Back with big changes: A new direction is 'Found' for NBC series

To say that "Found" is changing its game in its second season is to risk understatement, and even that is putting it mildly.

The drama series returns Thursday, Oct, 3, to NBC, with an enormous shift in its premise. Sir (played by Mark-Paul Gosselaar, "NYPD Blue"), the kidnapping victim of recovery specialist Gabi Mosely (Shanola Hampton, "Shameless) — who was abducted and held captive by him years earlier — has escaped from the basement prison she held him in, prompting her to reveal her formerly secret actions to her crisis-management team. They're still processing the information as the new episodes begin, with Sir still missing, though circumstances suggest he's not done invading Gabi's life. Her colleague Lacey (Gabrielle Walsh, "9-1-1"), also a former victim of Sir, is a particular target as well.

Also starring Kelli Williams ("The Practice"), Brett Dalton ("Marvel's Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D."), Arlen Escarpeta ("The Oath") and Karan Oberoi ("Roswell," New Mexico"), "Found" is adding Michael Cassidy ("Resident Alien"), Danielle Savre ("Station 19") and Dionne Gipson ("NCIS") to its cast for Season 2. The prolific Greg Berlanti (mentor of The CW's former "Arrowverse" collection of DC Comics-inspired adventure series) is among the executive producers of "Found," as is its creator, Nkechi Okoro Carroll ("All American").

"It is what I like to call a 'character-cedural," Carroll says of the show, "so we're still going to have a case of the week. We're still going to have that engine of reaching a point of completion with our cases every week, but it's got a significant serialized portion. Sir's out on the loose wreaking havoc. Mark-Paul [Gosselaar] is having way too much fun doing that, so that will definitely maintain as part of the show, but we will still have that satisfying puzzle that we want the audience to join us in solving every week."

A veteran of many series, from "Saved by the Bell" to "NYPD Blue," Gosselaar reasons that especially with the second-year changes, "Found" is "this dance that you have to trust [Carroll] and her team to provide us the floor to be creative on but also to feel that it's not forced. With every script that we got, I remember I kept calling [her and] saying, 'How can we continue this trajectory?' I'm very, very, very pleased and very excited for our fans and our audience to watch the second season because, for everything that we built up in the first season, there is going to be a payoff if you've put the time into our show."

"Found" star Hampton earned a Gracie Award for Season 1, and she notes, "We don't wrap things up with a little bow in one or two episodes. The healing process, as in life, takes time ... so Gabi Mosely is in this dark place, having to deal with the dynamics shifting with the entire team. That's the beautiful journey of this season, which I'm really excited for the audience to see and to experience going through the process with these characters.

"It's been a different journey for me as an actor to play because Gabi is always in control and people are looking up to her. In this season, for the majority of the first chapter, everyone's really [mad] at her and disappointed and sad. It weighs on you."

Early in the season, Erin Cahill is getting a big taste of fall.

A cable movie staple, Cahill helps showcase this time of year as "Autumn at Apple Hill" debuts Saturday, Oct. 5, on Hallmark Channel. Cahill plays recently divorced Elise, who's trying to hold on to the old-fashioned inn she inherited from her grandparents, despite such problems as leaky pipes and faulty lights. Hotel chain financial chief Luke (Wes Brown, "Love on the Danube: Love Song," 2024) takes a forced vacation there, and the enjoyable times he had there in his childhood prompts him to help Elise try to save the place. Their mutual shift from animosity to attraction is also a factor in the tale, which is based on a book by Angie Ellington.

The pleasant Cahill appreciates that "Autumn at Apple Hill" hits many familiar Hallmark movie notes, such as the theme of a dedicated business person getting a new chance at romance. "It was so much fun to get to play the gamut of her emotions," the actress says. "I don't often get to go to the place where [a character] is really annoyed with someone."

A big appeal of "Autumn at Apple Hill" for Cahill was the chance for her to reunite with co-star Brown, with whom she also worked in the 2021 Hallmark film "Every Time a Bell Rings." She notes, "I've known Wes for maybe 15 years, and it was such a joy for us to do this. We got to have some sweet moments in it, and that's also part of the Hallmark tradition."

Winnipeg doubles for the fictional setting of the small town Landover in "Autumn at Apple Hill," and as someone who travels frequently for work, Cahill maintains that she's comfortable in any accommodations: "I am someone who's happy anywhere, in a guest room or on a couch or in a lovely hotel. Or in an inn, like the one in this movie. I have stayed in a number of inns, and being in a cosy one when the weather is crisp is just the best."

Also known to another wide audience as Jen Scotts — the Pink Time Force Ranger — in the Power Rangers franchise, Cahill will stay in the Hallmark family as part of the large ensemble cast of the upcoming holiday season series "Holidazed" on the new Hallmark+ streaming service. "It's everything that everyone loves about Hallmark," she promises. "Everyone will be able to see themselves in it and relate to it, and that's the magic of it."

since before the U.S.'s independence and how it has shaped its growth. Despite discrimination, Latinos have contributed in pivotal ways throughout American history.

The UnXplained

(48) 8 p.m.

Pirates have always gotten good PR, but were their exploits on the high seas merely tall tales from drunken sailors? Or is there truly vast troves of treasure buried right under our noses? In this season premiere, these wild characters are examined.

Scariest House in America

(33) 8 p.m.

Designer Alison Victoria courageously begins her search for the scariest homes across America in this series premiere. Three Southern homes experiencing paranormal oddities vie for a chance to win a $150,000 makeover that just might impress the ghosts.

Tia Mowry: My Next Act 30 8:30 p.m.

In this new series, Tia Mowry begins the healing process after her divorce and deals with her new normal. But as she tries to focus on herself, she must come to grips with running into her ex on the red carpet. Then, a surprise party helps her begin anew.

Scare Tactics

(57) (65) (47) (61) 9 p.m. The legendary prank series returns with a decidedly cinematic bent from producer Jordan Peele, Unsuspecting people are caught on hidden camera as they are set up by friends and family to experience scenarios that leave them running for the hills.
