'Supernatural's' Jared Padalecki fights evildoers of a different stripe in The CW reboot 'Walker'

After 15 years as monster hunter Sam Winchester on "Supernatural," Jared Padalecki jumps right back into the series fray as star and executive producer of a series reboot upcoming on The CW.

In "Walker," an updated version of the 1993-2001 CBS actioner "Walker, Texas Ranger" that premieres Thursday, Jan. 21, the native Texan stars as title character Cordell Walker, a widower and father of two with his own moral code who returns home to Austin after two years of undercover work.

There, he encounters challenges of a different stripe: reconnecting with his creative son (Kale Culley, "Me, Myself and I") and rebellious daughter (Violet Brinson, "Sharp Objects"); negotiating clashes with his prosecutor brother (Keegan Allen, "Pretty Little Liars"), his perceptive mother (Molly Hagan, "Herman's Head") and traditional rancher father (Mitch Pileggi, "The X-Files"); and learning to work with his new partner (Lindsey Morgan, "The 100"), one of the first women in Texas Rangers history.

While this may have the same title character, occupation and setting, that is where the similarities with the original series end. This is a 21st century Walker, not a prequel or a story about a descendant. And with law enforcement problems dominating the news in recent months, Padalecki wanted to tell a positive story about police and "a law enforcement official who kind of toes the line and who is often stuck between what he is bound to do and what he believes is right like so many of our men and women in blue do find themselves in."

"I've lived in Austin for 10 years with my wife and we have three kids now, and I love Austin," he continues. "I'm a proud Texan and there's a lot of good in Texas and I think people in Texas get an interesting rap, (it can be) bad sometimes. But Texas is also a character in this series, so (are) the places and the people and the towns and the vibe, and so I had an opportunity to tell a story about a place I love while living in the place I actually live."

Padalecki had a brief break between the two series. He wrapped filming of "Supernatural" in Vancouver in mid-September and started work on "Walker" in late October, giving him about six weeks to say goodbye to Sam Winchester and get into the headspace of Walker.

"I drove down from Vancouver in my truck that I've had the last eight years and I had my dog with me and did a little road trip to kind of exhale after finishing up that show," he reports. "And then I had another five weeks after that road trip to sit down and really focus in on Walker"

"I think I still probably am letting go of Sam Winchester," he adds. "I imagine I will be letting go of Sam Winchester for a long, long time."

Checking in with

celebrity scoop
BY GEORGE DICKIE

For the character of Ryan Wilder as the new "Batwoman," Javicia Leslie found a role she could really sink her teeth into.

Indeed, the 33-year-old "God Friended Me" alum feels she has a lot in common with a character she calls "your girl next door," who through a series of events becomes a superhero after her predecessor Kate Kane (departed cast member Ruby Rose) goes missing following a plane crash.

"She, to me, represented so many of us," the Washington, D.C.-area native explains. "You know what's interesting is, I feel like when I see Ryan become Batwoman, it just shows that anyone can be a superhero. And so that idea of she's not a billionaire, she's not the daughter of a superhero. She's literally just this girl who didn't have an easy life at all and now on the show you get to watch her journey in becoming a superhero and that's like really fun."

As The CW action series opens Season 2 on Sunday, Jan. 17, Ryan finds the suit in the crash wreckage and realizes putting it on is her chance to stop being a victim and find her own power. Realizing how much the symbol on the suit means to Gotham

City, she begins a journey that takes her from living in her van to confidently pursuing villains in the Batmobile.

Part of that for Leslie meant lots of fight scenes and stunts, which the trained martial artist embraced.

"When the (stunt team says), 'OK Javicia, we're gonna strap you into this harness and then we're gonna wire you up and we're gonna shoot you out of the scene,' I'm like, 'Yeah! Bring it on!' That's my favorite part."

Exhumed

Kelly Ripa and Mark Consuelos are among the executive producers of this new true-crime series in which all the cases hang on the common pivot that unearthing a victim's body holds the key to closing the case. The two-hour premiere starts with the Missouri slaying of Diana Kelley. Years later, another investigation links Kelley's murder with the death of another resident of the same town.

Miss Scarlet and the Duke on Masterpiece

Something akin to a Victorian-era take on "Veronica Mars," this diverting new crime drama stars Kate Phillips as female sleuth Eliza Scarlet, who yearns to follow in the footsteps of her father and mentor Henry (Kevin Doyle, "Downton Abbey"), a former cop now working as a private eye. Alas, it's all but impossible for a young woman of Eliza's times to break into this male-only profession, which is why she's lucky to be childhood friends with Detective Inspector William "The Duke" Wellington of Scotland Yard.

7 p.m. on 13

Batwoman

There's a new face behind the mask as this superhero series starts its sophomore season following original star Ruby Rose's shock departure from her lead role as Kate Kane. Her lacerated character is being written out, replaced by Javicia Leslie as Ryan Wilder, who takes up the cape going forward. She'll battle a scarier-than-ever Alice (Rachel Skarsten) and the security team of Jacob Kane (Douglas Scott), Kate's troubled father. Camrus Johnson, Nicole Kang and Meagan Tandy are among other Season 1 returnees.

Cakealikes

As this unconventional "cake off" continues, host Tregaye Fraser challenges the teams of cake artists to render an accurate likeness of music superstar Lady Gaga — whose past flamboyant public appearances have included one she attended while wearing a dress made out of actual meat — in cake form. The diva is in the details for this assignment, and judges Kalen Allen, Natalie Siderser and guest panelist Erika Smith evaluate which team does the best job.

9-1-1

Season 4 of this intense drama, which follows the white-knuckle heroism of first responders in the greater Los Angeles area, opens with yet another signature disaster. Amid the ensuing chaos, Athena (Angela Bassett) risks her own welfare, putting her physical and emotional injuries behind her as she jumps fearlessly back into the demands of her job. Elsewhere, Maddie and Chimney prepare for the birth of their baby, while Buck confronts his past for the sake of his present.

7 p.m. on 13

All American

Since Carson Poyans, the NFL linebacker whose formative years inspired this TV drama, never had to struggle through a global pandemic during his last year of high school, this show's creative team faces some daunting and unique challenges as it enters Season 3. Since COVID-19 isn't a thing in the world of the show, producers have had to find creative ways to practice mandated health guidelines during production without letting them appear on camera. Daniel Ezra, Taye Diggs, Samantha Logan and most of the familiar series regulars return.

8 p.m. on 31; 11 p.m. on 31

Kids Baking Championship

In the new episode "Picnic Desserts and Kid Commentary," host Valerie Bertinelli and Duff Goldsman challenge eight young bakers to make hand pies and dress up a sweet treat called "basket on a log" to fit into a picnic basket. Later, some of the former kid competitors share the approaches they decided to take in their attempt to excel at this assignment.

8 p.m. on 401; 10:55 p.m. on 401

30 Coins

Father Vergara (Eduard Fernández) departs on a journey to Rome, where he'll be forced to confront his painful past, in a new episode called "Memories." He has requested a meeting with the Holy Father, but upon arrival, he discovers that Santoro (Manolo Solo) likewise awaits time with the priest as well. Meanwhile, back in Pinedraza, someone is about to return from the dead. Miguel Silvestre, Megan and Macarena Gómez also star.

8:01 p.m. on 12 (7)

9-1-1: Lone Star

Gina Torres ("Suits") joins this action-packed spinoff series in the role of Captain Tommy Vega, who joins the 126 as Season 2 opens. Even as Owen (Rob Lowe) gives this newcomer a warm welcome, though, he must steel himself for the unexpected arrival of his ex-wife Gwyneth (Lisa Edelstein of "House" in a recurring role), in Austin to check on their firefighter son, T.K. (Ronen Rubinstein). Meanwhile, the team wrestles with an emergency that's unfamiliar to their region. Jim Parrack and Sierra McClain also star.

Thursday 7 p.m. on 9 (9)
Celebrity Wheel of Fortune
Host Pat Sajak and his longtime colleague Vanna White welcome a trio of celebrity contestants from the game show "Holey Moley" to the iconic big wheel, where they'll compete to solve a word puzzle and win up to $1 million for their charity of choice. Tonight's stars include Rob Riggle playing for Meals on Wheels, Joe Tessitore appearing on behalf of Wide Horizons for Children and Jeannie Mai competing for No Kid Hungry.

7 p.m. on 15; 9:30 p.m. on 15
grown-ish
This delightful spinoff from "black-ish" returns with new episodes, starting with "Public Service Announcement," which finds main character Zoey Johnson (Yara Shahidi) diving into what looks very much like a dream job after dropping out of Cal U. Now she just has to find a way to balance this new work life with her personal life while touring with Brooklyn-born rapper Joey Bada$$.

7 p.m. on 42; 11:03 p.m. on 42

The First 48 Presents Critical Minutes

Three cases involving innocent folks who became crime victims during daylight hours make up the new episode "In Broad Daylight," which includes a night out in New Orleans that later turns into a deadly morning in the aftermath of a seemingly random encounter. In other cases, an argument in Tulsa, Okla., over a cellphone escalates into a double murder, and a lovers' breakup in Birmingham, Ala., goes horrifyingly wrong in a public park.

8 p.m. on 13

Legacies

The coronavirus pandemic shut down production on this supernatural drama last spring before the story lines could reach their original climax, but presumably Season 3 will pick up the action tonight with two Season 2 cliffhangers. In one, a fight with the deadly Necromancer (recurring guest star Ben Geurens) left Hope Mikaelson (Danielle Rose Russell) locked in a slumber from which her friends can't rouse her. Bad timing, though, because her true love Landon (Aria Shahghasemi) has just been mortally wounded. Jenny Boyd and Peyton Alex Smith also return.

8 p.m. on 48; 11:03 p.m. on 48

Swamp People: Serpent Invasion

Battling a sweltering heat wave in the already suffocating humidity of the Everglades, Bruce and Zak call in some canine reinforcements to sniff out snakes who are sheltering from the soaring temperatures in the new episode "Boiling Point." Meanwhile, Troy, Chase and Bill test their nerve by hunting through the treacherous jungles of Snake Island. To Troy's dismay, though, a differing opinion on the best strategy to take splits the trio, leaving Troy stranded in the middle of nowhere.

9:31 p.m. on 61; 12:32 a.m. on 61

The Rev

Long Island, N.Y., pastor Richard Hartley opens his funny and heartfelt world to reality TV cameras for this new documentary series, which follows this larger-than-life man of faith as he interacts with his congregation, as well as his rambunctious but loving family. Whatever time is left over largely is given over to working with the church's justifiably well-regarded choir. He and his wife, Stacey, also are more than ready to get their millennial children, Judea and Jordan, to leave the family nest.

7 p.m. on (29); 11:01 p.m. on (29)

Movie: Salt-N-Pepa

This new original Lifetime documentary charts the careers of the groundbreaking hip-hop duo from their early days when Cheryl "Salt" James (G.G. Townson) and Sandra "Pepa" Denton (Laila Odum) were students at New York's Queensborough Community College. The film chronicles how the duo changed the look of hip-hop on their way to becoming the first women in that genre to go platinum and earn multiple awards. Cleveland Berto, Monique Paul and Jermel Howard also star. An interview special hosted by Loni Love immediately follows this movie.

7 p.m. on (123); 2:20 a.m. on (123)

A Wild Year On Earth

Best known for her role as the hapless Lady Edith Crawley in "Downton Abbey," actress Laura Carmichael narrates this visually stunning new docuseries, which charts Earth's natural events such as migration, rebirth and transformation over the course of a year. The premiere, "January -February: The Year Begins — Extended," examines how the start of any year is a time of extremes across the planet.

As the Northern Hemisphere plunges into winter, animals and humans respond very differently to weather in the tropics.

Movie: Don't Let Go

British actor David Oyelowo stars in writer-director Jacob Aaron Estes' 2019 supernatural horror film, in which he plays homicide detective Jack Radcliff, who finds himself drawn into an eerie case after his niece, her mother and stepfather are found murdered in their home. Shortly thereafter, he begins receiving phone calls that suggest his late niece is contacting him from the past.

Movie: A Winter Getaway

After an unassuming "regular guy" unexpectedly is gifted a luxury trip, his circumstances lead some of those around him to mistake him for a millionaire in this new 2021 romance. As he and the beautiful concierge entrusted with making sure this getaway goes smoothly start to spend more time together, some unmistakably romantic sparks start to fly. Unfortunately, the guy can't help worrying whether this beauty will still be interested once she discovers what his usual life is really like.
