Riann Steele and Jonathan Tucker star in "Debris," premiering Monday on NBC.

'Debris' signals more tough times for the world in NBC sci-fi series

The next time you see something fall from the sky, it may mean more than you think. And not in a good way.

That's how "Fringe" and "Almost Human" veteran J.H. Wyman is positioning it, anyway. He's now the creator and executive producer of "Debris," an NBC sci-fi series that premieres Monday, March 1, making fallen pieces of an alien spaceship threats to physics ... thus causing people to start falling, too. Two dissimilar agents, played by Jonathan Tucker ("Westworld," "City on a Hill") and Riann Steele ("The Magicians," "Lovesick"), are dispatched to collaborate and gather the debris — though how it will be handled afterward, and to what end, is figuratively up in the air. Two-time Tony Award winner Norbert Leo Butz also stars.

"We're going to put something out there that's going to make a difference to people and (make them) say, 'There's something different about the show,'" Wyman maintains. "It speaks to things that I think aren't really out there right now. There's a hope and a concept that maybe there's something out there that we don't know, and that is something that I think is intriguing enough. And all I can ask for is people to sample it and kind of understand it."

Actor Tucker explains that "week to week, a new piece of debris is discovered. And it allows us to discover the unique capabilities that this debris has to offer, how it affects people, how it affects the world, and ultimately how it affects (the characters) and their own relationship. It's fun for us as actors, for sure, but I think it will be fun for audiences to see ... and it speaks to the kind of cablelevel sci-fi that we've become accustomed to. You can have a case of the week, but you can also have meaningful character development and mythological rollout over the course of this first season, at least."

Fellow "Debris" star Steele adds that "there is a realism alongside" the fantasy of the show: "You're meeting two characters who are very flawed and very broken, and we get to see them along the season kind of understand each other through the debris."

However "Debris" is received generally, Wyman believes it is meeting his own criteria for what he wanted to do with it. "To me, the best sci-fi is more about the human condition that it talks about," he reasons. "There's a lot of people out there that do the 'little green men' thing better than me. I'm more (about), with the sci-fi genre, what does it look like when there are questions asked that really shine a light on the human condition? I just always find that fascinating."

Checking in with RYAN SEACREST

celebrity scoop
BY JAY BOBBIN

For Ryan Seacrest, weekday mornings are both the same and different now.

Their nature changed for him, as for so many people, about a year ago when the coronavirus pandemic began. He and co-host Kelly Ripa suddenly had to adjust to doing their popular syndicated show "Live With Kelly and Ryan" from their respective homes on opposite coasts ... and though they've returned to the studio, they're still conducting the great majority of their celebrity interviews remotely.

"It never felt like we were actually on live television," Seacrest reflects of the period when he and Ripa were working from home. "The thought of us standing in our kitchens or our living rooms by ourselves, broadcasting nationally on traditional media through our computer screens, I didn't feel like we were on the air, which may have made us even more comfortable than when we're on the set."

Still, Seacrest notes that he and Ripa "were anxious to be in the same room, because a lot of the magic on this kind of show comes from reading body language. And we do that very well, so I think we're even better when we're in the room together."

With that said, Seacrest — who also does his "On Air With Ryan Seacrest" radio program each weekday morning — allows that "we're all experiencing a lot of firsts" in the pandemic age, adding that he and the entire "Live" staff are "sensitive to what's happening in the world, and we know where our show stands in the universe of television and content and popular culture. We just try to put on a show that's friendly every day."

tonight's picks

Tina Fey and Amy Poehler

Sunday
7 p.m. on 43 (5)

The 78th Annual Golden Globe Awards

They're frequent BFFs and frequent collaborators, but something magical seems to happen when Tina Fey and Amy Poehler team up as co-host for an awards show. That show-biz "great conjunction" makes a happy reappearance for this year's Golden Globes, the Hollywood Foreign Press Association's annual ceremony honoring the best in both film and television for the past calendar year. This first-ever bi-coastal Globes ceremony will feature Fay at New York's famous Rain-bow and Poehler at the Beverly Hilton in Los Angeles, with nominees joining remotely throughout the telecast.

8 p.m. on 36

When Calls the Heart

In a new episode called "Honestly, Elizabeth," Helen Bouchar-d (guest star Teryl Rothery) gets to work editing Elizabeth's (Erin Krakow) manuscript. The unexpected arrival of Lucas' (Chris McNally) mother makes Elizabeth more than a little nervous, while Lee (Kavan Smith) sustains an injury to his back. Meanwhile, a newcomer ar-rives with words of comfort that prompt Rosemary (Pascale Hut-ton) to reflect on what she wants in life.

8 p.m. on 54; 10:02 p.m. on 54; 11:04 p.m. on 54; 1:06 a.m. on 54; 2:08 a.m. on 54

The Walking Dead

AMC's The Walking Dead series returns with new Season 10 episodes that find the survivors trying to pick themselves up and begin repairing their lives after the wholesale destruction the Whisperers left in their wake in the new episode "Home Sweet Home." Maggie (Lauren Cohan) has returned with a harrowing story she is not yet ready to share, even when her past catches up to her. Negan's (Jeffrey Dean Morgan) safety is at stake again, while Daryl (Norman Reedus) and Maggie fight an unseen and unknown threat.

Jane Krakowski

tonight's picks

Wednesday
7 p.m. on 12 7
Name That Tune
 Host Jane Krakowski wraps up her first season at the helm of this game-show reboot in tonight's two-hour season finale, in which a lineup of contestants face off in a series of bouts to demonstrate their knowledge of popular songs, performed by the show's live band led by Randy Jackson ("American Idol"). The player with the most money at the end of the game gets a chance to win additional cash and potentially the $100,000 grand prize in the climactic Golden Medley.

8 p.m. on 33; 11 p.m. on 33
Farmhouse Fixer
 Best known as one of the New Kids on the Block, Jonathan Knight hosts this new makeover series, in which he offers his advice on meticulously restoring centuries-old New England farmhouses that deserve a second chance. Each of the six episodes in Season 1 features Knight, who has renovated more than 200 houses, preserving the home's original craftsmanship and historic charm, while modernizing room layouts and updating interiors. In the premiere, designer Kristina Crestin helps Knight refurbish an 18th-century New Hampshire farmhouse.

8 p.m. on 116; 11 p.m. on 116
Restored
 In the new episode "1912 Transitional Victorian Arts and Crafts," host Brett Waterman focuses on a 1912 Transitional Victorian house that is a veritable hybrid of styles, combining Victorian flourish with "arts and crafts" simplicity. Applying both skill and ingenuity, he manages to restore the home, blend two different architectural styles and find space for a new bedroom for the daughter of the owners.

9 p.m. on 47
Resident Alien
 Having earned virtually across-the-board reviews from critics, this quirky and dark (but very funny) series adaptation of a Dark Horse comic book continues with the new episode "Sexy Beast," as incognito extraterrestrial Harry Vanderpeigle (the dazzling Alan Tudyk) keeps stuzzling to master unfamiliar human emotions to protect his masquerade. In this case, it's seething jealousy, after the mayor (Levi Fiehr) hires an annoyingly perfect new town doctor. Alice Wetterlund also stars.

9 p.m. on 59; 10 p.m. on 59; 1 a.m. on 59

Snowfall
 When Franklin's (Damson Idris) escalating troubles begin to extend well beyond the gangs, the volatile situation winds up putting Cissy (Michael Hyatt) in jeopardy in a new episode called "All the Way Down." Elsewhere, Teddy and Gustavo (Carter Hudson, Sergio Peris-Mencheta) embark on a quest for revenge. Isaiah John and Amin Joseph also star.

10 p.m. on 62
Movie: Kick-Ass 2
 The self-styled, comic-book-inspired young heroes are back in this equally violent sequel, which co-star Jim Carrey disowned after being affected by real-world events. The title character's (Aaron Taylor-Johnson) efforts to lead a normal life don't go too smoothly, as is also the case for Hit-Girl (Chloe Grace Moretz, "Carrie"), and they ultimately end up engaged again in a ferocious battle with an old enemy (Christopher Mintz-Plasse).

tonight's picks

Friday
7 p.m. on (435)
Movie: Summerland
Set primarily in World War II-era England, writer-director Jessica Swale's touching 2020 drama stars Gemma Arterton ("Quantum of Solace") as Alice Lamb, a reclusive writer who only reluctantly agrees to care for a young boy, Frank (Lucas Bond), who has been shipped to the countryside after the London Blitz. Alice is reluctant to let herself bond with the boy because of a past heartbreak in her life, but Frank ultimately plays a key role in Alice's future happiness. Gugu Mbatha-Raw, Sian Phillips, Penelope Wilton and Tom Courtenay also star.

7:30 p.m. on (123); 1:30 a.m. on (123)
Movie: Goldfinger
Sean Connery's third James Bond film introduces Harold Sakata as Oddjob, who enforces his boss's orders with a razor-edged bowler hat. Goldfinger (Gert Frobe) is the rich villain who, after buying up all the world's private gold, plans to contaminate the contents of Fort Knox. Honor Blackman stars as Pussy Galore, Goldfinger's private pilot — and one of Agent 007's romantic conquests, another of whom (Shirley Eaton) comes to a famously golden end. Shirley Bassey belts out the classic title song.

8 p.m. on (3) (3)
Magnum P.I.
After an Army ranger goes missing shortly after returning home from deployment, Magnum (Jay Hernandez) discovers that the man had received some devastating news upon arriving Stateside. Given that insight, Magnum realizes he must find the ranger before he is consumed by survivor's guilt in the new episode "The Long Way Home." Elsewhere, while they're on a mini-break, Higgins and Ethan (Perdita Weeks, Jay Ali) solve the case of a missing wedding ring, and Katsumoto (Tim Kang) tries spending quality time with his teenage son (guest star Lance Lim).

9 p.m. on (47)
Wynonna Earp
Melanie Scrofano is back in her iconic title role as this quirky, female-driven action-horror-comedy-supernatural-Western returns to finish out its fourth and final season. As the action resumes in executive producer Emily Andras' cheeky series adaptation of a comic-book series by Beau Smith, Wynonna battles demons both external and internal, with an assist from the immortal Doc Holliday (Tim Rozon), Wynonna's sister Waverly (Dominique Provost-Chalkley), and Nicole Haught (Katherine Barrell), Waverly's new fiancée.

9:48 p.m. on (420)
Movie: In Secret
Not long before Elizabeth Olsen joined the Marvel Cinematic Universe as Wanda Maximoff, aka the Scarlet Witch, the actress earned good notices in this 2013 big-screen adaptation of Emile Zola's classic 1867 novel "Therese Raquin," playing the titular and sexually repressed young Parisienne trapped in a loveless marriage to her sickly cousin (Tom Felton, who played Draco Malfoy in the "Harry Potter" film series). Jessica Lange, Oscar Isaac, Matt Lucas and Shirley Henderson also are featured in the strong ensemble.

Among the suspects is Brenna Douglas (Jill Morrison), the estranged and soon-to-be ex-wife of the deceased, who frequently had complained to her best friend that Russell was physically and emotionally abusive. Beyond the Headlines: Beauty Queens Gone Bad
Airing as a companion piece to tonight's drama "Circle of Deception," this short new documentary looks at some real-life accounts that inspired the movie, which also draws from Ann Rule's popular true crime work, "Practice to Deceive." The special also digs more deeply into the overall theme of criminal deception.
