"Once Upon a Snowman" begins streaming Friday on Disney+.

Disney+ reveals the backstory of Olaf in 'Once Upon a Snowman'

We all know Olaf as the beloved snowman from the "Frozen" movies. How he developed into the uber-optimistic character he came to be is explored in an animated short upcoming on Disney+.

"Once Upon a Snowman," which begins streaming Friday, Oct. 23, fills in the blanks between when Elsa created him as she was "letting it go" and building her ice palace and when Anna and Kristoff meet him in the forest in the original 2013 Oscar-winner "Frozen." It follows his footsteps as he comes to life and searches for his identity in the snowy mountains outside the kingdom of Arendelle.

Josh Gad returns to voice the innocent though insightful Olaf and much of the production team from "Frozen" and its 2019 sequel "Frozen II" is also present here.

The film was a passion project for directors Trent Correy and Dan Abraham and came about from an idea Correy had while working as an animator on the first "Frozen" movie.

"The story started off as a very basic 'What happens to Olaf during these moments?' " Correy explains. "And when Elsa makes him, Olaf doesn't have his carrot nose so the premise was always Olaf finding his nose. And it's not that the short took a long time to write, it's just that it took a long time for the right timing for it to be made ... "

"But ('Frozen' and 'Frozen II' writer/director/producer) Jennifer Lee and Dan Abraham, they've both really pushed like, 'What is the deeper meaning behind this short?' so that it became kind of less of a gag short of Olaf just trying to find his nose and we put that Disney heart behind it."

And a lot of that soulfulness comes from Gad. A lifelong Disney fan, the actor and producer has been an enthusiastic participant in the "Frozen" universe from the outset and both directors credit him with bringing a dimension to the character that isn't on the page.

"The guy is Olaf," Abraham says, "like we give him a script and he does the script but ... the improv that he does and the embellishments and the little giggles or sighs or whatever it is, like nobody else could do that. Like nobody else can be Olaf but him. It's amazing what he brings to bring that character to life."

"One of our highlights," Correy adds, "was definitely being in the recording booth with Josh because you have the story and the storyboards up until then ... but as soon as you get that Josh Gad voice in there, everything springs to life and the animators just have a blast animating to all of his little idiosyncrasies and giggles and screams."

As for what viewers will learn about the character, Correy says, "This is the Olaf origin story. He is finding out a lot about himself, how he moves, how he talks, how he is and his identity. So we really just get to enjoy this kind of side story of Olaf and his first walks in life and how he interacts within the 'Frozen' timeline, you know, eventually leading up to when he meets Anna and Kristoff."

Being a part of the "Star Trek" universe was never on David Ajala's radar but taking on the character of Cleveland "Book" Booker was a challenge he couldn't resist.

In the third season of "Star Trek: Discovery," currently streaming new episodes Thursdays on CBS All Access, the storyline advances 930 years, where the crew of the titular starship land after going through a wormhole. Now living in a time of uncertainty, they work with new friends to restore hope to the Federation.

Booker is one of them, a smart, capable man with a natural charisma and a devil-may-care attitude that tends to get him in trouble – a character that took the 34-year-old British actor out of his comfort zone.

"There was something about the character which was really profound and which really touched my spirit," he explains. "And this was a guy who has been ostracized from his family and he's had to find a purpose bigger than himself in order to survive and keep living and pushing forward. And as simple and profound as it is, I found that really timely for myself and where I was physically, spiritually and mentally. So I thought, 'You know what?

This could be an experience that might be beneficial to me.' And I've actually found it to be very cathartic, actually, surprisingly."

Also somewhat daunting was coming in as the new guy on an established series, but Ajala indicates the cast made him feel like a part of the family from the outset.

"That's the kind of working environment you want to be in," he says. "I love working with these individuals because everyone in front of the camera and behind the camera is constantly pushing themselves to raise the bar. They do that independently and then they do that collectively and it's one of the most thriving atmospheres you can be in."

2020 World Series
 After a 60-game regular season and three tiers of playoffs, Major League Baseball enters its championship round as the winners of the American and National Leagues clash at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, in the 2020 World Series. Last year, the Washington Nationals won their first MLB title in franchise history with their seven-game triumph over the Houston Astros.

7 p.m. on 13
Swamp Thing
 When her colleague and friend Harlan (guest star Leonardo Nam) comes down with the "green flu," Abby (Crystal Reed) turns Alec's (Andy Bean) lab upside-down looking for a cure in the new episode "He Speaks." Instead, she finds the latest supernatural reanimation from the Rot. Virginia Madsen, Henderson Wade and Derek Mears also star.

8 p.m. on 13
Tell Me a Story

Meanwhile, Simone (Ashley Madekwe) attends the funeral of her estranged father and discovers that her stepmother (Garcelle Beauvais) may be even more evil than Simone ever dared to imagine. Carrie-Ann Moss also stars.

9 p.m. on 57; 10 p.m. on 57; 5 a.m. on 57
Don't Be Tardy ...
 In a new episode called "A Country Ghost Town Jamboree," the road-tripping Biermanns come face to face with ghouls and ghosts in what purports to be the most haunted house in the United States. Any chills from that experience pale, however, up against Kim's abject horror when she drops her beloved phone into the toilet of their RV.

9:30 p.m. on 49 5
Transplant
 In the new episode "Far From Home," an unexpected turn of events leaves Bash and Amira (Hamza Haq, Sirena Gulamgaus) in a precarious situation. Elsewhere, Theo (Jim Watson) gets a surprise visitor at home, while at work he confronts a stubborn, closed-minded patient. Language proves to be a barrier as Bash and Mags (Laurence Labeouf) team up to help a patient from overseas. Meanwhile, June (Ayisha Issa) comes to a decision about her relationship with Lou (Eddie G).

9:30 p.m. on 15
Kal Penn Approves This Message
 In a new episode called "Kal Penn Approves the Environment," host Kal Penn continues his personal crusade to inform and empower young voters by spending time discussing environmental policies with young Americans from all sectors of the political spectrum. With luck, he hopes to discern whether and how age may be a greater dividing factor than political affiliation for this particular voting demographic.

American Masters
 Filmmaker Ben Loeterman's new documentary "Walter Winchell: The Power of Gossip" chronicles the life and career of the syndicated columnist, radio news commentator and TV host who created the breakneck gossip-based, politically charged culture that still thrives today. At his career peak, he had a combined print and radio audience of 50 million, until his alliance with Sen. Joseph McCarthy turned fans against him. Stanley Tucci, who won an Emmy in the title role of HBO's 1998 TV-movie "Winchell," lends his voice to the film.

Wednesday
8 p.m. on 9 9
The Conners
 As this "Roseanne" spinoff moves to a new night for Season 3, it remains true to its art-imitates-life creative principle: The season premiere, "Keep on Truckin' Six Feet Apart," finds this fractious clan grappling with the bizarre new reality dictated by the coronavirus pandemic. As with real-life families across North America and the world, the health crisis places added stress on the characters' already fraught financial situation while also testing some strained family dynamics. Sara Gilbert, John Goodman and Laurie Metcalf star.

8 p.m. on 13
Coroner
 As Jenny and Donovan (Serinda Swan, Roger Cross) investigate a lab technician's death, her personal interest in the research being done at the facility threatens to distract from her focus in the new episode "Crispr Sistr." Liam (Éric Bruneau) approaches the end of his rope as he is confronted with tragedy. Meanwhile, River (Kiley May) meets her new colleague. Ehren Kassam and Nicholas Campbell also star.

8 p.m. on 401
537 Votes
 Filmmaker Billy Corben's new documentary looks back at how the international custody battle over Elian Gonzalez, a six-year-old born in Cuba, helped trigger a devastating political earthquake in Florida's Miami-Dade County during the 2000 presidential election. After election day, with victory depending on which candidate received Florida's electoral votes, George W. Bush prevailed over Al Gore to take the presidency by a margin of only 537 votes.

8:30 p.m. on 9 9
black-ish
 Preceded by two election-themed specials, Season 7 of this acclaimed family sitcom officially gets under way with "Hero Pizza," which takes the characters back to the early days of the COVID-19 pandemic. As a first responder in this medical crisis, Bow Tracee Ellis Ross) gets warm praise from her family for her selfless work ... at least, at first. As the crisis drags on, though, enthusiasm among the other Johnsons wanes, until someone violates quarantine lockdown rules. Anthony Anderson also stars.

9 p.m. on 8 8; 1 a.m. on 8 8

The Age of Nature
 "Understanding," the second of three parts, explores how a deeper comprehension of nature helps humans find new ways to fix its problems. Along with Washington's Elwha River, the removal of dams has led not only to the recovery of the local forest but also Chinook salmon, which provide food for the endangered orca population in the region. In China, a scientist's determined efforts to restore the firefly population, which provides natural pest control, is transforming the lives of rural farming communities.

Gold Rush

The coronavirus pandemic shut down most of the world in March 2020, but it also provided the opportunity of a lifetime to gold miners, driving up the value of gold to record highs even as a miner's biggest expense — fuel, to drive his equipment — plummeted in price. In the all-new season that opens tonight with a three-hour special, veteran miners Parker Schnabel, Tony Beets and Rick Ness take huge gambles to make up for lost time, while greenhorn miners hope to make their own mark.

How to With John Wilson

Documentary filmmaker and self-described "anxious New Yorker" John Wilson embarks on an amusing odyssey of self-discovery and cultural observation in this new six-episode "docu-comedy" in which he dispenses everyday advice on relatable topics, while obsessively filming the behavior of his fellow New Yorkers. The episodes take some wildly unexpected turns that remain grounded in Wilson's refreshing candor. First up: "How to Make Small Talk."

Movie: Jingle Bell Bride

Jessica Perez (Julie Gonzalo), a wedding planner who prides herself on going the second mile for her elite clients, travels all the way to a remote town in Alaska to secure a rare flower a celebrity bride-to-be wants for her bouquet. Upon her arrival, Jessica is completely blindsided and charmed by the beauty of this unspoiled community during the Christmas season. A handsome local (Ronnie Rowe Jr.) who offers his assistance also makes a strong impression in this 2020 holiday romance.

Put a Ring On It

This new relationship series from executive producer Will Packer follows three longtime couples who embark on a nine-week test. Guided by relationship coach Dr. Nicole LaBeach, the couples will be forced out of their comfort zones to date other potential mates, in an effort to determine whether their familiar relationship is a genuine "happily ever after" situation or more a matter of habit. By the season's end, each couple will decide whether it's best to go their separate ways or take the big leap and "put a ring on it."

Movie: EMMA.

Autumn de Wilde, who made her feature film directorial debut with this 2020 adaptation of Jane Austen's 1815 novel, explains there's a period at the end of the film's title to reflect that it is, after all, "a period piece." So yes, it's that kind of irreverent comedy. Anya Taylor-Joy earned glowing reviews for her spirited performance in the title role of Emma Woodhouse, a headstrong young woman in Regency-era England who can't stop mulling her. Bill Nighy, Johnny Flynn and Miranda Hart co-star.

Movie: Christmas Tree Lane

Meg (Alicia Witt), a determined music store owner, embarks on a crusade to save her town's Christmas Tree Lane shopping district from demolition in this new 2020 romance. As she follows through on this quest, she meets and quickly develops a warm regard for Nate (Andrew Walker), but any hope of something more meaningful is threatened when Meg learns some disturbing facts about his professional associations. Drake Hogestyn and Briana Price also star.

MOVING TO HURON?

*You will be the first one
they think of!*

When new residents arrive in Beadle County this fall and winter, yours will be the first business they think of when they need goods and services in their new hometown. From healthcare to hair care, to car care, you name it, newcomers will be in need of someone they can trust.

10,000 Tri-Fold Color Glossy Pamphlets will be printed and inserted in the Plainsman, as well as included in welcome packets and placed at distribution points around town. Includes relocation phone numbers & addresses, city map, and 2021 city event schedule.

All ads will run in full color. Deadline to reserve space is November 2, 2020.
