The head coach for Pheasant Football this year is Henry "Hank" Brassilio. He is in his 2nd year of coaching at RHS and has a combined 7 years of coaching between the high school and college level. His assistant coaches include Kyle Falk, Jason Banister and Tommy Gregg.

Returning players from previous years include: Seniors—Jacob Buranen, Dylan Murray, Camden Murray Jackson Sandoz, and Collin Dean Juniors---Ethan Falk, Noah Johnson, and Connor Zens. Sophomores---Ayden Understock-Jessen. The coaches are excited about this season because a lot of the returning guys are in skill positions that we lacked last year. The boys also were in the weight room this past winter and out for track in the spring.

Coach Brassilio stated "I believe that we have a very tough schedule in our first year of 9AA, but I also believe that we have a great opportunity to compete in every game this year. We will have to battle some very tough teams but we have a lot of grit and have the ability to do really big things this year."

This team will have to use the aspects of the game that they are good at and build upon the ones they struggle with.

The Redfield Pheasants boys golf team is young this year, but head coach Bradley Cihak is very hopeful as there are a few new athletes coming out that he feels will help the team.

Bradley is in his 4th year as coach and is very excited about all of the young golfers he has but they just don't have the varsity experience as of yet. Micah Zastrow and Jacksan Rude are his returning players from last year.

The coach's plan for improvement involves continuing to personalize how he can make each golfer better to get to their goal as a team.

Redfield Pheasant Volleyball

With the good team chemistry they have and the amount of playing time seen last year by each Pheasant, Coach Osborn is excited to see them compete this year and grow in their ability.

The head coach for the Pheasants is Joel Osborn who is in his 27th year of coaching---19 of those at Redfield. Along with his assistant coach, Morgan Schultz, they are looking at improving on their passing capabilities in serve-serve and free-ball situations. This will allow the offense the ability to put good swings on the ball. They also need to be quicker because of their lack of height, so they are working on running more quick-style attacking when able.

“We still are pretty young but looking forward to these young ladies giving their best effort for every ball that is hit on our side” stated Coach Osborn.

Returning players include: Brooklyn Rische, Kinley Smith, Hayden Gall, Cecilia Suchor, Jerica Ratigan, Karlie Brabant, Charli Jungwirth, Kendyl Siebrecht, Layla Hardie, Brynn Gilblin and Addy Rice.

The Head Coach this year for the Pheasant Cross-Country team is new and in her first year of coaching at Redfield. Kearra Elkins is encouraged by the number of new runners for the team and sees a lot of potential in them.

There are three lettermen returning---Payton Moore (state qualifier last year), Carson Peterson, and Jadie Turner.

Coach Elkins commented "We have a very young team this year with over half of the team being middle schoolers; we are hoping to get as many runners to state out in Rapid City as possible in October."

Northwestern Wildcat Volleyball

The Wildcats volleyball program is led by Head Coach Nora Groft who has an outstanding career record of 665-93. She has paved the way for numerous notable volleyball teams through her 23 years as head coach at Northwestern. Along with her assistant coaches--Alexz Peterson-Smith, Elissa Reppe, Emma Grandpre, and Brooklinn Halvorson, Coach Groft hopes to improve on last years record of 27-8.

Coach Groft comments---The Wildcats will feature depth and competition at every position this season. Lineups and rotations will continue to evolve as we work to develop the magic of the right combinations to allow our team to be successful. Our number one strength is our depth and the sheer number of players who can play at the varsity level. That will make for very competitive practices. We will need to manage our errors and rise to the occasion if we want to advance in the post season.

The Wildcats team lost no starters from last year and include the following members: Seniors—Payton Grandpre, Ana Ratigan, Nikki Nickeson, Anna Brumfield; Juniors—Ashley Haven, Ella Boekelheide, Mikaela Schmitt, Layla Ortmeier, Molly VanHatten, Kyara Ratigan, Abby Holmberg; Sophomores---Tara Blachford, Taylor Vetter, Breelyn Satter, and Sophia Troske.

Hitchcock-Tulare Patriots Football 2024-25

Tom Salmen, in his 4th year as head coach for the Patriot football team, feels that 9B football is up for grabs this year and that he has a quality team with a good opportunity to compete with the best. He lists their strengths as being very athletic with good speed and quality players with a good offense and defense line.

Coach Salmen along with his assistant coaches, Mike Puffer and Garret Schmidt, expect to see improvement at each and every practice and the team to grow into a highly competitive unit.

Returning Players include the following:

Sr.---Payton Chasing Hawk, Uriah Tindell, Blaze Binger, Mikael Nielson

The Patriots look to have a great season ahead of them. Head Coach Jordan Opp is in his 19th season of coaching with a 290-225 career record and feels that the Lady Patriots will be exciting to watch this year. Their greatest strength lies in their experience. They are a veteran team as they return everyone from last season. Also, their front line is able to hit a variety of shots and they have some great servers that can be aggressive.

Coach Opp along with his assistant coaches, Abby Masat and Leslie Schlagel, have been working on improving the Patriots defense and serve-receive system. Returning players include Seniors--Katelyn Schroeder, Ella Johnson, Isabel Gilbert, and Emma Schneider, along with an extensive list of Juniors--Rebecca Huizenga, Gracyn Bixler, Cambree Hoekman, Cora Hofer, Avarie Estey, Regan Lutter and Sienna Stoner. Rounding out the team are the Sophomores—Lila Johnson, Olivia Knox and Emmerie Arthurs.

Hitchcock-Tulare Patriot Cross Country 2024-25

Sara McNeil has been coaching for 14 years and leads the Hitchcock-Tulare Patriot Cross Country team along with Amanda Boomsma, the assistant coach.

Returning runners for the Patriots include: Matthew Salmen, Gavin Schneider, Brodie Boomsma, Breckan Estey, Seth Smith, Addy Ihnen, and Josie Wiebe. Although they are a young team, many of the runners have experience running cross country and are very excited about the sport and bring a lot of energy to the team. The coaches want to give the runners a positive experience, build endurance, boost confidence and instill a love for running in them. Addy Ihnen was running varsity by the end of the season last year as a 7th grader so the coaches are excited to see what this years holds for her.
