Alicia Hannah-Kim and Martin Kove in "Cobra Kai"

Rolling up the mats: 'Cobra Kai' dojo prepares to close doors after Season 6

After five complete seasons — across two different platforms — "Cobra Kai" may know better than most series what it takes to survive in the business. Back in the dojo to begin its sixth and final season, the Karate Kid franchise spinoff series has big plans for the year ahead. It all begins Thursday, July 18, on Netflix.

"Cobra Kai," the karate-centric dramedy series from creators Jon Hurwitz ("Obliterated"), Josh Heald ("Hot Tub Time Machine," 2010) and Hayden Schlossberg ("Harold & Kumar Go to White Castle," 2004), had audiences and "The Karate Kid" (1984) fans gripped from its very first episode back in May 2018. At that time, the budding series was an original YouTube Red (now YouTube Premium) production, but in 2020, when YouTube opted to sweep the leg on the series, Netflix picked it up and kept the action rolling just as it had previously done with shows such as "Arrested Development," "Lucifer" and "Manifest."

An expansion of what fans of the franchise are now calling the Miyagiverse — thanks to the late Pat Morita's ("Mulan," 1998) classic role as Mr. Miyagi in the original Karate Kid film franchise — "Cobra Kai" follows the 1984 film's lead protagonist and antagonist, Daniel "Daniel-san" LaRusso (Ralph Macchio, "My Cousin Vinny," 1992) and Johnny Lawrence (William Zabka, "How I Met Your Mother"), now grown up and reuniting their spirited feud thanks to their ties to opposing dojos in Los Angeles' San Fernando Valley.

Despite the series having been pretty high-octane until the surprisingly tame Season 5 finale, the cast and crew wish for fans of the show to note that there is a lot planned for the coming sixth season.

"With Cobra Kai eliminated from the Valley," reads the official Netflix description, "our senseis and students must decide if and how they will compete in the Sekai Taikai — the world championships of karate."

While many of the actors have remained tight-lipped about the details of Season 6, others, like Gianni DeCenzo ("Coop and Cami Ask the World"), who plays Demetri Alexopoulos, have been more open to sharing their thoughts and feelings during interviews — even if sometimes the answer is unexpected. For example, when What's On Netflix reporter Jacob Robinson asked what's in store for Demetri in Season 6, DeCenzo replied: "He slips and falls and dies."

"No ..." DeCenzo soon clarified, "He's become better at karate. He got a super hot, super popular girlfriend. Things have been going great for him. He ended up in the semifinals of the All-Valley tournament, which was his first tournament ever, and it was terrific. So yeah, I want to see him grow even more in Season 6. And yeah, I can't give out any spoilers, but it will be a great season."

"Cobra Kai" also stars Martin Kove ("The Karate Kid," 1984), Xolo Mariduena ("Blue Beetle," 2023), Jacob Bertrand ("Ready Player One," 2018), Mary Mouser ("Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day," 2014), Peyton List ("Bunk'd"), Courtney Henggeler ("Mom"), Tanner Buchanan ("Designated Survivor"), Vanessa Rubio ("Chilling Adventures of Sabrina"), Dallas Dupree Young ("The Big Show Show"), Yuji Okumoto ("The Karate Kid Part II," 1986), Alicia Hannah-Kim ("Minx"), Griffin Santopietro ("The Week Of," 2018) and Oona O'Brien ("Sky High," 2020).

celebrity scoop

BY JAY BOBBIN

Elizabeth Banks is pressing her own luck as a game show host, but since she's entering her sixth season in that role, it's a low risk for her at this point.

The actress (now earning raves for "A Mistake") and filmmaker has been overseeing ABC's revival of "Press Your Luck," also as an executive producer along with her husband, Max Handelman. While repeats have been shown lately, the program starts new episodes Thursday, July 18. Though the network has used it at other times of the year, it's principally been a summer staple, and its familiarity to viewers is now inspiring its use as the lead-in for a new ABC game: "Lucky 13," hosted by former NBA star Shaquille O'Neill and actress Gina Rodriguez ("Jane the Virgin").

Banks doesn't mind getting a bit saucy as she guides three players through each "Press Your Luck" episode's opening game. They take spins on a giant board that lists prizes — some tailored to the given player's interests — and cash awards. They try not to hit a so-called "Whammy" when they push a button that stops the movement on the board, but if they do, they lose their winnings accumulated in the game until then. The highest winner then proceeds to another game of their own, with even bigger rewards offered.

"I had no expectations," Banks reflects of deciding to revisit "Press Your Luck" (originally a 1983-86 CBS daytime show) in its current incarnation. "It just felt that it would be a fun thing to do, and that for me and my family to have that kind of thing to watch would be really great. The [Season 1] ratings were good, but you just never know what to plan for, especially with what it takes to compete in broadcast TV now. I do believe we've improved the gameplay; it's just so much more exciting."

While she's one of relatively few female hosts the game show genre has had, Banks would welcome more. "Right now is a moment when you see more women doing it," she notes, "but it's true that this is not a traditional job for us."

tonight's picks

Biography: WWE Legends

(42) 7 p.m.

Mike "The Miz" Mizanin might just be one of the most inspirational wrestlers in the history of the WWE. As a young man living hand-to-mouth in Los Angeles, he was broke and overwhelmed with doubt. But he persisted, eventually landing on the top bill.

House of the Dragon

(401) 8 p.m.

Following the death of King Viserys (Paddy Considine), Westeros is plunged into turmoil. Despite Aegon (Tom Glynn-Carney) taking up the Iron Throne, House Targaryen is splitting at the seams as Rhaenyra (Emma D'Arcy) plans to challenge her half-brother.

In the Eye of the Storm

(45) 9 p.m.

In this series premiere, it gets scary, fast, as a cluster of tornadoes erupts in Rolling Fork, Miss. and Little Rock, Ark. Hundreds of videos of the event were captured, but when a twister touched down in Lewistown, Ill., it trapped spotters.

Howie Mandel is a judge in "America's Got Talent"

tonight's picks

Renovation Aloha

33 7 p.m.

Go big or go home. Real estate experts Tristyn and Kamohai Kalama become very familiar with this idiom as they risk it all as they attempt their priciest flip yet. The stakes get even higher when things get off to a rocky start. Will they pull through?

America's Got Talent

46 5 7 p.m.

The auditions continue as even more amateur performers step up the critical gaze of judges Howie Mandel, Simon Cowell, Heidi Klum and Sofia Vergara. Can these hopefuls do enough to impress the judges and punch their way to the live episodes?

Judge Steve Harvey

9 9 8 p.m.

Steve Harvey is behind the bench to dispense judgment, compassion, common sense, a bit of humor and the life experience only he can offer. If you've got problems, he can tell you why. It's his courtroom, and everyone else is only plaintiffs.

Welcome to Plathville

46 9 p.m.

While the divorce between Kim and Barry is long from settled, the pair seem ready to move on from each other in this season premiere. Meanwhile, Micah leaves LA to try life with a girlfriend in Florida. Also, the Plath clan plan to perform together again.

Customer Wars

42 9 p.m.

The customer is always right — right? Season 4 of this voyeuristic series continues, spotlighting conflicts that arise when unhappy and sometimes irrational customers take issue with the employees trying their best to take care of their needs.

Beyond Skinwalker Ranch

48 10:05 p.m.

Andy and Paul are investigating a series of strange phenomena that seem to have ties to parallel dimensions and otherworldly entities in this season finale. Can they gather enough evidence to prove within a reasonable doubt what is causing the incidents?
