Kaley Cuoco stars in "The Flight Attendant," premiering Thursday on HBO Max.

Kaley Cuoco is 'The Flight Attendant' in new HBO Max melodrama

It's been a while since "The Big Bang Theory" ended, and now, Kaley Cuoco's career is taking flight again.

Though she voiced the title character in an animated "Harley Quinn" show, the actress' main focus has been on the Chris Bohjalian bestseller "The Flight Attendant" as both star and executive producer. The limited HBO Max drama-with-humor starts streaming the first three of its eight episodes Thursday, Nov. 26, with Cuoco playing Cassie Bowden, a stewardess with no memory of what happened when she wakes up in a hotel room with a dead man near her.

"Over the past few years, I've been looking at books to maybe produce or different stories that kind of were interesting to me," Cuoco says, "but nothing excited me. And honestly, I read one little snippet (of this), a line of the book on Amazon. It just was one sentence and I got like this weird chill, and I called my team and said, 'Hey, I'd love to look at the rights to this book.'"

A bidding war ended with Cuoco winning the screen rights, "and I'm like, 'Now what do I do?' I didn't believe it. I brought it to Warner Bros. and I said, 'You know what? I think this is a great character. I think this could be a really great show.'" The studio then matched her with prolific producer Greg Berlanti – king of The CW's DC Universe, plus many other series – in making "The Flight Attendant."

Rosie Perez, Michiel Huisman ("Game of Thrones"), Zosia Mamet ("Girls") and "Grey's Anatomy" alum T.R. Knight are among additional stars. For all her television experience, dating back to "8 Simple Rules" and the original "Charmed," Cuoco notes she has learned a lot from "The Flight Attendant" providing her first major involvement behind the cameras.

"I thought if we could find the right team and bring some levity to such a dark book, it could be kind of cool," she reflects. "I laughed over the last few years working on this. I was like, 'I know too much!' Sometimes, you just don't want to know all the stuff that's going on ... but it's been totally career-changing for me just to see it from the beginning, and to kind of go with my gut on things and make my own decisions."

Work on "The Flight Attendant" was shut down for several months by the coronavirus pandemic, when production almost was completed. The tale has given Cuoco a new appreciation of the title profession, having kept closer watch on stewardesses while traveling.

"I can't help it," she confirms. "Now, after doing this project, I'll be noticing flight attendants probably for the rest of my life."

BY GEORGE DICKIE

Checking in with

DAVID FREI

David Frei's recollection of his first dog is no sepia-toned boy-and-his-dog story. Quite the contrary, in fact.

The analyst on NBC's coverage of The National Dog Show, airing Thursday, Nov. 26, after the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, did not grow up with a dog and didn't have one until he was 20 and living off campus at the University of Oregon in the late 1960s. And it took an offer he couldn't refuse to get one.

"My girlfriend said, 'Let's get a dog,'" he recalls. "And ... I'm gonna do whatever the girlfriend wants, of course. And I said, 'OK, what kind of dog?' And she says, 'I want an Afghan Hound.' Well, I don't even know what that is. But we got the Afghan Hound and three weeks later the girl moved out and the dog stayed. And it was the best thing that could have happened to all three of us."

For Frei, it became a lifelong pursuit as a dog owner, breeder and handler of Afghans, licensed judge with the American Kennel Club, communications director with the Westminster Kennel Club and author of two dog-related books – "The Angel by My Side" and "Angel on a Leash."

He also has a football background. He worked in public relations for the Denver Broncos, San Francisco 49ers and ABC Sports on Monday Night Football and his father Jerry was the head football coach at his alma mater of Oregon. Both pursuits, he says, are still in his blood as he's a Seattle Seahawks fan.

"I grew up selling ice cream bars at (Oregon's) Hayward Field and being the ball boy for the football games," he says. "I always say I thought my career path was paved with Astroturf and now I have found that it's paved with wee-wee pads. So I'm a dog guy but I'm still a football guy."

Name: David Frei

Birth date: April 4, 1949

Birthplace: Portland, Ore.

Family ties: He and wife Cherilyn live in Cannon Beach, Ore., with two dogs – Grace, an 11-year-old Brittany Spaniel, and True Dat, a 10-month-old Cavalier King Charles Spaniel

Military service: Was a veterinary technician for the U.S. Army at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C., from 1971 to 1974

tonight's picks

Zoe Margaret Colletti

Sunday

3 p.m. on 49 (5)

Figure Skating

The Megasport Sport Palace in Moscow is the scene today as skaters vie in the free skate of the ISU Grand Prix's Rostelecom Cup. Because of the pandemic, only skaters from Russia, skaters already training there and skaters assigned to that event for geographic reasons will be participating, so expect to see competitors from nations including Russia, Georgia, Azerbaijan, Lithuania and Hungary.

8 p.m. on 31; 11 p.m. on 31

Candy Land

How do the busy citizens of Candy Land get from one candy to another? That's the question host Kristin Chenoweth poses to the remaining teams, who are tasked with creating colorful and inventive modes of transportation for this fantasy land. They are also expected to take into account the terrain of their assigned stretch of Candy Land in their designs. Nacho Aguirre and Aarti Sequeira are the judges.

8 p.m. on 54; 11:15 p.m. on 54; 1:30 a.m. on 54

Fear the Walking Dead

When Dakota (Zoe Margaret Colletti) suddenly goes missing, Strand (Colman Domingo) immediately dispatches Alicia and Charlie (Alycia Debnam-Carey, Alexa Nisenson) on a search-and-rescue mission to find her in the Season 6 finale "Damage From the Inside." Meanwhile, an unlikely ally provides a new possibility of escape from Virginia (guest star Colby Minifie). Lennie James, Maggie Grace and Danay Garcia also star.

9 p.m. on 31; 12 a.m. on 31

Buddy vs. Christmas

Buddy Valastro ("Cake Boss") and his team of bakers go up against non-cake-centric artists to see which team can best capture the spirit of Christmas in this unconventional new competition series. In each of the four episodes, Valastro's bakers turn out breathtaking cake creations, vying with an award-winning scenic designer, a glassblower, an animatronics expert and a LEGO builder. Expect treats like drivable sleigh cakes and a Santa's workshop with talking reindeer.

The contentious battle that ensued during Brett Kavanaugh's Supreme Court confirmation — and, more recently, that of Amy Coney Barrett — reflected the deep polarization in Washington politics. As revealed by the new episode "Supreme Revenge: Battle for the Court," the transformation of the Court itself is a shift that is decades in the making, driven in large part by Kentucky Sen. Mitch McConnell.

convinced that he has found his true calling as a tour guide in a new episode called "Crystals, Caves and Kim." Meanwhile, Kim buys up every road-side crystal she can find. Later, the mood turns testy as the RV develops problems in its air conditioning system.

tonight's picks

Wednesday
7 p.m. on 3 8
Nature
 The new (and seasonally appropriate) episode "Santa's Wild Home" explores the resilient wildlife living in Lapland that is the home of Santa Claus, that region of northern Finland that is the home of Santa Claus, according to stories, and the real-life environment of reindeer, great gray owls, eagles, wolverines, musk oxen, brown bears and more. All are able to adapt in one way or another to live in a land of extremes, such as winter darkness for weeks on end as temperatures plunge below zero.
7 p.m. on 9 9
The Goldbergs
 An Alison Sweeney (Sean Giambrone) sets out to make a film about the problem of racism, but almost realizes he's in way over his head because of his sheltered upbringing in the new episode "Eracism." Elsewhere, Geoff (Sam Lerner) is determined to teach Erica and Barry (Hayley Orrantia, Troy Gentile) how to be better people. Tim Meadows, Cedric Yarbrough, Rob Huebel and Kenny Ridwan guest star; Wendi McLendon-Covey also stars.

7 p.m. on 36
Movie: Good Morning Christmas!
 Two bitterly competitive TV hosts (Alison Sweeney, Marc Blucas) are dispatched to a festive small town over the Christmas season to cover the community's holiday festivities. They're both professional enough to act chummy while on camera, although that's strictly for the sake of appearances. As their assignment continues, however, they begin to discover there's far more to each other than they ever imagined. Jillian Walchuck, Ian Collins and Nicole Oliver also star in this 2020 holiday romance.

8 p.m. on 54; 2 a.m. on 54
Movie: Planes, Trains and Automobiles
 Writer-director John Hughes teamed John Candy and Steve Martin in this 1987 comedy about a stuffy businessman (Martin) trying to get home for Thanksgiving. A stroke of bad luck forces him to suffer through a series of mishaps with a good-natured but overly friendly stranger (Candy). Certain lines and scenes from the movie endure as classics. Dylan Baker ("The Good Wife"), Michael McKean and an uncredited Kevin Bacon and William Windom also appear.

8 p.m. on 401
Movie: The Mystery of D.B. Cooper
 Filmmaker John Dower's new documentary explores the only still-unsolved airplane hijacking in U.S. history, a saga that continues to inspire wild speculation about the identity of the figure at its center nearly 50 years after the incident occurred. Dower's film explores four different theories of the case, talking to people like Jo Weber, who suspects her late husband may have been "D.B. Cooper," who hijacked a passenger plane and parachuted over Washington State with $200,000 in stolen cash, never to be seen again.

9 p.m. on 57; 11 p.m. on 57
The Real Housewives of Salt Lake City
 In the new episode "Everybody Needs a Switzerland," Whitney plans a Roaring Twenties-themed party, while Heather throws a baby shower for five employees, all young Mormons. Meredith and Mary grow closer, while Jen is guilty of some inappropriate behavior at an evening gathering. Later, when Meredith cancels some plans with her, Jen starts to doubt her friendship.

The 94th Annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

Thursday 9 a.m. on 43 (5); 2 p.m. on 43 (5) The 94th Annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade Not even a lethal global pandemic can stop one of the most beloved American holiday traditions on television, but expect some changes in this year's broadcast of this perennial holiday favorite. Rest assured, members of the "Today" team are back as hosts, but the event itself will be a TV-only affair, not a live public event with cheering throngs and multiple marching bands. Still on offer: colorful balloons (pulled by trucks, not human handlers), colorful costumes, floats and, of course, Santa Claus.

12 p.m. on 43 (5) The National Dog Show Actor John O'Hurley returns with expert analyst and American Kennel Club judge David Frei to co-host this year's event in Oaks, Pa., produced following both state and local pandemic guidelines. NBC Sports correspondent Mary Carillo also will be on hand to offer her insights. This year's show features three new breeds appearing for the first time: the Barbet (Sporting Group), a water dog from France; the Dogo Argentino (Working Group), a smart hunting dog from South America; and the Belgian Laekenois (Herding Group), originally used in police work.

7 p.m. on 56 Movie: Rear Window One of director Alfred Hitchcock's most memorable films, this 1954 classic manipulates the feelings of isolation and helplessness into ideal suspense. James Stewart stars as a photographer restricted to a wheelchair from a broken leg, who keeps an eye on his neighbors from his apartment. He comes to believe that one of them (Raymond Burr) is a murderer. Grace Kelly and Thelma Ritter also appear. Airing as part of TCM's 24-hour Alfred Hitchcock marathon. 7 p.m. on 66; 9:30 p.m. on 66

Movie: Miss Juneteenth Writer-director Channing Godfrey Peoples made a striking feature film debut with this 2020 drama, which earned widespread acclaim for its vibrant, multidimensional characters. Nicole Beharie ("Sleepy Hollow") heads the cast as Texas single mother Turquoise Jones, a former winner of the local Miss Juneteenth pageant. Since that event offers full college scholarships to the winners, she enters her 15-year-old daughter, Kai (Alexis Chikaeze) into this year's competition, a development Kai receives with no enthusiasm whatsoever. Kendrick Sampson also stars. 7:30 p.m. on 9 (9) Toy Story That Time Forgot The characters from the animated, hugely popular Disney-Pixar movies return in this made-for-television special. The tale finds the toys venturing out of familiar territory — their owner Bonnie's room — and into danger when they encounter a threatening set of action figures.

The triceratops named Trixie (voice of Kristen Snaal) is the only hope of setting things right. 8 p.m. on 435; 11:45 p.m. on 435 Movie: 1917 One of the most acclaimed films of 2019 was this taut British combat epic from director Sam Mendes, who also co-wrote the screenplay drawn in part from World War I stories his paternal grandfather used to tell him. George MacKay and Dean-Charles Chapman head the enormous ensemble cast as a pair of young British soldiers entrusted with delivering a vital message calling off a doomed attack by Allied forces. Roger Deakins earned an Oscar for his cinematography, which gave the impression the film was two continuous shots.
