CCH Pounder stars in the series finale of "NCIS: New Orleans" Sunday on CBS.

'NCIS' bids New Orleans farewell as CBS spinoff signs off

In helping to bring "NCIS: New Orleans" to a close, CCH Pounder is leaving it with Pride.

That's as in Dwayne Pride, the Scott Bakula-portrayed team leader who Pounder's coroner character Loretta Wade has worked with closely on the CBS drama, which wraps up its seven-season run Sunday, May 23. In the series finale, Pride is preparing to marry his security-official girlfriend Rita (played by Bakula's real-life wife Chelsea Field) when he's distracted by an ongoing case.

As the sun sets on one "NCIS" spinoff, another is on the horizon — using one of its favorite action-show locations, CBS has ordered "NCIS: Hawaii" for next season — but Pounder says she's satisfied with the ending given her "New Orleans" alter ego.

"There's always a catchphrase like, 'She's the moral center' or 'She's the best friend or the great adviser,'" the pleasant Pounder muses, "and that usually means, 'Uh-oh. There's not going to be much for her to do.' But (the show's producers and writers) were really very attentive to someone interested in building a character who was something other than a fabulous workhorse."

Though "NCIS" already had yielded a successful offshoot in "NCIS: Los Angeles," Pounder maintains she never saw "NCIS: New Orleans" as a sure bet to be ordered when she became involved.

"Oh, good grief, no!," she says emphatically. "I was one of those who was like, 'There's two of them already. What could a third one possibly be?' I was not expecting anything, but once I discovered that New Orleans itself was going to be a huge character in the show, I would see such unexpected things in the background ... trains, bridges, all these natural things. I always thought that was a wonderful sort of paint brush to use in showing what the city would be like."

In fact, Pounder enjoyed it enough to become a full-time resident there: She and her late husband gave up their house in California and moved to one in the Big Easy; where she plans to remain based, at least for the time being. She had worked earlier with "NCIS: New Orleans" star Bakula on his series "Quantum Leap," but after much other television work ranging from "The X-Files" to "The West Wing," she reasons, "I think I can operate from pretty much anywhere these days, provided that the health and travel restrictions are cool."

As she says goodbye to "NCIS: New Orleans," then, Pounder is glad she's not also having to do the same to the actual New Orleans. "The people are exceedingly friendly," she enthuses, "and I really have appreciated their appreciation of our being here. They still get excited about seeing film crews, and that's really nice."

Checking in with
JASMINE DAVIS

For Jasmine Davis, her breakthrough role as transgender hairstylist Imani in "The Chi" has proven to be therapeutic.

The trans actress often uses the Method — an acting technique that requires the actor to immerse oneself in their character's mindset and motivations — to create a character. So she will often fall back on experiences from her own past to inform behavior on screen, which also means reliving and working through a lot of pain.

But she has a coping mechanism for that.

"It's actually embracing it and learning how to manage it," explains Davis, who like her character is a South Side Chicago native, "and that's when I took this character on knowing that there are going to be some things that I'm going to be triggered by being here. ... So to do it in a very healthy way, I know that I have to let these triggers affect me but how can I manage it in a healthy way? And so I learned to do that through my acting coaches and my therapy, it's like managing it, accepting it. How are you going to manage it? You know, make sure you're aware of this. How does it make you feel?"

In Season 4, which premieres Sunday, May 23, on Showtime (and Crave 1 in Canada), Imani's world expands as she opens her own shop and interacts with more of the community on Chicago's South Side. At home, she's settled into domestic life with boyfriend Trig (Luke James), and together they're now raising Jake (Michael Epps), of whom they became guardians in Season 3.

"People don't get to see these type of relationships and families on TV," Davis says. "You know, even though they exist in real life, we don't really get to see a transgender woman with a guy who is heterosexual raising a kid, going to school and Imani's stepping into the mother role and trying to help nurture and mother this kid to get him on the right path."

Full name: Jasmine Cree Davis

Birth date: April 8, 1991

Birthplace: Chicago

Education: Studied to be a nursing assistant at Parkland College in Illinois; an alum of Second City in Chicago

Tuesday
7 p.m. on 3 3

NCIS

While the NCIS team is involved in the pursuit of a deadly arms dealer, they're shocked when Bishop (Emily Wickersham) is implicated in an old NSA leak in the Season 18 finale, "Rule 91." Meanwhile, Gibbs and Marcie (Mark Harmon, guest star Pam Dawber) suddenly realize that the killer they've been tracking may be aware of their interest. Recurring guest star Katrina Law also is featured, along with Serran Murray and Wilmer Valderrama.

7 p.m. on 9 9

Mike Tyson: The Knockout
This two-part, four-hour documentary — which concludes next Tuesday — chronicles the climb, crash and comeback of the polarizing boxing superstar, who rose from a difficult childhood to becoming a world champion in his sport. Tonight's opening two hours begins with Tyson's determined self-transition from mercilessly bullied kid into "the baddest man on the planet." Former trainers Bobby Stewart, Teddy Atlas and Joe Colangelo reflect on Tyson's life in and out of juvenile detention, while former opponents Michael Spinks and Buster Douglas recall their bouts with Tyson.

8 p.m. on 3 3

FBI

After five prominent men are ruthlessly gunned down in cold blood at a trendy New York City restaurant, the FBI team's investigation leads them to a lieutenant Antonio Vargas's (recurring guest star David Zayas) cartel in the Season 3 finale "Straight Flush." That fateful encounter ignites a long-awaited showdown between Vargas and Isobel (Alana De La Garza). Missy Peregrym, Zeeko Zaki, Jeremy Sisto and John Boyd also star.

8 p.m. on 12 7

Mental Samurai

Host Rob Lowe returns to launch the sophomore season of this unconventional competition, an improbable combination of game show, sporting event and thrill ride. Contestants vie with one another, and a ticking clock, while being tipped around the arena strapped into Ava, a high-speed capsule with a robotic arm that can turn the arena a full 260 degrees. It's like an obstacle course for the mind, as the contestants fight to stay focused and answer questions of general knowledge.

9 p.m. on 3 3

FBI: Most Wanted

The Season 2 finale "Chattanooga" finds Jubal Valentine (Jeremy Sisto, guest starring as his "FBI" series character) recruiting Jess (Julian McMahon) and his team to help track down an undercover DEA agent who appears to have gone dirty — and homicidal — in the middle of a major drug operation. Meanwhile, Sarah (Jen Landon) starts to worry that she made a mistake by moving in with Jess and Tali (YaYa Gosselin) too soon. Kellan Lutz and Roxy Sternberg also star.

9 p.m. on 43 5

This Is Us

If fans of this Emmy-winning drama series feel like the current season went by even faster than usual, they're not mistaken: Owing to a late production start due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Season 5 included two fewer episodes than usual. Viewers definitely will be watching "The Adirondacks," the season finale set at the wedding of Kevin and Madison (Justin Hartley, Caitlin Thompson), for clues to what's coming in Season 6, which will conclude the Pearson family saga. Milo Ventimiglia and Mandy Moore also star.

Movie: Pokémon Detective Pikachu

Ryan Reynolds provides the voice and facial-motion performance as the animated title character in Rob Letterman's mostly delightful 2019 mystery fantasy in which Tim Goodman (Justice Smith), a former Pokémon trainer, teams up with the gifted Detective Pikachu to discern the whereabouts of Tim's missing father, also a veteran detective. There's just one problem: Pikachu is dealing with temporary amnesia. Kathryn Newton, Suki Waterhouse, Omar Chaparro, Chris Geere, Ken Watanabe and Bill Nighy co-star.

Dynasty

After an important interview with Fallon and Liam (Elizabeth Gillies, Adam Huber) is interrupted by shenanigans from Jeff and Alexis (Sam Adegoke, Elaine Hendrix), Fallon is struck with a brilliant idea in the new episode "Everybody Loves the Carringtons." Some major complications come to light when Culhane (Robert C. Riley) receives a high honor, so he turns to Adam and Kirby (Sam Underwood, Maddison Brown) for help. Meanwhile, Sam (Rafael de la Fuente) hopes to impress Ryan (Guest star Lachlan Buchanan) by hiring singer Brian Littrell (guest starring as himself).

LaVell Crawford: The Comedy Vaccine

Everyone knows the familiar saying that laughter is the best medicine, yet when the COVID-19 pandemic left many Americans jonesing for some giggles after weeks of lockdown, most comedy venues remained shuttered due to health regulations against crowds in closed spaces. Luckily, LaVell Crawford, a former runner-up on "Last Comic Standing," hopes to deliver a dose of high spirits during an hour of stand-up in a club where social-distancing protocols are carefully followed.

A Black Lady Sketch Show

This smart, funny comedy series that looks at contemporary life from a Black female perspective wraps up Season 2, which made a triumphantly long hiatus necessitated by the coronavirus pandemic. HBO hasn't yet greenlit Season 3, but buoyed by strong critical support, and the Emmy-nominated show's higher profile in the pop culture world, executive producer Robin Thede says she and her team have already begun to talk to some potential A-list guests while awaiting official renewal.

One Voice: The Songs We Share

This new half-hour music series, which premieres with two back-to-back episodes, features the American Pops Orchestra celebrating uniquely American music, with a different host for each concert. In the opener, hosted by Tony Award winner Jessie Mueller, "Broadway" features classic musical theater showtunes, many of them recorded by Johnny Mathis, the superstar members of the Rat Pack and other stars of yesteryear. Immediately following, Michelle Williams of Destiny's Child hosts "The Sacred," songs written for church but introduced to a wider audience by Elvis Presley, among others.

tonight's picks

Saturday

3:45 p.m. on (435)

Movie: Moonlight

One of the most acclaimed dramas of 2016, writer-director Barry Jenkins' piercing come-of-age drama chronicles three stages in the life of its main character, a young Black man named Chiron, played as an adult by Trevante Roberts (Alex Hibbert and Ashton Sanders play Chiron as a child and teenager, respectively). As a drug dealer who becomes a surrogate father to the boy, Mahershala Ali won an Academy Award as best supporting actor, while Jenkins earned an Oscar for this adapted screenplay. The film itself was named the year's best picture.

5 p.m. on (38)

Movie: Descendants 2

A 2017 sequel to the 2015 cable movie about the offspring of legendary Disney characters, this music-infused fantasy debuts across five of the company's networks simultaneously. Dove Cameron, Cameron Boyce, Sofia Carson and BooBoo Stewart are among the returning stars as the so-called Villain Kids go back to the Isle of the Lost. There, they try to keep evil influences from escaping to the outside world. Director Kenny Ortega also is back. Many in the featured cast return for the 2019 sequel "Descendants 3," which immediately follows.

7 p.m. on (116); 11 p.m. on (116)

Super Dad

In this heartwarming new home improvement series, comic, father and DIY enthusiast Taylor Calmus assembles a team of professional builders to help fathers turn their kids' outrageous backyard dreams into a reality. In the premiere, "Skate Ramp for Six," Taylor meets Brandon Janous, who is adjusting to life following the passing of his wife. Brandon wants to give his kids the backyard of their dreams, so he and Taylor build an epic skate ramp and climbing wall that includes a special tribute.

7 p.m. on (401); 11 p.m. on (401)

Movie: Oslo

The subject matter — the 1993 Oslo Peace Accords happened through a series of largely back-channel talks between strong-willed personalities — may sound dry, but J.T. Sloan's play swept most of the major theater awards during its 2016-17 New York run. Sloan adapted his own stage script for this new HBO adaptation, helmed by original director Bartlett Sher. Golden Globe nominee Ruth Wilson and Emmy winner Andrew Scott head the international cast.
