FRESH fruits and vegetables don't have to be expensive if you buy them in season and many are in season year round. To learn more, visit www.sdharvestofthemonth.com

FROZEN fruits and vegetables are packed and frozen within hours of harvest, so they don't lose their flavor or nutritional value. Try steaming vegetables in the microwave or stovetop rather than boiling to keep in more nutrients.

CANNED fruits and vegetables often get a bad rap but they are still nutritious. Choose 100% fruit juice with no added sugar and vegetables with no sale added. Remember to drain the water, juice, or syrup and rinse with water to help remove some of the extra sugar and salt.

The kids trot the globe to save their own in Season 2 of 'Mysterious Benedict Society'

Series co-creator and executive producer Phil Hay calls Season 2 of "The Mysterious Benedict Society" a season of "planes, trains and automobiles" - though with a Golden Age ocean liner and a zeppelin mixed in for good measure.

Premiering Wednesday, Oct. 26, on Disney+ with a pair of episodes, the new round picks up with "The Emergency" ended by the eccentric Mr. Benedict (Tony Hale), a heroic feat for which his less-than-virtuous twin brother L.D. Curtain (also Hale) has taken credit.

But when Benedict and his assistant Number Two (Kristen Schaal) are kidnapped, his young recruits Reynie, Sticky, Kate and Constance (Mystic Inscho, Seth B. Carr, Emmy

"Tony, of course, is so talented and always so prepared and thoughtful in terms of his approach to the scripts and the act and the work," Manfredi says. "And there are times when I just kind of forget that it's one actor. You know, his posture changes, his cadence changes and he looks completely different. So it's just kind of a joy to watch."

"Not only are their body types different," Hay adds, "somehow he turns posture into an absolute character choice.'

to share the same DNA.

A lot of what Marcia Gay Harden knows about being a parent is going into her latest television role.

The Oscar and Tony Award winner has returned to weekly work as an attorney who has her doubts about hiring her questionable-detective son (played by Skylar Astin) to be her firm's investigator in "So Help Me Todd," ĈBS' new Thursday comedy-drama. As she mixes moments of differing tones, Harden is finding - and adding - much that's familiar to her character, Margaret Wright.

"I'm fairly strict," says the mother of three (including twins), "but I've learned over the years to just be tolerant. As the kids grow up, they blossom into who they are, and I think it's a lesson that Margaret needs to learn. I say to my kids, 'Look. If you fall in love with a giraffe, just bring the giraffe home for Thanksgiving.' I just care about family. That's the kind of mom I

As for Todd, Harden doesn't consider him "a ne'er-do-well, because I think he means super-well. What Margaret really wants him to do is to be responsible, so they have this whole wonderful battle between the millennials and my generation, where those ideas of responsibility and the ideas of how you show up in society aren't necessarily reflected in the new generation.

"Margaret's really fighting for him to pay his bills, get out of bed, go to work in the morning," adds Harden. "And the good thing is, he is. He's doing all those things. I think part of her journey is that she has to learn to see him for who he is, and let him be who he is.'

DeOliveira, Marta Kessler) head off by land, sea and air on a trek across Europe, piecing together riddles and clues, to save the world from Curtain's latest nefarious scheme and

Their journeys on the high seas take them onto the luxury liner the S.S. Shortcut, whose scenes were actually filmed aboard the RMS Queen Mary docked in Long Beach, Calif. The ship becomes a character in the story. "I don't know what we would have done if the Queen Mary didn't happen to be docked in Long Beach," Hay says with a laugh. "It's kind of a unique location."

or as easy as it could be."

travel was like 80 years ago.

"It was a dream," adds co-creator and executive producer Matt Manfredi. "They just don't make that kind of elegance anymore, like there's just the one. We really would have probably had to write around it if it wasn't available because it was rumored to be a very difficult place to shoot. And it was but they really opened it up and made it easy for us –

Which wasn't very. In shooting scenes around the ship, including in the engine room and bridge, both men say the crew really earned their money as it was clearly not built for making a TV show. And the youthful actors got a lesson in what luxury

As for the older cast, Hale gives his usual tour-de-force in the dual roles of Benedict and Curtain, once again inhabiting two completely different characters who happen
