David Alan Grier portrays Cogsworth in Thursday's new ABC special "Beauty and the Beast: A 30th Celebration."

'Beauty and the Beast' gets a new makeover on ABC

For the holiday season, and to mark a milestone for the classic Disney movie, "Beauty and the Beast" is going hybrid.

In the style used for a 2019 television staging of "The Little Mermaid," new live-action sequences will be combined with portions of the animated film in the ABC special "Beauty and the Beast: A 30th Celebration" Thursday, Dec. 15. Technically, it's the 31st anniversary of the 1991 classic that included the voice of the late Angela Lansbury among others ... but the saga of Belle and the prince cursed to be the Beast has stood the test of time, with the Disney variation earning Oscars for the title song and the overall score.

A large and diverse cast has been assembled for the live-action parts of the new rendering, led by Oscar and Grammy winner H.E.R. as Belle and Josh Groban as the Beast. Also on board: the much-honored Rita Moreno as the narrator, Shania Twain as Mrs. Potts; Martin Short as Lumiere; David Alan Grier as Cogsworth; Joshua Henry ("Hamilton") as Gaston; Rizwan Manji as Le Fou; Jon Jon Briones as Maurice; and Leo Abelo Perry as Chip.

Variety-show veteran Hamish Hamilton, who also guided the aforementioned "Little Mermaid" revision, is directing the new "Beauty and the Beast." Co-star Grier says it was significant to move from a rehearsal studio to the Disney lot, and he reports that the set looks "really great, beautiful and impressive." He relates the experience to live telecasts of "The Wiz" and "A Christmas Story" that he was in: "It's all kind of within the same realm, but this (new production) is definitely unique."

Though Grier enjoys being in the new cast of "Beauty and the Beast," he hasn't necessarily gotten to work with everyone. He explains, "Josh Henry's stuff is kind of separate from Martin (Short) and me. My scenes are mostly with Martin and H.E.R. and Shania Twain. And I love Martin; that's really why did this project. When they called, I said, 'If Martin's really going to do it, I'll say 'Yes' today.'"

A 2020 Tony Award winner for "A Soldier's Play," Grier has had an active year, having also co-starred in Hulu and FX's limited series "The Patient" and filmed the musical version of "The Color Purple" that's due in theaters late next year. However, he knows "Beauty and the Beast" is its own creature.

"The technical parts are probably the most challenging," Grier notes. "It's a huge stage with dancers, little kids, technicians, everything ... and I'm trying not to be in the way. 'Be Our Guest' is a big number, but it looks really cool, and what the director and choreographer have shown us is really exciting."

Long a staple of NBC News, Kate Snow is delivering information there "Daily."

The veteran journalist is among the anchors of the weekday "NBC News Daily," on which she and co-anchor Aaron Gilchrist alternate with the anchor team of Vicky Nguyen and Morgan Radford. While the show's overarching mission remains to provide timely information on the given day's major stories, Snow says she appreciates the time the program allows for expanded and extra content as well.

"We haven't had dayside, network-level national and international news in a while," Snow reasons. "I think there are a lot of viewers out there who are really hungry for, 'Just tell me what's happening. Get me up to speed on what I should know.' And that can be a range of things."

For instance, as Snow reflects, "We might do a deep dive on a medical story, or a deep dive on a tech story. We're very much trying to think of what the average viewer is looking for, what kind of news they can use in addition to all of the headlines."

Besides the personal skills that have made her a News & Documentary Emmy winner ("I am an ambitious person, and I ask a lot of questions and make a lot of contacts"), Snow attributes her career to "a lot of lucky turns." She cites one of those as her work at a local radio station while she was a Cornell University student: "I signed up at the end of my freshman year, and you can draw a straight line from that to where I am now. I got my experience in the trenches in hyper-local news."

tonight's picks

Saturday
 9 a.m. on (15); 7:55 p.m. on (15)
Movie: Home Alone

Hollywood should have left “Alone” alone after this hit 1990 comedy, to which the sequels don’t hold a holiday candle. Macaulay Culkin stars as a youngster who is mistakenly left home alone when his family leaves for Christmastime. When two burglars break in, he foils their attempts to rob the house by constructing elaborate traps. Joe Pesci, Daniel Stern, John Heard, Roberts Blossom, Catherine O’Hara and John Candy also star.

7 p.m. on (13)
iHeartRadio Jingle Ball 2022

If there’s a nip in the air it must be time for that beloved annual tradition: a 90-minute holiday music event that celebrates the season with performances by the year’s biggest recording artists. This star-studded concert event will feature performances from many of today’s hottest musical stars including Dua Lipa, Lizzo, Jack Harlow, Pitfall, Black Eyed Peas, Backstreet Boys, Sam Smith, Khalid, Lewis Capaldi, Charlie Puth and more.

7 p.m. on (29); 11:01 p.m. on (29)
Movie: The Holiday Dating Guide

Dating coach and aspiring author Abigale (Maria Menounos) is close to making her lifelong dream come true of becoming a published author. She has completed her first book — a how-to guide for dating in today’s modern world. However, after reading the book, her publisher Jack (Steve Vinovich) wants to know that her advice works. So Abigale proposes to use the rules herself and make a man fall for her by Christmas Eve in 12 days in this 2022 romance.

7 p.m. on (56)
Movie: The Greatest Story Ever Told

Veteran director George Stevens (“Shane”) traces the life of Christ in this mammoth 1965 drama, which casts Max von Sydow in the central role. The all-star event boasts a parade of familiar faces from Charlton Heston (as John the Baptist) and John Wayne to Sidney Poitier and Angela Lansbury. In fact, Stevens’ understaking became so massive, David Lean (“Doctor Zhivago”) helped out by directing some sequences.
