Lisa Kudrow lends her voice to the animated comedy series "HouseBroken," premiering Monday on Fox.

Lisa Kudrow gets 'HouseBroken' as an animated poodle

Even a cartoon poodle has to have friends, as Lisa Kudrow realizes. With one of television's most enduringly popular sitcoms to her credit – "Friends," of course – along with "The Comeback" and "Web Therapy," the actress-producer tries something different in returning to weekly humor. She speaks for the central character in the animated Fox series "HouseBroken," premiering Monday, May 31. Kudrow's Honey leads group therapy sessions for neighborhood pets and strays, most of whom reflect traits also likely to be recognized in humans. While counseling such peers as a commitment-phobic tortoise (voiced by Will Forte) and an OCD-afflicted terrier ("Veep" Emmy winner Tony Hale), Honey has her own troubles via her arranged marriage to a St. Bernard (Nat Faxon), Sharon Horgan ("Catastrophe") and Clea DuVall, who voice other characters, are among the show's executive producers.

"I just saw the cast and said, 'Yeah! I want to be in that group,' " the pleasant, lively Kudrow explains. "It was just such a funny idea, pets getting together to have therapy. Honey isn't qualified to be a therapist, but her human is one." Noting her "Web Therapy" past, Kudrow muses, "I'm going to be typecast."

As for "HouseBroken" animals mirroring real-world situations, Kudrow cites one whose "humans are separating, so he's going back and forth between them, and he's anxious." Kudrow was a bit anxious herself in determining how Honey should sound, and she allows she made what she terms "the wrong choice" initially.

"I had to go back and re-record," she says, "because I thought, 'Oh, that would be really funny.' And then, it wasn't. She sounded a little too superior; maybe I was bumping into what I did in 'Web Therapy.' The thought was that she's a poodle and thinks she's a little better than everybody else, but it didn't work at all. I had to adjust."

Kudrow agrees "HouseBroken" is an ideal job in the time of the coronavirus pandemic. "We got to do table reads over Zoom," she reports, though she laments that in mostly recording by herself, "You don't get to chat or exchange moments while getting coffee. Nat Faxon and I got to record together ... and good luck to whoever is putting that together, because I just laughed every time he spoke! Clea also came to some sessions and read with me."

Reunited recently with her "Friends" colleagues to record a much-anticipated HBO Max special, Kudrow has been a guest voice on such other animated series as "The Simpsons" and "King of the Hill." She notes that with the timing of "HouseBroken" specifically, "it was helpful to know, 'Oh. I have something I have to do.' It was really nice to be busy with something."

Checking in with
TONY KANAAN

At 46 and with 27 years in various open-wheel series under his belt, IndyCar driver Tony Kanaan has no plans to retire.

And he knows keeping himself in shape is key. Toward that end, the Brazil native trains his body daily in the gym, uses the therapy Reflexion to keep his reflexes sharp and even runs Ironman Triathlons to condition his mind and body for the long-haul of a race. For him, it's all about staying in the game he loves as long as he can.

"When you do an Ironman, for me it's like a 10-12 hour race," he explains. "And when you're having a long day in the car, the longest race is the Indy 500, it's three hours, it becomes not that long. So mentally I come in prepared But physically, obviously it helps me a lot with the aerobic side. Obviously with that, I go to the gym every day and try to do some core exercises, some neck exercises. But the swim obviously helps to strengthen my shoulders, which we use a lot in the race car. And then the long races, the long triathlons, I basically train my mind."

And Kanaan's longest day in a race car comes Sunday, May 30, when he'll be part of the 33-car field for the 105th Indianapolis 500, which airs on NBC from Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Kanaan, the winner of the 2013 Indy 500, will be driving in his third race of an abbreviated four-race slate in 2021, piloting the No. 48 Dallara-Honda for Chip Ganassi Racing, splitting duty with former NASCAR Cup champ Jimmie Johnson, who drives road and street courses while he takes the ovals.

He says the opportunity to team with one of racing's all-time greats this season was too good to pass up.

"It's something that we're going to be talking about it for the rest of our lives," Kanaan says. "I mean, I got to share a car with the seven-time (champion) and we did something that two big names like that – I could be wrong but that never happened before."

tonight's picks

Will Arnett

Tuesday 7 p.m. on 43 5 America's Got Talent For Season 16 of this blockbuster variety competition series, a new set of aspiring artists vie for the ultimate $1 million prize before a judging panel comprising executive producer Simon Cowell, fashion icon Heidi Klum, actor and comic Howie Mandel and former "Modern Family" star Sofia Vergara, along with the studio audience and viewers at home. Host Terry Crews ("Brooklyn Nine-Nine") also returns. "America's Got Talent" has won the ratings race for the last 10 summers in a row.

7 p.m. on 12 7 LEGO Masters In Season 2 of this whimsical competition series, new teams of two compete against each other in even more ambitious brick-building challenges, including a demolition derby, an earthquake tower challenge, a LEGO fashion show and more. Host Will Arnett and expert LEGO Brickmasters Amy Corbett and Jamie Berard make the tough calls as far as which teams move forward in the competition until the ultimate finale, when the top teams face off for a $100,000 cash prize, the LEGO trophy and the grand title of LEGO Masters.

7 p.m. on 9 9 Mike Tyson: The Knockout The conclusion of this two-part documentary covers Mike Tyson's conviction and subsequent prison term for raping 18-year-old Desiree Washington. The case generated a spirited debate in popular culture over the fall of a hero and issues of victimization. Nearly 30 years after those events, Tyson's defense attorney, James Voyles, and special prosecutor Greg Garrison reflect on that polarizing trial. The film also spotlights Tyson's professional comeback following his release, including his bout with Evander Holyfield, during which he bit Holyfield's ear.

9 p.m. on 33; 12 a.m. on 33 House Hunters There's a TV superstar in the house for tonight's new episode, as "Pose" star Dominique Jackson — who plays the statuesque Elektra in Ryan Murphy's Emmy-winning drama — goes shopping for a dream home with manager and fiancé Edwin. As so often happens with "ordinary" couples, this pair may be soulmates at heart, but they have vastly different home styles in mind. In fact, Jackson's tastes run parallel to her flamboyant TV alter-ego. "I want everything," she says.

9 p.m. on 46; 1 a.m. on 46 Doubling Down With the Derrios The family with 14 kids — including four sets of naturally conceived multiples and singletons — returns for a new season that sees the household confronting new challenges, as parents Karen and Deon learn that 3-year-old son Diez may require delicate surgery on his skull. Elsewhere, Deon shifts into full-blown protective-dad mode when daughter Darian announces she's ready to start dating. Meanwhile, Karen wonders whether her husband may have some form of obsessive-compulsive disorder.

TUESDAY EVENING JUNE 1, 2021

Table with columns for time slots (6 PM, 7 PM, 8 PM, 9 PM, 10 PM, 11 PM, 12:30) and rows for various TV channels (CBS, NBC, FOX, PBS, ABC, CNN, etc.) listing programs and their descriptions.

tonight's picks

Ellen Pompeo

Thursday
7 p.m. on 12 7
Beat Shazam
 Oscar-winning actor and comic Jamie Foxx returns to host Season 4 of this hit game show, in which three teams of two vie against one another and each other to be the first to identify popular songs, while also playing against the titular song identification app. At stake is a shot at winning a million dollars, but this season also will feature a special episode in which the players vie to win $2 million. Also new this season is a celebrity edition in which stars will play for charity.

Station 19
 Maya (Danielle Savre) belatedly addresses some unresolved family issues, while the crew takes matters into their own hands when they run into a life-or-death situation on a response scene, in the Season 4 finale, "Forever and Ever, Amen." Meanwhile, the marriage of Andy and Sullivan (Jaina Lee Ortiz, Boris Kodjoe) is put to the test. Chandra Wilson makes a guest appearance in her "Grey's Anatomy" role of Dr. Miranda Bailey; Rick Worthy and Svetlana Efremova also guest star.
7 p.m. on 33; 2 a.m. on 33
Christina on the Coast
 Southern California designer Christina Haack continues to juggle her thriving career with the demand of being a mother of three as this hit home improvement series returns for a third season. In this premiere, "Let's Dish," Christina meets a musician and his wife, the latter of whom has a strong sentimental attachment to their Spanish-style home where she grew up. The property is in desperate need of an extensive facelift, however, especially where the cramped and outdated kitchen is concerned.

8 p.m. on 9 9
Grey's Anatomy
 "Someone Saved My Life Tonight" is the title's star Eleni Pompeo who recently made millions of "Grey's" fans very happy by signing on for at least one more season on the longest-running medical drama in TV history. Tonight's episode opens on the wedding day of Maggie and Winston (Kelly McCreary, Andy Hill). Meanwh Creedy (Pompeo) assumes a new role at the hospital, while Jo (Camilla Luddington) makes a life-changing decision.

8:33 p.m. on 48; 12:36 a.m. on 48
Alone
 Ten new participants brave "Alone's" most terrifying location yet in pursuit of $500,000 in Season 8 of this hit reality adventure competition. The setting is Chilko Lake, British Columbia, Canada, also known as Grizzly Mountain. As that nickname suggests, the region is home to a dense population of grizzly bears, one of the deadliest predators on Earth. In the premiere, "The Hunted," one participant is forced to make a life-or-death decision, probably the first of many this season.

9:01 p.m. on 9 9
Rebel
 Rebel (Katey Sagal) uses every strategy she can think of to persuade a key witness to testify in the case against Stone-mo Medical in a new episode called "It's All About the Chemistry." Elsewhere, Lana (Tamala Jones) confronts Grady (John Corbett) over someone from his past. The large guest cast includes Matthew Spencer, Daniella Garcia, Abigail Spencer, Jalen Thomas Brooks, Jeff Doucette, Nina Millin, Leonard Roberts, Peter Paige and Tyee Tilghman.
