COVERSTORY BY GEORGE DICKIE

Hulu's 'Hillary' profiles the woman, the public figure, the lightning rod

No matter your opinion of Hillary Clinton, you will feel like you know her a lot better after watching "Hillary."

Premiering Friday, March 6, on Hulu, the four-part documentary from director Nanette Burstein ("On the Ropes," "The Kid Stays in the Picture") offers an upclose-and-personal view of the former first lady, U.S. senator, Secretary of State and presidential candidate through intimate interviews with her, friends, family (including her husband, former President Bill Clinton), contemporaries (including former President Barack Obama), staff and journalists, as well as never-beforeseen footage from her presidential campaign in 2016.

All the major events in her life and career - good and bad - are covered, including her time as first lady, her unsuccessful push for universal health care, her campaign for women's rights, Whitewater, her run for the Senate, appointment as Secretary of State, Benghazi, the email fiasco that undermined her presidential campaign and her husband's sexual misconduct with intern Monica Lewinsky and subsequent impeachment. In each case, Clinton is unflinching and candid in her accounts and only once, when discussing her husband's infidelity, does she get emotional.

Of course, it is important to bear in mind that this is all her side of the story but the documentary is nonetheless a fascinating portrait of a consequential woman, one who provokes strong opinions and emotions pro and con. And doing the film gave her another theory as to why that is, as she told a recent gathering of journalists in Pasadena, Calif.

"I became a kind of Rorschach Test for women and women's roles as soon as I burst onto the public scene when Bill was running for president," she says. "I'd lived more than 40 years before that, and I had no real understanding of what it meant to be thrust into this highest, brightest platform and try to live your life and kind of go along with what you'd always done."

One rude awakening came when she spearheaded the Clinton administration's efforts for universal health care in the mid-'90s, when all the parties that would oppose it brought themselves fully to bear.

"Little did I know that it would create the most extraordinary backlash ...," she says. "And there's a scene in the movie, which I had forgotten until Nanette dug it up, of me being burned in effigy for wanting health care. So part of it was the timing that I came on the national scene, what I chose to do – which was extremely controversial – the fact that I was the sort of 'first first lady' of my generation and had been working ever since I was a young woman in the professional workforce.

"And you don't have to like everybody in public life," she continues. "You can not vote for them because of whatever reason you pick, so I'm sure there were personal reactions. But I think it was even more rooted in the time we were in and the kind of challenging impression that people had of me at that time and who I was and what I cared about and what I did."

As a parent himself, Martin Freeman has more than a bit of experience in the subject of his new comedy series.

The alum of "Sherlock," "Fargo," "Love Actually," the "Hobbit" movies and numerous other projects teams with Daisy Haggard ("Back to Life") as a constantly harried British couple whose kids (George Wakeman, Jayda Eyles) sometimes – well, make that "often" – get the better of them in FX's "Breeders," premiering Monday, March 2. Michael McKean plays Haggard's estranged dad, with Joanna Bacon and Alun Armstrong as Freeman's mother and father.

A related dream had by Freeman led to the development of "Breeders" by executive producer and director Chris Addison. Their meetings, which also included executive producer and writer Simon Blackwell, became what Freeman deems "a fathers' support group, where we would kind of talk a lot about what we saw essentially as our failings. We talked about some of the worst things we had done or what happened to us as parents that could be turned, hopefully, into a comedic thing." Some of the show's raw language clearly was questionable to use around the younger "Breeders" co-stars.

"If there was a lot of cursing in a scene, we'd do a cleaned-updialogue version," Freeman explains, "then once the kids left, we'd have to do the swearing. We tried to keep it as fun as possible, but there were also times where you had to instill in them that this was serious. Because they are kids – and very happy, playful kids – that was the role of the directors, to sort of get them in the (more dramatic) zone, because there was a lot of laughter."

tonight's picks

Sally Field

Sunday 7 p.m. on (1) 5 Little Big Shots This family-friendly series got a sneak preview on Feb. 24.

a sneak preview on Feb. 24, but tonight marks the official launch of Season 4, featuring host Melissa McCarthy in a somewhat revamped new format. This season, as McCarthy meets inspiring and/or hilarious youngsters from around the globe, they'll take her — and the audience — inside their own world, sharing remarkable stories and demonstrating some of the striking talents that set them apart. It's a celebration of how resilient, funny and inspiring kids can be.

8 p.m. on ④; 11 p.m. on ④

Race for the White House This compelling docuseries that revisits some of the more high-stakes elections in American history continues with "LBJ v. Goldwater." That 1964 race is held in a country still reeling and shell-shocked from the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. An emotionally raw electorate faces a choice between incumbent Democratic President Lyndon B. Johnson and moderate conservative Republican Barry Goldwater.

8 p.m. on 🚯 🕤

Zoey's Extraordinary Playlist As she tries to help Mo (Alex Newell) start to feel comfortable expressing what he considers to be his true self, Zoey (Jane Levy) finds herself forced to address her own faith and why she was given these uncanny powers in a new episode called "Zoey's Extraordinary Neighbor." Elsewhere, David (Andrew Leeds) helps create a "big moment" for Mitch (Peter Gallagher). Skylar Astin, Mary Steenburgen and Lauren Graham also star.

> 9:08 p.m. on 54; 12:24 a.m. on 54

Dispatches From Elsewhere Jason Segel ("How I Met Your Mother") is both creator and star of this new anthology series, which revolves around four strangers - including Peter, Segel's character - who have little in common other than the sense that something is missing from their lives. After their paths cross, they stumble onto a puzzle hiding just outside the veil of everyday life, "dispatches from elsewhere" challenges that lead them more deeply into a larger mystery. Sally Field, Richard E. Grant, André Benjamin and Eve Lindley also star. Another episode airs Monday.

Peter Weber

Monday 2 p.m. on 25 MLB Baseball

When the Chicago Cubs look in the opposing dugout in this spring training game against Mike Trout and the Los Angeles Angels, they'll see a familiar face. That would be Joe Maddon, who was the manager of the Cubs from 2015-19 and is now the Angels skipper. Maddon was part of the Angles organization as a player or coach for 30 years. But, he helped the Cubs end their World Series drought when they won it all in 2016.

The Bachelor It's good to be "The Bachelor" in most respects, because that role puts a guy in the power seat as he goes looking for love among a bevy of beauties. This twohour "Women Tell All" special episode, however — a staple in every season of this show often is an exception to that rule, since it provides a forum to the candidates already eliminated by Peter Weber, this season's Bachelor. You can bet some may have strong opinions about how things went for them.

Kids Baking Championship Season 8 of this competition series concludes with two new back-to-back episodes, starting with "Dinomighty," in which hosts Valerie Bertinelli and Duff Goldman challenge the four remaining bakers to make 3-D dinosaur cookies shaped like a tyrannosaurus, velociraptor, stegosaurus, brontosaurus or triceratops. Then in the finale, "The Fruit of Your Labor," the final three are challenged to make cakes that resemble actual fruit. One lucky young baker leaves with the title of Kids Baking Champion.

Movie: Aquarela

Don't go into Victor Kossakovsky's 2019 documentary looking for a strong story or absorbing characters, but you definitely will not be bored. In a sense, the film is a stark warning against climate change, and presents an eye-popping series of images showing man at the mercy of water in its many forms, but many viewers may find themselves suffering from sensory overload after awhile, owing in part to the aggressive, somewhat relentless musical soundtrack.

It's a powerful but exhausting experience.

Breeders

Martin Freeman ("Sherlock") and Daisy Haggard ("Episodes") star in this new 10-episode Britcom as Paul and Ally, both of whom are juggling busy full-time careers along with the non-stop parental demands that come with raising young kids Luke and Ava (George Wakeman, Jayda Eyles). Things around their household get much more complicated, though, when Ally's estranged father, Michael (Michael McKean), unexpectedly turns up on their doorstep needing a place to stay. Joanna Bacon and Alun Armstrong also star as Jackie and Jim, Paul's parents.

Tournament of Champions Guy Fieri hosts this new fivepart bracket-style culinary competition series in which 16 of the nation's best chefs face off in a series of elimination rounds. The chefs enter the blind competition not knowing who their opponents will be or what cooking challenges they will face, and specifics for those challenges are assigned by a "randomizer machine." Among the elite chefs participating are Richard Blais, Rocco DiSpirito, MIchael Voltaggio. Alex

Guarnaschelli, Amanda Freitag, Marcel Vigneron, Jet Tila, Antonia Lofaso and Elizabeth Falkner, among others.

The Deed: Chicago

Real estate mogul Sean Conlon returns for the second season of his spinoff financial series, in which he seeks to help struggling property developers in return for a piece of the property and a share in the profits. In this sophomore season, Conlon works with, among others, a high-end commercial designer who's more concerned with the sanctity of her brand than any budget constraints, and an ambitious former prison inmate who has become buried under a property flip.

Twenties

Writer-producer Lena Waite dusted off a project she first created in her early 20s, before her Emmy-winning success on the Netflix comedy "Master of None," for this new comedy that revolves around Hattie (Jonica T. Gibbs), an aspiring screenwriter and member of the LGBTQ community, as she chases her life dreams with her straight friends Marie and Nia (Christina Elmore, Gabrielle Graham). Tonight's series "Pilot" finds Hattie having a run of bad luck that could change when she meets established writer-producer Ida B. (Sophina Brown). Another episode follows.

Thursday 7:30 p.m. on 😰 7 Outmatched

After Mike and Kay (Jason Biggs, Maggie Lawson) realize that Nicole (Ashley Boettcher) never has failed at anything she's attempted, they decide on a strategy that will introduce her to not succeeding at something, to prepare her for later disappointments in life. Elsewhere, Brian (Connor Kalopsis) decides to spend playtime with Leila (Oakley Bull) after Marc (Jack Stanton) beats him at chess in the new episode "Failing."

8 p.m. on 31; 11 p.m. on 31 Restaurant: Impossible

The new episode "Lost in the Bayou" finds chef Robert Irvine in Belle Chasse, La., where he meets Therese, the owner of Lil G's Kajun Restaurant. Despite having no restaurant experience, Therese bought the business 12 years ago, and she's managed somehow to stay afloat with the help of her daughter. Now, she's out of options after consecutive years of losing more than $100,000. Her business's name will be mud unless Robert can help turn things around.

8:30 p.m. on 🚯 🕤

Indebted

Dave and Rebecca (Adam Palley, Abby Elliott) already have started worrying that, with grandparents in the house, the kids will wind up spoiled in the new episode "Everybody's Talking About the Tooth Fairy." Those fears are realized when Asher (Anders Garrett) loses his first tooth and Debbie and Stew (Fran Drescher, Steven Weber) interfere with the tooth fairy protocol. Meanwhile, Joanna (Jessy Hodges) lies to her new friend about being a much more involved aunt than is actually the case.

8:45 p.m. on 56

Movie: Spartacus

Stanley Kubrick's Oscar-winning 1960 account of the gladiator who rallied his countrymen against Roman tyranny in 75 B.C. wasn't a personal favorite of the director, who was only 31 when star Kirk Douglas recruited him. Still, this is one of Hollywood's most stirring epics, with an unusually intelligent script by then-blacklisted Dalton Trumbo. Laurence Olivier, Jean Simmons, Charles Laughton and Tony Curtis also star. Tonight's airing is part of TCM's 24-hour marathon salute to Douglas, who died on Feb. 5 at age 103.

Vegas Chef Prizefight

Anne Burrell is host of this new six-episode culinary competition series, in which six elite chiefs embark on the toughest "interview" of their lives in a bid to be named head chef of a new $10 million restaurant in the Flamingo Las Vegas on that city's fabled strip. Each week Burrell puts the chefs through their paces at a different restaurant, where they are tasked with taking over the dinner service. Restaurant experts including Scott Conant and Eileen Moore join Burrell to decide which chef is eliminated.

PLAINSMAN

Season 4 of Pamela Adlon's critically acclaimed comedy series opens with two backto-back episodes that find her character, Sam, in the throes of a midlife crisis that, among other things, manifests in her impetuous purchase of a luxury car that is both family-incompatible and environmentally a disaster. Meanwhile, her kids (Hannah Alligood, Olivia Edward) try to coax her into letting them sign her up on some dating apps. Celia Imrie also stars; Telma Hopkins. Diedrich Bader. Rosalind Chao and Kevin Pollak are among the season's guest stars.

Friday 7 p.m. on 🕼 5 Lincoln Rhyme:

Hunt for the Bone Collector Lincoln, Amelia (Russell Hornsby, Arielle Kebbel) and the rest of the team race to try and stave off a grisly tragedy after a politician's teenage daughter is kidnapped and held for ransom in the new episode "Original Sin." Later, the team makes a discovery that rates as a dramatic breakthrough: the true identity of the Bone Collector.

The Most Dangerous Animal of All

If the title puts you in mind of a new wildlife adventure series, guess again. Adapted from a book written by Gary Stewart, this new four-part docuseries — which premieres with a double episode chronicles one man's search for the father who abandoned him. He discovers that some secrets are best left buried, however, when he comes across information suggesting that his shadowy male parent may be the Zodiac Killer, one of the infamous serial killers in American history.

7:15 p.m. on (420)

Movie: The Dead Don't Die Maverick indie writer-director Jim Jarmusch ("Stranger Than Paradise") brings an amusingly deadpan attitude to this improbable 2019 horror comedy starring Bill Murray and Adam Driver as members of a rural smalltown police department, who only gradually come to realize their community is being attacked by zombies. The huge ensemble cast also includes Tilda Swinton, Chloe Sevigny, Steve Buscemi, Danny Glover, Iggy Pop, Carol Kane, Austin Butler and Tom Waits.

8 p.m. on (435); 11 p.m. on (435)

The Trade

Emmy winner Matthew Heineman directs this four-part docuseries as it moves into its second season, following Central Americans on an odyssey to the United States or on their way back home from there, having been deported. The program also explores shadow industries that prey on these vulnerable individuals and families every day, particularly the smugglers and traffickers who take advantage of these helpless people, especially with law enforcement officials aggressively pursuing them at the border.

Blue Bloods

While Frank (Tom Selleck) debates whether to protect his old friend Chuck Kennedy (quest star Ed Asner), whose home was recently invaded, Jamie (Will Estes) finds himself the subject of an investigation after a perp is found wearing his police vest in the new episode "Vested Interests." Elsewhere, Danny and Baez (Donnie Wahlberg, Marisa Ramirez) probe the suspicious death of a hotel employee that originally was thought to be a suicide. Bridget Moynahan and Steve Schirripa also star.

March 6, 2020 - Page 13C 9 p.m. on (435)

Movie: Charlie Says

Best known for his work in such mainstream fare as "Doctor Who" and "The Crown." British actor Matt Smith steps far outside his usual wheelhouse to play cult leader Charles Manson in this 2019 biographical drama from Mary Harron ("American Psycho"). Two-time Emmy winner Merritt Weaver ("Nurse Jackie") also makes a big impression, though, as Karlene Faith, a graduate student who worked with the Manson women in prison and helped them process the magnitude of their crimes. Hannah Murray, Chace Crawford and Annabeth Gish also star.

With Landry Jones under center and coach Bob Stoops on the sideline, the expectations are high for the Dallas Renegades in the XFL's inaugural season. He's also the first player signed by the XFL, but missed the start of the season with an injury.

Saturday Night Live

In his iconic role as James Bond, Agent 007, Daniel Craig has a license to kill, but does that extend to a comedy audience? Stepping well outside his usual comfort zone, Craig — who showed moviegoers a slyly funny side of his craft in the 2019 sleeper hit "Knives Out" — fearlessly takes the stage in NBC's fabled Studio 8H to play with this show's seasoned sketch comedy veterans. The Weeknd is tonight's musical guest.
