Disney+ brings a Broadway smash to streaming with the Tony-winning 'Hamilton'

American television has a proud tradition of bringing award-winning stage productions to the small screen.

Be it a one-off special on a network or long-running PBS series such as "Great Performances" or "Masterpiece Theatre," anyone who doesn't live near New York who has wanted to take in a Broadway show has been able to do so without leaving the comfort of their living room.

The latest comes this month with the arrival of "Hamilton." Premiering Friday, July 3, on Disney+, the Tony-winning play from director Thomas Kail offers a rap-infused look at Alexander Hamilton's life and formative role in American history. Starring Lin-Manuel Miranda (who also wrote the musical) in the title role, this production is made up largely of filmed performances featuring the original Broadway cast, shot at the Richard Rodgers Theater in June 2016.

It joins a laundry list of stage productions that have introduced TV viewers to what Broadway is all about, including the following.

"Peter Pan" (March 7, 1955; NBC): The original 1954 Broadway play came to television a year later with the same cast, including Mary Martin as the boy who refused to grow up. Martin and co-star Cyril Ritchard (as Captain Hook) took home Tony Awards for their performances. A 2000 production with Cathy Rigby in the starring role also drew rave reviews.

"Cinderella" (Feb. 22, 1965; CBS): An 18-year-old Lesley Ann Warren's career got a major lift with her starring role in Rodgers and Hammerstein's iconic musical about a mistreated peasant who finds her prince, though she admitted later to nerves playing opposite decorated screen legends Celeste Holm and Walter Pidgeon. And that's future "General Hospital" mainstay Stuart Damon as the prince.

"Death of a Salesman" (May 8, 1966; CBS): Arthur Miller's Tony-winning play about an aging travelling salesman on the verge of a nervous breakdown starred Lee J. Cobb in the iconic role of Willy Loman, in a cast that also included Stanley Adams, Edward Andrews and Albert Dekker. Sharp-eyed viewers will also notice George Segal and Bernie Kopell ("The Love Boat") in bit parts.

"Kiss Me, Kate" (March 25, 1968, ABC): Cole Porter's musical about behind-the-scenes conflict during a stage production of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" featured then-spouses Robert Goulet and Carol Lawrence in the roles of contentious exes Fred and Lilli.

"Oklahoma!" (Nov. 15, 2013, PBS): Fifteen years after it was filmed for the BBC, this 1998 National Theatre of London production came to "Great Performances" with a game Hugh Jackman in the starring role of Cowboy Curly, who tries to win the heart of headstrong Laurey (Josefina Gabrielle) in a singing and dancing extravaganza.

"Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert" (April 1, 2018, NBC): Generally positive reviews but disappointing ratings greeted this lavish stage concert production of the 1970 rock opera, featuring John Legend in the title role and a cast including Sara Bareilles, Brandon Victor Dixon, Ben Daniels and legendary rocker Alice Cooper.

Can a good family man also be a risk-taking police detective?

In the case of Ashley Walters' character on "Bulletproof," the answer is "yes." Now airing its second season Wednesdays on The CW, the "Bad Boys"-influenced British action series – which Walters and fellow star Noel Clarke, executive producers of the show as well, also helped create – follows Walters' Pike and Clarke's Bishop, independent-minded partners largely spending the current episodes pursuing a crime family.

"Noel and I had known about each other for many years but hadn't really spoken to each other," Walters reports, "so we've actually been getting to know each other through the show. I'd always been known as an actor with a very serious focus, but I also have a funny side, and he and I connected on that level. We spend most of our time on the set just laughing."

Still, Walters notes that "behind the scenes, we're very instrumental in the story lines and the schedule of the show. We've seen it through from its inception, and we're very pleased."

Having completed what he terms a "Season 2.5" of "Bulletproof" set in South Africa, Walters is awaiting word on a full Season 3 while also appearing in the Netflix-revived drama series "Top Boy."

In the meantime, his plans include continuing the music career he has, sometimes under the alias Asher D: "I've been chipping away at that in-between the film work. It's always been difficult to keep consistent in the music world when the acting career is going so well, but I've made a push toward that in the last year. I'm working on some new stuff now."

Snowpiercer
 In a new episode called "The Universe Is Indifferent," Melanie (Jennifer Connelly) intensifies her search for Layton (Daveed Diggs) among the diverse and highly polarized passengers aboard Snowpiercer. Gordon Ramsay: Uncharted Chef Gordon Ramsay's mission to master the most fascinating cuisines in the world takes him to the Indonesian island of Sumatra, where he must put both his pride and his safety on the line to acquire the ingredients he needs. That includes exploring an intimidating system of caves, serving as a deckhand on the open sea and milking buffalo, all chores that test his commitment. William Wongso, one of that country's top chefs, keeps a sharp eye peeled on Ramsay's work as well in the new episode "Sumatra's Stunning Highlands."

tonight's picks

Peter Boyer

Friday

7 p.m. on (59);
9:30 p.m. on (59)

Movie: Deadpool

The highest-grossing "R"-rated film of all time at the worldwide box office, this globally raunchy 2016 Marvel Comics adaptation finds Ryan Reynolds fully in his element as former mercenary Wade Wilson, who adopts the alter ego Deadpool and embarks on a quest to hunt down the man (Ed Skrein) who nearly destroyed his life. Morena Baccarin co-stars as Wade's girlfriend, Vanessa, and T.J. Miller plays his best friend, Weasel. Gina Carano also is featured.

7 p.m. on (62)

Movie: Saving Private Ryan
Steven Spielberg won the best director Oscar for this 1998 World War II drama, whose operatic portrayal of the Normandy invasion is one of the most powerful war sequences in movie history. Tom Hanks stars as the captain in charge of a platoon assigned to go behind enemy lines and retrieve a private (Matt Damon) whose three brothers have all been killed. Edward Burns and Tom Sizemore also star, with Jeremy Davies very affecting as the platoon's interpreter.

8 p.m. on (3) (8)

Great Performances

Ushering in Independence Day weekend with an encore from 2018, composer Peter Boyer's "Ellis Island: The Dream of America" merges contemporary classical music — performed by Pacific Symphony — with dramatic readings recalling the experiences of specific newcomers to the United States. Among those delivering those words: Tony Award winner Barry Bostwick (who also has done this piece on other occasions), Emmy honoree Camryn Manheim ("The Practice") and Michael Nouri ("Flashdance"). This production was staged at the Renee and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall in Costa Mesa, Calif.

8 p.m. on (32); 12 a.m. on (32)

The Dead Files

The new episode "Watched by the Dead" takes medium Amy Allan and former homicide detective Steve DiSchiaivo to Brumley, Mo., where the owner of a bed & breakfast reports that paranormal disturbances are keeping customers awake at night. Later, in Hardinsburg, Ind., Steve and Amy try to stop a vicious entity that threatens the well-being of a local family.

10:06 p.m. on (465)

Movie: The Girl in the Spider's Web

Moving far away from her Emmy-winning work as Queen Elizabeth II in "The Crown," Claire Foy takes over the role of vigilante hacker Lisbeth Salander in Fede Alvarez's 2018 adaptation of David Lagercrantz's novel of the same title, using characters created by Stieg Larsson. The story finds Lisbeth embarking on a dangerous crusade to rescue and avenge battered women. Foy earned positive reviews for her portrayal of a character that had earned Rooney Mara an Oscar nomination in the 2011 hit "The Girl With the Dragon Tattoo."

10:15 p.m. on (401)

Movie: The Talented Mr. Ripley

The talented Messrs. Damon and Law — Matt and Jude, that is — earned critical bouquets for their work in director Anthony Minghella's Hitchcockian 1999 drama. Damon plays the title character, a poor boy mistaken for a tycoon (James Rebhorn) for a college friend of his playboy son, Dickie (Law). Dad offers Ripley $1,000 to bring the young wastrel home from Europe. Instead, he disposes of Dickie and assumes his identity. Gwyneth Paltrow and Cate Blanchett also star.

Macy's 4th of July Fireworks Spectacular

Partly owing to the fluid health guidelines surrounding the pandemic, NBC still is firming up both the format and scheduled performers for this annual special, which has become a holiday tradition. As of this writing, country superstars Tim McGraw and Lady A — formerly known as Lady Antebellum — are due to provide some of the music entertainment. And, of course, there's always the main event come nightfall in the form of a spectacular and very expensive pyrotechnical light show in the sky.

A Capitol Fourth

For the fourth time, John Stamos returns as host of this annual holiday special, joined by co-host Vanessa Williams. This year's program will feature clips from past editions of this show. Among the featured performers are Patti LaBelle, country stars Trace Adkins and Lauren Alaina, the Temptations, Tony Award-winning Broadway star Kelli O'Hara and opera star Renée Fleming, among many others. The special also will include a tribute to workers on the front lines of the health crisis and a segment honoring African-American heroes from the past and present.

Movie: Scary Stories to Tell in the Dark

While fleeing a bully, three teenagers hide in a local "haunted house," where they stumble across a secret room that contains a book of horror stories. As new tales begin to appear in the book, the teens and people in their lives are drawn into the chilling action. Zoe Colletti, Gabriel Rush and Austin Abrams play the young trio; Dreaine Norris, Gil Bellows, Lorraine Toussaint and Matt Smith are among the adult players. André Ovredal directed this 2019 adaptation of a juvenile book series by Alvin Schwartz.

9 p.m. on 59

Movie: Captain America: The Winter Soldier

On top of being an entertaining "popcorn movie" in its own right, this 2014 adventure also proved a dazzling display of Marvel Studios' corporate synergy in action, since the story line simultaneously was being amplified by events playing out on "Marvel's Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D." The powerful story of how "Cap" (Chris Evans) discovers his past as enough back to haunt him is rewarding enough on its own terms.
