Children’s Mercy Hospital in Kansas City, Mo.

“As any parent, the day of his open heart surgery I was very nervous because of what happened during the heart cath,” she said.

Following the four-hour surgery, Christina got to see her son a couple hours after the operation.

“Seeing him in the cardiac ICU so lifeless, hooked up to the ventilator, multiple lines, wires, and tubes was very difficult,” Christina said.

“After Grant first woke up, he had a lot of anxiety that my husband and I had to help him work through,” she continued. “The first two nights/days were pretty sleepless and difficult. Once he turned the corner and was stable, he did very well considering all he had been through.”

The surgery was a success.

Film director and writer, Ken Spurgeon, gives a round of applause to all that helped with the film. He talked about the process of his book “Sod & Stubble” – a love story between Henry and Rosie Ise (shown on the screen) - being made into a film. The filming took place in the Downs, Kan., area, to where the German family immigrated. It shows hardships and also the falling in love with the land in the 1873 times. The film has been bought and will now be released on March 28, 2025, to be first seen at the Orpheum Theatre in Wichita. It will then be released at other theaters when available. A special meet and greet with the actors will take place on March 29 at the Downs Memorial Hall.

Beloit USD 273 school board adopts bond resolution

BY BRIAN DEBEY

On Monday, Feb. 3, the Beloit USD #273 school board adopted the bond resolution, finalizing the bond terms approved by voters in the November 2024 election.

Clayton Kelley with Piper Sandler presented the financial plan summary. It will continue to provide future flexibility to refinance bonds for savings and other mill levy management strategies.

The plan's purpose is delivering a financing result that ensures the mill levy impact the district's patrons were assured and maximizing the funds available for project construction.

In the bond sale that morning, the Country Club bank's bid won. It includes an interest rate of 3.25 percent for the eight-year bond.

The sale of bonds generated $163,279.85 of additional bond proceeds. This money can be used for capital projects which are in the scope of the ballot question and/or mill levy management.

Because of the issuance of bonds, a nine-mill increase in the bond and interest fund is forthcoming. Based on local bank bids received, estimated investment earnings is nearly $210,000. These come from investing bond proceeds during construction, which is expected to be completed within two years of its start.

Give FFA Day

MANHATTAN – On Feb. 20, the 10th Annual Give FFA Day will take place as part of National FFA Week. This special day aims to impact the lives of over a million FFA members nationwide and support the growth of future leaders who aspire to change the world. The Kansas FFA Association contributes to this mission as part of the National FFA Organization.

Give FFA Day offers 24 hours of opportunity for donors to support FFA and agricultural education at local, state, and national levels. Contributions to the Kansas FFA Foundation help fund a variety of initiatives, including special programs, events, and the iconic blue jackets for students. Additionally, donations cover travel costs for leadership and career opportunities and provide essential support and resources for teachers year-round.

Donors can also contribute to the ongoing $5 million capital campaign, which aims to establish a sustainable endowment, ensuring long-term funding for Kansas FFA.

"Give FFA Day is an opportunity to invest in the future of agriculture and its young leaders," said Kansas FFA Foundation Executive Director Beth Gaines. "Every donation, no matter the size, provides life-changing experiences for our students, from leadership training to career exploration. Together, we're building a legacy of success and ensuring Kansas FFA members have the resources they need to thrive for future generations."

Generous donors have already pledged funds to the effort. Mustang Seed, Ag Partners Cooperative, Keith and Sheri Westervelt, Grass & Grain Newspaper, Jerry and Anita DeWeese, Mark Mayfield, and the Kansas FFA Foundation Board of Trustees have pledged a collective dollar-to-dollar match of $20,000. The goal for the day is to raise $40,000 for Kansas FFA, with the hope of exceeding last year's efforts when supporters donated more than $23,000. To donate on Give FFA Day, visit <http://bit.ly/4oZRWVJ>. Or contact the Kansas FFA Foundation at 785-410-7313 or by email foundation@kansasffaoundation.org.

"Give FFA Day helps ensure the future of our rural communities, schools and agriculture as we support FFA members on their leadership journey," said Melanie Mainquist, a Kansas Give FFA Day ambassador. "Please consider joining me in supporting Kansas FFA for today and tomorrow and be sure to follow National FFA Week on social media as we celebrate FFA and leadership success."

The Kansas FFA Association is a school-based youth leadership development organization of nearly 14,000 student members as part of 232 local FFA chapters in 103 of the 105 Kansas counties.

Expansion of the ambulance barn main topic for County Commissioners

BY TERRY BAILEY

Missy McGinnis, director of the Mitchell County Emergency Medical Service, and Stewart Porter, county engineer with Schwab-Eaton, are attempting to square up the details on the expansion of the ambulance barn at the corner of Highways 14 and 24, and was the first item discussed during the Monday, Feb. 10, Mitchell County Commissioners meeting.

This project has had several starts and stops, beginning with finding the legal owner of the property just north of the current ambulance barn. The main reason for expanding the current home for the ambulances is because the new ambulance ordered several months ago will not fit in the current structure.

McGinnis was very sure that she would let Porter take the lead on the problem. Two questions need to be answered before they can move forward. Does the work require an architect to draw with specifications and guidelines? Secondly, are there local fire codes and building codes that need to be followed?

McGinnis volunteered to get cost estimates and the status of codes that need to be followed, or not.

Commission Chairperson Tom Claussen said, "Most likely we will need to have an architect for the project and if so, we will need to be bonded."

Commissioner Mike Reiman said, "Find out what the final expected costs will be and let us know. That will give us an idea of how to proceed."

– Lisa Blad was present to discuss years of service certificates and Chamber Bucks that accompany the award. The certificates are awarded on a five-year basis. This year Mitchell County will honor two employees each with 40 years of service. There was some concern the county is charged two dollars for each check that is printed. The commissioners observed that a check is inserted in a printer, and it runs through with the employees name and the dollar amount printed. It seemed that there is limited labor or supplies with the printing of the Chamber Bucks.

– David Dohe, Emergency Management director, stopped by to alert everyone regarding inclement weather expected in the next day or so. He said the Weather Bureau is forecasting between six to ten inches of snow in North Central Kansas. The temperatures are expected to drop quite low, but not much wind is expected.

Dohe mentioned that the folks who are charged with removing the snow usually wait until the storm has passed. If they clear the roads too soon, the roads will just blow shut right away and they will have to do it all over again.

– Lynne Imboden, deputy county clerk, presented the commissioners with a proposal to buy a new copier. The current copier is eight years old and is facing two problems. First of all it is virtually worn out. Secondly, changes in accounting software have made the old copier obsolete.

Crystal Hernandez, associate account executive for TimeClock Plus (TCP), had provided Imboden with a cost purchase bid of $36,367.26 as well as some yearly maintenance fees.

The commissioners voted to move forward with purchase noting that putting off the inevitable will not make anything less expensive.

Having addressed all the items on the printed agenda, the meeting was adjourned. All the commissioners and the county clerk were present at Monday's meeting.

Gifts

“He had it repaired and was cleared by cardiology to resume activity,” Christina said.

“When I got released to play sports, we were at the hospital and went to visit him,” Grant said of Edward. “The doctor told him that he had the same thing as me, just before we got to his room, so it was a very emotional time that day. But I feel like it has made us both stronger in our trust in God.”

Power of Prayer, Part II

“Right after the state tournament for basketball last year, I had a surgery done on my chest and postop,” Edward said. “They found an anomaly in my heart, and I was told that I could never play basketball again without a major open heart surgery.”

Blujays teammates, including Goodaker, consoled their brother.

“I was limited to no physical activity for those eight months. Did

I follow that..... no,” an Honest Abe named Edward said.

“Once Edward was diagnosed with his heart anomaly, we found out it was the exact same diagnosis his close friend and classmate Grant Goodaker had gone through the year prior,” Clint said.

The original news was devastating to the Horinek family.

“Of course we were all devastated. While there is more to life than sports, Edward had been given some athletic gifts and knowing how much he loved competing, it was heartbreaking to think he may be done with sports,” Clint said.

Teammates came together and prayed.

“It was tough to get through not knowing if either of them were ever going to be able to play any sports again,” junior John Mick said.

“I’ve never even heard of anyone having a condition like that. So for not one but two of my teammates to have it in the same time frame is wild,” junior Gabriel Roderick said. “I just have to say God is great, and we are all really happy that they both recovered fine and are back to doing what they love.”

After further testing and eight months of waiting, doctors eventually cleared Edward for basketball without the major surgery.

What they love?..... Sports

Both Goodaker and Horinek are members of the 2024-25 Blujay basketball team that was 5-3 going into its midseason tournament. Horinek leads the team in scoring (20 points per game), rebounds (5.4), steals (3.5) and points scored (160). Goodaker is second on the team with 11 steals.

“It’s been pretty fun getting to play with my team this year,” Edward said. “I really had the mentality this year that I want to be the best player every time I step on the court so that is my goal every game. We still have a lot to work on though, because we haven’t been playing to our potential yet, but we haven’t been full health so we are ready to get back to it.”

“I think having them both back on the court shows they have a lot of grit and determination and a lot of support from the community with all they’ve been through,” Clint said.

Their teammates are thankful.

“The coincidence is pretty crazy, but it’s great to see them both fight through the hardships it may come with and doing anything they can do just to continue their love for sports,” senior Ryder Allen said. “Most people would give up on sports when they get diagnosed with those heart conditions. But they both pushed through and are working as hard as anyone else, even with their health issues.”

“It was shocking, I felt super bad for them,” freshman Samuel Townner said. “We all just prayed and hoped the best for them. It taught me to trust in God and He’ll do the rest.”

Senior Tyson Gates had this to say about his comrades.

“At first it was really hard not knowing whether or not they’d be able to play for us again. Then they both had some issues in the hospital and it was scary not knowing whether or not they’d even make it out,” Gates said. “So they’re both warriors for being able to fight through that and being able to get back to daily life.”

“We figured up the odds and it was crazy how rare it was for this to happen same school, same class,” Goodaker said. “It was a crazy thing to happen.”

Both boys now have a greater appreciation for life and for their God.

“I have had a relationship with God that has been going back and forth through my whole life. It helped deepen the bond,” Goodaker said.

“It has created a brotherly bond between us and we share a special relationship together since we struggle with the same things,” Edward said. “We both have now grown in our trust in the Lord through those struggles.”

Edward added this. “He’s the most important part of my life,” Edward said of his God. “Can’t do anything without Him. Trusting in Him got me through a major health issue this summer, so I thank Him every day for the gifts He has given me.”

Edward then concluded.

“It just has created patience in me and always makes me realize that God has a plan for my life,” he said. “Even in good times or bad. I was very frustrated at times during that long eight months of waiting. Since I wasn’t able to play any organized basketball, I put in the work behind the scenes since no one thought I could play again. I just kept grinding and grinding and eventually God said ‘you know what, I’ll give you another chance.’”

Do you have your 2025 kochia management plans covered?

Now is the time to finalize plans for kochia control for north central Kansas. Since we have had some moisture recently, kochia can be among the first summer annual weeds to emerge in the spring. Recent KSU research suggests that kochia can begin emerging in early February, with most kochia emerging by late April.

Good control of the first dense flush of kochia is essential for obtaining a good crop yield. Early-emerging seedlings use the limited spring soil moisture in dryland production fields. Kochia seedlings emerge in dense populations, making adequate herbicide coverage difficult. In addition, glyphosate-resistant kochia is prevalent across central to western Kansas, making kochia control even more challenging.

For these reasons, it is important to apply pre-emergence herbicides in late winter or early spring to control kochia before it emerges.

To successfully manage kochia, a herbicide program needs two components:

1. a very soluble and effective herbicide that can be incorporated with very little precipitation, such as dicamba
2. a herbicide that has longer residual activity, which will require perhaps 0.75 inches or more precipitation for adequate incorporation, such as atrazine.

Precipitation events during late winter are often too small to activate longer-lasting residual herbicides, but dicamba may control kochia for 4 to 6 weeks until atrazine is incorporated.

The best time to apply herbicides for kochia control is prior to kochia emergence, generally January through the first week of March, but depending on weather conditions. Later applications, for example, at the time of burndown, are more likely to occur after kochia emergence, which increases the risk of very limited control. Other herbicides with good preemergence kochia activity include: mesotrione, metribuzin, saflufenacil (Sharpen), or sulfentrazone. Be sure to check product labels for crop-specific planting intervals. For more information on controlling kochia, see the KSU 2025 Chemical Weed Control for Field Crops, Pastures, Rangeland, and Non-cropland.

Red Cross offers winter storm safety tips

Avoid travel, stay warm indoors, check on others

KANSAS – Old Man Winter isn’t done yet. Conditions are favorable for a series of winter storms to hit a wide swath of the U.S., including all of Kansas.

The first storm is affecting millions of people, with sleet, freezing rain and snow. This will likely lead to hazardous travel conditions, power outages and downed trees.

Another round of storms is expected this weekend and could bring the same conditions to the same areas of the country. Additional storms are possible next week. For some areas, there could be less than a day between wintry weather.

In areas facing these new winter storm risks, the American Red Cross is coordinating with local officials to ensure support is available if needed.

PLEASE GIVE BLOOD Since the beginning of the year, hundreds of blood drives have been canceled and more than 15,000 blood and platelet donations have gone uncollected due to ongoing severe winter weather and emergencies like the southern California wildfires.

More donors are needed now to help the blood supply recover from the significant shortfall in blood products that are vital for lifesaving medical procedures. As February continues, so does the potential for additional weather systems to disrupt blood drives and the ability to provide blood and platelets to hospital patients

The American Red Cross strongly urges donors who are in an area where it is safe to travel to give blood or platelets in February to help build up the blood supply. Find a donation opportunity and schedule an appointment at RedCross-Blood.org, 1-800-RED CROSS or the Red Cross Blood Donor App.

Those who come to give blood, platelets or plasma from Jan. 27–Feb. 28 will receive a $15 e-gift card to a merchant of choice. Additional details can be found at RedCrossBlood.org/Flurry.

If you live in a community threatened by this winter weather, follow these safety steps:

WINTER SAFETY Stay warm indoors. If your home becomes too cold, go to a public library, shopping mall or warming center.

- Use care with space heaters and fireplaces to prevent fires. Keep anything that could catch fire at least 3 feet from the heat. Turn portable heaters off when you leave the room or go to sleep.
- Use battery-powered lights and flashlights instead of candles to prevent fires.
- To prevent carbon monoxide poisoning, don’t use an oven to heat your home.
- Carbon monoxide kills. If you start to feel sick, dizzy, or weak, get to fresh air right away.
- If you must go outside, wear layers of loose clothing, a coat, hat, mittens and water-resistant boots. Use a scarf to cover your face and mouth.
- Check on loved ones and neighbors to make sure they are staying warm, particularly if they are older or live alone.
- Be careful walking on snow or ice and avoid overexertion when shoveling snow. If possible, work with a partner and take frequent breaks.

- Stay off the roads when possible. If you become stranded, stay in the vehicle and wait for help.

Stay warm to avoid frostbite and hypothermia. Your nose, ears, cheeks, chin, fingers and toes are often the first areas affected.

- Signs of frostbite include pain, numbness or a change in skin color.
- Signs of hypothermia, which can be deadly, often include shivering, confusion, drowsiness and slurred speech.
- Act fast and get out of the cold immediately if you see signs of hypothermia or frostbite.
- Get emergency medical care right away.

POWER OUTAGE To prepare for a power outage, make a plan of what to do and how to stay connected.

- Consider your electrical needs and, in the event of an outage, ask yourself how you will stay warm or cool, make food, have clean water and communicate with others.
- If you need to keep medications cool or use medical devices that need power, discuss a backup plan with your doctor.
- In some situations, it may not be safe to stay home, so know where you will go if you need to evacuate, how you will get there and where you will stay.

During a power outage, unplug appliances and electronics to avoid damage from power surges. Leave one light on, so you’ll know when power is restored.

Use flashlights or battery-operated lanterns — not candles — to avoid fires.

- Don’t drive unless necessary. Traffic lights will be out and roads could be congested.
- Decide if you need to stay or go if your home is too hot or cold, or if you have medical devices that need power.

To prevent illness, keep food cold. When in doubt, throw it out.

- Eat fresh, perishable foods first.
- Keep refrigerator and freezer doors closed as much as possible to help keep food cold. Use coolers with ice if necessary.
- Measure the food temperature in your refrigerator and freezer with a thermometer. Throw out perishable food that has been warmer than 40 degrees Fahrenheit.

If you’re using a generator, keep it dry and don’t use it in wet conditions.

- Never use a generator, grill, camp stove or other gasoline, propane, natural gas or charcoal-burning device inside a home, garage, basement or other partially enclosed area. Keep this equipment outside and away from doors, windows and vents, which could allow carbon monoxide to come indoors.
- Operate the generator on a dry surface and don’t touch a generator with wet hands.
- Turn the generator off and let it cool down before refueling. Gasoline spilled on hot engine parts could catch fire.
- Plug appliances directly into the generator. Never plug a generator into a wall outlet.

Gov. Kelly’s HAWK Act to expand Medicaid introduced in both chambers

TOPEKA – Gov. Laura Kelly’s middle-of-the-road proposal to expand Medicaid to 150,000 additional Kansans, the Healthcare Access for Working Kansans (HAWK) Act, was introduced into both chambers of the Kansas Legislature this week.

“The Healthcare Access for Working Kansans (HAWK) Act protects our rural hospitals, bolsters our health care workforce, and strengthens our economy — all while coming at no cost to Kansans. In fact, by waiting to expand Medicaid, we have wasted over $280 million and left $7.6 billion on the table in Washington, D.C.,” Gov. Laura Kelly said. “I encourage the legislature to advance Medicaid expansion this session so we can bring Kansas taxpayer dollars back home to support our health care system.”

The bill was introduced in the House Appropriations Committee by Representative Barbara Ballard and in the Senate Ways and Means Committee by Senator Pat Pettey.

“Expanding Medicaid ensures hard-working Kansans can receive preventive care to stay healthy and on the job – benefitting not only our economy but our hospital and health care workforce as well,” said Representative Barbara Ballard, Kansas House District 44. “That is why I introduced the Healthcare Access for Working Kansans (HAWK) Act so that Kansans can get the critical, timely care they need.”

The passage of Medicaid expansion would create 23,000 new jobs, inject $1.2 billion in annual funding into Kansas’ economy, and reduce health care costs for Kansans. Medicaid expansion would also address the state’s health care workforce shortage while helping safeguard rural hospitals so they can remain open and well-staffed in order to continue serving Kansans across the state.

“My fellow legislators should listen to Kansans who, time and time again, express that they want to see Medicaid expanded in our state,” said Sen. Pat Pettey, Kansas Senate District 6. “Kansans deserve quality, affordable health care, and by expanding Medicaid, we can increase this access to 150,000 additional working Kansans and lower health care costs for all.”

Trump tells U.S. Treasury to stop minting pennies

The cost of making a penny increased by 20% in fiscal 2024

FABIANA NEGRIN OCHOA AND OYIN ADEDOYIN

President Trump said he has instructed the U.S. Treasury to stop producing new pennies, calling the minting of the coin a waste of money.

“For far too long the United States has minted pennies which literally cost us more than 2 cents,” Trump said in a post on Truth Social. “Let’s rip the waste out of our great nation’s budget, even if it’s a penny at a time.”

The move revives a longstanding debate about getting rid of the penny, a proposal that has been tabled in Congress numerous times before. Some argue that the cost savings would be worth it, pointing to Canada, which stopped producing pennies in 2012, as an example.

Others say abolishing the coin would have consequences for both traders and consumers, because cash transactions would need to be rounded either up or down.

The cost of making a penny increased by 20% in fiscal 2024, according to a report by the U.S. Mint. The penny’s unit cost rose from 2.7 cents in 2022 to 3.7 cents in 2024. The U.S. federal government’s fiscal year ends Sept. 30.

While the president ultimately has the authority to decide which coins the Treasury mints, one stumbling block could be how merchants manage change, according to TD Cowen analyst Jaret Seiberg.

Merchants could face the choice of having to round to the nearest five-cent increment or find creative ways to get hold of a dwindling supply of available pennies, Seiberg said.

In the event of the Treasury removing the penny from circulation, Congress would likely move quickly to legislate to enable merchants to round transactions to the nearest nickel.

Demand for coins has been on the decline for some time. It is estimated the U.S. throws away up to $68 million worth of coins a year.

The trend against smaller denominations has also accelerated in other Western economies. Canada announced it would stop producing pennies in 2012, while Australia and New Zealand ditched the coins in the 1990s. In those countries, they have rounded to the nearest five- and 10-cent coins for cash transactions.

Trump’s move comes as the White House’s Department of Government Efficiency, spearheaded by Elon Musk, says it has identified and cut more than $1 billion in spending.

DOGE has been scrutinizing multiple federal programs to identify cost savings.

In a post on Musk’s X social-media platform in January, DOGE said the penny “cost U.S. taxpayers over $179 million in FY2023.”

Beloit Trojans blind Phillipsburg Panthers

In bright orange unis, team led by Johnson’s 24 points

BY BRIAN DEBEY

The Beloit Trojans defeated the Phillipsburg Panthers, 68-37, Thursday, February 6, in their bright orange uniforms.

With the win, Beloit improved to 11-4. On Tuesday, February 11, the Trojans are scheduled to host the Southeast of Saline Trojans in a key NCAA contest. Southeast is 8-8 overall and 5-3 in the league -- 1 1/2 games behind Beloit.

On Thursday, junior Brody Litton made a shot to give Beloit an early 2-0 lead. Senior Jackson Cheney followed with a three-pointer to push it to 5-0.

Colin Springer answered with a basket before Luke Cheney’s three continued the visitors’ impressive start.

Senior Eli Johnson started another solid performance with the next bucket, followed by a putback. Litton added a basket to finish the 14-2 game-opening run, which prompted a timeout.

After two Phillipsburg free throws, Johnson’s basket continued the Trojans’ offensive explosion. Beloit led, 24-4, after Jackson Cheney’s three-point play.

The hosts, who were without two of their top players, responded with the next seven points. Junior Charlie Burke’s trey closed the first quarter. Beloit led, 27-11, going to the second.

The Trojans’ dominance continued the rest of the half. A slow start in the second ended with two Johnson baskets, including a dunk following a sweet pass from Jackson Cheney.

“Eli did a nice job timing it,” said Beloit Head Coach Ryan Eilert.

The Trojans led, 33-11. Following a Panther basket, Johnson’s trey pushed the edge to 36-13. As Beloit outscored Phillipsburg 12-4 the rest of the half.

The visitors led, 48-17, at the break. With the large lead, Beloit rested most of its starters throughout the last two quarters.

Numerous players contributed as the Trojans outscored the Panthers 16-6 to increase the lead to 64-23. Phillipsburg responded with a 10-2 spurt against Beloit’s reserves. The Trojans led, 66-33, headed to the fourth quarter.

With a running clock, both offenses added few points in the final minutes as the Panthers completed the 14-4 spurt to finish the contest.

Senior Grant Larson’s basket completed Beloit’s offensive production in its second rout of the week.

Johnson led Beloit with 24 points, while Elijah Springer led Phillipsburg with 17 points.

Coach Eilert was pleased with his team’s anticipation, passing and unselfishness in the win.

“I thought our intensity was good,” he said. “I thought they did a great job of executing.”

In Beloit’s rematch with Southeast, Eilert was hoping his team would build on its momentum from the week’s road wins in Belleville and Phillipsburg.

“It’s going to be huge for us,” he said.

The Beloit Trojan boys wear their blast from the past, bright orange uniforms, to play the Phillipsburg Panthers on Feb. 6, 2025, for the 68-37 win.

Eli Johnson led Beloit in scoring with 24 points followed by Jackson Cheney with 15. Kale Len-	ers scored 8; Luke Cheney 7; Brody Litton 4; Charlie Burke 3; Grant Larsen,	Joel Rexroat and Ryker Clark 2 each; Hudson Remus 1.

Beloit ladies fall to Phillipsburg Panthers

BY BRIAN DEBEY

The Beloit Lady Trojans lost to the Phillipsburg Lady Panthers, 54-43, Thursday, February 6, after allowing 17 points in the third quarter.

With the loss, Beloit fell to 8-7. On Tuesday, February 11, the Lady Trojans were scheduled to host the Southeast of Saline Lady Trojans, who were 12-4 overall and 7-1 in the NCAA.

On Thursday, Brynn Billings made a shot to give Phillipsburg an early 2-0 lead. Senior Olivia Wright’s putback evened the score. In the middle of the first quarter, Kayla Jacobs made a three-pointer to give the hosts an 8-4 edge.

Beloit responded with the next four points to tie it late in the first. After the teams alternated scores, Jacobs closed the quarter with a bucket. Phillipsburg led, 12-10, going to the second quarter.

Senior Olivia Wright’s

basket early in the second evened the score. Phillipsburg’s 9-2 spurt put it ahead, 21-14. Cheney and freshman Landry Litton each made a bucket as the teams split the next eight points.

Wright hit a trey to close the first half. Phillipsburg led, 25-21, at intermission.

Beloit, which was missing senior Addison Budke, who was sick, and junior Autumn Lorenz, who was injured, allowed 17 points in the third while scoring just 10.

The hosts led, 42-31, headed to the final frame. After a free throw extended the lead, senior Cassandra Thompson’s basket narrowed it to 43-33.

After the hosts pushed the lead to 11 later in the fourth, two Litton baskets cut the edge to 48-41.

“We methodically got back in the game,” said Beloit Head Coach Keith Kresin.

However, Beloit was unable to continue the comeback, as Phillipsburg scored six of the final eight points to win by 11.

Cassandra Thompson led the Lady Trojans’ three double digit scorers with 14 points, while Wright and Cheney added 13 and 10, respectively.

Jacobs and Billings led Phillipsburg with 18 and 16 points, respectively.

“We had fight at the end,” said Coach Kresin. “I’m so proud of these young ladies.”

He said his team will be a team to be reckoned with in the postseason, which starts the end of February.

“The teams beating us are talented teams,” Kresin said. “These tough teams are making us better.”

Cassandra Thompson led Beloit in scoring with 14 points followed by Olivia Wright with 13 and Regan Cheney 10. Landry Litton scored 6 points.

Beloit ladies defeat Republic County Buffaloes

Thompson sisters combine for 29 points in win

BY BRIAN DEBEY

The Beloit Lady Trojans defeated the Republic County Lady Buffaloes, 49-35, Tuesday, February 4, to end their three-game losing streak.

With the win, Beloit improved to 8-6 overall and 5-3 in the NCAA. The Lady Trojans were scheduled to travel to Phillipsburg Thursday, February 6. The Lady Panthers were 12-3 headed into their game against Hill City on Tuesday.

On Tuesday, senior Cassandra Thompson made a shot two minutes in to give Beloit a 2-0 lead. Frankie Snapp answered with a basket to tie the score.

Senior Addison Budke followed with a bucket before sophomore Samantha Thompson’s basket and free throw.

Junior McKenna Channell’s bucket completed the 7-0 spurt, which gave the Lady Trojans a 9-2 edge. The hosts answered with the next three baskets, including two three-pointers, to even the score at 9.

Senior Olivia Wright responded with a trey to put Beloit ahead, 12-9, going to the second quarter.

Nearly two minutes into the second, Thompson made a free throw. She later made two more baskets to complete the 8-0 spurt in the middle of the quarter.

After a Republic County basket, sophomore Samantha Thompson made two buckets, including a trey. Beloit led, 22-11, after the 13-2 stretch.

Following another Lady Buffalo basket, Budke made a free throw. Samantha Thompson closed the half with a three. The visitors led, 26-13, at intermission.

After Beloit’s domination in the second quarter, Republic County matched the Lady Trojans in the last two frames. Beloit outscored the hosts, 23-22, after the break.

After play resumed, both teams’ offense was fueled by strong shooting from beyond the arc.

Tallyn Melton opened the third quarter with two threes, prompting a Beloit timeout. Samantha Thompson answered with a trey to push the lead to 29-19.

Budke followed with a bucket before Snapp responded with a three. The Lady Trojans led, 31-22. Beloit outscored Republic County 7-3 the rest of the frame.

Sophomore Reagan Cheney closed it with a bucket. The visitors led, 38-25, headed to the fourth.

Cassandra Thompson opened it with two baskets to complete the 11-3 run that increased the edge to 42-25 -- Beloit’s largest of the game.

The hosts used two treys in their 6-2 spurt before Cassandra Thompson’s bucket pushed the edge to 15. After the Lady Buffaloes added two baskets, three Beloit free throws closed the contest.

Cassandra Thompson led the Lady Trojans with 18 points, while her sister Samantha added 11.

Budke had 9, Channell 5, Cheney 4 and Wright 3. Stindt led Republic County with just 8 points -- about half of her average.

Beloit Head Coach Keith Kresin said he was pleased his team defeated Republic County, which used a tough zone defense as it matched Beloit throughout the game except the second quarter.

“We got a nice win against a team that was really scrappy the entire game,” he said. “My hat’s off to them.”

The coach was pleased with Samantha Thomp-

Beloit Trojans dominate Republic County Buffaloes Johnson leads Beloit with 33 points, 11 rebounds

BY BRIAN DEBEY

The Beloit Trojans defeated the Republic County Buffaloes, 62-32, Tuesday, February 4, behind a dominant performance by senior Eli Johnson.

With the win, Beloit improved to 10-4 overall and 7-1 in the NCAA to keep pace with Sacred Heart atop the league. On Thursday, February 6, the Trojans were to travel to Phillipsburg. The Panthers were 6-10 before their game against Hill City on Tuesday.

On Tuesday, Aden Morris made a shot to give the hosts an early 2-0 lead on senior night. Johnson answered with a basket to even the score.

Morris and Johnson each added another bucket, leaving both teams with 4 points.

Numerous possessions later, Johnson hit a three-pointer to ignite the visitors' offense. Junior Charlie Burke added a deep trey, and sophomore Hudson Remus followed with another three.

Burke closed the opening frame with another deep trey to give Beloit a 16-4 edge going to the second quarter. Johnson opened it with a basket to complete the 14-0 run.

Following a Buffalo free throw, Johnson made two free throws. Following a Martin basket, juniors Luke Cheney and Brody Litton each added a bucket to complete the 20-1 stretch.

Beloit led, 24-5. The Trojans scored five of the next nine points to push the edge to 29-9. The hosts answered with the last six points of the half to cut the lead to 29-15 at halftime.

Republic County resumed its competitiveness in the third quarter, limiting Beloit to 11 points while scoring eight. The Trojans led, 40-23, headed to the fourth.

Beloit's offense awakened again in the final frame. Johnson's three point play pushed the edge back to 20. Beloit added the next six points before a Buffalo three.

The Trojans outscored the hosts, 8-1, to extend the lead to 57-27, prompting a running clock. After Johnson and Rexroat went to the bench to watch the contest's conclusion, reserves with little varsity experience participated in the last three minutes.

Republic County scored five of the next seven points. Senior Grant Larson made a trey to complete the offensive production, delighting Beloit fans and his teammates watching from the sideline.

Johnson led Beloit with 31 points, while Martin led the Buffaloes with 19.

Beloit Head Coach Ryan Eilert praised the performance of Johnson, who dominated with a season-high point total, plus 11 rebounds.

"That's a good night," the coach said.

Eilert said that the Buffaloes, whose head coach, Alan Sheets, is in his second stint with the team, are more competitive than they've been for quite a while.

"They played hard," Eilert said. "They did some things offensively that bothered us."

The coach said that building momentum as the postseason approaches is crucial for his team.

"This is an important step in that process," he said.

Eli Johnson led Beloit on the boards scoring 33 points. Charlie Burke scored 6 points; Brody Litton 4; Joel Rexroat 4; Grant Larsen and Hudson Remus 3 each; Luke Cheney 3; Kale Leners, Colton Adolph, and Ryker Clark 2 each.

MCHHS raises awareness for “Go Red Day”

BELOIT – Mitchell County Hospital Health Systems (MCHHS) proudly participated in the nationwide Go Red for Women movement on Feb. 7, to raise awareness about heart disease in women. Employees wore red attire to demonstrate their support and disseminate the message about heart health and prevention.

Go Red for Women, an initiative by the American Heart Association (AHA), strives to educate communities about cardiovascular disease, the leading cause of death among women in the United States. MCHHS is committed to promoting wellness and encouraging women to take proactive steps in managing their heart health.

“As a healthcare organization, MCHHS sees firsthand the impact heart disease can have on our community,” said Stephanie Simmons, chief operating officer of MCHHS. “Participating in Go Red for Women allows us to educate and empower women to prioritize their heart health through awareness, prevention, and early detection.”

To commemorate the occasion, MCHHS staff assembled for a group photograph in their red attire, symbolizing their shared commitment to heart health awareness. Mitchell County Hospital Health Systems continues to support initiatives that foster a healthier community and is dedicated to providing quality care to all.

USD 273 Beloit and Beloit Educational Foundation announce $1 Million Matching Gift for Trojan Stadium Improvement Campaign

BELOIT – USD 273 Beloit and The USD 273 Beloit Educational Foundation are thrilled to share an exciting update on the Trojan Stadium Improvement Campaign as the Foundation has been given an incredible opportunity—a $1 million matching donation to support the project.

Harry and Rose Matous have generously pledged to donate up to $1 million dollars, challenging our Trojan Family to match their contribution. Recognizing the vital need for stadium improvements, Harry and Rose’s generosity has brought the vision of a new track and stadium upgrades by the 2026 school year within reach.

To date, the campaign has already raised $514,000, leaving just $486,000 needed to unlock the full potential of this remarkable match. With this incredible momentum, the Matous family’s generosity also opens the door for additional much-needed projects, such as updated tennis courts, further track enhancements, and other facility improvements as determined by the board.

The response from our community has been nothing short of amazing—over $500,000 has been raised in just eight days from generous businesses, alumni classes, and the Trojan Family. This campaign is already making history, and with this matching opportunity, we have the chance to make it legendary.

We invite the community to stay engaged and help us meet this challenge. Every contribution, large or small, brings us one step closer to transforming Trojan Stadium into a premier facility for our students, athletes, and the entire community.

For more information on how you can contribute to this historic campaign, please contact Beloit USD 273 Board Office at 785-738-3261 or visit www.273foundation.org

“Together, we can rise to the challenge and create a lasting legacy for our Trojan Family.”

Repairs to the track (above left and below) are of top priority and as such make up phase one of the stadium improvement project. While previous updates were made in 2008 and 2019 to maintain its condition, subsurface issues have caused damage that now requires comprehensive repair. Due to the severity of cracking and subsurface issues, USD 273 has prioritized the track repair, committing a $300,000 investment toward the estimated $800,000 project. Join us in bridging the gap to complete this crucial improvement by spring 2026. Harry and Rose Matous (above right) have generously pledged to donate up to $1 million dollars, challenging our Trojan Family to match their contribution.

Trojan Stadium has long been a gathering place for our community, and with the addition of a modern 30x60 metal building, we’re taking a big step toward making it more welcoming and functional for everyone. This new structure will house a concession stand and upgraded public bathrooms, along with a 10’ covered patio area for fans to gather and enjoy refreshments. Relocating the bathrooms and concessions from underneath the stadium will also allow us to reimagine that space into two dedicated locker rooms- one for our home team and one for visitors. These updates will provide athletes with improved facilities while creating a more enjoyable experience for fans and guests during every event at Trojan Stadium.

Sod and Stubble screened on the 2025 Kansas Day at the Kansas State Capitol in Topeka with friends at Grow Kansas Film and Stuart Little, thanks also to their friend Kristen Bush. Pictured and joining them besides Stuart was Isaiah Marcotte, the wonderful Leiker boys, Don and Linda Miller, Kent Spurgeon and Delno Ebie. Kent Spurgeon was kept busy during the week of celebrating Kansas, through speaking at the Wichita Pachyderm Club and at the Mitchell County Historical Society in Beloit. He recently, earned the Best Western Film at the Chandler International Film Festival, in Arizona, for the “Sod & Stubble” film.

“How to Get More Peace”

BY TONJA TAYLOR
1/30/2025 / CHRISTIAN LIVING
How can you have more peace?
The answer is always in the Word of God. First, choosing to trust God--Who gives us every breath, and the faculties to do any good thing--is the foundation. He loves us with an everlasting Love, and chose us before He created the world, to be His family, so He could pour out His love on us!
According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: - Eph. 1:4, KJV
Hallelujah!
Daily, searching the Scriptures and meditating (thinking about and speaking over and over) the verses the LORD shows you about peace will help wash your mind of the mud of wrong thinking, and help settle your soul (mind/will/emotions), for the Word of God is alive!

For the word of God is living and active and full of power [making it operative, energizing, and effective]. It is sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating as far as the division of the soul and spirit [the completeness of a person], and of both joints and marrow [the deepest parts of our nature], exposing and judging the very thoughts and intentions of the heart. - Heb. 4:12, AMP
Do a topic search on “peace,” and you’ll find hundreds of Scriptures to learn and apply!

There are many excellent passages in the Bible to give you specific instructions on how to have more peace. Today, I rediscovered that 1 and 2 Peter are excellent places to start, and following the instructions in just the first chapters of both books can keep you busy for years, and truly, the rest of your life, to acquire and keep much more peace!
2 Peter chapter 1 lists several qualities and actions that, if we seek to do and have them, to operate in them, will bring you more peace. After that list, there is an assurance of forms of peace, in verses 8 and 10:
For as these qualities are yours and are increasing [in you as you grow toward spiritual maturity], they will keep you from being useless and unproductive in regard to the true knowledge and greater understanding of our Lord Jesus Christ. - 2 Peter 1:8

So, as we purpose to cultivate the qualities listed in the verses before this, we will obviously grow in various ways, to the glory of God--and can actually come to a place where we are never perfect, but life a life of great, continual peace!
Therefore, believers, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you [be sure that your behavior reflects and confirms your relationship with God]; for by doing these things [actively developing these virtues], you will never stumble [in your spiritual growth and will live a life that leads others away from sin]; 2 Peter 1:10

Hallelujah!
Having come to a place in life where--after decades of strife and all kinds of other negative emotions and trials--I now enjoy tremendous peace and joy (read: REST with-in and without!), I can say that, doing these things have definitely worked for me--by the help and grace of the LORD, and the wonderful true loving cooperation of my dear covenant husband.
Also, the spiritual covering one is under; the church one attends and/or is a part of, can greatly affect the peace one experiences.

The most important thing is to continue to seek the LORD in His Word, in worship, in prayer, and church fellowship with other Bible believers, and to be open to continual change, while remembering that, no matter what, God loves you, sees you as precious and blameless through the Blood of Christ that covers you (from the moment you received Him as Savior and LORD, and have allowed Him to start showing you what to change in your life to become more like Him), and is with you always.
He never changes, and is with you forever to help you enjoy peace on earth as much as possible!
JESUS IS LORD!

“The film of, just not regular homesteaders, but Germans that decided to immigrate after the Civil War, into Osborne county, outside of Downs, Kansas, is relatable to us all,” said Spurgeon. “I feel this book, that grabbed my attention, has now been made into an adult version of a love story, is people-to-people oriented, and those can relate about that love and about the love of the land as well. The combination of all these things is heartfelt.”

Henry Ise was born in 1841 in Germany. He joined an Illinois Regiment in the Civil War. Rosena (Rosina) Christine Haag was born in 1855 in Wisconsin to German parents. Her family relocated to Holton, Kansas, in Jackson county.

When Henry Ise moved, in a covered wagon, he was robbed of $300, which was a huge loss back then. He made a claim to the Downs area, and was then introduced to the Haag family. When married and with the loss of his son, Albert H. Ise, at the age of 4, in 1874, from rabies, Henry came to lose 90 percent of his faith, going through such heartache, along with financial failures, grasshopper plagues and water issues. Although he was an optimist, he also lost his way. His beloved wife told him, “We are not going to quit.”

Film director and writer, Ken Spurgeon and Linda Miller of Downs, who provided the site, with husband Don, for the filming of “Sod & Stubble.”

The classic homestead at Downs has been re-created for the filming. Although the original site was not available, Linda and Don Miller of Downs took action when she heard about the possible filming and they offered a site, three years ago. That is when it all began. “The house has been re-created, and it looks amazing,” said Spurgeon.

“People can relate to the scenes of this film,” said Spurgeon. “When Henry is dying and his last wish was to ride around the farm – this still happens today. We can relate with this touching scene.” Henry passed in 1900 and Rosa in 1947.

Another great detail of the film was that all of the aging process is authentically re-created.

John Ise – son to Henry and Rosa Ise – has history of his own, that in being an economics professor at Kansas University. While being able to go through his historical items, a collection of note scraps came in handy, that his mom Rosa wrote for John and this helped create the narrative. A bag of smoking pipes was also found, from what John smoked on each day. John had a bad leg as a child and wore a brace. He was pulled around with a dog sled in his childhood days and as an adult had to have his leg amputated and later wore a prosthetic. He was well known to students at college, that admired him. The filming of “Sod & Stubble” took place from June 24, 2023, to Aug. 4, 2023. It includes some locals as fill-ins and a lot of artifacts were used from the Mitchell County Historical Society, as well as other collectors of antique items, including the 1860 original horse-drawn hearse used for a funeral scene. The carriage, donated by a 96-year-old collector, was wrapped in bubble wrap, and transported to the filming site from a private museum. An antique cookstove was dismantled at the MCHS and used in the movie. It belonged to the late Elma Gran, who lived near Asherville.

Some of the famous actors and their playing parts include: Bailey Chase as Henry Ise; Dodie Brown as Rosie Ise; Mary McDonough as Mary Bartsch, and Darby Hinton as Chris Bartsch.

Descendants of the Ise family, including a granddaughter to Henry and Rosa Ise, were able to attend a sneak peak of the filming premiere and she said it was the greatest day of her life.

Mitchell County Historical Society hosts annual meeting

BY SHARON SAHLFELD
Call Editor

The Mitchell County Historical Society was host to its 62nd annual meeting program on Sunday, Feb. 2, 2025, at the Beloit Elementary School, as Director Kyle Peterson talked about how the early settlers in 1879 kept alive their times with interviews and sharing their stories. They started collecting artifacts and data in 1902.

“Today, we are forced to evolve with the times to stay alive,” said Peterson.

In the early 1902-1961, with WWI and WWII, it affected on how museums had to really evolve to sustain themselves. Newspaper editor, Allan Holton, published his works in booklet form, which helped capture events such as the Horse Carriage parade in 1961, and more, to help them celebrate the Kansas Centennial.

The Mitchell County museum, which started with 9,000 square feet in the building off Eighth street by the hospital, thrived through the Willow Springs Arts Council, but after 12 years, has since purchased the old American Legion building and is still in the process of being moved to the Independence address. It has sustained the Gabel Farm off Highway 14, and are receiving support from all over, with people having connections through Mitchell County. The Carl Broadbent Memorial is thankful to the community and to all with the help of moving items to the new location, with 85 percent of it completed. And a huge appreciation went to Margaret Moore and Kathryn Roberts for their monumental job of helping with photographing all the items to keep on file. To date, they have taken 111 trailer loads to be relocated. Only one 1856 piano remains to be moved, so if anyone is interested in helping, please contact the museum. Any donations are welcome as well. Charlie Mears and George Chapman were also recognized in helping with the process through maintenance and otherwise.

Memorial Day “Talking Tomb Stones” event is in the works. The museum will be presenting a rotating process on items with the 1940’s era planned for the

Spurgeon shares process of love story being made into a film

Ken Spurgeon, film director and writer, was the guest speaker at the Mitchell County Historical Society (MCHS) 62nd annual meeting on Feb. 2, 2025, held at the Beloit Elementary School. He is best known for “Home on the Range” and “The Road to Valhalla,” both recipients of the Wrangler Award for Best Documentary from the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and recently, the Best Western Film at the Chandler International Film Festival, in Arizona.

reopening. A 1948 super-rare television that was the first television sent into the Kansas network will be on display.

“With all of the evolving and the changing society today, people are becoming more interested in the research area,” Peterson said. “We have at least two a week, asking for information, and we have amazing connections involved the last year with Yale University, with homesteaders being looked into that were a part of the Mitchell County area. Even actor, Lily Tomlin, has contacted us for information on her family that settled in the area.”
