Don't stop them now

Words of wisdom
for the Class of 2023

By Chris Herbolsheimer

“I’m a shooting star leaping through the sky like a tiger defying the laws of gravity. I’m a racing car passing by like Lady Godiva, I’m gonna go, go, go, there’s no stopping me.” The words Queen’s classic song, “Don’t Stop Me Now,” chosen by the West Plains High School seniors of 2023 as their class song seems perfectly fitting for this group of young adults who are just beginning life’s journey.

As these seniors gear up to bid farewell to their high school years and embark on new adventures, they face a world of endless possibilities and challenges. Experts, educators, and successful individuals have shared their wisdom, offering guidance to these soon-to-be graduates as they navigate the complexities of the adult world.

-Embrace life’s journey: Acclaimed author, Paulo Coelho, encourages graduates to embrace the journey of life with open hearts and minds. “Life is a continuous process of learning, growing, and adapting. Trust the journey, and don’t be afraid to change paths when necessary,” he says.

-Develop a growth mindset: Psychologist and author, Carol Dweck, emphasizes the importance of cultivating a growth mindset. “Believe in your ability to improve and learn from your experiences. Embrace challenges, and view setbacks as opportunities for growth,” Dweck advises.

-Foster strong work ethics: Entrepreneur and television personality, Oprah Winfrey, stresses the value of hard work and determination. “Success doesn’t come easy. Be prepared to put in the effort, and stay dedicated to your goals, even when the going gets tough,” Winfrey recommends.

-Practice financial responsibility: Financial expert and author, Suze Orman, suggests that young adults should learn to manage their finances wisely. “Start building good financial habits early on. Save money, avoid debt, and learn to make informed decisions about your financial future,” she says.

-Cultivate empathy and compassion: Human rights activist, Malala

Yousafzai, encourages graduates to practice empathy and compassion. “Be kind and understanding to others, even those with different perspectives. Recognize the humanity in everyone, and strive to make the world a more inclusive place,” Yousafzai recommends.

Armed with these pearls of wisdom, high school seniors can confidently navigate their post-graduation lives. By embracing life’s journey, cultivating a growth mindset, practicing empathy, and building a supportive network, they can create fulfilling and successful futures.

The Sky’s the Limit

Your achievement today proves that with motivation and dedication, you can accomplish anything. Keep up the great work, and remember that we are behind you all the way.

*Congratulations
