"Soul" begins streaming Friday on Disney+.

We've all imagined what a human soul might look like. But Disney+ makes it the centerpiece of a storyline in an animated film that begins streaming Christmas Day, Friday, Dec. 25.

In "Soul," we are introduced to Joe Gardner (voice of Jamie Foxx, "Ray"), a middle-school band teacher with a passion for jazz, who falls through a manhole in the middle of New York City and into The Great Before, a fantastical place where new souls get their quirks, personalities and interests before they head off to their human incarnations.

There he meets up with 22 (voice of Tina Fey, "30 Rock"), a precocious soul who never understood the allure of the human experience. As Joe tries to show 22 that life as a living, breathing person has its upsides, he sets off on a journey that may help him answer some of life's more important questions.

The film was directed by Oscar winner Pete Docter ("Up," "Inside Out"), who years ago became fascinated with his own infant son's apparent personality and soul at birth. More than 23 years later, he turned that into a story when he began questioning his own life path.

"(It) just inspired him to think about his kids," explains Dana Murray, the film's producer, "like his son when he was born, just (how) he showed up with so much personality on day one. And how is that? Where does that come from? And so really just those two things really inspired the spark, really, for the idea."

As for portraying the soul itself, Murray and the team at Pixar Animation Studios did plenty of research, talking to a wide range of spiritual people, including priests, pastors, Buddhists and Shamans to get their take on how a soul might appear.

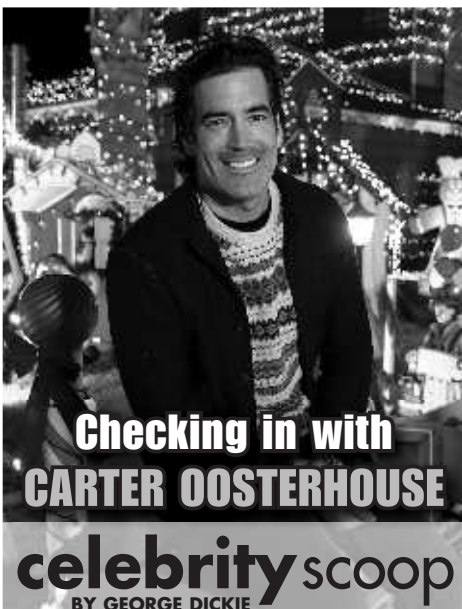

"And across the board," Murray says, "it was very, very similar in how people described it: ethereal, vaporous, no form. And so we were like, 'Oh, well how are we going to portray that on a screen? We need something.' But we didn't want it to be ghostlike, like Casper the ghost."

"So from that research, we just started our character artists down a path of exploring and they went down all kinds of crazy routes and we went back to a drawing that Pete had done at the very beginning. Super simple, of just like that light bulb shape."

Indeed, this is prime Christmas Day viewing for the family. Murray thinks it has something for everyone.

"I feel like after 2020 and just the year I think the world has had ... often the holidays can be a time of reflection," she says. "And so I'm hoping people can walk away from the film wanting to just take a look at their own lives and think about: Are they spending the limited time they have on Earth wisely and what would they change? And just to be kind of grateful for what they have around them. But I feel like there are a lot of themes in the movie that it's just interesting, I hope everyone walks away feeling something different."

Checking in with

celebrity scoop
BY GEORGE DICKIE

Go online and one can find communities of enthusiasts that run the gamut from the conventional (quilting, coin collecting) and the unconventional (free cosmetic surgery, step counting) to the downright weird (airport carpeting, zombie preparedness).

And then there are those who like to put their all into their outdoor holiday displays.

Carter Oosterhouse knows these folks well. As a judge (alongside Taniya Nayak) on "The Great Christmas Light Fight," which has its Season 8 finale Wednesday, Dec. 23, on ABC, he sees them as a savvy group whose members often turn up on the show. And they know what he's looking for in a display design.

"You know, there's this whole world that exists," Oosterhouse explains, "this subculture that exists of these people who talk online and they know whose light show and what they're doing and what type of light elements that they're using that they're bringing to their display, and what are the new products."

"And that's really kind of interesting," he continues, "because I'll be at a display one year and they will have referenced a display that we did two years ago and how they're still friends and they talk online. There's this whole group that exists as light fighters that are trying to create the biggest, best light show ever."

As for what blows him away, the 44-year-old native Michigander says it's all about the DIY aspect.

"I'm a carpenter originally ...," he says, "so when I can see people create stuff that otherwise would be tossed out or thrown away or wouldn't be used in a light display and it's seamlessly integrated within the space and then you dive into it and you see all the mechanics of it, I love seeing that."

"I love seeing items that are not store-bought that are custom-made."

Full name: Carter Nicholas Oosterhouse

Birth date: Sept. 19, 1976

Birthplace: Traverse City, Mich.

Alma mater: Central Michigan University, B.A. in nutrition

Family ties: With his wife, actress Amy Smart, has a three-year-old daughter, Flora

tonight's picks

Rachel Skarsten

Tuesday 6:40 p.m. on 15 Movie: Home Alone 2: Lost in New York Improbable as it is — of all the people in New York, Kevin (Macaulay Culkin) is going to run into the two thieves from back home? — this 1992 sequel hit 1990's original. This time, our young hero is left behind in the Big Apple by his Hawai'i-bound family. He uses his dad's credit card to get a hotel room and ends up facing the larcenous Harry and Marv (Joe Pesci, Daniel Stern) once again. Catherine O'Hara also stars. 7 p.m. on 8 20 Movie: City Hall Frederick Wiseman's acclaimed 2020 documentary explores the city government of Boston from the perspectives of racial justice, housing, climate change actions and more. Like his other films, though, Wiseman doesn't follow the familiar template for most documentaries in terms of a narrative arc, off-camera narration or interview subjects. Instead, much like a Robert Altman drama, the film makes its points almost off-handedly as it follows routine activities by city officials in the fall of 2018 and the winter of 2019. 7 p.m. on 29; 11:01 p.m. on 29 Movie: The Christmas High Note Rachel isn't in a merry mood after she gets stood up for the last time by her long-distance boyfriend, but things start to turn around when she meets Michael and his teenage daughter, Sophia. At rehearsals for the community's Christmas Eve pageant, Rachel can't help noticing that Sophia is nervous about hitting a high note in her solo, so she offers to coach the girl. As she does so, Rachel's interest in Michael deepens. Jamie Luner, Johnny Messner, William McNamara and Cassandra Clementi star in this yuletide romance. 8 p.m. on 74; 11 p.m. on 74 Movie: First Christmas Raised in foster care, Michael Halle Downing (Idara Victor) is thrilled when she gets an invitation to spend Christmas in New Orleans with the biological family she never knew she had. They include her grandmother, Memaw (Tonea Stewart), who is equally overjoyed by this belated reunion, and Halle's twins siblings Tiffany (Samantha Smith, "Welcome Home, Samantha Jenkins") and Glenn (Mason Beauchamp, "NCIS: New Orleans") Once over the initial thrill, however, Halle realizes it will take time and effort to find her place in this large clan. 8 p.m. on 401 Movie: The Grapes of Wrath: Under the CC Sabathia Story Extensive behind-the-scenes footage from Carsten Charles ("CC") Sabathia's final season with the New York Yankees in 2019 provides the framework for this deeply personal chronicle of the acclaimed pitcher's life and career, narrated by Sabathia himself. His personal saga opens in Vallejo, Calif., where the young Sabathia hopped fruits from a tree in his grandmother's yard. As he looks back, Sabathia speaks candidly of both his legacy as one of baseball's pre-eminent pitchers, as well as the challenges he confronted, such as a long-time battle with addiction. 9 p.m. on 36 Movie: Marry Me at Christmas Bridal boutique owner, Madeline Krug (Rachel Skarsten, "Reign") jumps at the chance to plan a lavish Christmas wedding, since she thrives on the challenge of orchestrating such a challenging event during this frenzied time of year. She hadn't counted on having a major distraction, however: the bride's handsome brother (Trevor Donovan, "Sun Records"), a movie star who's in town looking to support his sister, not fall in love. Emily Tennant also stars.

"Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town"

tonight's picks

Wednesday
7 p.m. on 9
Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town
 A lanky mailman with the voice of Fred Astaire explains Santa's origins in this animated 1970 special, which sidesteps the St. Nicholas part. In this version, the future jolly old elf is a founding adopted by the Kringles, a family of toymakers. He grows up with toys in his blood, so to speak, and feels called to give them away to the local youngsters — but mean old Burgermeister Meisterburger will have none of that.

7 p.m. on 29;
11:01 p.m. on 29

Movie: Christmas at the Castle

New York comedian Blaire Henderson flies to Scotland in search of a rare fragrance called The Heart of the Highlands. Upon arrival, though, she is dismayed to discover the license holder to that perfume is held by Alistair McGregor, a dashing but stubborn aristocrat who isn't interested in selling. Thinking fast, Blaire pretends to be a documentary filmmaker, hoping she can learn the secret ingredients for the fragrance on the sly. Brooke Burfitt, Dan Jeannotte, Geraldine Somerville and Nicholas Farrell star in this holiday drama.

7 p.m. on 56

Movie: Meet Me in St. Louis

In director Vincente Minnelli's nostalgic 1944 musical masterpiece, a St. Louis family is disappointed to learn it must move to New York just before the 1904 World's Fair opens, but the plot is mere window dressing compared to Judy Garland performing some of her most timeless hits, including "The Boy Next Door," "The Trolley Song" and "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas." Margaret O'Brien, Mary Astor and Leon Ames costar.

8 p.m. on 31; 11 p.m. on 31

Guy's Grocery Games

For the new episode "Delivery: One Box Only," host Guy Fieri and son Hunter invite chefs Darnell Ferguson, Amber Lancaster and Crista Luedtke — all of them past Flavortown Market winners — to participate in this at-home competition. A surprise awaits the trio, though, when each of them receives just one box of groceries instead of two. Since the competition calls for them to make both a hot lunch and a Sunday supper, the chefs must use the same ingredients in different ways and combinations to create both meals.

8 p.m. on 46; 12 a.m. on 46

Buddy Valastro: Road to Recovery

This new two-hour documentary charts the recovery process of fan-favorite "Cake Boss" Buddy Valastro, in the aftermath of a September bowling accident that left his right hand horribly mangled. To date, Vasastro has had three surgeries on his hand, which was impaled on a metal barb as he was fixing the pinsetter in his home bowling alley. The injury left him with numbness and limited motion in two fingers and the affected hand, which is the dominant hand. Valastro uses in his work.

9:45 p.m. on 401

Movie: I Used to Go Here

Gillian Jacobs ("Community") earned warm reviews for her performance in writer-director Kris Rey's 2020 comedy, in which she plays a struggling writer who is invited to speak at her alma mater, just days after her debut novel bombs. It's been 15 years since her graduation, yet she soon finds herself drawn into the lives and problems of some of the students at the school. Jemaine Clement, Hannah Marks, Forrest Goodluck, Josh Wiggins, Kate Micucci and Jorma Taccone also star.

tonight's picks

Hugh Jackman and Michelle Williams

Thursday 1 p.m. on (182); 3:45 p.m. on (182); 6:30 p.m. on (182); 9:15 p.m. on (182); 12 a.m. on (182); 2:45 a.m. on (182); 5:30 a.m. on (182)

Movie: White Christmas Some purists may sniff that 1954's "Holiday Inn," of which this 1954 musical is a partial remake, is a superior piece of work. The fact remains that this latter vehicle for Bing Crosby, Danny Kaye, Rosemary Clooney and Vera-Ellen has become a compulsory part of the yuletide celebration for millions around the world. The classic title tune is just one of several memorable Irving Berlin melodies performed here with style, heart and panache.

5 p.m. on (54) Movie: Elf Surprisingly sweeter than you might expect from the premise and the casting, this 2003 comedy stars Will Ferrell as Buddy, a human who was adopted by elves as an infant and grows up thinking he's just a large version of his adoptive father (Bob Newhart). When Buddy finds out the truth about his parentage, he is crushed and goes out into the real world to find his birth father (James Caan), who has his own family and isn't interested in refashioning the past.

5 p.m. on (56) Movie: Christmas in Connecticut A successful lifestyle journalist (Barbara Stanwyck) is lauded by her readers as the sweetest, most effusive homemaker in the countryside. Problem is, Elizabeth (Stanwyck) is a chain-smoking urbanite in a city apartment. When her boss suggests she host a soldier on leave for the holidays, she needs to come up with a home, child and cooking skills fast! Dennis Morgan and S.Z. Sakall co-star in the 1945 romantic comedy.

7 p.m. on (49) 5 Movie: It's a Wonderful Life Small-town guy George Bailey (James Stewart) defers one big dream after another to stay home, marry a local girl (Donna Reed) and run the family business. Facing financial ruin, he's pulled from suicidal despair by angel Clarence (Henry Travers), who shows him just terrible the world would have been if he'd never lived. Lionel Barrymore also stars in director Frank Capra's 1946 classic.

7 p.m. on (9) 9 Movie: The Greatest Showman Aussie filmmaker Michael Gracey made a very big splash with his feature directorial debut on this 2017 blockbuster, which overcame mixed reviews to become the fifth-highest-grossing live-action musical of all time. Critics mainly took issue with how much artistic license the movie took with the real-life saga of P.T. Barnum, played by Hugh Jackman, but audiences clearly were swept away by the sheer spectacle and engaging cast, which also includes Zac Efron, Michelle Williams and Zendaya.

The song "This Is Me" was nominated for an Oscar. 7 p.m. on (60); 9 p.m. on (60); 11 p.m. on (60); 1 a.m. on (60); 3 a.m. on (60); 5 a.m. on (60) Movie: A Christmas Story Kicking off its annual "24 Hours of a Christmas Story" seasonal marathon, TBS reprises (with sister channel TNT) this holiday favorite from 1983, which stars Peter Billingsley as Ralphie, the little boy who yearns to find a Red Ryder BB gun under the Christmas tree. It's about parents, little brothers, bullies, decoder rings, double dog dares and most of all, the workings of a youthful mind. The writing by Jean Shepherd (who also narrates) captures it all perfectly. Darren McGavin and Melinda Dillon also star.

College Basketball

One of college basketball's most passionate rivalries gets another chapter today at KFC Yum! Center, where the Louisville Cardinals will defend home court from the Kentucky Wildcats. Though dominated by freshmen, the No. 20 Wildcats have a talented starting five led by a backcourt of Brandon Boston Jr. and Devin Askew, as well as a deep roster. As for the Cardinals, their fortunes lie with two talented players in guards David Johnson and Carlik Jones.

Movie: A Christmas Story 2

Some people may well question why this sequel is needed almost 30 years later, but here it is. Braeden Lemasters inherits the pivotal role of Ralphie, now a teen whose obsession with a BB gun has given way to his desire for a convertible car. If you thought Mom (Stacey Travis) was worried before, imagine her level of concern here. The gruff family patriarch also is present again, with Daniel Stern assuming the shoes and sharp tongue of Darren McGavin.

Movie: Casablanca

"Play it once, Sam. For old times' sake." An exiled and bitter American (Humphrey Bogart) running a popular nightclub in Casablanca can't help but fall in love again with his one-time sweetheart (Ingrid Bergman) in this 1942 film that is one of the true Hollywood classics. He decides to use stolen documents to escape Nazi-occupied Morocco with her, but things don't go as planned. Horror-film icon Peter Lorre gives a fine supporting performance.

History's Greatest Mysteries

The new episode "Roswell: The First Witness — The Writer" takes investigator Ben Smith to the hometown of the late U.S. Army Major Jesse Marcel, who was the first officer on the scene after a "flying disk" crash landed in New Mexico in July 1947. Marcel died in 1986, but Smith seeks to talk with surviving family members who have information that supports Marcel's story of a subsequent government cover-up. Laurence Fishburne is the narrator.
