Daveed Diggs and Jennifer Connelly

An attempt to stem climate change backfires, plunging Earth into a new ice age and some of its inhabitants into a struggle to survive aboard an enormous train circling the frozen globe in a sci-fi series debuting on TNT.

In "Snowpiercer," premiering Sunday, May 17, those survivors wind up on an ark-like supertrain of the same name, created by a rich visionary named Mr. Wilford, who foresaw the impending apocalypse and wanted to ensure humanity's survival. It is here on this 1,001-car juggernaut where the haves, the have-nots and the unlawful are segregated into separate sections.

While the commoners in the back of the train cope with overcrowding and dwindling food rations, the biggest problem the rich face in the elegant front is body-shaming in the sauna. But when a murder occurs that could upend life on board, former homicide detective Layton (Daveed Diggs, "black-ish") is plucked from the back or "the tail" to investigate.

Among those aboard are the head of hospitality Melanie (Jennifer Connelly, "A Beautiful Mind") and her right hand, Ruth (Alison Wright, "The Americans"); Bess (Mickey Sumner, "Frances Ha"), a member of the train's police force; Jinju (Susan Park, "Ghostbusters"), the train's head agricultural officer; Bennett (Iddo Goldberg, "Peaky Blinders"), an engineer who knows the train end to end; and LJ (Annalise Basso, "Oculus"), the nihilistic teen daughter of a powerful family.

The story, which is based on the graphic novel series and the 2013 film from director Bong Joon Ho (who is also an executive producer here), is heavy on class warfare and social injustice as the politics of survival play out and everyone tries to keep their secrets under wraps.

That is especially true of Connelly's character Melanie, as the actress told a recent gathering of journalists in Pasadena, Calif.

"I felt like the person that you first meet in Episode 1 is very different from the person you come to know by the end of the first season," she says. "And it's a kind of gradual unfolding as you come to understand what she's been hiding, what she's been carrying, things that she's been compartmentalizing. I think a lot of that is ... brought about by her relationship with Layton. She's forced to confront choices that she's made and who she is, and who she's become.

"And that's sort of a gradual process and also is not entirely linear," she continues. "And I found that a very rewarding process going through that and watching that character unfold ..."

Similarly, Diggs' character of Layton also has some skeletons in his closet.

"I think you spend a lot of time as an actor thinking about your secrets, like what your character's secrets are," Diggs says. "And particularly I spent so much time in the tail, which is very, very confined because of the amount of people in there. You realize that like having a secret is kind of impossible in that situation. So that was an interesting. I think it informed a lot of my choices, this idea that like privacy didn't exist."

DEREK WATT

celebrity scoop
BY GEORGE DICKIE

Derek Watt won't say he's eyeing a broadcasting career when his playing days are done. But he will admit his first experience was fun.

In "Ultimate Tag," a physical competition series premiering Wednesday, May 20, on Fox, Watt and his fellow NFL player brothers J.J. and T.J. call the action as competitors vault, dodge, tumble and dive their way through several three-dimensional courses, all the while chased by resident Taggers. The object of this Ramped-up game of tag is simple: Don't get caught.

For Derek Watt, a running back with the Pittsburgh Steelers and the middle child of the three Watt brothers, the two-week shoot in April 2019 was educational and entertaining.

"It was a great experience for us," the 27-year-old Wisconsin native says. "You know, we were not great at it initially. It definitely took some time but it was a great opportunity for all three of us to do something like that together and get the true raw banter between us, one, just to spend time together. We don't really get that much time in the offseason together like that. So it took us two weeks to film and we got to watch each other get better as we went along and it was a great experience for us."

Who did he think did best?

"(J.J.) definitely has a knack for that kind of thing," he says. "And I would say T.J. struggled the most and he'd be the first to admit it. He had some issues with the TelePrompter ... . But it was fun. I wouldn't say I was great at it but I feel like I picked up steam as we went along and got better as we progressed and it was fun and I would definitely do it again.

The Bachelor Presents: Listen to Your Heart
 If music be the food of love, as Shakespeare suggested, we've reached the desserted round of this spinoff of "The Bachelor," wherein singles from some aspect of the music industry sing together and otherwise get to know one another better through the magic of melodies. Over the past five weeks, they've gone on dates and watched nervously as other pairings were eliminated one by one. Chris Harrison hosts.

Movie: Created Equal: Clarence Thomas in His Own Words
 Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas, best known for his generally taciturn demeanor, the full-blown Team Monkey build, a one-episode documentary, which makes scant effort at keeping things apolitical. Given how rarely its central subject has spoken on the record about many things, however, the film — which also features extensive commentary from Thomas's wife, Ginny — serves as a noteworthy historical document.

 A new episode "Hot for Firebirds" opens with the Gas Monkeys starting with what should be a quick and easy flip on a 1967 Firebird convertible, but that project rapidly turns into a full-blown Team Monkey build, the kind the guys rely on to bring in a profit. Later, the crew learns that a Hellcat has gone missing, sparking a full-scale search mission to get it returned.

9 p.m. on 57; 11:30 p.m. on 57
Camp Getaway
 In the new episode "Camp Fire'd," it's Camp Getaway's special weekend for LGBTQ guests, and Glen is determined to do everything he can to instill the occasion with a true sense of Pride. The arrival of Gavin, a new social coordinator, has Nile feeling less than proud, and worried that he's about to be replaced. Elsewhere, Adam sends out some mixed signals that result in a very confusing love triangle.

Following Tuesday night's new special looking back over some of the best performances and fan favorite highlights from Season 3, it's all over but the final unmaskings in "Couldn't Mask for Anything More!," as the last three finalists appear before panelists Ken Jeong, Jenny McCarthy, Nicole Scherzinger and Robin Thicke. As that quartet makes their final guesses about each performer's identity, ultimately one celebrity will take home the golden mask trophy and the Season 3 title. Nick Cannon is the host.

Motherland: Fort Salem
Season 1 of this supernatural series calls it a wrap with a finale called "Witchbomb," in which Raelle, Abigail and Tally (Taylor Hickson, Ashley Nicole Williams, Jessica Sutton) graduate from basic training, but this rite of passage only makes Abigail more desperate than ever to prove her unit belongs in War College. While Alder (Lyne Renee) considers the unit for a rescue mission, Anacostia and Scylla (Demetria McKinney, Amalia Holm) find common ground.

Ultimate Tag
NFL sibling trio J.J., T.J. and Derek Watt co-host this new game show based on the popular schoolyard chasing game. This new, high-octane re-imagining of the game, however, is highly physical, challenging contestants to vault, tumble, dodge and dive their way through several epic, three-dimensional courses. As if that weren't enough, while the competitors are focused on executing all those physical challenges, they're also being pursued by Taggers, larger-than-life characters with a wide range of athletic skills. The ultimate rule of Ultimate Tag? Don't get caught!

This new one-hour special shares the highly personal stories of real-life couples who have been self-filming their new reality under the COVID-19 pandemic. While the show is not scripted, there's definitely no shortage of drama as these all-too-human "characters" deal with pregnancy, quarantine weddings and politically charged border issues keeping them apart, all under the added stress of social distancing. These are diverse relationships being tested as never before.

S.W.A.T.
The S.W.A.T. team mounts a feverish search for some drug smugglers who crashed a plane in a Los Angeles suburb and scatter to the winds, after a joint mission with the DEA goes terribly awry in the new episode "Diablo." Hondo (Shemar Moore) also seeks to make amends with Nichelle (Rochelle Aytes), and Luca (Kenny Johnson) is feeling on edge about returning to the field. Meanwhile, Deacon (Jay Harrington) is nervous about accepting an invitation to speak to some recruits about mental health.

Jay Leno resumes Season 5 of his car-loving series with new episodes that start with "Dare to Dream," which finds the former "Tonight Show" host on the road looking to meet people with stories of how they decided to throw caution to the wind and just go for their personal dream. He takes country superstar Blake Shelton for a ride in a vintage pickup truck with a "royal" connection and later takes his life in his hands as he tries to teach fellow comic Norm MacDonald how to drive.

Jack Black

Thursday
7 p.m. on 43 (5)

Celebrity Escape Room

Kicking off a full night of programming devoted to Red Nose Day, an annual fundraising event to end child poverty, this new one-hour special taps into a current pop culture party phenomenon, in which a group of people work together to successfully escape from a locked room. Host Jack Black "traps" guests Ben Stiller, Adam Scott and former "Friends" co-stars Courteney Cox and Lisa Kudrow in a series of surprisingly puzzle rooms. Immediately following, the two-hour "Red Nose Day Special" features an all-star cast doing their bit for the cause.

8 p.m. on 12 (7)

Labor of Love

As a contestant on Season 11 of "The Bachelor," Kristy Katzmann didn't succeed in finding a true love match, but she's hoping for better luck as the female in the spotlight of this new relationship series, hosted by former "Sex and the City" star Kristin Davis. This new venture puts Katzmann in the driver's seat, as it were, considering 15 suitors eager to pledge their love. The stakes are higher here, though, given that Katzmann also is eager to have a child soon by the man she picks.

8 p.m. on 9 (9)

Holey Moley

Joe Tessitore and professional wise guy Rob Riggle return as the on-camera commentators, with Jeannie Mai commenting as the sideline correspondent, as this delightful mini-golf competition series — one of last season's most improbable reality show hits — returns for Season 2. Each episode features eight contestants putting their mini-golf skills — and physical coordination — to the test on an epic obstacle golf course. The winner of each episode will return in the season finale to vie for the $250,000 grand prize.

8 p.m. on 57; 10:30 p.m. on 57

The Real Housewives of New York City

Increasingly stressed out by all the tension that seems to be spreading through the group, Leah makes arrangements for a spa day at a Russian bath house in the new episode "If You Can't Take the Heat, Get Out of the Russian Bath House." Ramona confronts Dorinda about her obvious anger issues, and Dorinda and Tinsley declare a mutual truce. Later, Ramona throws a cocktail party where her disagreement with Dorinda quickly reaches a boiling point.

9 p.m. on 9 (9)

To Tell the Truth

Host Anthony Anderson ("black-ish") returns for the Season 5 premiere of this witty reimagining of a vintage game show from the golden age of television. In each round, the celebrity panel will confront three people, all of whom claim to be the same person with some incredible talent, job or achievement. One of them is sworn to tell the truth, but the other two use every trick they can to deceive the panel as to which of them is the truth-teller. Mother Doris, Anderson's real-life mom, also appears.

9 p.m. on 15

Siren

In the new "A Voice in the Dark," the penultimate episode of Season 3, Tia (Tiffany Lonsdale) unleashes a savage attack on Bristol Cove, while Ryn, Ben and Maddie (Elaine Powell, Alex Roe, Fola Evans-Akingbola) run a desperate race to find a cure for Xander's (Ian Verdun) mysterious illness. Meanwhile, as that trio tries to guess what Tia's next move might be, Baby Hope returns to land to reconnect with Ryn.

tonight's picks

Friday

6 p.m. on 47

Movie: Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets

A mysterious force threatens Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry in the totally captivating second movie adapted from J.K. Rowling's novels (and directed again by Chris Columbus). Harry, Ron and Hermione (Daniel Radcliffe, Rupert Griant, Emma Watson) must find out what is causing people known as Mudbloods to become petrified — or else, the school will be closed.

Movie: San Andreas

This hit 2015 disaster movie depicts the havoc that ensues following tremors along the title fault line in California. The special-effects wizards are as much stars of the film as Dwayne Johnson, playing a rescue helicopter pilot who saves his estranged wife (Carla Gugino), then heads off with her to rescue their daughter (Alexandra Daddario). The fine supporting cast includes Paul Giamatti, Archie Panjabi ("The Good Wife") and Ioan Gruffudd ("Forever").

8 p.m. on 45; 12 a.m. on 45

All on the Line

The bluefin tuna season in the waters around Gloucester, Mass., is nearly over for many boats, but this new unscripted series follows two strong-willed crews that are fighting to land even larger tuna as the brutal winter season sets in. In the face of even more daunting natural challenges, the plucky crews aboard the Julia Nicole and the Subdivider fishing boats have developed a special, more cooperative relationship in an industry that usually encourages and even demands cutthroat competition.

8 p.m. on 59; 10 p.m. on 59; 12 a.m. on 59

AKA Jane Roe

FX Networks' first documentary feature, this new film from producer-director Nick Sweeney profiles Norma McCorvey, the defendant in the historic Roe v. Wade Supreme Court case in 1973. That ruling found that state laws banning abortion were unconstitutional. The documentary chronicles how in the years after that, McCorvey dramatically changed her views on abortion, particularly after undergoing a religious conversion in 1995. She later would say that she considered her involvement in her landmark legal case the biggest mistake of her life.

9 p.m. on 56

Movie: The Daydreamer

The prolific production team of Arthur Rankin Jr. and Jules Bass are perhaps best known to fans for their long string of stop-motion animation specials that still air heavily in syndication, particularly around the holidays. The duo also collaborated on this delightfully whimsical 1966 feature that blends live action with stop-motion animation to chronicle the childhood of Hans Christian Andersen (Paul O'Keefe), with Jack Gilford as his father and Ray Bolger as Margaret Hamilton for local characters. The voice cast also includes stars ranging from Tallulah Bankhead to Hayley Mills.

10:40 p.m. on 420

Movie: The Descendants

George Clooney earned wide acclaim for this superb, Alexander Payne-directed 2011 comedy-drama, casting him as an attorney stunned to learn of his wife's infidelity after an accident leaves her in a coma. He then decides to cross Hawaii with his daughters (Shailene Woodley, also excellent, and Amara Miller), not only to get a look at his rival but also to determine whether to sell land his family owns. Beau Bridges and Michael O'Keefe ("Slap Shot") also appear.
