BY JAY BOBBIN

Amanda Peet and Christian Slater

As the adage says, hell hath no fury like a woman scorned ... and Betty Broderick is a textbook example.

Played by Meredith Baxter in two early-1990s TV-movies, Broderick famously wrought vengeance on her San Diego-lawyer husband Dan after he left her for another woman. What initially seemed like immature vandalism eventually became something much more lethal, and the true story gets a new and very detailed dramatization over the eight episodes of the second season of "Dirty John," which USA Network debuts Tuesday, June 2 (after the first, podcast-inspired "Dirty John" series ran on Bravo).

Amanda Peet ("Brockmire," "Togetherness") and Tiera Skovbye ("Riverdale") portray Betty at different ages, as she supports Dan (Christian Slater, returning to USA after his "Mr. Robot" run) through his medical and legal schooling and the starts of their family and his career. The union disintegrates rather rapidly once he meets Linda Kolkena (Rachel Keller, "Legion"), prompting Betty to strike back – a situation that ultimately results in a double homicide.

Playing Broderick as alternately high-spirited and desperate, and sometimes both at once, Peet says that the project gives "a very complex psychological portrait that allows for the idea that there probably was mental illness, but also that there were incidents in the marriage and the legal system made it very difficult for her to remain healthy."

The Betty Broderick-themed season of "Dirty John" boasts an all-female team of directors, including its writer and executive producer, Alexandra Cunningham. Peet admits that she didn't know much about Broderick before reading Cunningham's teleplay, "and I think that was probably a good thing. It seemed to me to just be an intimate portrait of someone who, after so many years of suffering, sort of snapped."

Depicting that required Peet and Slater to be very much in sync, with the series' timeline going back and forth continually. "I just can't rave about him enough," she says. "Besides being a brilliant actor, he's a class act as a human being, really fun and so considerate. I can't believe he's been a star for this long and is so thoughtful and kind ... no offense to anyone else!"

After writing two stage plays, Peet currently is working with her writer-producer husband David Benioff ("Game of Thrones") on Netflix's forthcoming, Sandra Oh-starring university comedy-drama "The Chair." Peet co-created it and is doing the bulk of its scripts, but she's still grateful to land acting parts including Betty Broderick (who has been denied parole three times, and is next eligible in 2032).

"To have a role like this at age 48 is a gift and an honor," Peet reflects. "And the fact that Alexandra picked me for it still blows my mind."

Checking in with
KRISTIN DAVIS

Kristin Davis knows firsthand that there are various paths to parenthood.

Being a single mother to two adopted children helped prompt the "Sex and the City" alum to sign up as the host and a producer of "Labor of Love," Fox's new Thursday reality series that puts former "The Bachelor" contestant Kristy Katzmann on a quest to choose someone as not only a partner, but also the father of the child she wants to have in the immediate future.

"We wanted to find people who were already in that place, and not put them in that place," Davis explains of ensuring the "Labor of Love" participants were ready to be parents ... or at least thought they were when production began. She notes that at the start, "Everyone across the board said, 'I want to be a parent in the next year.'"

Davis maintains that initially, she didn't know Katzmann already was versed in the "Bachelor" process: "I wasn't fully involved in the female casting. I was more involved in choosing the men. I reviewed hundreds of 'man tapes,' but it was tougher with the women in a way. They had to be specifically ready, and ready now, in wanting to have a child as well as a partner. We'd find an amazing woman and then she would say, 'I don't know that I need a partner. I might just want to do this alone.'"

Still, Davis is satisfied with the way things have gone. "Fox felt the show needed to be about someone who's looking for everything," she says, "because we're told that we can't have everything. So, how does that pan out?"

tonight's picks

Elizabeth Banks

Movie: My Husband's Deadly Past
Sarah Butler stars in this 2020 thriller as Mackenzie, who is tormented by haunting visions that make her fear she killed a coed who has gone missing from a local campus. Eventually, however, she discovers that her psychiatrist hubby (Peter Benson) may have manipulated her memory to serve his own nefarious ends. Madelyn Grace, Brendon Zub and Lucia Walters also star.

8 p.m. on 9 9

Press Your Luck

She took the gig as a lark, but actress Elizabeth Banks (the "Pitch Perfect" movies) says she's delighted to be returning as host and an executive producer for Season 2 of this vintage game show reboot, on which contestants earn cash and merchandise if they correctly answer questions Banks puts to them. If they accidentally stop the Big Board on an animated Whammy, however, they lose it all.

8 p.m. on 31; 11 p.m. on 31

Worst Cooks in America

A game of Remote Control opens the new episode "Robo-Dough," as chefs and mentors Anne Burrell and Tyler Florence take instructions from the recruits on how to make a dish they can't see, taste or touch. Burrell and Florence are back in the driver's seat for the main-dish challenge, in which they teach the recruits how to make homemade ravioli, with the rookies allowed to put their own flavor on their pasta dish. The two least successful chefs are sent home.

8 p.m. on 54; 10:08 p.m. on 54; 12:14 a.m. on 54; 3:45 a.m. on 54 123; 2:01 a.m. on 123

Killing Eve

Season 3 of this darkly comic thriller has largely held up for both critics and viewers, thanks to the incomparable acting alchemy between stars Sandra Oh and Jodie Comer. In tonight's season finale, "Are You Leading or Am I?," Carolyn (Fiona Shaw) thinks she may finally have found what she's been looking for, causing all paths to converge dramatically. As the dust settles, decisions about the future will be made, but they don't include this show's fate: Season 4 already has been ordered.

The Truth Behind Joe Exotic: The Rick Kirkham Story

In what he insists is the last interview he'll give regarding the Netflix blockbuster docuseries "Tiger King," TV producer Rick Kirkham opens up in this one-hour special about his time with Joe Exotic, the eccentric if iconic personality who hired Kirkham to produce Exotic's Internet show. Kirkham recognized this gig gave him access to an incomparable cast of characters and planned to do a reality series of his own about his experience, but after a falling-out with Exotic, all Kirkham's footage was destroyed in a fire.

Dirty John

After years of selflessly supporting husband Dan (Christian Slater) during the early years of their marriage, when he was studying law and medicine, Betty Broderick (Amanda Peet) is understandably displeased when her successful hubby decides to dump her for a younger woman (Rachel Keller, "Legion"), in Season 2 of this anthology series. Soon, Betty strikes back against her errant ex in a series of increasingly deadly episodes. Tiera Skovbye ("Riverdale") plays Betty at a younger age.

 Kristy knows that her perfect mate will need to have both intelligence and mental flexibility, so the men submit to a variety of challenges designed to prove whether they have those qualities in the new episode "10 Things Kristy Likes About You." Mountain Men
 This rugged reality series opens Season 9 with a two-hour premiere that opens with "Hunt or Be Hunted." As winter arrives in the Tobacco Root Mountains of Montana, tracker Jake Herak's first lion hunt nearly ends in tragedy. Meantime, in the Northwest, trapper Tom Oar and his wife, Nancy, confront a major surge in the local population of coyotes. Immediately following is "Blooded Harvest," in which Eustace Conway of North Carolina and his apprentice, Raleigh Avery, try to restore an antique buzz saw.

9 p.m. on 31; 12 a.m. on 31

Summer Rush
 Filmed before the coronavirus pandemic turned the restaurant world upside-down, this new four-part reality series follows a family of restaurateurs in Lake

George, N.Y., as they work to keep their three restaurants running smoothly during their busiest time of year. Husband and wife Buddy Foy Jr. and Jennifer Foy frequently disagree over decisions at Chateau by the Lake, the high-end eatery specializing in international flavors. Jesse Foy and wife Jessica run Diamond Point Grille, and fish joint, and parents Buddy Foy Sr. and wife Cate own Cate's Italian Garden.

The Misery Index
 A newer episode called "The Grandma's Special" features a segment on an unforgettable group of older friends who may be senior citizens, but by golly, no one can say they haven't truly lived. Other stories examine what happens when a young bull charges, and what bodily function made a girl lose 10 years of her memories.

10 p.m. on 47

Vagrant Queen
 Syfy hasn't made a announcement yet, but it looks like it's going to be "one and done" for this series adaptation of a comic book series by Magdalene Visaggio and Jason Smith, starring Adriyan Rae as Elida, a former queen whose throne was stolen during her childhood. After airing three ratings-challenged episodes, Syfy moved "Queen" out of its primetime schedule, prompting speculation the remaining episodes were being burned off in late-night. In tonight's Season 1 finale, Elida makes a last push to stop the villainous Lazaro (Paul Du Toit).

10:30 p.m. on 56

Movie: All Night Long
 Airing as part of TCM's June "Jazz in Film" movie series, Basil Dearden's 1962 British drama takes Shakespeare's "Othello" and updates it to the London jazz club scene of the 1960s. Patrick McGoochan ("The Prisoner") plays the scheming character based on the Bard's Iago, but for many modern-day jazz fans, the movie's main attraction will be performances by such British music greats as John Dankworth and Tubby Hayes, as well as Americans Dave Brubeck and Charles Mingus.

tonight's picks

6:55 p.m. on (420)
Movie: Cold Pursuit
 Norwegian director Hans Petter Moland made his Hollywood debut with this 2019 thriller, which stars Liam Neeson as Colorado snowplow driver Nels Oleson, whose tranquil life is shattered when his son dies of a forced heroin overdose. His wife (Laura Dern) suffers a psychotic break and leaves Nels, who is on the brink of suicide himself when he learns the identities of the drug cartel who killed his son. He embarks on a mission of revenge. Tom Bateman, Tom Jackson and Emmy Rossum also star.

7 p.m. on (56)

Movie: Monkey Business
 The Marx Brothers are up to their usual shticks in this 1931 comedy, playing stowaways on an ocean liner. With their presence becomes known, they resort to all kinds of fast talk and disguises to stay ahead of the crew, eventually getting hired as bodyguards by two rival gangsters. A comic highlight is the brothers' attempt to pass themselves off as Maurice Chevalier by singing one of his songs — even the silent Harpo. The film kicks off a four-movie "Marx Brothers Madness" marathon.

7 p.m. on (68)

RuPaul's Drag Race: All Stars
 The novel coronavirus pandemic has complicated production on this hit reality competition series, but as Season 5 gets under way, Emmy-winning host and executive producer RuPaul promises fans "a new twist that is so twisted it's guaranteed to twist your twisted minds." Ten queens — including "Drag Race" Season 2 fan favorite Jujube — are returning to the runway to compete for a $100,000 cash prize, as well as the All Stars crown and a spot in the Drag Race Hall of Fame.

7 p.m. on (465)

Movie: A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood
 Tom Hanks earned an Academy Award nomination as best supporting actor for his portrayal of beloved children's TV host Fred Rogers in Marielle Heller's poignant 2019 biographical drama inspired by an Esquire magazine article. Matthew Rhys ("The Americans") stars as a cynical magazine journalist with profound daddy issues, who accepts an assignment to profile Rogers with the intent of exposing the latter as a fraud whose avuncular persona is just a gimmick. Susan Kelechi Watson, Chris Cooper and Maryann Plunkett also star.

9 p.m. on (64)

Hot For My Name
 If you know rising comedy star and actress Esther Povitsky, it's probably from her recurring role in The CW sitcom "Crazy Ex-Girlfriend" or her own Freeform comedy series, "Alone Together." This new one-hour special finds the self-deprecating comic spending time with her parents, who regularly turn up in her Instagram feed, where she is prone to snooping. She's also known to rifle through fans' bags at her stand-up shows.

9 p.m. on (420); 10 p.m. on (420); 12:25 a.m. on (420)

Trackers

Adapted from a crime novel by author Deon Meyer, this new series, a South African-U.S.-German co-production, follows three story lines that ultimately collide in a violent conspiracy that includes diamond smuggling, black rhinos, the CIA and international terrorism. Among the main characters in this thriller are Milla Strachan (Rolanda Marais), a middle-aged woman fleeing domestic abuse in search of a new start; Flea Van Jaarsveld (Trix Vivier), an expert wildlife tracker; and Janina Mentz (Sandi Schultz), an intelligence director. James Gracie and Ed Stoppard also star.

tonight's picks

5 p.m. on 56

Movie: D-Day, the Sixth of June

Lionel Shapiro's novel "The Sixth of June" served as the basis for director Henry Koster's character-driven 1956 combat drama, which explores the thoughts and personal history of members of a Special Forces team dispatched to take out a German gun emplacement on the Normandy coast, hours before D-Day is to commence.

7 p.m. on 29; 11:01 p.m. on 29

Movie:

Psycho Yoga Instructor

Unhappy married Justine Grace knows she needs to sort out her messy existence, so when she meets Domenic, a handsome yoga instructor with a sympathetic ear, she thinks he might hold the key to getting her life together. Unfortunately, Domenic's interest in Justine goes far beyond mentoring her yoga sessions. Ashley Wood and Brady Smith star in this 2020 thriller.

7 p.m. on 401

Movie: Ad Astra

James Gray's 2019 sci-fi adventure is one of those baffling examples of a critically acclaimed film failing to click with mainstream audiences, but while it may have lost money on its initial theater run, this beautiful movie is finally finding a new audience on cable and home video. Brad Pitt stars as an astronaut who ventures into space in search of his long-lost father (Tommy Lee Jones), who was last associated with a project that now threatens the solar system. Ruth Negga, Liv Tyler and Donald Sutherland also star.

8 p.m. on 36

Movie: Country at Heart

This 2020 romance stars Jessy Schram ("Chicago Med") as Shayna, a struggling songwriter who's considering abandoning her fledgling career when a chance encounter with Grady (Niall Matter) presents a big break. He's currently working on a song for country star Duke Sterling (Lucas Bryant) and invites Shayna to be his writing partner. Romance blooms, but when Duke takes a shine to her and invites her to join his tour as an opening act, Shayna faces a tough decision.

9 p.m. on 401; 11:15 p.m. on 401; 3:25 a.m. on 401

Yvonne Orji: Momma, I Made It!

Interspersed with personal footage shot in Yvonne Orji's native home of Nigeria during a January trip there, this new one-hour comedy special — filmed before a live audience at the Howard Theatre in Washington, D.C. — finds the "Insecure" star reflecting on her identity as a Nigerian-American, which comes with an addiction to international haggling.
