cover story
BY JAY BOBBIN

Matthew Rhys stars in "Perry Mason," premiering Sunday on HBO.

Matthew Rhys is HBO's new, very different 'Perry Mason'

Any preconceived notion you might have of "Perry Mason" is about to be tossed out of court.

The most enduring image of novelist Erle Stanley Gardner's iconic character surely is the urbane defense attorney played by Raymond Burr in a 1957-66 television classic that remains a staple of nostalgia-driven networks. However, a younger, scrappier Mason fuels a limited HBO series debuting Sunday, June 21. Executive-produced by Robert Downey Jr. and his wife Susan, and set in the Depression era, it casts Matthew Rhys ("The Americans") in the title role while exploring Mason's roots as an unconventional detective as much as a nascent lawyer.

"That is why I jumped at the opportunity," the friendly Rhys confirms of helping to generate a new Mason. "When the initial call came, this strange thing went through my head: 'Perry Mason?' I realize more and more that I'd had a unique relationship to it without necessarily having a true grasp of what it was. I was aware of the (original) show, but in true recollection, I wasn't sure that I ever watched it ... though my grandparents did.

"You feel like you know this identity of a trial lawyer who got everybody to confess on the stand," adds Rhys, "but as soon as you heard that HBO was remaking 'Perry Mason,' you knew immediately, 'Well, OK. That's going to be a very different take.' And it is. It's the origin story of how he became a trial lawyer, and I thought, 'Oh, how interesting.' And then I read the first script, and that was that."

Such other familiar characters as Della Street (now played by Juliet Rylance) and Paul Drake (Chris Chalk) also are reinvented by the "Perry Mason" reboot. John Lithgow (as Mason's mentor in the law), Tatiana Maslany ("Orphan Black") and Robert Patrick ("Scorpion") are among the cast members as well. HBO-series veteran Tim Van Patten ("Game of Thrones," "The Sopranos") is the director and an executive producer of the show.

In preparing to play Mason, the Welsh-born Rhys – the real-life partner of his fellow "Americans" star Keri Russell – had a valuable resource in Tom Hanks while they made the recent movie "A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood," since Hanks had done the similarly styled 2002 film "Road to Perdition."

"When you're engulfed in something on this kind of scale, it's hard not to believe the world you're in," Rhys reasons of the "Perry Mason" costumes and production design that are so evocative of the early 1930s. "You don't see anything but hundreds of supporting actors in the costumes and cars, and whole streets have been made to look the way they were then, so it only strengthens the make-believe."

Talk to most any actor and they'll tell you a transformation takes place when they don heavy makeup, prosthetics or costumes for a role. Much of the time, it helps them find the character.

That also holds true for Zachary Quinto for his role of sinister Charlie Manx in the AMC supernatural horror series "NOS4A2." He says the hours he spends in the makeup chair definitely helps him get into the headspace of the shriveled immortal.

"It becomes about sort of managing the changes that happen in physicality when you have to put all that stuff on," the 43-year-old Pittsburgh native explains. "So I think it's like there's something that happens whether I think about it or not or whether it's conscious or not. There's something that just happens, too, to my physicality and the way that I sort of move and speak and play those scenes as a result of that process."

As Season 2 opens Sunday, June 21, it's eight years after the events of Season 1 and Charlie finds himself targeted by working-class young artist Vic McQueen (Ashleigh Cummings), who is bent on destroying him. But Charlie, who has faced his own mortality, knows Vic has a vulnerability and a soul he desires – that of her 8-year-old son Wayne.

With her boy's future at stake, it's up to Vic to protect him from this child-stealing monster and confront the mistakes of her past, a storyline Cummings embraced and left Quinto impressed by her performance.

"I think fast-forwarding the plot a little bit and giving her a little more agency and some more internal conflict and ultimately this child to protect and to care for was a great move," Quinto says. "And also as far as Manx was concerned, it makes it much more personal between Manx and Vic because now her kid is at risk So he knows once he comes back that she has a kid and ... it's an engine of conflict that I think is really valuable throughout the whole course of the season."

"Lucy Worsley's Royal Myths & Secrets"

United We Sing: A Grammy Tribute to the Unsung Heroes... Harry Connick Jr. and his filmmaker daughter, Georgia, leave their Connecticut home and hit the road in an RV to meet many of the "essential workers" who have worked tirelessly and even put their own safety at risk to make sure Americans sheltering at home during the COVID-19 pandemic can receive critical goods and services. Surprise messages to these unsung heroes are delivered by such celebrities as Queen Latifah, Renée Zellweger, Oprah Winfrey and Brad Pitt, among others, while Connick and other friends perform.

Lucy Worsley's Royal Myths & Secrets
Historian Lucy Worsley travels across Great Britain and Europe to visit great palaces, gardens, battlefields and other locations where royal history was made over the ages in this three-part, three-hour weekly miniseries. In the course of her travels, Worsley explores how royal history typically is a combination of facts, embellishment, manipulation and myth. The premiere, "Elizabeth I: The Warrior Queen," examines this facet of the British queen's image, facilitated by myths and secrets about her victory over the Spanish Armada.

This reputation shaped British national identity for centuries.
Perry Mason
Viewers who associate "Perry Mason" with the 1957-66 TV series of that title starring Raymond Burr should prepare themselves for a jolt with this new limited series. Set in 1931 Los Angeles, this reboot stars Matthew Rhys as a younger Mason, who makes his living as an unconventional detective even as he shows signs of the legal eagle he eventually will become. Juliet Rylance ("The Knick") and Chris Chalk ("Gotham") co-star as Della Lithgow and Paula Drake; John Lighthart, Tatiana Maslany and Robert Patrick also are featured.

Movie: Rampage
 Brad Peyton's 2018 sci-fi action film, based on a popular video game series, casts Dwayne Johnson as a former U.S. Special Forces agent, now a primatologist, who teams up with a laboratory-enhanced albino gorilla named George to protect Chicago from two other similarly mutated creatures, a gray wolf and a crocodile.

Buried Worlds With Don Wildman
 "Croatoan." That single word, frodo carved into a fence, remains one of the lone clues to the fate of a 16th-century British colony known as Roanoke, where the population of this Virginia settlement vanished without a trace. A new episode called "Dance of Woods" finds host Don Wildman visiting another Virginia town where paranormal activity has been spiking. After finding what may be a link to the "lost colony," Wildman retraces the path of a mysterious relic to see whether dark magic spelled doom for the ill-fated settlers.

Independent Lens

Filmmaker Stacey Tenenbaum's refreshing new documentary "Pipe Dreams" preconceptions some off-the-mark challenges about the age-old instrument — the pipe organ — while also taking viewers inside the high-stakes world of competitive organ music. The film charts the journeys of four prodigiously talented organ players during the run-up to the Canadian International Organ Competition, regarded by many as the Olympics for organ music. Held every three years in Montreal, the event forces competitors to confront their worst pressures and anxieties.

Camp Getaway

In the season finale "We Came, We Camped, We Coordinated," Claire and the staff turn camp into a Halloween horror show, while Nile and Gavin clash over the fall finale football game. "Toni Morrison"

Tuesday

7 p.m. on 3 8

American Masters

Timothy Greenfield-Sanders' new "Toni Morrison" offers an "intimate meditation" on the life, works and recurring themes of this masterful storyteller and Nobel Prize winner. Morrison's personal story opens in the steel town of Lorain, Ohio, where she grew up, and leads her to '70s book tours with Muhammad Ali and political front lines with Angela Davis. The film also features interviews with Davis, poet Sonia Sanchez, writers Fran Lebowitz, Walter Mosley and Hilton Als, and Oprah Winfrey, who turned Morrison's novel "Beloved" into a feature film.

7 p.m. on 32; 11 p.m. on 32

Ghost Adventures

A new episode called "Voices of the Dead" finds Zak Bagans, Nick Groff and Aaron Goodwin trying to help a colleague of sorts — another paranormal investigator — and his family find closure after they suffer a traumatic loss. After they do what they can, the guys then head to the Great Lakes to investigate reports of demonic activity at a historic hotel.

7 p.m. on 56

Movie: I Was a Male War Bride

In post-World War II Germany, military red tape forces Cary Grant to pose as a war bride to win permission to return to the United States with his wife, an American nurse (Ann Sheridan, TCM's star of the month for June)

In this somewhat low-key 1949 screwball comedy from Howard Hawks. The same director earlier had collaborated with Grant on an acknowledged masterpiece of the screwball genre, "Bring Up Baby." Marion Marshall and William Neff co-star.

8 p.m. on 74; 11 p.m. on 74; 2 a.m. on 74

Greenleaf

The Greenleaf family struggles to maintain a united front in the face of losing their church as this drama opens its fifth and final season with "The First Day." Calvary is scheduled to be demolished in just under a week, so Lady Mae and Bishop (Lynn Whitfield, Keith David) could really use a sign from God. Heartsick Charity (Deborah Joy Winans), meanwhile, is left to cope with the fallout of her actions, alone and shunned by her family. Merle Dandridge and Beau Bridges also star.

9 p.m. on 8 8; 1 a.m. on 8 8

Frontline

Although many viewers may be suffering from scandal fatigue these days, the new documentary "Opioids, Inc." may still shake some of them up with its look of how a drug company flooded the market with powerful opioids by bribing doctors and committing extensive insurance fraud. Produced in association with the London-based business and economic publication Financial Times, the film reveals how a company called Insys Therapeutics reaped a monetary windfall from a fantasy-based painkiller that was 50 times stronger than heroin.

Together, they plot a truly over-the-top prank on the original prankster. Another episode follows. 8:30 p.m. on 3 Broke A canceled birthday bash isn't the only melancholy note in the episode "Sammy's Party," which also serves as the series finale for this freshman sitcom. When the original plans to celebrate young Sammy's (Antonio Corbo) big day fall through, his relatives rush to set up an impromptu backyard party, where an unexpected guest catches everyone off guard. Meanwhile, Javier and Elizabeth (Jaime Lamol, Natasha Leggero) decide to camp for their own place. 8:45 p.m. on 66 Movie: Lady Sings the Blues This 1972 portrait of legendary singer Billie Holiday traces how the vocalist's rise to fame was accompanied by an escalating addiction to drugs. 7 p.m. on 3 (3)

47th Annual Daytime Emmy Awards

Like most ceremonies taking place during the COVID-19 pandemic, the 47th Daytime Emmy Awards will be a virtual affair, with winners making their acceptance speeches remotely from their homes. One bright spot? At least these awards are back on broadcast television, after languishing on streaming social platforms in recent years.

7 p.m. on 56

Movie: Madchen in Uniform
Christa Winsloe co-adapted her own play for this 1931 German film, which became something of a cult classic for its groundbreaking (if non-sensational) treatment of homosexuality. The story is set in an all-girls boarding school, where student Manuela (Hertha Thiele) becomes obsessed with a compassionate female teacher (Dorothea Wieck). The film, which was remade on a larger budget in 1958 with Lilli Palmer and Romy Schneider, airs tonight as past of TCM's Cinematic Pride: LGBTQ Critics' Choice lineup.

7:05 p.m. on 420

Movie: Killerman
Malik Bader's ("Cash Only") gritty 2019 crime thriller stars a cast-against-type Liam Hemsworth as Moe Diamond, a Manhattan jeweler whose services at money laundering are much in demand. When his partner (Emory Cohen) suggests using a multi-million-dollar stash currently being held for a ruthless gangster to bankroll a quick-and-dirty drug transaction, Moe very reluctantly accedes. The gambit goes completely off the rails, however, leaving Moe with partial amnesia. Diane Guerrero also stars.

8 p.m. on 8 (8)

Great Performances

Emmy- and Golden Globe-winning actress Christine Lahti stars as feminist pioneer Gloria Steinem in the new "Gloria: A Life" featuring an all-female cast playing both male and female roles. Playwright Emily Mann devotes Act 1 to a chronicle of Steinem's life, particularly in terms of her path to activism. Act 2, however, changes format to a "talking circle" with the audience, moderated by Steinem herself, to discuss some of the play's themes.

8 p.m. on 30; 9:31 p.m. on 30; 12:01 p.m. on 30; 1:31 a.m. on 30

Mama June: From Not to Hot
Completely broke and now homeless, Mama has just one last chance at recovery, and it takes an unexpected turn in the Season 4 finale, "Family Crisis: Mama's Last Chance." Elsewhere, Doe Doe discovers something very special in June's abandoned storage unit, and chaos erupts when Jennifer resorts to extreme measures to win full custody of Alana.

8 p.m. on 32; 12 a.m. on 32

The Dead Files

In the new episode "Mass Hauntings in the West," psychic Amy Allan and former homicide detective Steve DiSchiavi investigate a dangerous poltergeist terrorizing a family in Magna, Utah. Later, they head to picturesque Sedona, Ariz., where they confront disturbing paranormal activity at a restaurant.

8 p.m. on 185

Movie: Midway to Love

In this new romance, TV therapist Dr. Rachel August (Rachel Hendrix) is agast when her network announces her show is changing to a shock-driven tabloid format, so she heads home to decide on her next move. During her visit, she unexpectedly reconnects with old flame Mitchell Sims (Daniel Stine), now working as a grade-school teacher. As they spend time together, Rachel feels torn between going back to a frustrating but high-profile job and forsaking the spotlight for more low-key happiness with this nice guy.
