John Carroll Lynch stars in "Big Sky," premiering Tuesday on ABC.

'Big Sky' opens for ABC with premiere of serialized mystery

Television-producing veteran David E. Kelley has had successes in the worlds of cable and streaming, but he still has a soft spot for broadcast television.

Following "Big Little Lies," "Mr. Mercedes" and HBO's current "The Undoing," the "Ally McBeal," "The Practice" and "Picket Fences" alum is taking his latest project to ABC. Premiering Tuesday, Nov. 17, "Big Sky" adapts several related novels by C.J. Box by following the search for two sisters (played by Natalie Alyn Lind and Jade Pettyjohn) kidnapped from a Montana highway. Among the many other characters is a detective (Ryan Phillippe) who crosses paths with his ex-cop ex-wife (Katheryn Winnick, "Vikings") while working the case.

Also a writer of many "Big Sky" episodes, Kelley says that in adapting Box's "The Highway" into the show's main premise, "The biggest challenge for me was to be able to deliver what the book did ... and that is the tension, the thrill, the drama and the relational equations of the characters, which were rich and profound at times. It was a great ride, a great journey. And I'm hoping that particularly given the times, when (viewers) throw on the television at the end of the day, we will be able to deliver that sense of fun, drama, and escapism to them."

"Big Sky's" ensemble cast also includes Kylie Bunbury ("Pitch"), Brian Geraghty ("Chicago P.D."), Dedee Pfeiffer, Jesse James Keitel, Valerie Mahaffey and John Carroll Lynch ("American Horror Story"). Co-star Winnick vows that with all of the characters, "You'll see different layers of them as the series unfolds. The things that you least expect in a character end up shocking you, in a lot of different ways."

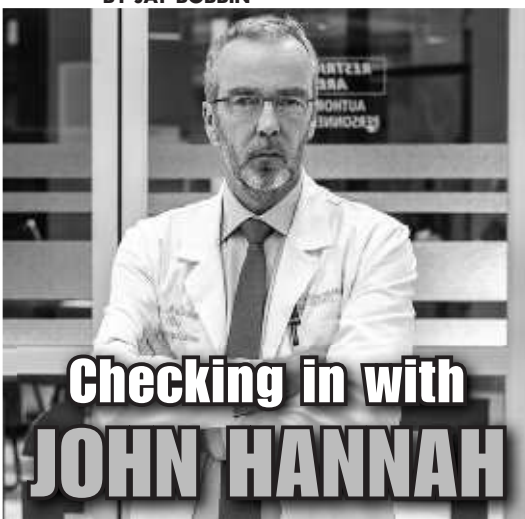

Playing a state trooper in "Big Sky," Lynch has been a series star for Kelley before ("The Brotherhood of Poland,

New Hampshire"), and he maintains that he's been a fan ever since he visited friend Don Cheadle on the "Picket Fences" set. "Every single time I watch a David Kelley show, it is its own universe and it tackles its own question," Lynch reasons. "There's always humor. There's always heart. There's always an essential sense of humanity about each and every single universe that's created."

While there's never a guarantee that a serialized drama won't be canceled before it can play out fully, Kelley has built a safeguard into "Big Sky." He explains, "The structure of this show is that we will do four- or five-episode arcs, so if someone could only watch the first half of the season, there will be closure on one storyline. We kind of like that format as storytellers, because we cultivate and introduce an underlying story while we're going full guns on our 'A' story."

BY JAY BOBBIN

For all else he's done in his acting career, John Hannah may be known best for one of his earliest roles.

Currently playing a hospital's emergency-department chief in NBC's Canadian-made Tuesday medical drama "Transplant," the Scottish talent made his first big impression in the enduringly popular 1994 comedy-drama movie "Four Weddings and a Funeral," often shown by premium cable channels now.

Hannah had one of the film's most memorable scenes at the funeral of the title, in which his character Matthew gave an emotion-infused eulogy citing W.H. Auden's poem "Funeral Blues" ("Stop all the clocks ...").

"I remember asking (director) Mike Newell how he wanted me to prepare for it," the friendly Hannah notes, "what kind of emotional level he wanted me at. And he said, very old-school, 'My dear boy, go home, learn your lines, get a good night's sleep, and come in tomorrow and we'll start work on it.' If you've got a great director and a great script, and you're just working through it one step at a time, it'll come together."

A single day was spent filming the scene, Hannah recalls: "It was shot the usual way with two cameras, starting wide and then going in on different angles. I think we did all my coverage first, and a great lesson I learned from Mike in terms of the emotion was that if it boils up to be too much too soon, you kind of lose the intensity.

"Another thing I learned," adds Hannah, "was that you try to get upset (in such a scenario) if you're an actor, but in real life, you try not to. That helped."

tonight's picks

"The Reagans"

Sunday
7 p.m. on (435); 10:30 p.m. on (435); 12:30 a.m. on (435)

The Reagans

This four-part documentary series explores several of the presidential administration of Ronald Reagan and what life was like inside the White House during those eight years. Given special emphasis is how Nancy Reagan's widely held public image as a paper doll and a clotheshorse actually was dramatically at odds with the immense hidden power she wielded throughout husband "Ronnie's" presidency.

8 p.m. on (12) (7)

Bob's Burgers

It's "milestone" time for this animated comedy, as "Bob Belcher and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Kids" marks the show's 200th episode. It also might be an occasion that spells disaster for the restaurant, since a mishap occurs on the day of the Ocean Avenue Business Association's Ocean Fest on Ocean Avenue. (That's a lot of Ocean.) Voice-cast's regulars include H. Jon Benjamin, John Roberts, Dan Mintz, Eugene Mirman, Kristen Schaal and Larry Murphy. Stephanie Beatriz ("Brooklyn Nine-Nine") is a guest voice.

8 p.m. on (31); 11 p.m. on (31)

Candy Land

Broadway superstar Kristin Chenoweth hosts this colorful new competition series based on the popular board game, with such familiar (and edible) lands as Peppermint Forest, Gumdrop Mountains and Lollipop Woods. In the series premiere, "An Inside Look at Magical Creatures," Chenoweth challenges five teams of cake and sugar artists to create their vision of fantastical creatures from this enchanted realm.

9 p.m. on (185)

Movie: The Christmas Doctor House calls may not be as prominent for many medics as they once were, but they remain so for Holly Robinson Peete's title character in this 2020 holiday tale. Her determination to cure all ills keeps her on the move between different locales, which is very much to her liking — until one assignment takes her to a small town she likes so much, she starts to consider making her temporary yuletide job at a clinic permanent. Adrian Holmes also stars.

7 p.m. on 3 3
The Neighborhood
 Like so many other TV shows this season — both comedies and dramas — this hit sitcom opens Season 3 with a storyline that explores the current hot-button topic of racial inequality in America, as the Butlers and the Johnsons find themselves forming a united front after a member of their community is the victim of injustice in “Welcome to the Movement.” Cedric the Entertainer, Max Greenfield, Tichina Arnold and Beth Behrs star; Tim Powell guest stars.

7:31 p.m. on 3 3
Bob Hearts Abishola
 In the Season 2 premiere, “On a Dead Guy’s Bench,” Bob (Billy Gardell) recruits Tunde

(Barry Shabaka Henley) as an accomplice in his quest to find the perfect engagement ring for Abishola (Folake Olowofeyeku). His carefully thought-out plan for popping the question to his beloved is turned upside-down, however, when he discovers Abishola believes a traditional marriage in these complicated times is just more trouble than it’s worth. Susan Ruttan and Ryan Cartwright guest star; Christine Ebersole and Matt Jones also star.

8 p.m. on 3 3
All Rise
 Lola and Mark (Simone Missick, Wilson Bethel) try to rebuild their friendship in the aftermath of a protest where Mark witnesses Lola being detained during an escalating faceoff with police in “A Change Is Gonna Come,” the first of a two-part Season 2 premiere. Details of that emotionally charged incident unfold in flashbacks and reveal how that night had a lingering effect on several characters. Meanwhile, Lola hires legal clerk Ness Johnson (new recurring cast member Samantha Marie Ware) to help with the court backlog.

8 p.m. on 12 7
Filthy Rich
 Antonio (Benjamin Levy Aguilar) is ready to fight on the Sunshine Network, but that’s only one reason tensions are high among members of the Monreaux family in the new episode “James 4:1.” Rose (Aubrey Dollar) is thrown by seeing her ex again, while Becky (Olivia Macklin) mulls where to take things with Eric (Corey Cott). Also, Hagamond (Thomas Francis Murphy) acts decisively. Alanna Ubach and Gia Carides guest star. Kim Cattrall, Melia Kreiling, Steve Harris and Aaron Lazar also star.

8 p.m. on 401;
9:50 p.m. on 401
His Dark Materials
 Season 2 of this adaptation of Philip Pullman’s epic fantasy finds Lyra (Dafne Keen), still distraught over the death of her best friend, exploring a mysterious abandoned city, where she encounters Will (Amir Wilson), a boy from her world who is fleeing a troubled past. In the season premiere, “The City of Magpies,” the pair explore this strange new world while the Magisterium takes action in the wake of recent events. Meanwhile, adventurer Lee Scoresby (Lin-Manuel Miranda) embarks on a mission.

Movie: Crazy, Not Insane
 Gibney ("The Inventor: Out for Blood in Silicon Valley") is producer and director of this provocative new documentary, which explores the work of psychiatrist Dr. Dorothy Otnow Lewis, who has dedicated her career to studying murderers and seeking an answer to why humans kill. Unfolding like a scientific detective story, Gibney's film chronicles Lewis' determined attempts to look beyond the grisly details of crimes and into the hearts and minds of the killers themselves.

Secrets of the Dead

Three groups of modern-day treasure hunters, armed with modern technology and decades of research, comb New York's Catskill Mountains in a quest to find a fortune reportedly hidden there by one of America's most infamous crime bosses in the new episode "Gangster's Gold." Before he died in 1935, Bronx-based bootlegger and mobster Dutch Schultz is widely believed to have buried a treasure worth $50 million somewhere in this region. The episode includes a new interview with Stanley Grauso, age 104, the last surviving member of Schultz's gang.

For Life

Wrongfully convicted prisoner-turned-litigator Aaron Wallace (Nicholas Pinnock) continues his quest to win justice as this taut legal drama returns for its sophomore season. That fight compels him to take up the mantle against systemic justice from outside the prison walls that currently hold him. Indira Varma, Joy Bryant and Timothy Bissell, Tyler Harris and Dorothy Mursfield also return to their series roles.

tonight's picks

Jared Padalecki

Thursday 7 p.m. on 43 5 Superstore On the day of Cloud 9's heavily promoted "In-store-vaganza," Dina (Lauren Step) finally gets the chance to step up to the plate and call the shots at running the store, much to the dismay of some of her colleagues, in the new episode "Prize Wheel." Elsewhere, Garrett and Cheyenne (Colton Dunn, Nichole Bloom) search for the origin of a mysterious smell in the store, while Jonah (Ben Feldman) finds himself excited about a new opportunity.

7 p.m. on 67 Jersey Shore: Family Vacation The roommates return for their fourth season, which picks up in the aftermath of the stormy Season 3 finale, with a pandemic thrum in for good measure. The wedding of Angeline in that finale included a shocking speech that left the family fractured, so the boys attempt multiple reconciliations in the new season. As part of their plan, DJ Pauly D takes over an entire resort and, with an assist from Mike "The Situation," Vinny and Ronnie, he hopes to reunite the girls and the whole extended family.

8 p.m. on 13 Supernatural When "Supernatural" premiered on what was then The WB network in 2005, creator Eric Kripke mapped out a three-season plan for the show, which he later expanded to five. Now, Sam and Dean Winchester (Jared Padalecki, Jensen Ackles) end their ghost-busting road trip, as the longest-running live-action American fantasy series in TV history closes a 15-season run. Whatever happens in this series finale, we can borrow an epitaph from another cult hit, "Buffy the Vampire Slayer," for a final word on Sam and Dean: "They saved the world a lot."

8 p.m. on 65; 9 p.m. on 65; 10 p.m. on 65 Total Bellas In a new episode called "Bellas Break Free," despite Nicole's reluctance, Brie pushes her sister to resolve lingering tensions with the rest of their family. Nicole starts getting uncomfortable after she notices Artem spending what she considers too much time with her mother, Kathy.

9 p.m. on 3 3 Star Trek: Discovery Burnham (Sonequa Martin-Green) and her crew find themselves stuck in a time loop after cosman and smuggler Harry Mudd (guest star Rainn Wilson) manages to slip aboard the vessel in the new "Magic to Make the Sanest Man Go Mad." Mudd's scheme is to murder Lorca (Jason Isaacs), and sell the ship to the Klingons, but when his plot is foiled, he blows up the craft instead, triggering the time anomaly.

9 p.m. on 46; 1 a.m. on 46 When Skin Goes Wrong Viewer advisory: This new reality series may be enough to make your skin crawl. TLC goes back to the "body horror" well with this new entry, which follows British dermatologist Emma Craythorne as she diagnoses and treats patients with skin conditions, some of them extreme, like something you might expect to see out of a medieval plague docudrama.

9:01 p.m. on 9 9 A Million Little Things Season 3 finds the main characters addressing fallout from events at the close of Season 2, with Rome and Regina (Romany Malco, Christina Moses) struggling to find a way forward now that the birth mother of the child they planned to adopt has backed out of their agreement. Gary's (James Roday Rodriguez) new relationship with Darcy (Floriana Lima) thrusts him into the unfamiliar role of instant father figure, leading to a life-altering decision.

11 p.m. on (181)

Movie: Pretty Cheaters, Deadly Lies

After her cousin Madison (Sydney Meyer) tricks her into a compromising situation, high school senior Hanna (Keara Graves) thinks she may be able to get her scheming relative to stop blackmailing her if Hanna agrees to take her college entrance exam for her. Unfortunately, the twisted Madison has no intention of letting her off the hook that easily, and her scheme takes a far more deadly turn in this 2020 thriller. Kate Drummond and Sebastien Roberts also star.

7 p.m. on (401);
10 p.m. on (401)

Between the World and Me

Ta-Nahisi Coates acclaimed book is adapted for the stage and reconceived as a story that plays out against the backdrop of the murder of Breonna Taylor and global protests in support of the Black Lives Matter movement. The special conveys the essence of Coates' letter to his teenage son on what a Black male coming of age in contemporary America must be prepared to face. Kamalah Forbes directs a large ensemble cast that includes Mahershala Ali, Angela Bassett, Yara Shahidi, Joe Morton, Courtney B. Vance and Oprah Winfrey, among others.

8:25 p.m. on (401)

Movie: Underwater

William Eubank's claustrophobic 2010 sci-fi horror film stars Kristen Stewart as the mechanical engineer on a research and drilling facility operating deep underwater, at the bottom of the Mariana Trench. A crisis strikes in the form of a strong earthquake that cripples their work station, leaving them stranded in the depths. Raising the stakes considerably is the discovery that the quake also has released a horde of hostile and voracious creatures. Vincent Cassel, Jessica Henwick, John Gallagher Jr. and T.J. Miller also star.

11 p.m. on (8) (8);
3 a.m. on (8) (8)

Austin City Limits

Formed in 1989 in Miami, the Grammy-winning American country music band The Mavericks always has lived up to its name by combining Tex-Mex, Latin, rockabilly and non-traditional country influences into a sound that's like no other, yet highly accessible. This new episode finds the group taking things a step further as they perform numbers from their first-ever all-Latin format release "En Español." Song reissues "La Sitiara," "Recuerdos," "Cuando Me Enamoro" and "Mujer."
