Joseph Gordon-Levitt stars in "Mr. Corman," premiering Friday on Apple TV+.

'Mr. Corman' fights disillusionment and himself in Apple TV+ comedy

Josh Corman is a man underwhelmed by life and himself.

As played by Joseph Gordon-Levitt ("Third Rock From the Sun," "Lincoln") in the Apple TV+ comedy series "Mr. Corman," which begins streaming Friday, Aug. 6, he's a 30-something born and raised in the suburbs of Los Angeles whose life hasn't turned out as he envisioned.

An artist at heart, his music career didn't amount to much and so he pays the bills by teaching fifth graders at a public school while sharing an apartment with his best friend Victor (Arturo Castro, "Broad City"). His relationship with his fiancée also has gone south and he struggles with feelings of anxiety, loneliness and depression, which he confides to his mother Ruth (Debra Winger, "Terms of Endearment"). On top of that, he also suspects he's not that great a person.

It's a lot for one young man to bear and Gordon-Levitt, who created the series, conceived of the character as an unlucky version of himself.

"It was sort of thinking about: What if just a couple of things were different?" the actor and San Fernando Valley native explains. "Like what if I hadn't found my partner yet? ... Or what if the art that I do hadn't panned out into a career? ... Or what if I had one good, healthy parent and one parent who was less healthy or problematic or causing chaos?"

"And so sort of making some of these changes like that formed this character, who is in many ways just like me," he continues. "He walks like me and talks like me. He grew up where I grew up. He went to high school where I went to high school. He had many of the same thoughts and opinions and tastes that I do. But these certain things are different."

But, Gordon-Levitt explains, Josh does have things in his life to be thankful for but he just doesn't appreciate them. He has a good job in a noble profession for which he seems to have a flair, he has friends who care about him and his mother is always there to lend a sympathetic ear.

Toward that end, the interplay between Josh and Ruth comes across as very natural mother/son dialog and Gordon-Levitt credits Winger for being a brilliant actress and fitting right in.

"She looks like my mom and my mom's sister, my mom's cousins," he reports. "Like the Gordon women, she has a very similar essence to her. And she also grew up in L.A. the way I grew up in the Valley, in the suburbs of L.A., the way that I did."

"And yeah, she's just the perfect person for this," he continues, "and if anybody out there hasn't seen 'Terms of Endearment,' it's really some of the best acting that's ever been done in a movie and she won the Oscar for it and with good reason. And it's been such a delight to do this together with her."

Checking in with
ALEXANDRA DADDARIO

At a time when the coronavirus pandemic was limiting work options for many performers, a stay at "The White Lotus" looked quite good to Alexandra Daddario.

The cast and crew of HBO and HBO Max's current Sunday series created their own "bubble" by largely taking over a Hawaiian resort for the two months of filming writer-director Mike White's comedy, about a Maui hotel's staff and the diverse guests they service. "Baywatch" and "Percy Jackson" movie co-star Daddario plays a newlywed who develops second thoughts about the marriage, with Jake Lacy as her worried husband and Molly Shannon as his meddling mother. The ensemble cast also includes Steve Zahn, Connie Britton and Jennifer Coolidge.

"Everybody has their own thing" happening in the show, the friendly Daddario confirms. "Each story is as important as the others, and they all intersect. That was great for all of us, because we all had our down time. And on the set, I always felt that I was doing something that was meaty. You weren't just waiting around. Everyone was shooting their own little movie."

Daddario particularly enjoyed acting with "Saturday Night Live" alum Shannon, with whom she also worked in the William H. Macy-directed 2017 movie "The Layover." Deeming her "a delightful person," Daddario says simply, "She's Molly Shannon! She's a legend. Like in a tennis match, it's always better to have somebody who makes you better."

However, notes Daddario, "You're not going to be funnier acting with Molly Shannon. She's always going to be the funniest, but when you feel the scene being uplifted by her, it helps. I wish I could be as funny as she is."

Wellington Paranormal

A new episode called "Vampire" takes place on an evening shift that is anything but a routine night for Officers Minogue and O'Leary (Mike Minogue, Karen O'Leary), as they race from one weird incident to another. Their calls involve everything from a mysterious plastic bag and a gathering of creepy clowns to more sinister creatures such as a human sacrifice ritual and theft from a hospital blood bank.

Kevin Can F... Himself

This pitch-black sitcom series wraps up Season 1 with a finale called "Fixed," which finds Detective Allison (Annie Murphy) about what happened on the night before. Meanwhile, still reeling from the trauma of the break in, Kevin (Eric Petersen) searches for some meaning in his life by launching a bid for city council.

8 p.m. on 185

Mystery 101

The new adventure "Deadly History" opens right on the heels of the previous investigation, as Amy, Travis and Peter (Jill Wagner, Kristoffer Polaha, Robin Thomas) hit the road for Ithaca, N.Y., where her Uncle Alastair (Peter Benson), a college professor, has vanished. Also missing is his research into the local death of a prominent local heir 50 years ago, which Alastair had grown to suspect was actually a homicide. Amy and Travis team up with the local sheriff and endeavor to make their way through a labyrinth of clues and suspects.

8:30 p.m. on 13

Dead Pixels

News that a tradesman is scheduled to visit their flat just as they're both struggling to complete an in-game mission isn't well received by Meg and Nicky (Alexa Davies, Will Merrick) in the new episode "Mission." When this visitor arrives, however, Meg finds him so distractingly attractive that she tries desperately to act "normal." Meanwhile, Russell (Sargon Yelda) literally is flogging himself for failing at the same mission, and Russell's (David Mumeni) living situation starts to border on prostitution.

8 p.m. on 3 8

Icon: Music Through the Lens

The new episode "On the Cover" explores how music magazines played a huge role in elevating the reputation and status of music photography, as reflected in some of the early covers for Rolling Stone, Creem, NME, Mojo and Q. Among the featured interviews, Welsh photographer Chalkie Davies recalls how Elton John hoped to use an NME cover to come out. Other iconic cover images include a young Michael Jackson, Mick Jagger with a leopard and the Stone Roses with, well, a lot of paint.

Ancient Aliens

One of the most mysterious places on Earth, Peru, is celebrated for its colossal geoglyphs and megalithic ruins, remnants of the ancient Inca civilization. In such otherworldly terrain, then, is it really out of the question that terrestrial visitors once came here? In the new "The Lost City of Peru," the show's principal trio of experts — Giorgio A. Tsoukalos, David Childress and William Henry — examine a recently discovered Peruvian city that provides evidence that civilization emerged here thousands of years earlier than originally believed.

8 p.m. on 435

Movie: Falling

Viggo Mortensen made his feature directorial debut with this 2020 drama, for which he also wrote the screenplay and takes the starring role of middle-aged gay man John Peterson. After a painful and turbulent upbringing with his conservative and deeply homophobic father, Willis (Lance Henriksen), John has found happiness in Los Angeles with his husband, Eric (Terry Chen). Now, however, Willis' encroaching dementia is forcing him to sell the family farm and move west to live with John and Eric.

Dino Hunters

In the new episode "Duckbill Buffet," Clayton and Luke begin to excavate the deep layers that cover the T-Rex site and must be removed before any meaningful work can begin. 9 p.m. on 8

Classic Albums

The new episode "Pink Floyd — Dark Side of the Moon" chronicles the creation of this truly iconic 1973 release, as told by the band members who created it. The album earned a place in world record books by selling more than 30 million copies and staying on the music charts for more than 14 years, longer than any of its closest competitors.

The Zoo: Bronx-Sized

The staff is forced to scramble for a brown when a sleuth of brown bears wreak absolute havoc on an exhibit in the new episode "Put to the Test." Elsewhere, keepers must prepare for the birth of a litter of African wild dogs, and the newest keeper handles a golden eagle with the help of director Jim Breheny.

7 p.m. on (401)

Movie: All My Life

Marc Meyers' 2001 romantic tearjerker, based on a true story, casts Harry Shum Jr. ("Glee") and Jessica Rothe ("Utopia") as Solomon "Sol" Chau and Jennifer Carter, a newly engaged couple who are rapturously looking forward to a long life together. All that comes crashing down, though, when Sol is diagnosed with terminal liver cancer, a condition that all but guarantees he won't live to see their summer wedding. Their friends and family come up with an inspired solution. Jay Pharaoh, Keala Settle and Ever Carradine co-star.

8 p.m. on (36)

Movie: The 27-Hour Day

Laurie (Autumn Reeser) has found success as creator and ambassador for a wellness brand known as The 27-Hour Day, her program of tips and life hacks to perform routine chores more efficiently. After a business meeting goes off track, however, Lauren realizes she needs to step away from the grind and refresh her perspective. Unfortunately, this workaholic doesn't have any idea how to take a break. She books herself into a mountain retreat, where unexpected sparks fly between her and the facility's handsome owner, Jack (Andrew Walker). Tom Pickett co-stars.

8 p.m. on (435)

Movie: No Man's Land

In this 2021 Western from Conor Allyn, Bill Greer (Frank Grillo) and his son, Jackson (Jake Allyn, Conor's younger brother) are patrolling the Texas-Mexico border when Jackson accidentally kills a Mexican immigrant boy. Frank tries to take the blame for the death, but when a Texas Ranger (George Lopez) sees through the lie, Jackson panics and flees south across the Rio Grande, in effect becoming an illegal alien in Mexico. Guilt-stricken, he makes his way to the dead boy's father to beg for forgiveness.
