THE CITY OF VOLGA

You'll love it here!

The City of Volga and the Volga Development Corporation thank you for being a part of our community or your interest in our community. Volga has changed drastically in the past 2 decades and we will continue to progress to provide a great quality of life for all residents and businesses. Volga has grown over 25% in population since 2010 as we are now home to over 2,278 residents. In the past decade, the city has seen growth and changes in the following ways:

- New single family and multi-family housing on the eastern and western ends of the city.
- New commercial and industrial businesses downtown, on Highway 14, Industrial Drive, and in our new Creekside Industrial Park.
- A new 750,000-gallon water tower on the southeast corner of the city with award-winning artwork on the tank.
- Infrastructure improvements to our water, wastewater, and electric systems to accommodate growth and expand for future businesses and housing.
- New amenities such as the dog park, community gardens, playground equipment, archery range, and additions to the city pool.
- Partnerships with the Brookings County Museum, the American Legion Veterans Memorial, and Meadow Creek Golf Course with new improvements and new features.

And we are not done yet! With continued growth, we plan to continue to provide excellent services and amenities. Possibilities for the future include:

- Continue to expand housing and housing opportunities to the west.
- Partner and collaborate with various entities to construct new ballfields and recreation spaces.
- Continue and expand our Parks & Recreation programs to accommodate a growing youth population.
- Work with interested parties to grow our commercial and industrial business sectors.
- Listen and respond to community input to build and sustain the great small-town culture we have.

If you or someone you know wants to start, move, or expand your business or simply find a place to call home, the City of Volga and the Volga Development Corporation (VDC) want to work for you to make this happen. Grants, rebates, and incentives are available to benefit your home or business. Check out our new website, www.volgacity.com or simply contact the City or a member of the VDC to connect you to the right people or resources to find or build a home, locate business or lot space, and have you grow with us! You'll love it here!

Welcome to VOLGA

As the Mayor of Volga, I would like to welcome you to our fine city. We are very proud of our wide streets and that every street is curb and guttered. We also have an excellent staff who are always willing to answer questions and try to address your concerns. Growth has been very steady in Volga for over a decade, and it continues to grow. Along with growth comes some growing pains but as a council and staff we continue to try and make those pains less hurtful. We have many new projects going like adding a new water tower, 2 new wells, looping our substations together and providing help to our economic development partners. I ask that not only new residents but also existing residents if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact either myself, the city administrator, or any council member with your concerns. I would also like to thank all the businesses here in town and ask all our residents to please do all the business you can locally here in town. Our local businesses have put a lot of money and resources into their businesses, and I know they would really appreciate your business. Thank you for choosing Volga as your place of residence.

Mayor Ken Fideler

Brookings County MUSEUM

The Brookings County Museum is located in the Volga City Park on Samara Avenue. It is managed and maintained by the Brookings County Historical Society and boasts an impressive array of artifacts dating to the earliest days of pioneer settlement in the area. The museum complex began with the main building, which was built in 1969.

The five other structures completing the complex include the original one-room 1880 Christianson Family School; the 1870 Sundet Log Home; a large pole building housing vintage farm equipment; the 1884 Hauxhurst Home, which was moved to the museum complex from its original site in Brookings and the newly constructed Trygve Troien horse-drawn museum.

The museum's collection includes more than 6,000 artifacts and many bound volumes, which chronicle the lives of our predecessors in the county. If you're seeking information about the history of your family or the area, you may be able to find it in the Chuck Cecil Archives Room.

The Brookings County Museum has no paid employees and operates on a stipend from the Brookings County Commission and donations, which are always welcomed. Volunteers and history buffs keep the museum open daily from 1-4 p.m., Memorial Day through Labor Day. Admission is free.

Every Brick Tells A STORY

In the summer of 2018 construction was completed on the Volga Veterans Memorial, a long-held dream of many area veterans and their families. Blaine Hoff, an active member of the Volga American Legion Post 114, approached fellow vets several years ago with the idea. A committee to explore the potential for a memorial honoring those who have served our country in the military was formed. Tours of other memorials in the region were conducted and Marvel Rindel came forward with an idea for a design based on a memorial in Iowa. The sketches were taken to Banner Associates in Brookings who designed the structure and provided a rendering.

Area contractors were asked for their input and Randy Gross of Gross Construction in Volga was chosen as the builder. Fund-raising and site selection began in earnest. Volga Veterans Memorial Committee Chairwoman, Rebecca Trygstad of Volga said there were a variety of events such as a raffle and rummage sale to raise the money. In addition many area businesses and community members made donations and a grant from the South Dakota Community Foundation helped the group reach their financial goal so construction could begin.

The memorial is three-sided with each side containing two panels of bricks. The bricks are engraved with the names of service members. There are more than 250 bricks already installed with more to be added in spring 2019. There is plenty of space available for bricks to be added in honor of veterans associated with the area. The engraved bricks cost $100 and Trygstad said

The Volga Veterans Memorial is located on Samara Avenue on the grounds of the Volga City Park and adjacent to the Brookings County Museum. Volga, a small town on the prairie, continues to GROW & THRIVE in population as well as business opportunities.

So much so that its efforts haven't gone unnoticed even at the state level. In the spring of 2019, Volga received the 2019 COMMUNITY OF THE YEAR award from Governor Kristi Noem. Volga is a remarkable city, close enough for residents to enjoy all the amenities Brookings has to offer while experiencing the benefits of living in a smaller community. We invite you to explore the opportunities offered in our welcoming and progressive community. New businesses in Volga may be eligible to receive more than a year's worth of sales tax and electricity given back to them over their first three years. Combined with a welcoming business climate and outstanding public and private school options, we believe Volga may be the best place for your family or business.

For more information about how the City of Volga and Volga Development Corporation may assist you in building your business in our growing community, please contact Michael Schulte, Volga City Administrator, at 605-627-9113.

Doc & Roma Peeke Park is located on the west side of town, on Samara Avenue. Features include a large pool with bathhouse; a large playground; picnic areas; a sand volleyball court; and a disk golf course. A second playground was installed on the east side of Volga in 2017 at the East Side Park. It provides a nice place for families in that growing area of town to enjoy fresh air and sunshine. The City of Volga offers a great recreation program for children during the summer. They include Red Cross swimming lessons; softball; baseball; theater camp; and much more. Activities are held at the City Park, Sioux Valley Schools, and other area locations. Sign-up days are held in March and programs run throughout the summer. With our new Community Engagement Coordinator, we are working on expanding our park and rec programs all year round. The city offers many coaching, umping, and lifeguarding opportunities, both paid and volunteer, for youth and adults. Call the City Office at 605-627-9113 for more information about these programs.

Sioux Valley Public Schools 'Expect Excellence' from their students, faculty and staff and strive every day to provide the highest quality education to all who attend junior-kindergarten through twelfth grade. The district is comprised of students from Volga, Sinai and Bruce as well as students who choose to open enroll.

All facilities are located on the campus on Hansina Avenue between 1st and 4th Streets in Volga. In addition to classrooms for instruction, the complex includes a library; laboratories; two gymnasiums; a fine arts center and a large commons area.

The school district has expanded its facilities with an elementary addition that consists of eleven classrooms, a multi-purpose room, a secure entrance, and relocated office areas. This addition opened with the start of the 2018-19 school year and is fully utilized.

The Performing Arts Center, which opened in 2014 features a beautiful 400-seat auditorium for theater and musical productions, as well as areas for choral and instrumental music. The facility is a combination of new space and renovated space from the 1925 school.

In addition to offering the traditional academic areas of studies, the district offers fine arts, agricultural, building trades, and family and consumer science courses. Dual credit courses are offered to upperclassmen and many take advantage of this opportunity to gain college credits at a lower cost. A variety of extracurricular opportunities are available, including nearly 20 options in athletics, student leadership and fine arts.

Sioux Valley's administration and faculty are recognized as leaders in developing and implementing innovative strategies to improve learning outcomes. The district is governed by a five-member school board, elected from candidates who reside within the boundaries of the district.

Superintendent, Laura Schuster said, "One of my favorite quotes is by William A. Foster. He stated, 'Quality is never an accident. It is always the result of high intention, sincere effort, intelligent direction, and skillful execution.' As superintendent of this district, I am committed to providing our students with a high-quality education, a healthy and safe learning atmosphere and an environment where they can develop their skills to reach their full potential and a place they can be proud of."

Schuster added, "It is my distinct privilege to serve as the superintendent of the Sioux Valley School District. We have a board which provides excellent leadership, quality staff members who have the interests of the students at heart and students who strive to excel at all they undertake."

More information about academics, extracurricular events, faculty contacts and opportunities for community involvement is available on the district's website: svs.k12.sd.us.

SIoux VALLEY COSSACKS

The Sioux Valley school mascot is a Cossack...
so, just what is a Cossack?

Cossack, derived from the Turkic term kazak, means 'free man' or adventurer. Cossacks originated as an elite fighting force in southern Russia. They were well-known for their excellence in horsemanship and military skills; were required to be Christians and believed in democratic ideals.

Volga Christian School

With 70 years of history (founded in 1949), the Volga Christian School offers a fully accredited academic program for preschool through eighth grade students. Christian families have come together to provide an excellent and broad educational program so their children may grow and mature into perceptive and caring Christians with life-encompassing obedience to God.

A dedicated group of supporters worked for many years to see the dream of a new school structure come to life and in March 2015

Volga Christian School opened the doors to a new building in their location on Sixth Street in Volga. The school was designed to provide for future expansion and will serve students and their families for many years to come.
