BY GEORGE DICKIE

Kate Winslet stars in "Mare of Easttown," premiering Sunday on HBO.

A detective investigates a murder that upends life in her hometown, thus forcing her to confront expectations from her past in a limited drama series upcoming on HBO.

In "Mare of Easttown," a seven-part series premiering Sunday, April 18, Kate Winslet ("Ammonite," "Titanic") is cast in the role of Mare Sheehan, a 40-something police detective who investigates when a child's lifeless body is pulled from a local creek, a troubling crime that rocks her titular small Pennsylvania town.

It turns out the investigator herself is troubled. The daughter of a detective, now deceased, she has struggled with expectations ever since she made the winning shot in a high-school basketball championship game 25 years earlier. She doesn't get along with her mother, Helen (Jean Smart, "Watchmen"), and spends her idle hours at the bar, where she hooks up with Richard (Guy Pearce, "Mildred Pierce"), a local writing professor. But she has a confidante in Lori (Julianne Nicholson, "August: Osage County"), her protective best friend since childhood.

The role was a challenging one for Winslet, who was just coming off playing British paleontologist Mary Anning in the 2020 feature film "Ammonite," and thus struggled to get into this completely different character's headspace.

"She's nothing like me," says Winslet, who won an Oscar for "The Reader." "So that's pretty scary in a great way if you're an actor like me who likes to feel terrified and exposed. And I just had never done anything like this, (I) was excited to read something that just gripped me right away. I really felt the sense of not just who she was, but the world that she lives in, where she comes from, that sense of community, being so entrenched in a society that you sort of forget who you are from time to time, and the sense of responsibility/burdens that Mare carries – for lots of reasons to do with her backstory – really, really intrigued me."

For the part of Mare, Winslet did months of prep work, spending time with police departments in Easttown and Marple Township outside of Philadelphia and working extensively with series creator Brad Ingelsby, a native of that area, to get the dialect and accent right. But in the end, it was one universal theme that enabled Winslet to connect with the character.

"That real sense of family and how much it means to her to hold that together at all costs," the British actress says. "And also to be able to admit to herself from time to time that she has failed in a lot of areas and tries desperately to correct those errors and to hold everyone as close to her as she can, even if she's a difficult person to live with from time to time. It doesn't change the fact that her love for her family is the thing that bolts her down and drives her in life and is her number one priority. And that was something that I was able to connect with in the midst of all these other things that were so far away and so far removed from myself.

Checking in with A.J. FRANCIS

For most people, being an NFL player is a dream job and the culmination of years of hard work and dedication. But for A.J. Francis, it was merely a means to an end.

Indeed, the 30-year-old native of suburban Washington, D.C., enjoyed and cherished his time as a nose tackle for five NFL teams. But it pales in comparison to the feeling the now-WWE Superstar in training gets when he steps into the ring.

"I played Thursday Night Football in front of 10 million people watching at home Thanksgiving night, prime-time TV," he explains. "Made a play that ended up winning the game and that doesn't give me the same rush as an eight-minute match in front of nobody. The only way I can describe it is the first time I had a match in front of a crowd, I felt like I was home. ... It was like my whole life, I was a fish out of water and had to climb trees and now I finally got thrown in the ocean."

On "WWE's Most Wanted Treasures," premiering Sunday, April 18, on A&E Network, Francis teams up with WWE legend Mick Foley to seek out and try to retrieve key mementos from WWE history that are in the hands of private collectors or museums or hidden away in someone's basement or attic. WWE's Stephanie McMahon and Paul "Triple H" Levesque lead the searches for items such as Kane's original mask, Ric Flair's Butterfly Robe, Andre the Giant's passport and Andy Kaufman's neck brace.

For Francis, it's all about realizing his lifelong dream of becoming the WWE champion and the series is another step in that direction.

"I played five years in the NFL and if I could have played 10, I would have played 10," he says. "But no matter what, I would've eventually made my way to WWE."

Full name: Anthony Joseph Francis

Movie: A Simple Favor
 Anna Kendrick and Blake Lively head the beguiling cast of director Paul Feig's ("Bridesmaids") well-received 2018 black comedy about a widowed single mom and vlogger (Kendrick) from a small town who gets drawn into a baffling mystery after her wealthy and enigmatic best friend (Lively) seems to vanish without a trace. Henry Golding ("Crazy Rich Asians"), Linda Cardellini ("Bloodline"), Andrew Rannells ("Girls"), Jean Smart and Rupert Friend co-star.

7 p.m. on (56)
Movie: Red River
 The first cattle drive from Texas to Kansas via the Chisholm Trail serves as the backdrop for this 1948 western directed by Howard Hawks, which got respectable reviews upon its initial release, but has since become regarded as among the best Westerns ever made. As stubborn rancher Thomas Dunson and his adopted son, Matt, John Wayne and Montgomery Clift turn in some of the best acting of their careers. Walter Brennan and Joanne Dru also star.

Movie: Deceitful Dating Struggling to raise two daughters, a widower is starting to feel completely overwhelmed until he meets some much-needed help from Alice, a beautiful but mysterious new neighbor. Behind Every Man Nick Young is widely recognized as one of the most talented basketball players of his generation, but he didn't get there on his own. The new episode "Keonna Green" profiles the woman who steadfastly has been Young's main support throughout his journey from high school hoops to the Los Angeles Lakers, then the Golden State Warriors.

10 p.m. on (3) (8)
Great Performances
 Two of Britain's fastest-rising young stars — Josh O'Connor (Prince Charles in "The Crown") and Jessie Buckley (HBO's "Chernobyl") — play star-crossed lovers "Romeo and Juliet" in this stylized film of Simon Godwin's National Theatre staging of Shakespeare's timeless classic. This contemporary rendering of the play celebrates the power of theatrical imagination, moving from a no-frills rehearsal into a cinematic journey, some of which takes place in backstage areas of the Lyttleton Theatre. The cast also features Deborah Findlay, Tamsin Greig, Adrian Lester and Lucian Msa-mati.

10 p.m. on (401); 11:30 p.m. on (401)
A Black Lady Sketch Show
 The Emmy-nominated sketch comedy series returns for a second season of six episodes, with new featured players Laci Mosley and Skye Townsend joining returning core cast members Robin Thede, Gabrielle Dennis and Ashley Nicole Black. Among the scheduled Season 2 celebrity guest stars are Issa Rae ("Insecure"), also an executive producer, along with Gabrielle Union, Jesse Williams, Miguel, Laz Alonso, Skai Jackson, Omarion, Kim Wayans, Ayesha Curry, Lance Gross, and Wunmi Mosaku.

tonight's picks

Saturday

5:50 p.m. on (15)

Movie: Moana

Disney animators dipped into the deep well of Polynesian mythology for this 2016 3-D computer-animated musical fantasy about the strong-willed young daughter of a Polynesian chief, who is chosen by the ocean itself to undertake a mission to save her island from a blight. To reverse that situation, Moana (voice of newcomer Auli'i Cravalho) must set sail and find Maui (voice of Dwayne Johnson), a shape-shifting demigod, and reclaim a mystic stone belonging to a goddess. The film was nominated for two Academy Awards, including best animated feature.

7 p.m. on (32); 11 p.m. on (32)

Ghost Brothers: Lights Out

TV's only black paranormal crusaders — Atlanta-based trio Dalen Spratt, Juwan Mass and Marcus Harvey — anchor this new ghost-busting series that follows a somewhat unconventional format. Each episode starts with Mass and Harvey investigating an allegedly haunted property with no prior knowledge of the site, while Spratt — who has fully briefed himself on the history of the location — guides the other pair from a remote "command center." The premiere, "Roff Family Rituals," finds them in Wateka, Ill., to investigate the death of a young girl.

8 p.m. on (74); 11 p.m. on (74)

Iyanla, Fix My Life

In the new episode "Dirty Laundry and Unfinished Business," the Giles family returns looking to tie up some more loose ends. This time, Marc's eldest son joins the group, looking to settle an old score with his father. Meanwhile, the youngest daughter confronts the grandmother, who doesn't like her, while the youngest son just makes a run for it.

8 p.m. on (435)

Movie: Mid90s

Actor Jonah Hill received praise for his feature directing debut on this 2018 coming-of-age dramedy, which he also wrote. Set in 1996, the film stars Sunny Suljic as Stevie, aka "Sunburn," who lives in the Los Angeles community of Palms with his abusive older brother, Ian (Lucas Hedges), and his single mom, Dabney (Katherine Waterston). He begins exhibiting increasingly reckless behavior after falling in with a mostly older group of skateboarders. Na-kel Smith, Olan Prenatt and Gio Galicia co-star.
