Class of 2023 graduates!

The Patchogue-Medford graduation was originally scheduled for Thursday, June 22, and the forecasted rain forced administration to plan to move the graduation indoors. However, after hearing the pleas of the graduating class and their families, administration allowed the graduating class to vote for an outdoor graduation ceremony on Wednesday, in lieu of a smaller ceremony indoors on Thursday. The setting of the vast football field allowed many more supporters of the Class of 2023 to attend the commencement.

As the graduating seniors of Bellport High School marched into the school gymnasium on the night of Friday, June 23, many wore caps decorated with a personal touch. Mother Nature threw the Class of 2023 one last curveball as the threat of rain forced the ceremony to be moved indoors. But that didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the students and their families, who snapped cell phone photos and cheered for the graduates.

The skies cleared just in time to celebrate the approximately 750 student members of the Class of 2023 at William Floyd High School's 64th commencement ceremony on Saturday, June 24! Family and friends gathered to celebrate the K-12 milestone achievement of their loved ones as they walked across the stage to receive their diplomas.

Patchogue-Medford graduates Class of 2023

BY GRACE MERCURIO

On Wednesday, June 21, the Patchogue-Medford Class of 2023 celebrated the commencement of their high school years at their graduation ceremony, held on the football field of the high school. Graduates were honored for their accomplishments as they reflected on the challenges they were able to overcome over the past four years and the memories they made that will last a lifetime.

Friends and family purchased concessions, flowers, and stuffed animals from the gift stand as they awaited the start of the commencement. All attention promptly shifted toward the football field at 7 p.m. as the graduates processed into the ceremony. Anticipation and excitement were palpable as smiling students spotted their friends and family in the crowd while walking toward their seats.

These moments of recognition were especially special, considering inclement weather almost made the outdoor graduation impossible. The Patchogue-Medford graduation was originally scheduled for Thursday, June 22, and the forecasted rain forced administration to plan to move the graduation indoors. However, after hearing the pleas of the graduating class and their families, administration allowed the graduating class to vote for an outdoor graduation ceremony on Wednesday, in lieu of a smaller ceremony indoors on Thursday. The setting of the vast football field allowed many more supporters of the Class of 2023 to attend the commencement.

The AFJROTC Color Guard and Maj. John Francolini kicked off the commencement with the presentation of colors, followed by the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" by select members of the high school choral ensemble, directed by Brian Reich.

Senior class president Elliott Richards set the tone for the evening in his welcoming address, as he reflected on the graduates' growth over the past four years.

"Since our arrival in 2019, the members of this graduating class have all realized their potential, thereby beginning to embrace their role in changing the world through word and deed," stated Richards.

Next, valedictorian Ohm Patel, who will be continuing his education at Brown University, disclosed the traits that all the graduates share: strength, perseverance, and grit. Patel called upon his fellow graduates to continue being resilient.

"As we bid farewell to the halls that have shaped me, and the halls that have shaped you, let us approach every challenge as an opportunity for growth, every setback as a chance to learn, and every dream as a call to action," stated Patel.

Principal Randy Rusielewicz's remarks continued Patel's sentiments, as he emphasized that the trials and tribulation the graduates overcame throughout their high school experience has prepared them for the next phase of their lives.

"Class of 2023, you have worked hard, been respectful, and continued to exceed all expectations," said Rusielewicz. "As you graduate tonight and walk across the stage from childhood into adulthood, know that your best is yet to come, and everything is in front of you."

Salutatorian Luca Capuano, who will be continuing his education at Stony Brook University, paid a special tribute to Michael J. Locantore and Nancy Newton—honorary members of the Class of 1973. After graduating 50 years ago, Locantore and Newton embarked onto successful career paths that were much different than they had planned for themselves in high school. In detailing their careers, Capuano reminded his fellow graduates that while the future is unknown, they are free to forge their own paths.

Next, treasurer of the Class of 2023, Paige Driscoll, presented a class gift to the senior class advisors, Joseph Eterno and Colleen Turner. Driscoll, who worked closely with the class advisors

Baking with love for a good cause

Greek Fest next weekend

BY NICOLE FUENTES

The over 25 ladies of the church's women's organization, called Philoptochos, will spend hours upon hours across four to five days preparing homemade desserts for sale at the annual St. John's Greek Festival in Blue Point.

Olympia Gouvis, the current president of the organization, helps run the kitchen with advising baker and past president Toula Dimos, who leads about 25 to 30 women in baking large quantities of about a half-dozen family recipes. The desserts include galaktoboureko, a custard-filled dessert and a crowd favorite, as well as the ever-popular baklava. Their famous loukoumades, a hot, fresh, fried-dough pastry topped with honey syrup, will be prepared on-site and made to order.

President of the women's organization Olympia Gouvis and former president/lead baker Toula Dimos stand with the Philoptochos as they start the baking process.

"I love the baklava sundae," said Gouvis, adding that anything with ice cream is always better.

The process started last week on Wednesday, June 21 and Friday, June 23, and continued on Wednesday, June 28 and this Friday, June 30. They start early in the morning and often don't finish until midnight. "We also will take part in a few smaller days to finish up," explained Gouvis.

The women donated all the ingredients, and the rest of the costs were covered by the treasurer, including pounds of flour, lots of honey, syrup, and plenty of walnuts. The sales from desserts alone raise up to $20K for the church. All the proceeds, including the money raised from the desserts, support the "Restoring for the Future" campaign to repair the church.

"It's the camaraderie and the friendship; they all get along and they enjoy each other, and they enjoy working to help the church," said Fr. Dean Panagos.

The event will take place from July 7 through July 9 on the front lawn of the church with food, pastries, and Greek traditions. The event has been a mainstay annual event in Blue Point for the past 40 years.

For the main course, there will be gyros, spanakopita, moussaka, pastitsio, Greek salad, oven-roasted lamb and more. There will also be iced Greek frappe coffee, beer and wine, including varieties imported from Greece.

The event takes place with free admission on the grounds of St. John's Greek Orthodox Church, 77 Montauk Highway, Blue Point. For more information call 631-363-6450 or email bluepointgreekfest@gmail.com. ■

THE EVENT SCHEDULE:

Friday, July 7 from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m.
 Saturday July 8 from noon to 10 p.m.
 Sunday July 9 from noon to 8 p.m.

Duck decoys on display at the annual antique show

Stop by Bellport Lane this Fourth of July!

BY NICOLE FUENTES

On Tuesday, July 4, The Long Island Decoy Collectors Association will showcase the 100th anniversary of the first Decoy Show and Exhibition at the annual Bellport Brookhaven Historical Society's Antiques Show and Sale at the Post-Crowell House on Bellport Lane.

"The museum has a beautiful display here; it goes back to the turn of the century, even before then," said Dick Richardson of LIDCA.

"It's not just about hunting; it's about art—it shows the carver's love of nature and the bay life of the area. It's an appreciation about everything they did," said Bellport Brookhaven Historical Society president Joan Kaelin of the carvers, noting the carved decoys are highly collectable.

"And they are very special to this area," added Paul Bigelow's granddaughter, Denise Valenti, of the decoys. "Bellport wouldn't be what it is today without the families in the beginning of the century who laid the foundation to form what we enjoy in Bellport in 2023."

The Decoy Show was originally held in 1923 in Bellport at the Bellport Library, which is now Village Hall. Fast-forward to 2023, where there will be about eight LIDCA member vendors buying and selling decoys as well as offering appraisals and displays.

The first show, 100 years ago, was organized by the members of the Howell's Point Anti-Duskers Society, a group who fought against hunting ducks at dusk in an attempt to help preserve the black duck. The group was formed by Paul "The Commodore" Bigelow and his son, Paul "Perry" Bigelow, Theodore T. Everitt, John H. B. Boyle and several others. Most of the original members were neighbors and avid duck hunters, who lived near Howell's Point in Bellport in the early 1920s. After talking to so many hunters, they were encouraged to bring together everyone for a show to display different carvers and decoys. During the show, there were over 200 decoys from 14 states, brought together for the first time.

During the show, held in August

1923, Shang Wheeler's mallard duck pair won the amateur first place, and changed the direction of decoy making with their almost lifelike carving and painting. The following year, the show moved to New York City.

THE ANTIQUES SHOW

The Antiques Show runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in conjunction with the July 4th celebration of the 65th Artist's on the Lane on Bellport Lane. To see the decoy display, visit the Bellport Barn Museum on the second floor while you are there.

FALL EVENT

Also, mark your calendars. LIDCA president Tim Sieger and past president Dick Richardson will be giving a talk about Long Island and Bellport decoys and how their history is an integral part of Bellport's history on Oct. 21.

ABOUT THE ORIGINAL SHOW

The 1923 show had about 200 entries representing 50 participants from 14 states. John Boyle and Paul Bigelow, who was a college student at the time, visited Joe Barber of Babylon, Wilbur Corwin of Bellport, and others to collect old decoys for the exhibit. The committee decided to have a carver's competition with two classes, professional and amateur. The top professional prize was $25; George Macintosh, of Bellport, won for his pair of cork black ducks. The top amateur prize was a silver cup won by Charles Shang Wheeler, of Connecticut, for his pair of mallards. The judges were Gil Smith of Patchogue, Paul Curtis of New York City, and Roland Clark of Peconic. Criteria for judging included shape, coloration, workmanship, paint finish, and details.

ABOUT THE ANTI-DUSKERS

Shooting after dusk at ducks silhouetted against the darkening sky was a common practice at the time and particularly destructive for black ducks due to their feeding habits, according to the club. The society was formed to arouse public outcry to ban the practice and save the nearly extinct black ducks, which are still around today. ■

Mixed-income apartments proposed

BY GARY HABER

A Jericho-based developer is proposing to build 55 apartments of mixed-income, workforce housing on Montauk Highway in East Patchogue and is seeking a tax break from the Town of Brookhaven Industrial Development Agency.

GGV Grove LLC plans to acquire a 2.78-acre site at 400 E. Main Street and build three two-story buildings totaling 64,270-square-feet, according to documents submitted to the Brookhaven IDA.

The $34 million project will include a small park and a coffee shop. Nice Place Coffee in Speonk has signed a letter of intent to lease space at The Grove in East Patchogue, said David Gallo, CEO of GGV Grove's parent company, Georgica Green Ventures.

"Workforce housing is needed throughout Long Island," Gallo said.

In East Patchogue, more than half of renters (54.9 percent) pay more than 30 percent of their income for rent, according to a 2020 report by the Regional Plan Association.

The median household income among renters in East Patchogue was $44,667 in 2020, well below the $61,920 in income needed to afford a market-rate one-bedroom apartment or the $76,280 required for a two-bedroom apartment, the report said.

At The Grove, all but one of the apartments, which would be reserved for an on-site building manager, would be income restricted, according to the company's application.

Seventeen of the 55 units would be supportive housing for survivors of domestic abuse and their families.

Georgica Green Ventures has developed multifamily workforce housing across Long Island including in Middle Island, Riverhead, Speonk and Southampton.

Gallo said tenants at the other properties that Georgica Green has developed are working people, such as hospital workers, restaurant employees and government workers—"the jobs that make our communities work," he said.

GCV Grove is seeking a reduction in real estate taxes that could total between $14 million and $14.8 million over 30 years. The developer has proposed a payment in lieu of taxes (PILOT) of between $1.3 million to $2.2 million rather than $16.2 million, according to an analysis prepared by Camoin Associates.

Georgica Green's other developments have PILOTs in place, Gallo said.

The development would result in hiring nine people and spur more than $54 million in economic impact, including construction spending, over the life of the PILOT, according to an analysis prepared by MRB Group.

GGV Grove said in its application it hopes to acquire the land and begin work in July and complete the project by January 2025. ■

Making history at the national championship

Local high school grads
join women's Pace
lacrosse team

BY JORDAN STANKOVICH

Pace University women's lacrosse made history this spring, winning the national championship for the first time in school history. On Sunday, May 21, the Pace Setters beat the West Chester Golden Rams, 19-9, to win the NCAA Division II Lacrosse Championship.

With a roster consisting of 31 players, 17 women on the team are from Long Island. Freshman midfielder Mackenzie Carita's hometown is Medford and she attended Pat-Med High School, senior Attacker Jolie Urraro graduated from Connetquot, midfielder and graduate student Emma Rafferty went to Islip High, freshman Defender Natasha Franchina and sophomore Attacker Nikki Mottes both were born and raised in West Islip, and junior goaltender Ashley Belfiore's hometown is Manorville and she graduated from Eastport-South Manor.

Those six local Pace Setters lacrosse players made big contributions to the championship season. Mackenzie Carita played in 22 games starting in 20, scored one goal and made two assists with three shots on goal and .750 shots on goal percentage. Carita totaled 30 ground balls, was credited with 10 turnovers on defense, 17 defensive caused turnovers, and was ascribed with five draw controls. Playing and starting in all 23 games, Jolie Urraro placed fifth on the club with 51 goals scored, second with 24 assists, was fifth in two other team categories totaling 75 points and 68 shots on goal, had .773 shots on goal percentage, and Urraro also scored one game-winning goal.

Emma Rafferty was the team leader in goals totaling 83. Rafferty finished on her squad in a three-way tie for third place in assists with 19, tied with teammates Kayla Conway from Wantagh and Angelina Porcello from Eastchester. Rafferty scored 102 points in 2023, which was the second most, had the most shots on goal with 133 and her shots on goal percentage was .811. Rafferty scored seven game-winning goals in which she placed first on Pace lacrosse. She also had 22 groundballs, 43 turnovers on defense, 10 caused turnovers, and 4 draw controls. Natasha Franchina played in nine games and had one groundball, one turnover on defense, two caused turnovers, and two draw controls.

Nikki Mottes played in 20 games, scored 19 goals, made five assists, tallied 24 points, took 30 shots on goal, with .732 shots on goal percentage, and one game winner. Samantha Tanguay from Baldwinsville, N.Y., is the starting goalie, but goalkeeper Ashley Belfiore from Manorville made a lot of contributions to the 2023 championship between the pipes. Belfiore played in 13 games starting three, played 235:57 minutes on the field this season, ascribed 25 saves, and compiled a .391 save percentage. In the NCAA semifinal vs. Florida Southern College at Key Stadium in Indianapolis on May 19, many of the Long Islanders paved the way to victory.

Urraro came up clutch in the big spot when it mattered most with one assist and scored five goals, which was her highest goal total in a game this season. Rafferty notched three goals and two assists, and Nikki Mottes scored one and picked up two assists as the South Shore offensive juggernaut combined for 14 points in the 22-11 semifinals victory and Pace earned a berth in the national championship game.

Also in the semifinals, Belfiore spent 9 minutes and 41 seconds tending the goalkeeping duties and made a save. Two days later was the Division II

National Championship vs. the West Chester Golden Rams in Indianapolis. Belfiore protected the net for one minute and 57 seconds of game time during the NCAA championship and made a save. Carita had two groundballs and one defensive turnover. The goal-scoring trio continued to show their dominance under the pressure in the spotlight in a winner-take-all game. Mottes scored a goal, Rafferty scored twice, and Urraro scored three times and had one assist as they combined for 7 points in a 19-9 historic win vs. West Chester to win the Division II National Title!

"It's the most incredible feeling, especially for the university itself, given this is the first national championship title that any team at Pace has ever won. I'm incredibly proud of my teammates, my coaches, everyone at the university for supporting us to go home with the championship. It's hard to put into words," Kayla Conway said, 2023 female Scholar Athlete of the Year award winner. "It was the most exhilarating feeling of my entire life—once that clock hit zero, we knew that we just won and knowing that all of our hard work that we put in all season finally paid off and that all the goals that we set for ourselves going into this season did come true. A lot of us started playing in, say, third or fourth grade, and this is something that you always dream of when you're a kid because this is the end goal, so getting to end off on this note, it's the best ending that I could possibly have ever dreamed of." ■

Iconic lifelong Patchogean dies at 93

Abie Siegel, owner of Blum's, was loved by his community

BY NICOLE FUENTES

Abie Siegel was loved by his community; that sentiment is not only made true by the over 40 people who attended his midday graveside ceremony last week, but also by the countless lives he touched with his advice and sometimes, strong opinions.

Siegel was born in Patchogue on May 23, 1930, to his parents, Jacob and Leah (also known as Lilly) Siegel. His parents were born in what was Russia at the time and met on the ship coming to America. Together they had five children; Abie was the youngest, of which he was the last surviving. Abie passed away at his home in Patchogue at the age of 93.

The Siegel family originally owned Siegel's Bakery in Patchogue for 38 years. Abie would bake bread after school as young as the third grade.

At the age of 16, he met the love of his life, Bernice Blum, while she watched him play basketball in the court at Temple Beth El in Patchogue. Her family opened Blum's in 1927. According to Abie, he liked her for her car and for being well endowed. Bernice, who grew fond of Abie, taught him how to drive.

Abie graduated from Patchogue High School, which was then housed on Ocean Avenue, in 1949, and went on to NYU in New York City for two years before starting to work for the Blums at the store. He started working there in 1952, and eventually took over around 1982 when the founders retired. He and his wife worked together for 45 years—Abie ran the store and Bernice ran the lingerie department.

Abie and Bernice were married on Sept. 10, 1950, outdoors at Blum's home. That day, it was pouring rain. A sure sign of good luck. Together they went on to have a great life with lots of travel, including spending a month every year for 25 years in Maui, Hawaii, and fishing and boating around the world. They lived together in a condo in Patchogue and wintered in Florida. Bernice continues to live in the condo surrounded by loving friends and family.

They had three children, Michelle,

Marc, and Lynn. The couple also took on Cherie Alleyne, the current partner of Blum's, as their own daughter about 23 years ago. Their son Marc and Cherie continue the success of the Patchogue storefront today, which also recently celebrated 95 years in business in 2022.

Abie was also very embedded in the community as one of the founders of the Patchogue Village Business Improvement District, member of the Greater Patchogue Chamber of Commerce, and the Patchogue Lions Club. "Everyone loved him and at the cemetery. Everyone had a story to tell about him, how they met or how they would come to him for advice," said his son Marc Siegel, current owner of Blum's. "He was always attending the village meeting and now, I do. He was a great person to everybody and was always very good to me." When asked what he would miss most about his father, his answer was simple.

"Just talking to him and telling him what we did for the day," Marc said of discussing business at the shop.

BID executive director Dennis Smith, a longtime friend of Abie's, recalled him always being proud of hiring Smith. "He always said, 'That's the best thing I ever did, was hire you,' and always respected that and felt good about that," said Smith of Abie's demeanor. "He was a man who always had opinions, but was also very fair. He was a nice guy who was always very generous, and when he did things, he didn't look for recognition—he just did them because it helped people out."

Neighboring business owner Lori Belmonte, of the Colony Shop on Main Street, said Abie will be missed.

"The Patchogue retail landscape will miss the wisdom and generosity of Abie Siegel. We at The Colony Shop over the years have sat at many meetings with Abie," she said. "[We were] planning promotions for the merchants and he always stepped up to the plate and said, 'Blum's will take care of the expenses.' Abie was a giant of a man with an even larger sense of humor. We are saddened by his death."

Mayor Paul Pontieri remembered Abie as an iconic figure in the village.

"He was always a supporter of the right things to do in the village," he said. "He was as good as a friend as you can have."

Greater Patchogue Chamber of Commerce executive director David Kennedy remembered him as an influential business leader.

"Besides being the driving force that made Blum's—one of Patchogue's oldest, most known and most loved businesses—Abie was unmatched in his advocacy for the Patchogue Business Community," he said. "Words can't describe how important he has been for us all, but there is no question, he is one of the most important business leaders in Patchogue's history—someone who laid the foundation of what Patchogue has become today."

Abie was a longtime member of the Greater Patchogue Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, being designated chamber board member emeritus for his decades of active chamber involvement. He was also a leader with the Patchogue Merchants Division of the business community through the '50s, '60s and '70s, a time when Patchogue was known as Suffolk's leading retail and shopping downtown.

A graveside service for Abie Siegel was held on Thursday, June 22, at the Patchogue Hebrew Cemetery on Buckley Road in Holtsville, followed by a Shiva at his home. ■

At-home fireworks are illegal

The Suffolk County Police Department urges all residents to not use fireworks this Fourth of July. Instead, celebrate our nation's birthday by attending fireworks displays conducted by professionals.

Fireworks aren't harmless fun; they are illegal and often cause serious injuries or fires. Also, improperly stored fireworks pose a significant danger to life and property.

In 2021, according to U.S. Consumer Product Safety, there were an estimated 1,500 emergency department-treated injuries associated with firecrackers and 1,100 involving sparklers. At least 18 people died from fireworks-related incidents and about 15,600 people were treated in hospital emergency departments for fireworks injuries in 2020.

For those debating the use of at-home fireworks, New York has strict rules concerning the sale, possession and use of fireworks. Violations of any of these can put you at risk to be charged with a felony or a misdemeanor. Under New York Penal Code § 270.00, you will be charged with unlawfully dealing with fireworks and dangerous fireworks if you possess, explode, sell, or furnish fireworks.

If you are aware of someone selling fireworks in your community, the SCPD asks you to let them know. Tips or information can be anonymously submitted in a number of ways, and rewards may be available. But ultimately, doing so makes our communities safer.

For more fireworks safety tips, visit www.cpsc.gov.

HOW TO SUBMIT A TIP:

Call anonymously at 1-800-220-TIPS; Text tips anonymously by texting "SCPD" and your message to "CRIMES" (274637); or email www.tipsubmit.com for anonymous tip submissions. All calls, text messages and emails will be kept confidential. Crimes in progress should be immediately reported by dialing "911" and suspicious activity should be immediately reported by dialing 852-COPS (2677).

Bellport Fire District to hold special election

The Bellport Fire District will be holding a special election on Tuesday, July 18. There will be a public vote for a financing program (installment sales agreement) for the proposed acquisition of two new pumpers for the Bellport Volunteer Fire Department. The election will be held at the firehouse at 161 Main Street in Bellport from 6 to 9 p.m. A legal notice about this vote has already been published. "We know that many people never see legal ads, and so we are taking the extra measure of this advertisement to make sure that our residents are fully informed," said the board of fire commissioners. The fire district will also hold a public information meeting on the proposed acquisition at the firehouse on Tuesday, July 11 at 7 p.m. Information will be presented on the proposed apparatus and the need as well as the impact on the taxpayers.

The Girl Scouts of Suffolk County awarded $25K grant

The Girl Scouts of Suffolk County (GSSC) has been awarded a one-year grant of $25,000 from the Advisory Board of the Long Island Community Foundation (LICF). The grant aims to aid GSSC in increasing girls' success in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) education and careers. These funds will be matched by an anonymous donor who has committed a $100k grant towards raising funds for STEM+ Arts programming to support the myriad of STEM programming and opportunities for girls throughout the council GSSC offers. In addition, GSSC has currently raised over $78,000 of the funds needed for the $100k match.

"Many girls are interested in STEM-related topics but may not feel comfortable participating in related activities in school or extracurricular settings," said GSSC president and CEO Tammy Severino. "Providing girls from across Suffolk County with access to STEM programs in an environment where they feel comfortable and encouraged is incredibly important. We are so grateful for this Long Island Community Foundation grant as it will aid us in this vital mission."

Studies show that 74 percent of teen girls are interested in STEM, with nearly half (47 percent) noting that they would feel uncomfortable being the only girl in a group or class relating to their field of interest. Girl Scouts of Suffolk County provides Girl Scouts of all ages with STEM and Arts-related badges and programs to participate in throughout the year. The grant funding will support and expand various STEM-focused areas offered throughout GSSC's yearly programming and help re-imagine the Discovery World

STEM Center at Camp Sobaco in Yaphank to include a new space dedicated to arts & media.

The Discovery+ STEM Center is a 4,500-square-foot facility offering STEM services to Girl Scouts, local school district youth agencies, and underserved populations throughout Suffolk County. The facility offers hands-on science and technology education opportunities for students and Girl Scouts to participate in. Amenities include various utilities such as a microscope exploration station, engineering apparatus, tactile puzzles and problem-solving games, a computer lab, and more.

Virginia Brown Scholarship winners

Bellport High School graduates and Virginia Brown Scholarship winners Harry Yablon and Brandon Maler were awarded their scholarships by former recipient Chiara Scharpf at the Brookhaven Village Association's annual meeting Wednesday, June 21 and at Bellport High School's Awards Night in early June.

Each winner exhibited the essence of Virginia Brown in their thoughtful essays and love of the hamlet. Upon reading the essay requirements in the scholarship application, Harry turned to his parents and said, "This is me!"

Like his parents, who are both teachers, Harry is off to Springfield College to study education. Brandon is attending Binghamton University to focus on mathematics and education.

The Brookhaven Village Association is proud of their winners past, present, and future for continuing their educations and sharing their love of this place we call home. The BVA Board and the Hamlet Foundation are pleased to award our hamlet children and assist in their education, thanks only to the generous donations from our residents.

What is the Project?

The biggest and most environmentally friendly project to come to Long Island in the past 50 years. The Winters Rail Terminal will be located in Yaphank and will provide critical and necessary infrastructure to serve Long Island for the next 50 years.

Why is this Project Needed?

The Brookhaven Landfill is closing in 2024 which means approximately 1.2 million tons of waste will need to go somewhere. A rail transfer station will allow the waste to be processed and transported to distant landfills for proper disposal. Rail will remove more than 60,000 trucks off the Long Island Expressway annually. A smart rail solution is the answer and will provide a safe and sustainable solution to manage waste generated on Long Island.

What is Included?

Long Island Center for Sustainability - A rail served transfer station and recycling facilities for appliances, electronic waste, construction and demolition waste and municipal solid waste.	65 acres of green space 2,400,000 sq. ft. of Industrial warehouse space 24,000 linear feet of railroad track

Benefits

Jobs - This will bring 1,800 construction jobs and between 1,400 and 1,800 permanent jobs to the community. Clean air - The railroad infrastructure is important to the future of Long Island. With trains being more fuel efficient than trucks, railroads are the most environmentally sound way to move freight over land.	Less truck traffic - Railroads reduce highway truck traffic on the Long Island Expressway and reduce greenhouse gases to fight against climate change. Green Space - More than 25 percent of the 228 acres have been set aside as a conservation easement to preserve open space.

We need your support for this exciting project to preserve and protect Long Island's environment.

William Floyd graduates 750 students

The skies cleared just in time to celebrate the approximately 750 student members of the Class of 2023 at William Floyd High School's 64th commencement ceremony on Saturday, June 24. Family and friends gathered to celebrate the K-12 milestone achievement of their loved ones, walking across the stage and receiving their diplomas. Commencement was also simultaneously live-streamed for those who could not be in attendance.

The ceremony kicked off with the Presentation of Colors by members of the William Floyd High School NJROTC, followed by a beautiful rendition of Francis Scott Key's "The Star-Spangled Banner" as sung by the graduating seniors of the William Floyd High School chorus under the direction of Donia Rivera.

Commencement speakers included valedictorian Eric DiGiacomo and salutatorian Merry Vo Nguyen, along with board of education president April Coppola, who recognized the students who have enlisted in the Armed Forces; superintendent of schools Kevin M. Coster, William Floyd High School principal Philip Scotto, and Floyd Academy principal John DeBenedetto.

Special thanks to the Mastic and Mastic Beach fire departments for once again bringing their trucks and flying the American flag behind the stage!

ANNUAL PATCHOGUE LIONS 4TH OF JULY PARADE ON MAIN ST.

Tuesday, July 4, 2023 10:30am

Line Up Starts at 9:30 am at West Avenue and Main Street, the parade proceeds east on Main St. to Rider Ave.

Celebrating 76 years of Patchogue Lions serving the community

BY NICOLE FUENTES

The Patchogue Lions Club returns to host their ever-popular Main Street Fourth of July parade in the Village of Patchogue. This year's theme is "Let Freedom Soar This Fourth of July," and this year's grand marshal is Vincent Liguori.

Patchogue Lions' president and organizer of the parade, Peter J. Feehan, said Liguori's name kept coming up during their grand marshal selection process.

"He has been involved in this club for 51 years," Feehan said of Liguori's service. "It became more and more obvious—through all of his contributions and everything he's been involved in—it became clear it was time to honor Vinny for his decades of service."

The 76th celebration will take place on Tuesday, July 4 at 10:30 a.m., starting at West Avenue and traveling east on Main Street to Rider Avenue. The reviewing stand will be set up at Capital One Bank Plaza, where they will announce the participants as they march past.

"We want to thank all those who participate in our fundraisers that back our core mission of supporting causes related to diabetes, hearing, and vision," said Feehan. "We have sponsored guide dogs, paid for hearing aids, collected tens of thousands of eyeglasses, paid for hundreds of vision tests and eyeglasses for those in need, and even purchased three OrCams for individuals that are visually impaired."

In addition to the causes that are part of the Lions' core mission, they have also collected and donated over 50,000 pounds of food for the local food pantries, provided backpacks filled with school supplies for children in the Patchogue-Medford School District, supported the Cleary School for the Deaf, provided scholarships for Patchogue-Medford graduates, and supported Ronald McDonald House, local baseball and soccer programs, Angels of Long Island, the Smithtown Guide Dog Foundation, and Volunteer Eye Surgeons International.

ABOUT THE GRAND MARSHAL

Vincent Liguori was the past president of the Lion's Club from 1984 to 1985, after being sponsored by his father, in 1972, as a second-generation Lion. He was born and raised in Patchogue and moved to Sayville 40 years ago with his wife.

His wife, Lora, is his partner in service and is also the past president of the Sayville Lions Club. She also was a charter member of the Patchogue Lioness Club.

Liguori is from a big family in Patchogue. His father was one of 13, most of which stayed in Patchogue and ran the dairy farm in East Patchogue, by the hospital. His father, Vincent Liguori Jr., was the past president from 1955 to 1956.

Liguori and the Patchogue Lions were big supporters of the Sayville Learning Center, a school that taught children with learning disabilities.

The motto of Lions International is "We Serve." ■

BBP celebrates 95th commencement

COMPILED BY SAM DESMOND

BAYPORT-BLUE POINT

At around 2:30 p.m. on Friday, June 23, the decision was made by BBP administration to hold the graduation the following day as last-minute showers were predicted for that evening.

The high school band played “The Star-Spangled Banner” and The Pledge of Allegiance was recited to kick off the ceremony. Principal Robert Haas congratulated the students in his welcoming address and described the class as caring and compassionate.

As his heartfelt message to the students, Haas read the lyrics to the song “My Wish for You,” as senior chorus members sang the popular song.

“My final wish is that I hope you find what makes you happy and go do it,” he said.

Superintendent Dr. Tim Hearney told the class to “build your lives around your passions and do what you want to do.”

During his message, board of education president Michael Miller spoke of the importance of a cultivating environment determining the price of a bottle of water as a metaphor for the graduates and said, “Every person provides value and is equipped and empowered to be the best versions of themselves... if you are ever in an environment where you feel your worth is the water for 25 cents and not the $6 water bottle, maybe you are in the wrong environment and you need to change the place you are in, thus changing your value.”

Salutatorian Erin McMahon addressed her fellow graduates and said, “It is time to reflect, be here in the now and anticipate the future.”

Valedictorian Ryan Mattimore said, “The impact is never in the culmination, but in the little moments along the way,” and that he “encourage[d] you to think about the little things or moments.”

Prior to the presentation of diplomas, 84 students who received honors medallions, having graduated with a GPA of 90 percent or higher, and several graduates who have selflessly chosen to serve our country in a branch of the U.S. military, were recognized.

The senior members of the Bayport-Blue Point High School chorus also performed “Good Riddance” by Green Day.

EDNA SUZANNE HUBER

Edna Suzanne Huber, 58, of Fayetteville, NY passed away peacefully from cancer on June 23rd, 2023.

Born on Long Island on July 30th, 1964, Edna attended Saint Francis DeSales, Saxton and Patchogue-Medford schools.

She was an accomplished ballet dancer and also played field hockey and volleyball. She earned her college degree from SUNY Geneseo. Edna worked at Syracuse University and Barnes and Noble, and as an aide at the Jowonio School and Transitional Living Services.

Edna was well-loved. She was radiant, intelligent, joyful, genuine and accepting. She was a lover of books, movies, food, and laughing.

Edna spent the last part of her life recovering from a previous bout of cancer, never asking "Why me?" Her spiritual life was very important to her and a great source of solace and meaning. A prayer she said many times is "Lord Jesus Christ shed your grace on me". We truly believe He has.

Edna is predeceased by her father, John Andrew Huber. She is survived by her mother, Sabra Boughton; her sister, Sabra Huber; her partner, Bob Attridge; and her beloved dog and cuddling companion, Buddy; all of Fayetteville. She is also survived by her many cousins and friends. The family would especially like to thank her friends from Patchogue-Medford High for their love and support.

Per Edna's wishes, there will be no service. Tax-deductible donations in her memory may be made to Stillpoint Silent Retreats, 117 Walnut Hill Rd, Derry, NH 03038 or a charity of your choice. Condolences for the family may be left at www.searsmiddletonmathewson.com.

OBITUARIES

Marie Bellini

Marie Bellini, 98, of Hampton Bays, formerly of Hagerman, East Patchogue, died on June 14. She was a passionate bridge player, an avid golfer in her earlier days, and the matriarch of a large and close-knit family. Mrs. Bellini was widely known for her political views and remained a resolute Roosevelt Democrat until her death.

She is survived by her five children, Darby Woodbury, Robin Young Roe, Kerry Young, Randy Giaramita and John Young; her five stepchildren, Sister Jean Bellini, Nancy Bellini, Mark Kay Lewis, and John and Gerard Bellini; and her 24 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husbands, John A. Young and John Bellini; and her three stepchildren, Patricia Bellini, Martin Bellini and Christine Bellini.

A memorial service will be held on June 26 at The Basilica Parish of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, 168 Hill Street, Southampton.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you donate to the Democratic National Committee.

LOIS MARIE PILGER

Lois Marie Pilger (Westbrook), a longtime Patchogue resident passed away peacefully on June 14 at the age of 94. Born in Brooklyn, NY she moved to Patchogue where she graduated Patchogue High School in 1945. She met her husband, Theodore J. (Ted) Pilger also from Patchogue and they married in 1946 while he was in the Navy. They moved to Memphis Tennessee where he was stationed during the end of WW II.

After his discharge they moved back to Patchogue where they started their family and she soon joined him in the family business, Pilger Agency. She worked a number of years beside him and later when they retired moved to their home in Florida where they spent many happy years together. Lois is survived by her two sons, Theodore M (Ted) Pilger, his wife Ellen-Sue, their children, grandchildren and her great-grandchildren, and Gregory G. (Greg) Pilger, er, his wife Debra (Malsky), their children, grandchildren and her greatgrandchildren as well as nieces and nephews.

A wake was held at O.B. Davis in Centereach, NY followed by private cremation.

DOLORES JON (HAVENS) MARASCO

Dolores Jon (Havens) Marasco, 85, of Franklin, MA and formerly of Patchogue, NY died March 30 at the University of Massachusetts Medical Center in Worcester following a brief illness. She was the wife of the late Dr. Richard Mario Marasco who died in 2015.

Born in Port Jefferson, New York, December 12, 1937, the daughter of the late John and Louise (Kuzmech) Havens, Dolores was raised in Center Moriches and always considered herself a Long Islander. Dolores was the valedictorian of the Center Moriches High School Class of 1955 where she played the timpani in the school band and wrote for the school paper. She was a graduate of Albany State Teachers College with a B.A. in Education, 1959.

While a college freshman she met the love of her life Richard who once described her as the sweetest, prettiest girl he had ever met saying "I'd never met anyone else like her." Richard and Dolores married soon after her college graduation at a beautiful wedding in Center Moriches with both families in attendance. They had fun together, with Dolores playing the straight woman to Richard's endless antics. She was an English teacher for several years and later became the manager of her husband's dental office in Patchogue, NY, where they raised their family. She worked alongside her husband to build a practice which took care of some families for generations.

As a girl Dolores enjoyed sailing the boat that her father built for her, and continued boating with her family, enjoying days in the sun and picnics on the beach. Dolores is remembered for hosting many holiday gatherings, parties, and barbecues with family and friends; there was always room at her table. When her children were in high school, she welcomed crowds of teenagers to her home, preferring to host them than have them be elsewhere. Dolores was an avid reader who would read anything but enjoyed a good mystery the most. She was also active in the Woman's Club of Patchogue, participating in community service while socializing with friends.

After retirement she moved with her husband first to Wolcott, NY and then to Manning, South Carolina, making new friends along the way. She had been a resident of Franklin since 2016, living at Magnolia Heights where she enjoyed playing bingo, watching "The Crown", and of course, their book club. At that time in her life Dolores most enjoyed her grandchildren. She was a constant audience member for theatre productions at Franklin HS and the Hockomock Area YMCA Theatre Program, attended Eagle Scout projects, chorus concerts, and smiled while prom photos were taken. Nothing gave her as much joy as her family and she brought much joy to them.

She is survived by her children, Richard A. Marasco, his wife Leslie and their son Grayson of Quitman, Georgia and Lorraine Marasco Schratz, her husband Regis and their children, Regis, Michael, Daniel, Gina and Thomas of Franklin.

She was the beloved sister of the late Patricia Louise Townsend and sister-in-law of the late Pauline Marasco Saraco.

Her burial will be held on Thursday June 29, 2023 at Mount Pleasant cemetery, 41 Main Street, Center Moriches, NY.

Donations may be made in her memory to Kind Hearts for Kids, a non-profit which supports children in foster and kinship care on Cape Cod. <https://www.kindheartsforkids.org/> or mail a check to KHFK at 5 Sea Lane, Sagamore Beach, MA 02562.

Bellport High students graduate with a flourish

BY GARY HABER

As the graduating seniors of Bellport High School marched into the school gymnasium on the night of Friday, June 23, many wore caps decorated with a personal touch. It might have been a nod to the college they'll be attending, or an inspiring message pointing to the future.

"It's not the end of the story," one read. Another had a similar message in Spanish: "No es el final de mi historia."

But while the messages may have been different, one thing the members of the Class of 2023 shared was that their high school education was turned upside-down when the pandemic closed schools and they spent months learning remotely at home.

"Nothing has gone as expected," senior class president Sydnie Climan said in her remarks to a gymnasium filled with the soon-to-be grads and their families. "Our high school experience has been far from ordinary."

"It's one thing we will all have in common," class valedictorian Hannah De Los Santos said in her speech.

The pandemic left students "wondering if their lives would ever return to normal," said De Los Santos, who is heading to Penn State to study biochemistry with plans to become a surgeon.

But De Los Santos, who played on the varsity soccer and softball teams, said she and her classmates also shared happier memories, including the football team winning back-to-back Suffolk County championships in 2021 and 2022.

"This is the time when we can look forward and make a fresh start," she said. "The only thing that can get in the way is ourselves."

Class essayist Sara Cornacchiulo remembered the spring concert on the football field when everyone's music blew away.

"Hold onto the memories of those common experiences," she said.

"During uncertain times, don't focus on the occasional disappointing grade but on the things that make you happy," said class salutatorian Alexandria Lewkowski, who will be attending Stony Brook University to study biology.

School principal Erika Della Rosa said the students entered high school as naive freshmen and emerged as mature, resilient young adults.

"Let us use this time to recognize all you've accomplished and all you have yet to accomplish," she said.

Mother Nature threw the Class of 2023 one last curveball as the threat of rain forced the ceremony to be moved indoors. But that didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the students and their families, who snapped cell phone photos and cheered for the graduates.

Superintendent of schools Antonio Santana had a word of advice. "Don't forget the people who paved the way and pushed you forward," he said. And "be involved in creating the world you want to see." ■

'Grease' is a must see!

Performances begin on July 6

The Argyle Theatre (Mark and Dylan Perlman, executive producers and managing partners; Evan Pappas, artistic director), Long Island's largest year-round professional theatrical venue, will present "Grease," directed and choreographed by Eugenio Contenti with musical direction by Jonathan Brenner. It will be performed from July 6 through Aug. 27; the opening night will be celebrated on Saturday, July 8, at 7:30 p.m.

Here is Rydell High's senior Class of 1959: duck-tailed, hot-rodding "Burger Palace Boys" and their gum-snapping, hip-shaking "Pink Ladies" in bobby sox and pedal pushers, evoking the look and sound of the 1950s in this rollicking musical. Head "greaser" Danny Zuko and new (good) girl Sandy Dumbrowski try to relive the high romance of their "Summer Nights" as the rest of the gang sings and dances its way through such songs as "Greased Lightnin'," "It's Raining on Prom Night," and "Born to Hand Jive." An eight-year run on Broadway, two subsequent revivals, and innumerable school and community and regional productions place "Grease" among the world's most popular musicals.

"Presenting the musical 'Grease' fills me with immense excitement. Its timeless charm and infectious energy have captivated audiences for generations. This production promises to ignite nostalgia, joy, and a celebration of youth that will leave a lasting impression," said Pappas.

OP-ED

Damming the rivers of our democratic Republic

BY RYAN P. MCGARRY

“A nation that fails to plan intelligently for the development and protection of its precious waters will be condemned to whither because of its shortsightedness.” – President Lyndon B. Johnson

President Dwight D. Eisenhower reminded us that “the future of this Republic is in the hands of the voter,” but here in Suffolk, our legislators in the majority wish to deny us, the very citizens they were elected to serve, the right to have our voices heard and our votes counted.

By “shelving a plan for a major expansion of wastewater treatment” (“Suffolk Legislators Shelve Sewer Expansion Plan,” Newsday, June, 22), the legislators in the majority put our health and our region at risk, while demonstrating an utter lack of faith in Suffolk County’s electorate by denying voters the opportunity to decide the fate of our own water quality. Worse yet, two of the majority’s incumbents, coincidentally the very two who will have the tightest races this year, were notably absent for this critical meeting.

As Long Islanders, water quality is a tantamount concern for our region, especially as increased levels of nitrogen-based water pollution are impacting our everyday lives. We rely on a sole-source aquifer for our drinking water—which means the water we drink is literally underneath us, so any pollution that goes into the ground, goes into our drinking water.

Our heritage industries, like fishing and clamming, have been degraded by nitrogen-based water pollution. Massive regional fish kills are occurring with increasingly greater frequency. We’re seeing cancer-linked algal blooms in our bays. Access to our own public parks is being limited by beach closures, which, in turn, has impacted our tourism industry, an industry that employs 100,000 Long Islanders, generates $760 million in state and local tax revenue, and alleviates the cost burden of our taxpayers by bringing external revenue streams into our local economies.

Getting the Water Quality Restoration Act, which is based off the findings of the bipartisan Suffolk County Subwatershed Plan (which itself was adopted with the Legislature’s involvement back in 2020) on November’s ballot should be a priority for our elected leaders. Unfortunately, while water quality has always been a bipartisan issue in Suffolk County, the legislature’s Republican majority is acting more like Washington politicians by shelving the plan and kicking the can. Executive director of Citizens Campaign for the Environment, Adrienne Esposito, is absolutely right when she said about the legislature, “it is unconscionable that they want to silence the public on such a critical issue. Delaying the vote... means more water degradation, more pollution, and a greater cost to clean it up.”

This issue, however, isn’t just about our environment, the quality of our drinking water, or the future costs today’s inaction will cause. No, there’s a reason such a diverse conglomerate of stakeholders, which includes conservationists, business leaders, labor unions, advocates, and community organizations are all aligned here. This is a matter that impacts the health of our children, the health of our region, the health of our environment, and the health of our economy.

Only through the passage of the Water Quality Restoration Act and the creation of a dedicated and recurring revenue stream will Suffolk County be eligible to receive our fair share in federal and state infrastructure monies. These funds are necessary to make adequate infrastructure investments at little cost to our local taxpayers, resulting in the creation of good, union jobs, further bolstering our economy, putting people to work, and providing the necessary infrastructure for our region’s future economic growth.

In the nearly two years since taking control of the Suffolk County Legislature, this was one of the new majority’s first and only votes of significant regional consequence, one of the first true opportunities to put policy before politics—and despite dozens of community advocates urging them to allow the voters to decide the fate of our clean water protection efforts, they put politics first.

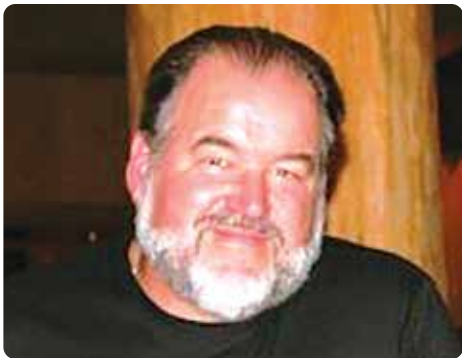

In so doing, to our Republic, the majority failed to fulfill their duties as elected representatives. Further still, they allowed our very democracy to fall victim to their political gamesmanship.

The Legislature still has a limited window to do the right thing, and I hope they will. But, make no mistake, there will be an election this November and clean water will be on the ballot one way or another. We will either have the opportunity to vote on this imperative referendum, which I encourage voters to support, or residents will have the opportunity to vote for legislative candidates who will bring forth common sense leadership—leadership committed to service, representation, and putting people and public policy before partisan politics. Either way, I trust the voters of Suffolk County to make the right decision. ■

MY TURN

Blurred Photographs

BY BRIAN CURRY

Back in 1969, at the age of 14, my parents called me into the living room of our apartment in Astoria, Queens, in New York City. They told me that they were going to pursue their vision of the American dream by buying a home in the suburbs of Long Island.

I knew it was a foregone conclusion, but I was heartbroken that I would be leaving my friends on the “stoop,” which, all depending on the day, my circle could be as many as 40 people.

I did not know what shape my friendship would look like in the future with them, but I knew I wanted to remember them as long as I could. So, I bought a camera. Not a Nikon, but a Kodak Instamatic point and shoot. I documented as many faces and places that my “gang” hung out.

I still have that yellowing and falling apart photo album. And thankfully, I have stayed in touch and met more than a few of them, even to this day.

So began my affair with photography. After I moved out to Patchogue, I became a photographer for the high school newspaper and the yearbook. After high school, I joined the North Patchogue Fire Department.

They found out that I was handy with a camera. I had to hold my ground telling them I wanted to man the hose line or climb the ladder first, take photos after. That worked. Then I got involved with a local newspaper you may have heard of, and more than a few of my snapshots have graced the pages of this paper.

Obviously, my camera finger twitch continued into the rest of my adult life, filling many albums of the people and places in my and my family’s life.

It even got to the point that a few friends who could not afford a wedding photographer came to me asking for help. I knew the poses and shots to take, so the minute I was finished I would hand them all the rolls of film (remember them?) and I never charged them a dime.

I realized that though I was still taking as many, if not more photos, I was getting fewer developed. The main reasons were the passing of my grandparents and then parents. It broke my heart to see all the photos that even I had trouble figuring out who they were and had no one to pass them on to.

Secondly was the advent of social media. Here I could boast about my photography and share my photos of special people and special times with many more eyes than a dusty photo book. Instant feedback as well.

Then I ran into an unmovable force. My granddaughter—or more accurately my daughter. And though I pouted, whined, and cried in the corner; I am seeing her point more and more every day.

Amanda and her husband, Ryan, do not want my granddaughter and grandson’s photos plastered all over social media. They don’t object to me taking shots for Debra and myself, and even bend the rules occasionally and on special occasions for grandparents, who live a couple of states away.

They also have a fantastic photo program that they share with invited family. Only we can get the shots, and both Ryan and Amanda have good eyes and share their children’s lives with all who love and cherish them.

But even I, a lover of photography, can sadly attest to bad characters can sometimes use photos—any photos—for twisted, dark, and wrong reasons. No, that hasn’t happened to them, but they’re going to try and make sure it doesn’t.

And most of the conversations between Amanda and I started before A.I. (artificial intelligence) “burst” (and that’s the correct term) onto the scene. What can be done with photography, or what you might think is a photograph, is downright scary.

So, though I absolutely love my grandkids and love taking photographs of their beautiful faces and smiles, I have to agree with the parents. I will treasure the times when they allow me to post and boast about them, but sadly, it is more a comment on the world today that a blurred photograph is a safer bet.
