"Back to the Future" is among the films excerpted in "STILL: A Michael J. Fox Movie," which streams Friday on Apple TV+.

Apple TV+ profiles Michael J. Fox in 'STILL'

Michael J. Fox's life has entailed a lot, and as his many fans long have been aware, not all of it has been for the cameras.

The five-time Primetime Emmy Award winner was at the height of his popularity as an actor when he received a diagnosis of Parkinson's disease in 1991, and both his private and public aspects get considerable attention in "STILL: A Michael J. Fox Movie," which Apple TV+ debuts Friday, May 12. Directed by Davis Guggenheim ("An Inconvenient Truth") – whose wife, Elisabeth Shue, worked with Fox in the "Back to the Future" franchise – the film factors dramatic re-creations into Fox-narrated recollections of his experiences.

Though Fox admits he had early difficulty emotionally in dealing with his health assessment, he ultimately channeled the situation into the nonprofit Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research. It has financed more than $1 billion in projects, including a recent breakthrough involving a spinal fluid test. Fox also has traced his life and times in several memoirs: "Lucky Man," "Always Looking Up: The Adventures of an Incurable Optimist" and "No Time Like the Future: An Optimist Considers Mortality."

Last year, the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences gave Fox the Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award, also an acknowledgment of his significance as a member of the entertainment community. After he moved to Los Angeles from his native Canada, it wasn't long before he was cast as politically minded Alex P. Keaton in the sitcom "Family Ties"; during its seven-season run, he also scored such movie successes as the three "Back to the Future" films, "Teen Wolf" and "The Secret of My Success," plus image departures in "Bright Lights, Big City" (co-starring Fox's wife, Tracy Pollan) and "Casualties of War."

After making such early-1990s comedy films as "Doc Hollywood" and "For Love or Money," Fox returned to weekly sitcom work in "Spin City." Midway through that show's run, he went public with his Parkinson's news, and Charlie Sheen succeeded him in the series. However, Fox earned later acclaim for recurring guest roles on "Boston Legal," "Rescue Me" and "The Good Wife."

In 2012, Fox made a bid for series work again with "The Michael J. Fox Show," which incorporated aspects of his real life as he played a TV newsman. It lasted less than one season, but afterward, Fox reunited with earlier movie co-star and longtime friend Kiefer Sutherland in a guest arc on the latter's show "Designated Survivor."

Though Fox maintains that he has retired from acting, he notes that could change under the right circumstances. For now, he's back in the limelight by telling his own story in "STILL: A Michael J. Fox Movie," and it's a singular tale that's worth relating – and hearing – firsthand.

BY GEORGE DICKIE

Checking in with
JARED HARRIS

To the outside world, Richard Harris was a larger-than-life figure, one whose lust for life was quenched by excess. But to his three sons, he tempered those appetites and was just Dad, a man who loved them deeply.

Still, Jared Harris, who collaborated with his brothers Damian and Jamie on the BritBox documentary "The Ghost of Richard Harris," dropping Tuesday, May 9, says his late father reveled in the attention that came with his high profile.

"He was the sort of personality that could suck up all the oxygen in the room," the Emmy-nominated "Mad Men" and "Chernobyl" actor says. "And that's obviously not a good thing if you've got children trying to figure out who they are."

Still, Jared loved it when his father's big personality would show through. "Many times you'd be in a restaurant," the British actor recalls, "and he'd be telling a story and he'd notice that the table next door had stopped talking and they were eavesdropping on the story. So he'd shift his chair so they knew that they were given permission to participate, to make them an audience.

"And as that happened," he continues, "it would slowly sort of ripple out to the entire restaurant so that the conversation in the restaurant had ceased completely. And when he would get to the end of the story, to the punchline, the whole place would erupt in laughter and applause."

But not everyone in the Harris clan was comfortable with Richard's big personality and antics.

"My elder brother found it embarrassing," he says of Damian, a filmmaker. "So we have different reactions to it. But yeah, he had to sort of restrain himself, is how I would describe, when he was amongst his family. And I noticed that as well when we were in Ireland amongst his brothers, that he had to pull it back a bit or else it would upset them."

Full name: Jared Francis Harris

Birth date: Aug. 24, 1961

Birthplace: London

Family ties: Married to actress Allegra Riggio; parents are actors Richard Harris and Elizabeth Rees; has two brothers – Damian, a filmmaker and Jamie, an actor

Movie credits include: "The Rachel Papers" (1989), "Far and Away" (1992), "The Last of the Mohicans" (1992), "Natural Born Killers" (1994), "I Shot Andy Warhol" (1996), "Lost in Space" (1998), "B. ## tonight's picks

"Judge Steve Harvey" airs Tuesday on ABC.

MLB Baseball Boston Red Sox at Atlanta Braves*(60) 6 p.m.

There was a time when Boston was a two team MLB town with the Red Sox and Braves, who now call Atlanta home, and now they'll clash in the opener of a two-game series at Truist Park. Though the Braves sit atop the NL East standings, they haven't been immune to the injury bug, which has claimed pitcher Ian Anderson, catcher Travis d'Arnaud and outfielder Michael Harris for different stretches. The AL East-trailing Bosox have also been hit, with infielder Trevor Story and outfielder Adam Duval among the shelved.

Movie: Sullivan's Travels*(56) 7 p.m.

Successful movie director John L. Sullivan (Joel McCrea), convinced he won't be able to film his ambitious masterpiece until he has suffered, dons a hobo disguise and sets off on a journey, aiming to "know trouble" first-hand. When all he finds is a train ride back to Hollywood and a beautiful blonde companion (Veronica Lake), he redoubles his efforts, managing to land himself in more trouble than he bargained for when he loses his memory and ends up a prisoner on a chain gang.

Dancing Queens*(57) 8 p.m.

The demands of competitive ballroom dancing collide with the stress of balancing jobs and a family in this new series. The opener finds the dancers preparing for a new season of Latin Pro-Am competition and the first big event of the year.

Judge Steve Harvey*(9) 9 p.m.

Comedian Steve Harvey returns to court on the role of justice in the takedown in the Season 2 premiere of the unscripted series.

Using his own life experiences and comedic flair, he deals with a multitude of interesting cases and characters.

7 Little Johnstons*(46) 8 p.m.

There's a lot to be excited about as Alex's girlfriend, Allie, arrives in town for the homecoming dance. Then Trent sets up a gym in the garage to work on his health. # tonight's picks

Movie: The Thin Man

56 7 p.m.

Robert Wagner and Stefanie Powers owe much of their "Hart to Hart" myth to William Powell and Myrna Loy, who perfected the concept of married, often bickering sleuths in this classic 1934 comedy-mystery movie. The stars play Nick and Nora Charles, a high-living couple who investigate an inventor's supposed involvement in a murder, in between several frequent cocktail breaks.

Guy's Grocery Games

31 8 p.m.

Welcome to Flavors of Mother's Day style. This episode, Fieri brings back four previous "GGG" winners, all mothers themselves, to prove that mom truly does cook it best. First, it's a deep-dig through the pantry. Afterwards, it's all about apple pie.

Pawn Stars

48 8 p.m.

It ain't easy being green with envy, but a set of replica Muppets has Chum feeling just that way. Then Rick flips over an autograph book from the 1800s that shows just how far we've fallen from legible penmanship. And Rick has a "finger-lickin'" good time when he pops over to a gallery in L.A. in the new episode

"Jumpin' Jake Flash; Pawn Odds & Ends."

Single Drunk Female

15 9 p.m.

Sam (Sofia Black-D'Elia) grapples with whether or not to come clean to Alex (Ricky Velez) about recent events. Meanwhile, James (Garrick Bernard) finds strength in his community, and Bob (Ian Gomez) fights for Carol (Ally Sheedy) in the new episode "Coming Clean." Immediately following is the Season 2 finale episode "Group of Drunks," where Sam continues to search for her purpose and Brit (Sasha Compere) and Joel (Charlie Hall) throw a divorce party.

The Game Show Show

9 9 p.m.

Spin the wheel, beat the clock, guess the answer and play along through 80 years of game show history in this new series opener "The Answer Is ... ." Reflecting on the changing face of America, the show explores the contestants, hosts, creators, and scandals that encapsulate iconic game shows. This episode examines the quiz show and how its format has changed over the years. Michael Strahan, Sara Haines, Jay Leno, and Sherri Shepard are featured.
