Grammy Awards keep things musical with 65th annual ceremony

Music has helped the world keep moving, even in the most challenging of times ... and that's a fact that the latest Grammy Award nominations reflect.

The recording industry's 65th annual ceremony will be presented Sunday, Feb. 5, on CBS and Paramount+ from Los Angeles' Crypto.com Arena. Trevor Noah returns as host for the third consecutive year, and the list of those who are up for the honors is led by a veteran of the business, since Beyonce tops the list with nine bids. That number now ties her with someone she knows quite well – her husband, Jay-Z – as the artists who have scored the most Grammy nominations over time, with 88 each.

Among the other performers who have multiple Grammy chances this time are Kendrick Lamar with eight, and Adele and Brandi Carlile with seven each. They're followed by a number of talents with six Grammy opportunities apiece: DJ Khalid, Future, Terius "The-Dream" Gesteelde-Diamant (also known as Terius Nash), Randy Merrill and Harry Styles.

Here are the contenders in several of the categories in the 65th Annual Grammy celebrity scoop

One of the great challenges for an actor is to empathize with and find the humanity in a despicable character.

For David Giuntoli, who plays wheelchair-bound alcoholic in recovery and consummate selfish jerk Eddie Saville in the ABC ensemble drama "A Million Little Things," that was red meat into which to sink his acting chops.

"You know, there's this saying," the 42-year-old St. Louis area native explains, "(that) nobody thinks that they are a jerk – people think that from the outside. But people have motivations and behaviors come from psychologies and so you become this character as much as you can. ... It's like you don't judge your character, is what it is. Bad guys don't think they're bad."

As the series opens its fifth and final season Wednesday, Feb. 8, a sense of normalcy is just returning to Eddie's life when he receives a mysterious phone call from the woman who hit him that rocks his world. While Giuntoli could offer no further details on that lest he give away spoilers, the actor does disclose that Delilah (Stephanie Szostak) will return, as will the daughter she had with Eddie, Charlie.

Giuntoli feels fortunate to play such a rich character for five seasons and says he will miss Eddie and his castmates when filming wraps for good in March. For him, to end the series when it did feels right and he's glad showrunner DJ Nash got to do it his way.

"He didn't want it to go forever and ever," Giuntoli says, "He wanted it to remain grounded as much as he possibly could. So the fun thing is you really get to write to a close and there are going to be some very satisfying endings of some storylines."

Name: David Giuntoli Birth date: June 18, 1980

Birthplace: Milwaukee (raised in a suburb of St. Louis) Family ties: Has a 4-year-old daughter with wife and actress Bitsie Tulloch ("Superman & Lois")
