Kelsey Grammer and Jess Salgueiro in "Frasier"

The doctor is in again: Kelsey Grammer returns as 'Frasier'

There's been room for "Frasier" ever since the original series ended, so there's certainly space for a revival.

After winning four of his five Primetime Emmys for playing the title part, Kelsey Grammer returns as the high-minded psychiatrist in a new Paramount+ version of "Frasier" that starts streaming Thursday, Oct. 12 (CBS will give the revival's first two episodes a broadcast run Oct. 17.). Originated by the actor as a supporting character on "Cheers," Dr. Frasier Crane returns to that show's Boston setting, with an outline of that city replacing that of his hometown of Seattle (where the first "Frasier" took place) in the opening credits.

Also mostly new is the supporting cast, which was the case when Grammer initially transferred "Frasier" into his own show. Such figures as Frasier's brother Niles, played by David Hyde Pierce ("Julia"), who chose not to return, and his father Martin, played by John Mahoney, ("Moonstruck," 1987) who died in 2018, are now absent, as are Martin's caretaker and Niles' eventual wife, Daphne (Jane Leeves, "The Resident"), and Martin's frequent-Frasier-nemesis dog, Eddie. However, Peri Gilpin ("Scorpion") and Bebe Neuwirth ("Julia") — alias, respectively, Frasier's radio show producer Roz and his ex-wife Lilith — will be back on a recurring basis.

Among actors joining "Frasier" for the first time are Jack Cutmore-Scott ("Openheimer," 2023) as Frasier's son, Freddy, and new actor Anders Keith as David, the son of Niles and Daphne (born in the finale of the original "Frasier"). Nicholas Lyndhurst ("Only Fools and Horses") is also a regular cast member as a college pal of Frasier's who is a professor now. Among the aspects retaining familiarity, though, will be a new rendering of the theme song ("Tossed Salads and Scrambled Eggs") recorded by Grammer, who also remains an executive producer.

The first "Frasier" continues to be seen regularly in repeats, and having yielded more than 250 episodes over 11 seasons, its successor has a long and celebrated legacy to live up to — encompassing its Primetime Emmy wins for outstanding comedy series for five consecutive years (1994-98). Much as the first show was, the new one is an exploration of Dr. Crane starting over. When last seen, he was headed for Chicago, presumably for him to be together with the girlfriend he had at the time (played by guest star Laura Linney, "Ozark"). That became his destination after he let go of a San Francisco television job he had gotten.

Putting Frasier back in Boston is bound to give interesting twists to the premise in which viewers first got to know him. At least on a steady basis, he'll be without Sam Malone (Ted Danson, "The Good Place"), Diane Chambers (Shelley Long, "Modern Family") and the others he commiserated with regularly at the bar "where everybody knows your name." Much as he did upon his move to Seattle, he'll be surrounded by a fresh group that the new "Frasier's" makers clearly hope will catch on with viewers in the same way Niles and others did.

Checking in with
COURTENEY COX

After her run on one of television's most popular and successful shows ever, Courteney Cox is heading into the second round of her current one.

The "Friends" alum is both the star and a producer of "Shining Vale," the Starz horror-comedy series co-created by Sharon Horgan ("Catastrophe") that starts its second season on an appropriate date: Friday, Oct. 13.

In the new episodes, real-life issues still mix with fantasy as novelist Pat Phelps (played by Cox) continues to face supernatural phenomena in her allegedly haunted Connecticut home, with the tension compounded by the fact that she's virtually the only one who detects them — which doesn't help her strained relations with her husband (Greg Kinnear) and their teen children. Mira Sorvino, Merrin Dungey, Judith Light and Sheryllyn Fenn also appear.

"I just think this character is so real and grounded," Cox said before the SAG-AFTRA actors' strike in comparing "Shining Vale" to other post-"Friends" series she has made, "'Cougar Town' was still a comedy and it wasn't taken as seriously; it was really broad."

"Then there was 'Dirt,'" adds Cox, "and I think that was a little before its time. It could have been a really salacious, fun, exciting show, and I think it got a little too heady. But this character ... let's face it, I'm in my 50s, and I'm going through maybe (similar things).

Cox notes that "Shining Vale," to her, "just feels like something rich and deep. I get to go into places that I have never been to before, and to be raw and vulnerable. I've worked harder on this than I have on anything else, and I want to continue to, because I'm obsessed with it. I love the show. I love the cast. I love the writing. I just I think it's really unique in every way."

WEEKDAY AFTERNOON

OCTOBER 9, 2023 TO OCTOBER 13, 2023

Table with columns for channel, time slot, and program details. Includes rows for various networks like CBS, NBC, PBS, ABC, CNN, etc., with their respective shows and schedules.

Elizabeth Banks from "Press Your Luck"

tonight's picks

Big Brother

3 3 7 p.m.

Roommates. They're enough to make you want to live in your car. The house continues to be a mess as the alliances shift and realign — and if you're keeping an eye on the live stream feeds, you know that things are getting weird as the season ramps up.

First Blood

(435) 7 p.m.

Vietnam vet and drifter John Rambo (Sylvester Stallone) visits a small town in search of an old friend, but is met with brutality by the local sheriff, who restrains and shaves him. A flashback causes him to unleash his fury on the officers.

Frontline

8 8 8 p.m.

That certainly escalated quickly. This insightful documentary examines Elon Musk's bizarre journey from one of Twitter's most provocative users to its sole proprietor, looking at the acquisition, its problems, free speech, and (now X's) uncertain future.

Found

(46) 5 9 p.m.

Recovery specialist Gabi Moseley (Shanola Hampton) and her team stop at nothing to solve missing person cases that others have forgotten in this thrilling, all-new series — but, unbeknownst to Gabi, her mission is threatened by her own chilling secret.

Welcome to Plathville

(46) 9 p.m.

The changes, they are a' comin'. Ethan and Olivia have finally settled into their new town in Minnesota and are optimistic about their marriage. Then Kim tells a friend about her new love life, but she fears telling her kids. And Micah debates life in LA.

Press Your Luck

9 9 9 p.m.

Host Elizabeth Banks welcomes three contestants who compete against one another in this game of wits to earn spins on the Big Board. Then, they can use their spins to win cash and prizes while trying to avoid the dreaded Whammy! in this season premiere.
