Kate Mara is 'A Teacher' in trouble in new FX on Hulu drama

What can happen when an educator crosses the line with a student?

Possible answers are supplied by "A Teacher," a limited FX on Hulu drama series that begins streaming Tuesday, Nov. 10. Also an executive producer of the project, Kate Mara has the title role as Claire Wilson, who risks her new job, her family life and everything else by getting romantically involved with Eric Walker (played by Nick Robinson, of the movie "Love, Simon"), a senior in her high school English classes in Texas ... where such a relationship is illegal. Fellow executive producer Hannah Fidell, expanding upon her same-named 2013 independent film, directed the majority of the 10 episodes and wrote or co-wrote many of them.

"I was really interested in exploring consent and manipulation and victimhood," Fidell explains, "and what that means in a narrative that I think that our culture is fairly obsessed with. What I was really curious about was what happens after. What are the consequences for the student especially, but for both of them? Do they both have to live with a scarlet letter for the rest of their lives? And how does victimhood present itself differently for a male victim as opposed to a female victim?"

Mara's youthful look helps make the affair depicted by "A Teacher" that much more plausible. "In high school," the actress recalls, "my favorite teacher was ... at the time, I thought she was way older than me, but she was probably 25 or something, which is much younger than I am now. As a student, that was someone I really looked up to, and who had a lot of control.

"And so, when playing Claire, I wanted to make sure that she did seem young. Claire's behavior is what is very interesting to me in this character and in this story. Just because she looks young, and maybe you wouldn't think twice if you saw her with Eric walking down the street, that doesn't justify the fact that she is abusing her power. That was definitely something that Hannah and I talked about a lot."

Also featuring Ashley Zukerman ("Succession") as Claire's husband and Rya Kihlstedt ("Love in the Time of Corona") as Eric's mother, "A Teacher" unfolds in very digestible half-hour segments.

"What is so exciting for me, being able to do it as a TV show," Fidell says, "is to have that time to really explore the how and the why and the effects and the consequences on both characters. It's incredibly rewarding to be able to continue to work through this subject matter, and also just to explore different facets of the story that I wasn't able to on an Indie, low-budget scale."

Kate Mara and Nick Robinson star in "A Teacher," which begins streaming Tuesday on FX on Hulu.

Virginia Madsen appreciates strong acting partners.

In an early scene of her Tuesday CW series "Swamp Thing," the Oscar-nominated actress ("Sideways") delivers a searing monologue as smalltown Louisiana grand dame Maria Sunderland, opening up both barrels on government scientist and former family friend Abby Arcane (Crystal Reed) about how much she blames her for the death of her daughter years earlier.

The hatred coming through the screen was palpable but luckily, Madsen notes that Reed was up to taking what she had to dish out.

"I'm an actor who prepares" Madsen explains. "And Crystal is kind of like that, too, like she's just down for whatever you're going to throw at her. Plus, we're night shooting so it's like you've got to get through it and you've got to get through it fast. And I could just basically walk in, sit down, throw a few punches and she took it.

"Afterwards, I was hugging her and I was like, 'I'm so sorry,'" for the 59-year-old Chicago native adds with a laugh. "But she was up for it because I knew that she's strong and she's not going to take that home with her. She trusted me and I trusted her to be able to go to those painful places together, I knew that she could do it and I wouldn't really be hurting her. So that made it sort of fun for us to be all dramatic and play together."

Also fun for Madsen was the indoor swamp built on the Wilmington, N.C., set of the series, one that included crickets, birds and 60-foot trees that could be moved around to create different locations.

"It was so enormous that they could actually run motorboats on it," Madsen says. "And when you're in it, they had divers under the water for safety and it was very humid and warm so after a while it was like a real swamp. It was really kind of haunting when you went in."

Finding Your Roots With Henry Louis Gates, Jr.
 Airing in anticipation of tomorrow's observation of Veterans Day, a new episode called "War Stories" finds host Henry Louis Gates Jr. exploring the roots of actors Julianne Moore and Bill Hader and artist Kehinde Wiley. As the episode title suggests, the common thread in each personal history is a focus on how their ancestors' selfless military service left an indelible mark on their families, as well as on their country.

7 p.m. on 13
Swamp Thing
 Haunted by the ghost of her ill-fated childhood friend, Abby (Crystal Reed) must confront both her past with the Sunderland clan as well as the dark forces currently at play in Marais in the new episode "Drive All Night." Swamp Thing (Derek Mears) uses his uncanny powers when Abby is threatened, but it's Matt (Henderson Wade) who ultimately saves the day. The incident further drives a wedge between Swamp Thing and the human world.

8 p.m. on 12 7
NEXT
 In the new episode "FILE 3," Shea and LeBlanc (Fernanda Andrade, John Slattery) travel to Dartmouth to investigate the whereabouts of NEXT, which they know are potentially linked to Biomotom Labs. Later, Shea, Ethan (Evan Whitten) and Ty (Gerardo Celasco) take extra precautions to disconnect from electronics and the internet, so as not to give away their own location. Jason Butler Harner and Michael Mosley also star.

8 p.m. on 13
Tell Me a Story
 Several people around Ashley (Natalie Alyn Lind) start to notice her blossoming connection to Beau (Eka Darville) after she finds inspiration to make music again in the new episode "Number One Fan." Elsewhere, Simone (Ashley Madekwe) turns to Jackson (Matt Lauria) for his help as she tries to get at the truth behind her father's trust and Veronica's (guest star Garcelle Beauvais) treachery. Olivia (guest star Danielle Campbell) grooms Tucker (Paul Wesley) about his real intentions, ultimately exposing painful memories for both of them in the process.

8 p.m. on 46; 12 a.m. on 46
My Big Fat Fabulous Life
 Just four months following a marriage proposal in Paris, the now-engaged Whitney and Chase have hit some potholes on the way to the altar as this series returns for a new season. Chase has yet to act on his pledge to move to Charlotte, and before they can negotiate further, the coronavirus pandemic forces them to remain in separate quarantine. Finally, as North Carolina is about to start reopening, Whitney receives another blow with the news that Chase is going to become a father, just not with her.

The Curse of Oak Island
 Having unearthed promising evidence of an 18th-century sailing ship in the swamp, Rick and Marty Lagina send their team to do more extensive excavation in the same area in the Season 8 premiere, "Remote Control." Of course, as with nearly everywhere else in the world, the COVID-19 pandemic complicates their return to Oak Island. Now that they have evidence that suggests the existence of tunnels leading to the Money Pit, however, the entire fellowship is hopeful they are on the verge of solving this 200-year-old mystery.

 Art imitates life as this hit medical drama returns for Season 6 with "When Did We Begin to Change," which sees the entire staff of Chicago Med struggling to adjust to the weird new normal imposed by the coronavirus pandemic. As Dr. Choi, Dr. Lanik and April (BaCosta) fight COVID-19 on the front lines, Dr. Halstead and Hannah (Nick Gehlfuss, Jessy Schram) confront a troubled personal reality. Meanwhile, Dr. Charles (Oliver Platt) deals with a family matter.

 The three-part miniseries "Primates" continues with the middle episode "Family Matters," which reveals how primates have the most complex social lives of any animal group on Earth. Leaf monkeys actually compete for the privilege of babysitting an infant, but rally together when the ape tot is threatened by a python. Gibbons teach the secrets of their treetop acrobatics to less experienced playmates, and intimate video footage shows a gray slender lorist mother in Sri Lanka caring for her twins.

He abandons the plan, however, when he discovers that he is personally connected to the death of Sofia's brother. Kasia Smutniak, Malachi Kirby, Paul

 The hot button topic of racial conflict between Black citizens and police officers is a major theme in the Season 4 premiere "3 Seven Year Odds," the first of two episodes airing back-to-back. As Hondo (Shemar Moore) confronts that tense history, the SWAT team also pursues El Diablo's scattered drug cartel hiding in the city, while a Jihadist group detonates bombs in a series of coordinated attacks. Then, in "Stakeout," the team helps the CIA confirm whether an international crime lord has surfaced in Los Angeles.

Supernatural

The 15th and final season races closer to its (probably) apocalyptic conclusion in the penultimate episode "Inherit the Earth," which finds virtually everything on the line — heaven, hell and the human world in between — as Sam and Dean (Jared Padalecki, Jensen Ackles) continue their high-stakes battle against God (guest star Rob Benedict). Meanwhile, a familiar face returns to join the fight.

8 p.m. on 43 5

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

Season 22 reflects this police drama's "ripped-from-the-headlines" style on two fronts, as

Capt. Olivia Benson (Mariska Hargitay) and her team grapple with the coronavirus pandemic, which has sparked an uptick in domestic abuse as families shelter in their homes. Showrunner Warren Leight also says the writers plan to address the social and political fallout from the George Floyd murder. Watch for a guest appearance this season from Chris Meloni as Benson's former partner Elliot Stabler, as a run-up to Meloni's 2021 spinoff "Law & Order: Organized Crime."

8 p.m. on 9 9

Grey's Anatomy

Season 17 opens with a two-hour episode that picks up with a slight time jump from the end of Season 16, which had to shut down prematurely due to the coronavirus outbreak. As the action resumes, the pandemic has been raging for a couple of months, and the doctors already are taxed to their limits. The real-life crisis posed challenges off-screen as well, with new camera lenses used to make actors look as if they're standing closer than they really are. Ellen Pompeo and Chandra Wilson return.

8 p.m. on 13

The Outpost

In the new episode "Kill the Rat, Kill the King," Talon (Jessica Greer) sets up a sanctuary to protect the infected, while Janzo and Wren (Anand Desai-Barochia, Izuka Hoyle) feverishly continue their research in hopes of finding a cure. Elsewhere, Garret (Jake Stormo) tries to find out more about a deadly cult that performs human sacrifices. Reece Ritchie and Adam Johnson also star.

8:30 p.m. on 3 3

The Unicorn

Natalie Jira ("The Detour") joins this sitcom on a recurring basis as it opens Season 2 with "There's Something About Whoever-She-Was," which sees Wade (Walton Goggins) running into an unfamiliar woman (Zea) in a parking lot. It's only afterward that he realizes he felt an instant connection with this stranger. Meanwhile, Michelle (Maya Lynne Robinson) anxiously waits to hear from the colleges she applied to, and Natalie (Makenzie Moss) tries to persuade her dad that she's old enough to get her ears pierced.

9 p.m. on 3 3

Star Trek: Discovery

Burnham (Sonequa Martin-Green) and her crew find themselves stuck in a time loop after mudman (guest star Rainn Wilson) manages to slip aboard the vessel in the new "Magic to Make the Sanest Man Go Mad." Mudd's scheme is to murder Lorca (Jason Isaacs) and sell the ship to the Klingons, but when his plot is foiled, he blows up the craft instead, triggering the time anomaly. Anthony Rapp and Doug Jones also star.

The Astronauts

Ron Howard and Brian Grazer of Imagine Entertainment are two of the executive producers on this new live-action series for kids, which premieres tonight in two back-to-back episodes. As the story opens, the spaceship Odyssey II stands ready for its crew to embark on a mission that could decide the fate of mankind. Things go awry, though, when five untrained kids use their parents' security clearances to sneak aboard the empty vessel, accidentally triggering the launch sequence. The cast includes Miya Cech, Bryce Gheisar, Kayden Grace Swan and Ben Daon.

The Blacklist

As this taut action thriller enters Season 8, Raymond Reddington (James Spader) has his back against the wall as he confronts his most formidable foe yet: Elizabeth Keen (Megan Boone). Aligned with her mother, ruthless Russian spy Katarina Rostova (recurring guest star Laila Robins), Liz now must decide how far she'll go to discern what Reddington's true endgame is. This volatile new relationship between these two erstwhile friends may have devastating consequences for those around them, including the members of the Task Force.

Movie: Christmas on the Vine

Brooke (Julianna Guill), a young marketing executive, returns to hometown to help a struggling family-owned winery, an assignment that teams her up with the winery's charming yet stubborn owner, Tyler (Jon Cor). She quickly discovers that the community's Christmas spirit, one of her favorite childhood memories, has dimmed sharply now that a wine conglomerate has been buying up and closing local independent businesses like Tyler's. Meredith Baxter also stars in this 2020 yuletide romance.

7:05 p.m. on 420

Movie: The Fighter

Christian Bale and Melissa Leo scored best supporting actor and actress Oscars for their work in director David O. Russell's 2010 biodrama, playing the drug-addicted half brother and strong-willed mother of boxer Micky Ward (Mark Wahlberg). When Micky gets a shot at a title, he must decide between family loyalty — Dicky is his manager but a very unreliable one, thanks to his addiction — and doing what's best for his career. Amy Adams also stars.

My Big Italian Adventure

In "1 Euro Dream Home: Episode 3," host Lorraine Bracco rushes to put the finishing touches on her extraordinarily affordable property in time for her family's arrival in Sambuca. As the clock ticks down the hours, the plucky Lorraine man-

Ancient Aliens

This docuseries continues its exploration of possible past visits to Earth by extraterrestrials with an hour devoted to "The Divine Number," 12. That number holds a spiritual significance in numerous sacred traditions across several cultures, and references to 12 can be found repeated in ancient architecture and even in the latest scientific principles. Is it possible that number is part of an alien code that otherworldly visitors left for humanity to decipher?

Movie: Christmas on Wheels
After her uncle is injured, Ashley returns to her small hometown to care for him, but is dismayed to learn he has sold her late mother's vintage red convertible, which holds many fond memories for her. With the help of a local attorney, Ashley manages to re-acquire the car, and uses it to deliver gifts to the community as her mother once did. As she reconnects with those old memories, Ashley has second thoughts about returning home to the big city. Tiya Sircar and Michael Xavier star.

Movie: Christmas in Vienna
Sarah Drew stars in this 2020 romance as Jess Waters, an accomplished violinist, who recently has lost some of the joy she once felt in performing. That doesn't stop her from accepting an invitation to be part of a prestigious Christmas Eve concert at the Vienna Music Hall in Austria. After flying to Vienna two weeks before the performance, Jess visits her close friend Tori (Alina Fritsch), who is currently working as a nanny for Tori's cousin, Mark Olson (Brennan Elliott), a widowed diplomat.

Movie: Young, Stalked and Pregnant

While finishing up her senior year of high school, Audrey (Taylor Blackwell) has just won acceptance at a top-tier university when she discovers she is pregnant by her boyfriend, Sam (Cody Sulek), who insists that they get married and start building a family. When Audrey moves ahead with plans for a future without him, however, Sam and his mother (Tanya Clarke) decide to take the matter into their own hands in this 2020 thriller.

History's Greatest Mysteries
Emmy winner Laurence Fishburne is host and narrator of this new docuseries, which explores historically compelling topics and mysteries that surround each of them. The opener, "The Final Hunt for D.B. Cooper," revisits the only unsolved case of air piracy in U.S. history. In 1971, an unidentified man hijacked a Boeing 727 airliner, extorted $200,000 in ransom, then parachuted to a fate that remains unknown. Now, Eric Ulis, an expert in this case, believes he has identified where Cooper (a pseudonym) landed after his famous leap.
