BY JAY BOBBIN

Skylar Astin
and Jane Levy

'Zoey's Extraordinary Playlist' is all in her head

If you've ever had music in your head when a song isn't actually playing, you're not alone: Meet Zoey.

She's the heroine of "Zoey's Extraordinary Playlist," an NBC series that has a preview showing Tuesday, Jan. 7, before its weekly Sunday run starts Feb. 16. Played by Jane Levy ("Suburgatory," "Don't Breathe"), the San Francisco computer-business worker begins hearing songs whose lyrics mirror the thoughts of friends and colleagues as well as strangers. Initially alarmed by her new gift, she soon realizes it could work to her advantage, particularly in dealing with her ill father.

Dad is portrayed by Peter Gallagher, who has musical experience from Broadway and such movies as "The Idolmaker," and other cast members whose song-and-dance backgrounds come in handy include Skylar Astin ("Pitch Perfect") and Alex Newell ("Glee"). Mary Steenburgen and "special guest star" Lauren Graham also are featured in the show, which includes Paul Feig ("Bridesmaids") among its executive producers.

"I do like unique stories," title star Levy confirms, "and when I read the script, I thought it was an opportunity to do so many things as an actor. At times, it's a comedy though it's rooted in real family drama, and it's also a musical. It's a high-concept story, and I'm so grateful to be a part of it. And I'm also impressed with NBC for taking on something so ambitious."

Levy's most recent television work has been for streaming services (Hulu's "Castle Rock," the former Seeso's "There's ... Johnny!"), and she declares this a "golden age of television. I think this possibly might be the best show on network TV in 2020, and that's a bold statement, coming from me."

Though "Glee" and "Crazy Ex-Girlfriend" notably folded musical sequences into their dramatics, too, Levy admits she is "not that well-versed in television, so when people talk about other shows, I just have a blank stare. I know that those were two beloved shows, but I think what makes ours different is that the songs come out of the characters' needs and desires. And there's the conceit that Zoey can read people's minds and hearts through music."

In a case of art apparently imitating life, Oscar winner Steenburgen — who plays Zoey's mother — recently revealed that in the aftermath of surgery on her arm a decade ago, everything she thought or heard translated into music for her.

"Isn't that spectacular?," Levy reflects. "Supposedly, that's why she wanted to take on this part. She had that surgery and started writing music afterward, and she is a real inspiration for me. She is a woman who continues to be curious in her career, and she's so brave. I feel lucky to be working with her."

Checking in with KEISHA CASTLE-HUGHES

In 2001, Keisha Castle-Hughes was plucked out of her Auckland, New Zealand, classroom to play Paikea in "Whale Rider," a performance that would earn her a best actress nod in the 2004 Academy Awards. At 13, it made her the youngest actress to do so at the time.

One might think that experience would be a lot to process for someone so young, but Castle-Hughes indicates she was too blissfully clueless to be blown away.

"It was a pretty wild time for sure and pretty exciting," she says. "But ... I'm from New Zealand, a smaller place, and so our relationship with those kind of — like awards season and stuff is very different. So even though it was really exciting, you know it was like a blessing, too, in the fact that it wasn't something that I really, truly understood the gravitas of, so I was really just kind of enjoying the ride."

The now-29-year-old actress goes on a different kind of ride starting this week when she takes on the role of an FBI analyst in "FBI: Most Wanted," produced by "Law & Order" mentor Dick Wolf and premiering Tuesday, Jan. 7, on CBS.

Castle-Hughes plays Hana Gibson, part of a fugitive task force that tracks and captures criminals from the bureau's Most Wanted List. Filmed in and around New York City, the hourlong crime drama has introduced her to the Tri-State area, to which she had previously been a stranger.

"The great thing is that because of the nature of it ... we're getting to see so much of New York state and outside of the city, to be outside a lot," she explains. "We're in the woods, we're upstate a lot. And the great thing about working for a group like this, like Dick Wolf, is that they know exactly what they're doing so I feel like we're in safe hands and everything runs very smoothly."

Full name: Keisha Castle-Hughes

Birth date: March 24, 1990

Birthplace: Donnybrook, Western Australia, Australia (but raised in Auckland)

Family ties: Divorced; has a 12-year-old daughter

Other TV credits include: "Legend of the Seeker," "The Walking Dead," "Roadies," "Game of Thrones," "Manhunt," "FBI"

tonight's picks

Omari Hardwick

Sunday

7 p.m. on (29);
11:01 p.m. on (29)

Movie: Abducted on Air

As she works her way up the ladder at a local TV station, ambitious newswoman Sasha Bruder (Kim Shaw) dreams of being a star reporter, but usually finds herself covering mundane community events. She becomes part of a bigger story herself when she is kidnapped and held until she makes a dramatic escape. Once she's free, however, Sasha joins several others who start wondering: Why would anyone want to kidnap someone like Sasha?

7 p.m. on (401);
11 p.m. on (401)

Movie: Tolkien

Dome Koski's 2019 period biographical drama stars

Nicholas Hoult ("Jack the Giant Killer") as English professor J.R.R. Tolkien, who achieved his greatest fame for writing "The Hobbit" and "The Lord of the Rings." The film's primary focus, however, is on Tolkien's early years as an academic, when he discovers his passion for languages. Lily Collins plays Edith Bratt, Tolkien's lifelong love and eventual wife, who inspired several of his female fantasy characters. Colm Meaney and Derek Jacobi also star.

7 p.m. on (465); 8:32 p.m. on (465); 10:01 p.m. on (465)

Power

The midseason finale of this critically acclaimed crime drama's sixth and final season ended on a major cliffhanger, as an unknown assailant gunned down main character James "Ghost" St. Patrick (Omari Hardwick), who was last seen falling to what looked like almost certain death. There are seven viable suspects for who fired that bullet, and viewers will discover the answer — and Ghost's ultimate fate — as the series returns with its final five episodes, starting with tonight's "Still Dre."

9 p.m. on (45); 1 a.m. on (45)

Naked and Afraid

Discovery Channel opens Season 11 of its survivalist challenge with a premise more harrowing than ever before. The show invites some of the strongest and most resourceful players ever featured on past seasons and drops them in isolated areas around the globe, leaving them with not even the clothes on their back — and, this time around, no one by their side.

 Set in 1948, Lenny Abrahamson's 2018 Gothic drama received very good reviews for its atmospheric storytelling, which relies more on a mounting sense of dread than on startling jump shots for its impact.  Inspiration for a new episode called "The Whale Detective" comes from a 2015 kayaking experience wildlife filmmaker Tom Mustill and his friend Charlotte Kinloch had, when a 30-ton humpback whale breached the bay waters and barely missed landing on them. Both the humans survived, but Mustill was haunted by a question: Was the whale deliberately trying to hurt them or doing everything it could not to? Mustill returns to those same California waters to seek answers from whalers who have had similar close scrapes.

 Much to the dismay of the members of Firehouse 51, after a redrawing of city boundaries, their zone now overlaps that of an adjacent station, almost immediately leading to problems, confusion and strained relations among colleagues, in the new episode "Hold Our Ground." Meanwhile, Casey and Gallo (Jesse Spencer, Alberto Rosende) go searching for a missing piece of equipment, while Mouch (Christian Stolte) tries to find the intended recipient of a mysterious letter he comes across.

 Amy Lippman and Christopher Keyser, creators of the groundbreaking 1994-2000 Fox family drama "Party of Five," reboot that basic story in this new iteration that changes certain elements to reflect

 Veteran sports broadcaster Curt Menefee hosts this promising new competition series, in which top K9 cop teams — including some that viewers may recognize from "Live PD" — will compete with civilian canines and their handlers on what A&E is calling "the ultimate K9 obstacle course." The dogs vie in a series of expert tasks designed to mimic real-life challenges and assess the canines' speed, agility, scent ability and teamwork. Expert dog trainer Nick White also is featured.

 Can anyone stop Giannis Antetokounmpo and the Milwaukee Bucks? The Golden State Warriors look to do just that, despite the fact that their starting lineup is a shadow of what it was just a year ago. Draymond Green is the lone participant from the Warriors championship run. The Bucks, meanwhile, have been the class of the Eastern Conference and look to take the next step, which is a championship of their own.

tonight's picks

Saturday

7 p.m. on (29);
11:01 p.m. on (29)

Movie: Psycho Nurse

Mira and Todd (Abbie Cobb, Sean Faris) feel overwhelmed when their young son is diagnosed with a rare condition that requires a carefully monitored special diet and physical treatment to survive. They decide to hire a live-in nurse, Gwen (Lyndon Smith), to provide the kind of focused care their son needs, but alas, Gwen has a few screws loose and soon is fantasizing about removing Mira from the picture and taking Todd and his son for herself.

Griffin Morgan co-stars in this 2019 thriller.

7 p.m. on (401);
11:20 p.m. on (401)

Movie: John Wick: Chapter 3 — Parabellum

This third entry in the Keanu Reeves action thriller franchise was the most successful to date, both in terms of box-office revenue and critical praise for the screenplay and performances. The story picks up just one hour after the events of the second "Wick" film and finds the ex-hitman title character on the run for his life, pursued by the legions of assassins eyeing the $14 million contract placed on his head for his recent actions. Ian McShane, Mark Dacascos, Laurence Fishburne, Halle Berry, and Anjelica Huston also star.

8 p.m. on (74); 11 p.m. on (74)

Family or Fiancé

The high-stakes social experiment returns with new episodes in which relationship expert Tracy McMillan helps engaged couples seek the blessing of — at least initially — disapproving family members who think their proposed union would be a mistake for one reason or another. In the new "Cindy and Jamiah: Families in Feud," an engaged couple is starting to feel desperate as their respective families continue to be embroiled in a bitter dispute, just one week before their wedding. Things get truly dire when both families unite to express their joint opposition.

9 p.m. on (148)

Movie: The Snowman

Definitely not to be confused with the charming 1962 animated adaptation of a children's book by Raymond Briggs, Tomas Alfredson's chilling 2017 British crime thriller stars Michael Fassbender as a troubled police inspector in Oslo, Norway, who begins to receive messages from a serial killer who uses snowmen as a macabre calling card.
