A&E's 'Biography: KISStory' looks back on 50 years of rocking and rolling all night and partying every day

After more than 50 years of making music, the end of the road is nigh for heavy metal rock band KISS and A&E Network is marking the occasion with a two-part documentary upcoming on "Biography."

The four-hour installment titled "KISStory," premiering Sunday and Monday, June 27 and 28, chronicles the career of the band that sold more than 100 million records, packed concert venues worldwide for more than 40 years and was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2014 through archival footage, home movies and intimate interviews with founding members Paul Stanley and Gene Simmons, as well as comments by musicians Dave Grohl and Tom Morello, manager Doe McGhee, music producer Bob Ezrin and others. Current and past band members Tommy Thayer, Eric Singer, Ace Frehley and Peter Criss also appear.

Of course, chemistry is at the heart of any great enterprise and KISS is certainly no exception. Stanley and Simmons have known each other since the late 1960s when both were struggling New York City musicians and Stanley points to one quality they shared that made their collaboration so successful.

"Pragmatism," he says. "Gene from the beginning drove me crazy. That's my choice. I mean, he drove me crazy because I chose to stay and I wanted him to be someone he wasn't. But to be pragmatic, I certainly understood that I was far stronger with him than without him. And if he didn't know that, I did. You know, I knew that for my own success and for my own progress, we should be together. So that was purely a decision based upon my wanting to succeed and knowing that Gene would be a major ingredient in that happening."

And he says, there was a certain friendly competitiveness between them.

"We challenged each other creatively," he says. "If he wrote a song that I thought was good, I had to write a song that was that good or better. And yeah, we mirrored each other in really good ways. You know, all positive."

As KISS this summer resumes its End of the Road Tour, signaling their final live shows, this documentary gave Stanley the chance to look back on the band's career. He's proud of the band's body of work and he thinks this film will give fans a different view of KISS.

"I think for people to see us sitting around talking to each other about our relationship and about the time is something you don't see often," he says. "I do believe that many times people have seen us together, there's a certain shtick to it and there's a certain quality of entertainment, whereas this is much more intimate and much more personal. So to be looking back on the band and our friendship, which goes back now 52 years, that's pretty heady stuff. ... It's everything I hoped it would be at this point."

When it came to "The Celebrity Dating Game," Michael Bolton knew what he was getting into.

"I was a fan of the show when I was a kid," says the veteran music star, a co-host (with Zooey Deschanel) and an executive producer of the contest update now airing Mondays on ABC. "We've all been seeing these reboots, new versions of classic shows, and they seem to be working quite well for people. And ABC (also the home of the original 1965-73 "Dating Game"), specifically, was quite excited about doing this one."

Bolton knows "The Dating Game" serviced some celebrities-to-be in its initial years: "Farrah Fawcett definitely was on it, because I'd done my homework before I said, 'I'm in.' Sally Field, Ron Howard, Arnold Schwarzenegger ... Steve Martin was a contestant on the show, in the middle of two other guys who were vying for a date. He was so funny, I knew he was going to get picked.

"I like the idea of the celebrities here being athletes, exathletes, stars from a lot of different genres of television and film, just a lot of really talented people," Bolton adds. "A couple of them, I knew and loved, and I didn't want to give away that someone extra-special had just walked onto the set. And when you least expect it, somebody goes way off the chart."

Bolton is happy to be part of the result in contouring famous songs, including some of his own, to suit the "Celebrity Dating Game" occasion. "I think I'm in a position to have fun," he reasons, "and to say 'No' if the music is not comfortable for me."

The cast of "Scrubs"

7 p.m. on 56 Movie: Kissin' Cousins Iconic song-and-dance man Gene Nelson ("Oklahoma!") directed and co-wrote this 1964 musical comedy, which stars Elvis Presley in a dual role: as dark-hard Air Force pilot Josh Morgan and his blond hillbilly cousin, Jodie Tatum. The cast also includes Arthur O'Connell. Glenda Farrell. Jack Albertson. Pamela Austin and future TV Batgirl Yvonne Craig. Nelson and his co-screenwriter Gerald Dravson Adams were nominated for a Writers Guild of America Award for their screenplay, but lost to "Mary Poppins." The film airs as part of a star-of-the-month tribute to Presley.

8 p.m. on 31; 12 a.m. on 31 Restaurant: Impossible Robert Irvine travels to East Tennessee on his latest rescue mission for the new episode "Big Trouble in Tennessee." In the small town of Cleveland, about halfway between Chattanooga and Knoxville, Big Tom's Backvard Grill and Bar used to be bustling with customers, but more recently the business has descended into a nightmare. Even putting aside the financial problems, the stress from the situation is costing owners Tom and Sabrina their marriage. 8 p.m. on 65 Back in Scrubs: Reunion Road Trip For this look back at the cult medical sitcom that ran from 2001 to 2010, first on NBC, then on ABC, leading players Zach Braff (J.D. Dorian), Sarah Chalke (Elliot Reid) and Donald Faison (Christopher Turk) embark on a quest to find Rowdy, the show's beloved — if taxidermied — dog. As they look back on their "Scrubs' years, they run into other excolleagues, including Judy Reyes (head nurse Carla Espinosa) and Robert Maschio (Dr. Todd "The Todd" Quinlan). 8:33 p.m. on 48; 12:36 a.m. on 48 Alone As the remaining contestants continue their daily struggle to procure a reliable and consistent source of food, one participant shifts focus to what may be a chance at some bigger game in the new episode "The Buck." As
