Tie vote stalls master contract action

Jeanne Grimes
The Purcell Register

Purcell Public Schools won't have a formal relationship with the Purcell Association of Classroom Teachers at least for now. In a 2-2 tie vote, the district's board of education failed to approve the 2018-19 master contract agreement with PACT during Monday's meeting.

PACT has been a fixture in Purcell schools for more than 16 years. Board president Kim Croslin and vice president Tracy Folsom voted for the agreement. Casting votes against it were members Bill Smith and Dru Smith. Absent from the meeting was the clerk, Chelle McCaskill.

Before the issue came to a vote, Bill Smith asked superintendent Jason Midkiff what would happen if the agreement wasn't approved. The board will have a special meeting today (Thursday) to revisit the master contract agreement. That meeting will be at 8 a.m.

In his report to the board, Midkiff said a professional development day before the start of the school year has drawn positive responses from other districts that came to Purcell to participate.

Chickasaw Nation Annual Meeting and Festival kicks off September 28

A longstanding tradition of celebrating Chickasaw heritage, customs and unconquerable spirit gets underway during the 2018 Chickasaw Nation Annual Meeting and Festival, September 28-October 6.

This year marks the 58th Annual Meeting of the Chickasaw Nation and the 30th Chickasaw Festival, an event which draws thousands from across the globe to reunite in Chickasaw Country.

Activities celebrating Chickasaw culture, heritage, spirit and traditions begin Friday, September 28, and culminate Saturday, October 6, and will be conducted in communities throughout the Chickasaw Nation.

“For more than a half-century Chickasaws from all walks of life have gathered each year to reunite with one another and reconnect with our culture,” Chickasaw Nation Governor

Bill Anoatubby said. “We look forward to this annual homecoming as a way to share and celebrate the Chickasaw spirit.”

Several momentous events are conducted during the weeklong celebration, which is highlighted by Gov. Anoatubby’s “State of the Nation” address during the Chickasaw Nation Annual Meeting, at 9 a.m., Saturday, October 6, at Fletcher Auditorium on the campus of Murray State College, Tishomingo.

The Festival Parade will begin at the MSC campus and march down Tishomingo’s Main Street at 12:30 p.m.

Chickasaw Nation Capitol grounds is the site of most afternoon activities including: Southeastern Art Show and Market, Chickasaw Press book signing, a traditional meal, health fair, cultural demonstrations and live entertainment, a petting zoo, children’s activities. All activities will be open from 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Capitol grounds.

Other activities including: cultural classes, storytelling, stickball and Stomp Dance demonstrations and a Horse-shoe, Corn Hole and Fishing tournament begin at 1 p.m.

Chickasaw Cultural Center event offers glimpse at monarch butterflies annual migratory trek

Visitors of the Chickasaw Cultural Center, 867 Cooper Memorial Road, in Sulphur are invited to a Monarch Butterfly Watch Saturday, September 15. The day offers educational opportunities and beautiful views of nature.

Activities include make-and-take crafts, games, a scavenger hunt, garden tours and pollinator plant giveaways.

Jane Breckenridge, butterfly expert and director of the Euchee Butterfly Farm, will be on-site with monarch butterflies to tag and release for their journey to Mexico. Painted lady butterfly kits will also be available at no charge while supplies last.

For several years, the Chickasaw Nation has planted milkweed and nectar-rich plants throughout the tribe’s 13-county territory in hopes of making a difference in the monarch butterfly’s declining population.

With additions to life-sustaining milkweed and nectar-rich plants growing in cultural center flowerbeds and in a “hoop” greenhouse, visitors are likely to spot monarchs making their annual migratory trek south to wintering grounds in Mexico.

The greenhouse offers a controlled enclosure for growing plants year-round. Monarchs may enter to feed and depart the structure safely.

Monarchs lay eggs on milkweed plants. Their offspring feed only on milkweed plants and go through three stages of life before constructing a chrysalis. They emerge as the “king of all butterflies” with brilliant orange, black and white coloring.

While at the cultural center, enjoy Marathon Matinee films. During the month of September, select weekend matinee films will be open to the public at no charge with the purchase of a concession item. Concession will include $2 popcorn, $1.50 bottled drinks and $1 candy items.

Film screenings Saturday, September 15, include “The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring” at 10:30 a.m. followed by “The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers” at 1:45 p.m. The conclusion to the trilogy “The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King” will be shown at 1 p.m. Sunday, September 16.

The Marathon Matinee schedule for the rest of September is as follows:

The Signing of the United States Constitution by Louis S. Glanzman, 1987, National Park Service in Philadelphia

Constitution still vibrant after 231 years

Constitution Day, Sept. 17, celebrates the 231st birthday of an astounding document that governed our nation as it grew from 13 to 50 states plus multiple territories populated by U.S. Citizens.

The basic document has just 4,543 words—less than a full newspaper page of legal and public notices. Its 27 amendments bring the total to 7,591 words, which would fill that page and less than half of the next.

How long is 231 years?

- Over 100 countries have used our Constitution to build their own.
- Our population has grown from 4 million to 309 million.
- Only about 40 commercial structures built before 1787 still stand, many as museums but others as active churches, taverns, inns, or campus landmarks at prestigious universities William & Mary, Brown, and Harvard.

Why is our Constitution unique?

Sometimes fierce debate for 100 days produced many compromises and these key provisions:

- Dividing government into three branches: Executive (President, Vice President, and those who run and work for the agencies under them); Legislative (the House and Senate, which must approve all laws, ratify certain executive actions and, for the Senate, confirm key Presidential nominees); and Judicial, which holds trials, interprets laws and, for the Supreme Court, ultimately decide what the Constitution means if disputes arise.

- Ensuring fairness for all states regardless of population. That led to election of Presidents and Vice Presidents by the Electoral College. Each state has electors equaling its total House and Senate membership. Each state has two Senators regardless of population. House membership totals are assigned to each state based solely on population.

- Creating checks and balances. A President can veto a measure passed by both houses. However, if both houses override the veto by super-majorities, the measure still becomes law. Presidents can only be ousted by the impeachment process.

A majority of House members can vote to impeach, which charges the executive with high crimes or misdemeanors. If it does, the Senate holds a trial and can only remove an official by a super-majority vote.

- Framers had to promise a Bill of Rights to get the Constitution ratified.

Those 10 amendments, adopted in 1791, guaranteed freedom of speech, assembly, peaceful protest and a free press; rights regarding owning firearms; rights protecting citizens from unreasonable search or seizure or of having to testify against themselves; due process in all criminal cases; speedy public trials; the right to trial by jury; a ban on excessive bail, fines or cruel and unusual punishment; and a limit on federal power except those Constitutionally allowed.

So its 231st birthday deserves a big party.

Dave:

made Riley’s character even remotely relatable.

Speaking of the editors, the editing in this movie was complete garbage.

Beyond not being able to follow any of the action because it was a jumble of quick cuts and close ups in dark rooms, the most maddening thing of all was the sheer amount of flashing cuts and transitions in this movie.

Every few seconds it was, flash, flash, transition. Flash, flash, transition. It was like the editing equivalent of nails on a chalkboard.

The best kind of editing is the kind you never notice because it makes the film flow, allowing the story to become that much more engaging.

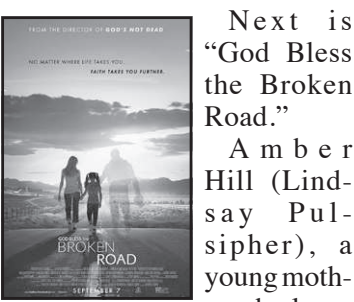

Instead, the editing in this movie is just plain obnoxious and it distracts from the story if anything.

As you might be able to tell, I wasn’t the biggest fan of this movie.

The characters are aggressively unlikeable, the story is an abysmally poor rip off of “Death Wish,” and it features some of the worst editing I’ve seen in recent memory.

If you want to see this concept done better, just go watch the 2018 version of “Death Wish” with Bruce Willis. That movie wasn’t great either, but at least it’s better than this dumpster fire.

“Peppermint” is rated R.

her husband in Afghanistan, struggles to raise her young daughter in his absence while also struggling with a loss of faith.

Sometimes I wonder how a film even gets released in theaters.

How does a movie this shoddy looking, this poorly produced get a wide release? It’s embarrassing.

This movie is even worse than most made for TV flicks.

Somehow it has a $7.7 million budget. I couldn’t even hazard a guess what they spent it on. The rights to the song it’s inspired by?

Certainly not the sets and location. The entire movie just takes place at a couple people’s houses, a church, an old fashioned diner, and a rundown auto shop.

I guess there is the one scene set in “Afghanistan,” which looks like nothing more than a dusty road in a slightly sandy area.

The costume design on the “Afghani” people doesn’t help the believability much. I think they just grabbed a few towels and bed sheets, wrapped them around a hodgepodge of darker skinned people, and called it good.

But enough about the fifth-rate production design. What about the story and the characters? The true heart of the film.

Frankly I don’t have a single positive to say about either.

The acting is shockingly abysmal all around. I don’t think they could have gotten worse performances if they tried.

It’s like they just gathered a bunch of people off the street, offered them each $100 for a week’s work, and the few who stuck around were all cast as the lead actors.

And the story is somehow even worse than the acting.

The entire film is just everyone badgering this poor widow, telling her she doesn’t have enough faith.

Of course the people constantly judging her are proven right. All she needed was faith and magically her problems went away without any explanation.

I don’t care what your beliefs are, that’s just bad storytelling.

It’s like if Star Wars was about a moppy Luke Skywalker who refused to use The Force all movie long. Then suddenly, in the last five minutes of the film, he has a change of heart, lets The Force flow through him and out of nowhere all his problems are solved.

It just doesn’t make for a satisfying narrative.

Beyond that, every single emotional moment in the film is the most manipulative, surface level nonsense you could think of.

It felt insulting to watch a movie made by filmmakers who have such a low opinion of their audience.

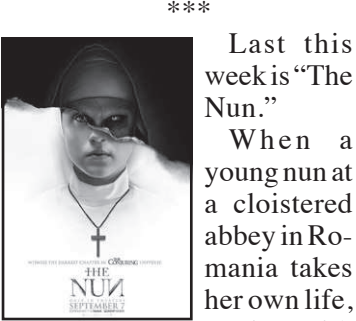

Christian moviegoers deserve better than this.

Even most Pure Flix theatrical releases don’t stoop to this level.

This movie feels like it was just released to ride the coat-tails of another far superior inspirational film based on a song, “I Can Only Imagine.”

I didn’t think it’d be possible for a film this year to be even worse than “The Hurricane Heist,” but somehow the filmmakers behind “God Bless the Broken Road” have managed to create something even more dreadful.

“God Bless the Broken Road” is rated PG.

a haunted past (Demián Bichir) and a novitate on the threshold of her final vows (Taissa Farmiga) are sent by the Vatican to investigate.

Together they uncover an unholy secret. Risking not only their lives, but their faith and their very souls as they confront a demonic force in the form of a nun.

It’s amazing to me that one of the most successful cinematic universes after Marvel is somehow this series of horror movies all spun off of “The Conjuring.”

This is the fifth film in what’s now known as The Conjuring Universe, with three more movies already in the pipeline.

“The Nun” is a prequel of sorts since the demonic nun featured in this film was a prominent force to overcome in “The Conjuring 2.”

In fact I’d say the nun from the second “Conjuring” film was one of the major highlights of the movie. It was certainly responsible for one of the film’s most unsettling scenes.

Because of that, I found myself actually looking forward to this film.

Just a little though. The only spin-offs from The Conjuring Universe so far have been “Annabelle” and its prequel.

Not exactly the best track record, though I did enjoy “Annabelle: Creation” much more than the first one.

So where does “The Nun” fall? Does it match highest highs for the series or is it another “Annabelle?”

Sadly, it seems like this is another mediocre addition to the series.

For starters, the story is kind of all over the place. It almost feels like they’re making it up as they go along.

Plus some of the foreshadowing for scary moments later on in the film are so blatant they practically knock you over the head with it.

All the gravestones have little bells on them so if someone is accidentally buried, the poor soul in the coffin can ring them to be rescued?

Hmm, I wonder if someone’s going to get buried alive eventually. It’s anyone’s guess really.

Beyond the story though, I at least thought the performances were pretty decent.

Both the priest and soon-to-be nun are really likeable and easy to root for. Which is nice because a lot of times horror protagonists can be unrepentant jerks.

There’s also a fair amount of decent practical effects, including more zombie nuns than you can shake a stick at.

In fact, if there’s one thing I can’t fault this movie for, it’s the production design. There’s nothing like a big studio throwing some cash behind a horror film. Definitely makes for some nice looking sets, that’s for sure.

Unfortunately, most of the scares didn’t amount to anything more than the dumb creepy jumpscare prank videos and games that used to be so popular online.

They show an ominous looking figure behind one of our main characters, wait until the poor person finally sees the entity, and then flash a creepy face on screen while making loud noises. Rinse and repeat.

All that’s not to say I didn’t enjoy watching this movie though. As a matter of fact, I had a great time.

My experience had less to do with the film itself though and more to do with the audience I saw it with.

I’ll tell you what, there’s nothing quite like watching a horror movie in a theater packed with a bunch of skittish teenagers on a Friday night.

I saw this film in absolutely the most perfect circumstances.

Everybody was jumpy, people were screaming and laughing, sometimes at the same time. It was a blast.

If you happened to be at the showing for “The Nun” last Friday at 11:30 PM in the Grand Auditorium at the Warren, thank you for such an entertaining experience.

Everyone in that theater transformed what was a miserable evening for me into a night I won’t soon forget.

So after all that, would I recommend this movie? It’s hard for me to say since it’d be impossible to recreate the amazing opening night experience I had.

I’d say if you’ve enjoyed the rest of the films in The Conjuring Universe, you’ll probably have fun with this one too.

Comparing cinematic universes, if “The Conjuring” is like the “Iron Man” equivalent of The Conjuring Universe, then “The Nun” ranks around “The Incredible Hulk.”

Not the best, but still entertaining enough.

“The Nun” is rated R.

Dale K. Graham Veteran's Foundation

Several organizations have services at our location each week. Legal Aid for veterans is available each Thursday morning. Counselors from the Vet Center will be available each Tuesday and Thursday morning to answer questions about their services.

During the last several weeks we have met veterans from many different states who have heard about what we have done for other veterans and surviving spouses of veterans. Thursday morning one of them from Washington State was telling me that while he was fishing up there, he met a veteran named Bernie who told him about how we had helped him with his VA claims.

Needless to say, he drove his old pickup all the way down to Norman to ask for help with his VA claims. As he only had enough money for gas, the truck served as his sleeping quarters also. His current VA disability ratings were high enough to be eligible to file for unemployability. After we finished filing his claim, we thanked him for his military service and wished him a safe trip back to Washington. I am glad we were able to help him and hope other volunteers will do what we do across the country, so people like Bernie don't have to come so far for help.

Our Veteran of the Week is Billy Chisum, a Korean War veteran who served our country as a member of the United States Air Force. Last Tuesday we presented him with a cap representing his service and introduced him to our audience.

As a 501(c)(3) non-profit we operate this foundation from the donations we receive from the people we help and from local grants from organizations who understand thousands of veterans and their families need our services. We do not charge for our services and have never done so. If a veteran wants to support what we do it is their choice to help or not to help their fellow veterans and their families.

Currently, 10 percent of the veterans we have assisted will give back to help make a difference in the lives of other veterans and their families. As we spend more than $25,000 each month providing direct support to veterans, your help is needed monthly for us to continue to be a viable organization. Many of you have been the recipient of assistance. Please think of the countless other veterans and their families who also need assistance with these types of needs. We have been trying to make a difference in the lives of the men and women who served this United States, and with your help, we will continue to do so.

If anyone ever tells you that there is a charge for what we do, please tell us who that person is as we would like to set them straight. People have been saying that for more than 20 years, and we are still looking for someone who has actually paid for our services. The fact is I, as well as many of our volunteers, have spent thousands of dollars from our own pockets to help veterans and their families.

I believe all organizations and volunteers who help veterans and their families should be working together to improve the lives of all men and women who have served in the military. I know there are hundreds of thousands of veterans in Oklahoma who are not receiving the VA benefits for which they are eligible. It seems to me we should all be trying to reach all of them before they are gone.

Our small organization can only take care of 15,000 or so of them each year. I would think it should be up to the Oklahoma Department of Veterans Affairs and other National Veterans Organizations to make sure all veterans receive their VA benefits.

There are more than 300 veterans and spouses who are currently being assisted each week. Those who arrive after we have reached the maximum number will be asked to return the following Tuesday or Thursday morning. Currently, we have helped veterans from all 77 counties in Oklahoma and 45 other states. If you need a ride to visit us, please contact one of our drivers. They can be reached at 550-8806, extension 105 and 106. Last week they spent 66 hours transporting 19 veterans 1,065 miles.

As an Accredited VA Claims Agent, I receive a copy of all correspondence that VA sends to the veterans and surviving spouses I represent. Each week there will be hundreds of pieces of mail that are reviewed by us and notification letters sent to those who need to know what their next step is in the VA claims process. Last week there were 31 decision letters awarding veterans a 100 percent rating for their service-connected disabilities. Those veterans will also be eligible for the Oklahoma State Tax Benefits. Their spouse and dependents may also be eligible for the Champ-VA Insurance if they are not retired military. Their dependents may also be eligible for the education benefits which can help them to afford a college education. This group of 31 veterans will receive a combined annual income of $1,210,156.20 per year.

There were also 38 veterans who received VA disability rating from 10-90 percent for their service-connected disabilities. This group will receive a combined annual payment of $577,321 per year. Those rated 60 percent and higher will also be eligible for Oklahoma State Fishing and Hunting licenses. They will also be eligible for two auto tags at a reduced rate.

Dale K. Graham Veterans Foundation has food sacks available to those in need. An application for this type of assistance will be available on Tuesday and Thursday mornings. A DD-214 or military discharge will be necessary to apply. Please contact 405-550-8806 Extension 103 to request a food sack.

If you need a ride to and from a VA Medical Appointment, please contact 405-550-8806 to reach Clayton at Extension 105 or Louie at Ext. 106.

We are available every Tuesday and Thursday morning at the 1268 North Interstate Drive Norman, OK 73072. We open the doors by 5:30 a.m. and we begin working as soon as volunteers have their computers ready. We stop taking clients as soon as we reach the quota for the day, and that time varies depending on the number of visitors and the number of available volunteers, which usually occurs around 7:00 a.m. Contact us with any questions by email dale@dalekgrahamveteransfoundation.org. For telephone assistance, please call 405-550-8806 to listen to our options. For general information dial extension 101, to schedule transportation dial extension 105 or 106. For help with Surviving Spouse Benefits, dial extension 104, or stop by any Tuesday or Thursday morning. Visit our website at dalekgrahamveteransfoundation.org. Semper Fi!

Vera Madden

Graveside Funeral Services for Vera Madden, 79, of Washington were held Wednesday, September 12, 2018 at the Washington Cemetery. Services were under the direction of the Wilson-Little Funeral Home in Purcell.

Mrs. Madden passed away Sunday, September 9, 2018, at Norman Regional Hospital.

Vera Faye Dover was born August 20, 1939 in Washington, the fourth of eight children born to Joseph and Pauline Elizabeth (Nelson) Dover. She was raised in Washington and attended Washington schools.

Vera married her best friend and the love of her life, Samuel Ezekiel Madden, on April 11, 1958. They first lived on the family farm near Washington and in Norman for a few years, before returning back home to Washington. Together they raised five children, sons, Roger and Chad, and daughters, Shelly, Holley and Stephanie.

Vera began working for Lucent Technologies, retiring as a Process Checker after more than 27 years of dedicated service. Her greatest joy however was her family. She enjoyed the everyday little moments in life and especially cherished her time with her grandchildren.

Vera was an avid baseball and softball fan. She loved OU Softball and followed her granddaughter at all of her games. Her favorite baseball team was the St. Louis Cardinals and she made many trips to see them play.

Vera was a crafty lady. She etched glass and mirrors and made pottery. She was a gifted quilter and enjoyed crocheting, and she shared her talents with her family and friends. Vera was a wonderful mother and grandmother, sister, aunt and a good friend. She will be dearly missed!

She was preceded in death by her husband, Samuel Ezekiel Madden; parents, Joseph and Pauline Dover; sister, Margie Yeary and brother, Robert Dover.

Vera leaves behind her sons, Roger Madden and wife, Barbara, of Washington and Chad Madden and wife, Stephanie, of Goldsby; three daughters, Shelly Mayo and husband, Greg, of Goldsby, Holly Moore and husband, David, of Washington and Stephanie Howard and husband, Mark, of Purcell; 11 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren and one more on the way; numerous nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews and many other relatives and friends.

Online condolences may be made at wilsonlittle.com.

Helen Jean (Jones) Floyd

Graveside services were held Tuesday, September 11, 2018 at the Norman IOOF Cemetery for Helen Jean (Jones) Floyd, a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother known as Mema, who passed away Wednesday, September 5, 2018 in Norman, Okla.

Helen Floyd lived by her faith and for her family. This was the foundation of her 79 wonderful years. She married her sweetheart, Rex Floyd, 59 years ago and it was a love that grew stronger each day. Helen and Rex started a life together determined to make their dreams come true.

She felt creating a family was her calling and followed that calling and passion. Helen and Rex felt blessed as their family grew from five kids to include 16 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. During this time, she and Rex created a life that was full of adventure, miracles, love, traditions, and growing faith.

In 1969, Helen and Rex co-founded Floyd's RVs. While their business grew into a thriving company, she continued to follow her passions. Her top priorities were faith, family and friends. She never stopped supporting, encouraging and loving her husband, whether it was in his career of running their RV business or living their personal life to the fullest. Rex may have been the face of the business, but she was the inspiration behind the business. The passion that they had for this industry influenced most of the memories we cherish of them today.

Rex and Helen would take their children camping throughout the United States in an RV. Then, as their children grew and made families of their own, they took the grandkids camping to experience the wonders life had to offer. It was a priority of theirs to make sure every single family member felt special. Their travels extended out of the United States into other parts of the world including China, Hong Kong, Australia, New Zealand, Haiti, Greece, all over Europe, Canada, Mexico, and so much more.

She went on adventures that many people would not have had the courage to try. Her courage was based on knowing that together, she and Rex would be fine because of their marriage rooted in Christ. Rex was her strength and she was also his, pushing each other constantly to be their best selves.

Many memories were created at her home on the farm. She enjoyed having family and friends over to enjoy a home she designed for entertainment and relaxing. Each day she would step out and find peace in watching her horses enjoy their freedom and Rex's cows graze. Her home was always open for her neighbors, who she lovingly referred to as dear friends.

Classy was a word that was frequently used to describe Helen. She was gracious in the way she treated others and enjoyed taking pride in her appearance. Through rain or shine, every Thursday, she would be at the salon getting her hair and nails done. Part of her motivation was to look nice and part was to spend time with her hairdresser, Shawn, who became one of her closest friends. Wherever she was and who ever she was with, Helen created that feeling of family, of unconditional love, and of kindness. You could not help but walk away feeling the sincerity of her interest in your well-being and happiness. She created a life of acceptance within her family and others'.

Helen's church was her second family. She made countless friends through the years as a member at First Baptist Church in Norman. Helen had a powerful bond with the members within her Sunday School class, Primetimers. Growing together in the Word of God, she counted on their support and laughter during the good times and tough. Her faith in God was her foundation for everything: when she needed strength and understanding, she turned to God; when she basked in the warmth of God's blessing, she praised Him. It was a family tradition to always hold hands and pray together at family gatherings.

To see her, you would see a petite woman, but sports would bring out the competitive side that any athlete would be proud of. She was a star basketball player in high school and was also a strong contender in ping pong tournaments at family events. Following OU football and basketball and the Thunder was one of her passions. She would talk about and watch the games with her children, grandchildren and of course, anyone else who wanted to join her. Humor was always part of her conversations. Many times, she would catch you off guard with some of her puns. You could not help but to just stand there in disbelief and laugh in response.

Helen's proudest achievements were her ongoing faith in Christ, being the wife to the man she loved for over 59 years, the mother to the children she adored, the mema to the grandchildren and great-grandchildren that brightened her day, and friend to the people that touched her life. To know her was to love her and to know her was to be loved by her.

Helen was born February 20, 1939 in Newalla, Okla., to Claud H. Jones and Ethel Ellen Jones.

She is survived by daughters, Debbie Spearing of Norman and Carol Behrens and husband, Doug, of Granbury, Texas; sons, Michael Floyd of Colorado, Kenneth Floyd and wife, Valerie, of Yukon, and Robert Floyd and wife, Tina, of Newcastle; sister, Juanita Ratliff of Norman; brothers and sisters-in-law, Glenn Floyd and wife, Judy, of Norman, Dr. Koy Floyd and wife, Kay, of Norman, and Carolyn Taylor of Hot Springs, Ark.; 16 grandchildren, Jeremy Spearing, Allen Spearing and wife, Krystle, Stormi Wester and husband, Jeremy, Nathan Behrens, Rachel Behrens, Trent Stout, Cale Stout and wife, Jillian, Ashlee Floyd, Bryce Floyd, Jeffrey Shaw, Madison Floyd, Megan Floyd and Allyson Shaw; seven great-grandchildren, Emma, Kolbie, Hetti Rose (Bean), Boone, Noah, Lucas, and Kace.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 58 years, Rex Floyd; one unborn child; three brothers, Paul Jones and wife, Artie, Wyman Jones and wife, Weeta, and Charlie Jones.

Memorial contributions may be made in Helen's name to First Baptist Church of Norman at 211 W Comanche St., Norman, OK 73069.

Helen and her family were placed in the care of Tribute Memorial Care of Norman. Online condolences may be shared at www.tribute.care.

USDA assistance to pecan growers

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) today announced that additional assistance has been made available for pecan growers to replant and replace trees through the Tree Assistance Program (TAP) as they recover from the impacts of 2017 weather events, which was made available by the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2018.

“Pecan orchards were hard hit in by storms in 2017. I saw first-hand the damage inflicted on communities, resources and the land.” said USDA Farm Production and Conservation Under Secretary Bill Northey. “These funds will help the industry recover and replace lost and damaged trees.”

Funding will be provided through the TAP, a program administered by the Farm Service Agency (FSA). Up to $15 million is available to eligible pecan orchardists or pecan nursery tree growers for certain mortality losses incurred during 2017. To be eligible, the grower must have suffered a mortality loss on a stand in excess of 7.5 percent, but less than 15 percent, adjusted for normal mortality.

In addition to TAP, growers and orchardists may be eligible for other 2014 Farm Bill programs. For example, pecan orchardists and nursery tree growers who suffered greater than a 15 percent mortality loss remain eligible under the regular TAP provisions. Under Secretary Northey urged those who may be eligible to work with their local state or county FSA office.

To qualify for a TAP payment for pecan tree losses, orchardists and nursery tree growers must have:

Red Cross urges everyone to get ready for disasters

September is National Preparedness Month, the perfect time to get your household ready for an emergency. The American Red Cross urges everyone to make sure they are prepared for a disaster and not wait until an emergency occurs and it’s too late.

“This is the time of year when hurricanes, floods, wild-fires and other large disasters can happen,” said Brittney Rochell, Chief Communications Officer for the American Red Cross serving Oklahoma. “You should take steps now to be ready if an emergency occurs. It’s critical that all members of your household know what to do.”

Be Ready to Evacuate. Whether the emergency is a home fire or something bigger like a hurricane, the situation may force you to leave your home. There are 10 steps you can take now to be prepared if the emergency makes it unsafe to remain at home:

- Follow the instructions of officials and evacuate if told to do so.
- Leave early enough to avoid being trapped by severe weather.
- Remember you may have to get out on foot depending on the type of disaster. If you don’t have a car, or can’t use your vehicle, plan on how you will leave the area.
- If you have a car, keep the gas tank full if an evacuation order is possible. Don’t let the tank go below half full in case gas stations are unable to pump gas.

• Decide where you would go and what route you would take to get there. This could be a motel, the home of a friend or relative a safe distance away, or an evacuation shelter. Download the free Red Cross Emergency App to find shelter information and weather and emergency alerts for more than 35 different situations.

• If you have time, let someone out of the region know you are evacuating and where you are going. Leave a note saying when you left and where you plan to go.

• Wear sturdy shoes and clothing that provides some protection.

• Be alert for road hazards such as downed trees, flooding, etc. Do not drive onto a flooded road.

• Practice evacuating your home twice a year. Grab your emergency kit and drive your planned evacuation route. Include an alternate route in a different direction in case one is impassible. Make sure you have locations and maps saved on devices such as cell phones and GPS units and on paper.

• Don’t forget your pets. If it’s not safe for you to stay home, it’s not safe for them either. Prepare a phone list of pet-friendly motels and animal shelters located along your evacuation route. Keep in mind only service animals are usually allowed in shelters

Getting prepared is easier than it sounds. There are three basic steps:

Get a Kit. Pack the following items in an easy-to-carry container – a gallon of water per person, per day; non-perishable food; flashlight and hand-crank or battery-powered radio; extra batteries; sanitation and personal hygiene items; copies of important papers; extra cash and any medical or baby supplies family members may need.

Make a Plan. Have all members of your household help devise your emergency plan. Consider what emergencies could happen where you live; what to do if you are separated and how will you let loved ones know you are safe.

Be Informed. Learn what disasters are common to your area. Find out how local authorities will let you know an emergency is happening. Make sure at least one household member is trained in first aid and CPR in case help is delayed during a disaster.

You can also download the Red Cross First Aid App at redcross.org/apps to have instant access on how to handle common first aid emergencies.

“I have great feedback from the other schools that visited here,” he said. “It is always good to talk to other teachers and personnel from other districts to share ideas on what’s working. The other superintendents I have talked to have confirmed their interest to get together again in the future.”

Midkiff also noted that sports are “off and running” across the district.

“The softball team is trying to get in the district games around all the rain and weather we have had,” he said. “Football has had a good start and we travel to Lexington this week for Pink Out. Pre-sale tickets for this game will be available at the high school for $5 and $3. The band is out there working each morning. Cross country is in full swing as well.”

Midkiff reminded the board that parent-teacher conferences will be September 24 and 25.

In a construction update, the board learned one day of “significant” rainfall requires three days to get the construction site ready.

Preliminary dirt work has already begun for the new junior high school. The immediate goal is to put the entrance road in and get it paved and a construction fence will be erected this week.

“In 30 days, we hope to get a lot of dirt work done at the junior high site,” said Tyler Graves with Goldsby Construction. “We would really like to get all the slabs in by January.”

In other business, the board:

- approved a policy and administrative regulations governing the use of district credit cards, and

- approved hiring Kenzie Cunnius as a part-time adjunct teacher of sixth grade reading.

Warriors' defense pretty stingy in 31-0 rout of Purcell

After eight quarters of football this season, Washington hasn't given up a single point.

After shutting Hobart out in the season opener, the Warriors backed that up with a 31-0 victory at Conger Field over the Purcell Dragons last Friday night.

Coach Brad Beller said Washington's offensive line completely dominated the game with all scoring drives over 10 plays each.

The Warriors used a ball hogging offense that provided some defense of its own.

"The weather conditions made us have to play to our strength and that was our front line," Beller said.

"I've been on the other end of that when the other team keeps the ball away from you. It's frustrating," he said.

"Our offensive line did a great job of controlling the pace of the game and the entire game with momentum," Beller said.

That forward wall consists of tight end John Routt, tackles Logan Lile and Justin McKay, guards Conner Bruce and Justin Simmons and center Tyler Beller.

Dragons travel to Lex for 7 p.m. kickoff

Purcell's Dragons will be trying to right the ship Friday when they travel to Lexington for a 7 p.m. kickoff against the Bulldogs of Lexington.

Both teams are 1-1 with Lexington coming off a 44-8 victory over Dibble. Purcell has been practicing this week picking up the pieces from a 31-0 loss to Washington.

Lexington is led by senior quarterback Toby Prevost and senior running back Andre Ibarra, according to Purcell Head Coach Tracy Scott.

"They have good size and play well in the line," Scott said.

"They operate mainly with a one back set with trips," Scott continued. "But they have moved to a three back set at times."

The Lexington Bulldogs are looking like a possible contender in Class 2A after last Friday night's solid 44-8 victory over the Class A Dibble Demons at the 'Dawgs home field.

After last week's 44-8 defeat to Anadarko, Lexington reversed the score on Dibble.

After a steady sprinkling of rain all week long, the field was wet and soggy.

That dictated much of the flow of the game—especially in the first half.

Lexington went into the locker room only up 8-0 at the break.

Mason Hamm caught a 20-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Toby Prevost with 10:24 left in the first quarter.

Rain sacks PHS softball

Back on diamond, Purcell splits Holdenville double header

John D. Montgomery
The Purcell Register

Mother Nature was the big winner on the softball field last week with Purcell washed out of every game on the schedule.

District games at Lindsay and at home with Bridge Creek were both rained out.

Purcell will try to pick up the pace to get their district games in.

A regularly scheduled match up at Marlow loomed Tuesday. Friday the Dragons will host Little Axe for a double header and travel to Comanche on Monday. All of those games are district games.

Instead of traveling to Sulphur September 20, Purcell will go to Lindsay for a make-up district contest.

When the Dragons got back in action Monday at home hosting Holdenville for a pair of key district games, it was a mixed bag.

The Dragons won the first game 6-1 but dropped the nightcap, 10-9 putting them in third place in the district standings. The top four finishers in the district advance to Regionals.

“We started slow in the first game,” head coach Sarah Jones said. “You could tell we hadn’t seen live pitching in 10 days due to the rain.”

Purcell got some traction in the bottom of the fourth when Chelsea Spain spanked a lead off double.

Hannah Buchanan reached first base on an error that scored Spain.

In the bottom of the fifth, Purcell scored another run stretching their lead to 2-zip.

Brook Fleming smacked a line drive for a single. Kinley Croslin pinch ran for Fleming and was moved to second and eventually to third.

Jones said that’s when Khia Tyler grounded out to second but she picked up an RBI.

Holdenville cut the lead in half in the top of the sixth but the Dragons busted the game wide open in their half of the sixth pushing across four runs. “We finally got the bats rolling in the sixth,” Jones said.

With the bases juiced Sandra Del Toro singled to score Buchanan. Tyler laid down a perfect bunt for a single to score Croslin, who was pinch running for Fleming.

Katelyn Carwile closed out the scoring by stealing home on a passed ball.

Purcell out-hit Holdenville 12-7 in that game.

In the second game, the Dragons out-hit the Lady Wolverines 17-10.

“Our hitting carried over but we got a little too comfortable and let them tie it up at 5-5 in the bottom of the second,” Jones said.

“Any time you get 17 hits there is zero reason to lose. Sometimes we just don’t play the full seven innings,” she said.

That loss to Holdenville put more pressure on the Dragons on their road trip to first place Marlow Tuesday.

“Fleming and Tyler did their job (in the circle),” Jones said with Carwile nursing a sore arm. “They got us ground balls and pop ups. They are doing the best they can.”

Purcell was 14-5 and 5-1 (district) heading into the game at Marlow on Tuesday.

Still battling hard

Lexington fighting through injuries

Todd Newville
The Purcell Register

The Lexington fast-pitch softball team won an important District game on Monday.

The ‘Dawgs beat the Prague Red Devils, 6-4, and showed how they are still competing hard despite injuries to key players.

“We are still not playing our best ball right now,” said Lexington head coach Kayla Stewart. “I’m hoping we can figure it out for later in the season when it matters the most.”

running downs but will move to a three man front if they get you in long yardage situations.

“We will have to execute on offense and play well on defense,” Scott said. “We played pretty well on defense last week. We just need to work on our technique and our reads and continue to improve.”

Against Washington, Purcell had difficulty moving the ball.

The Dragons found themselves on defense for what seemed like most of the night.

“We just couldn’t get off the field on third down,” Scott said. “We didn’t give up a lot of big plays. We made them earn everything they got. They are a talented team with good team speed. They’ve got good skill kids.

“But I’m proud of our kids for not giving up,” Scott said. “That’s a big plus to take away from the game.”

Scott noted the play of junior Brendan Farris on defense.

“He played well as did Malachi Parrish,” Scott said.

Farris led the Dragons with 15 tackles while Parrish finished with six stops.

Seniors Gunner Fink and Jalyn Shea both drew praise from the head coach for their play on the defensive side of the ball.

Fink finished with 13 tackles and Shea made eight tackles.

ear, sophomore Sam Wofford stepped in and played well, the coach said.

Dragon notes:

Purcell Head Coach Tracy Scott nominated Brendan Farris as the Defensive Player of the Week.

Farris had 15 tackles against Washington.

Scott nominated Victor

Trejo as the Offensive Lineman of the Week.

Trejo graded out at 75 percent against the Warriors. Getting the nod as the Defensive Lineman of the Week was Malachi Parrish.

Parrish made six tackles last Friday night.

There was no nomination for Offensive Player of the Week.

The Wayne Bulldogs host the Bulldogs of Stratford Friday night at 7 p.m.

Homecoming festivities begin at 6:30 p.m.

Wayne is coming off a bye week after beginning their season with a week zero game.

“We had a good week of practice while getting healed up,” head coach Brandon Sharp said.

“We took advantage of the week to iron some things out.”

Wayne narrowly defeated Stratford last year, 20-19.

Sharp and Stratford head coach Michael Blackburn are no strangers and the Wayne skipper has said he does a good job with his program.

Stratford’s running back, Gus Smith, will be a handful for Wayne Friday night.

“They will feed him probably 30 times,” Sharp said.

According to Sharp, Stratford will line up in the power-I and run right at his team.

“They’ll use (Smith), who is an explosive back and grind it out,” he said.

“He’ll be the best we’ve seen so far and maybe the best of the year we’ll see.”

Stratford has other offensive options as well, including Luke Miller and Kelston Woodell in the backfield, along with quarterback Payton Wood.

“Their running backs are all back and experienced,” Sharp said.

“They’re also big and physical up front. They are 2-0 this season and playing well.”

“They have really physical linebackers.”
After the bye week, Wayne is mostly healthy, Sharp con-its runs in the bottom of the second inning.

Third baseman Emilee Jenks went 2-for-3 with a triple and three runs batted in against the Red Devils.
Maddy Pack hit a solo home run in the contest for the ‘Dawgs.
Shortstop Lauren Beason had a hit as did Hannah Robbins. Kaylee Fink (the starting pitcher) contributed two hits to the Lexington attack.

Fink was effective within the circle as she scattered nine hits and allowed two walks while striking out six Prague hitters.
Lexington might be hurting at the moment but the ‘Dawgs are still in good shape in the District 3A-3 standings.
Through Tuesday, the Washington Warriors were in first in the District with a 19-4 overall record and a district record of 8-0. Prague was next at 17-7 overall and 5-2 in district play.

Lexington is now 7-9 overall and 3-2 in district play. They will play again at 5 p.m. today (Thursday) against district opponent Meeker before playing at Washington at 5:30 p.m. on Monday.

By Fr. Jim Chamberlain

When the Israelites would gather around the campfire in the desert, one of the stories they would tell is of the good man named Job. Job was holy and faithful.

He worked hard, cared for his wife and children, and loved God with his whole heart and soul. He had seven sons and three daughters, and he would rise early each morning just to pray for them.

Then, one by one, everything was taken away from him. Lightning struck and killed his herds of sheep. A tornado blew down the house where his children were sharing a meal, and they were all killed. Job himself was struck with a skin disease – we might call it shingles – head to toe, from which he suffered day and night.

Job had very good reason to ask “Why, God?” just as we do today. Why does one child get cancer and the other one does not? Why does one child die in an accident and another one survive? Why did God create a world of such randomness and disorder, that at any time and any place any one of us could be called home – simply by an accident of fate, as random as a lightning strike? Why do we have to die at all, we might ask this God, King of the Universe?

These are of course the questions that Job asked. In the end, the story of Job is about conversion. Because, in the end, Job finally came around to asking a very different question. Instead of asking, “Why do the innocent suffer, God?” he began to ask “Where are you in the suffering of the innocent?” “Where do I find You, in Whom I choose to believe?”

This answer would finally come in the person of Jesus. Jesus is the one who would weep at the death of his friend, Lazarus. Jesus is the one who would raise to life the little girl who had died too young. He would invite the parents and the friends and all those grieving into the room by her bedside. And he would take the little girl by the hand and say “Talitha koum” which means “Little girl, arise!” God is the One who desires life and companionship and love for one another in times of suffering.

Jesus is the one who would finally carry his own cross – like Job – an innocent man who had to suffer for no earthly good reason. People often forget that the book of Job ends happily!

Because of his faithfulness, Job is given twice as much as he had before – now he has 14,000 sheep and goats and oxen. And he has 7 new sons and 3 new daughters – his poor wife!

But, in the end, the story is not about Job’s blessings, or non-blessings, at all. It is about his conversion. It is about his ability to “carry his cross” in faithfulness – to continue to express his anger at God while God slowly transforms his heart into one that really trusts, that trusts in the face of tragedy, not just in times of good blessings.

In all the randomness of the world, there is a God who still stands with us, to comfort us, to console us, to transform us.

Sunray Baptist Church

We began our 11th year of feeding Purcell High School band students before their home games this past Friday afternoon. Our fellowship hall was filled with young people enjoying baked potatoes, salad and homemade desserts prepared by the ladies of our church. Our prayers and thoughts are with the band as they perform and compete this school year.

Our annual Grandparents Day service featured special music by our young people and a lunch prepared and served by our youth following morning worship.

Brother Dennis used Proverbs 22:1-6 for his sermon and said the book deals with relationships we have with each other and gives good instruction on how to raise our children.

We should strive to have a “good name” recognized by God for our character and integrity. We should have the same desire for our children and grandchildren and want them blessed by God.

We should work hard and make wise decisions regarding danger. We should live a life honoring to God. We should train a child in the way they should go, giving them a Biblical foundation, telling them about God and setting proper parameters. Our goal is to have a good name before God.

Our Wednesday night Bible study continues over the Book of Ezekiel. We will be beginning the study of Chapter 37 and “the vision of the valley of dry bones.” Please join us at 6:30 p.m. for this interesting study of God’s Word.

Our senior adults will travel to Blanchard and enjoy a meal at KT’s Smokehouse at 4 p.m., Thursday, September 20. We sing at Sunset Estates Nursing Home at 10 a.m. Friday, September 21. We will be feeding the PHS band before their home game against Plainview that day at 4:30 p.m.

You are always welcome at Sunray Baptist Church. We are a small traditional church with a lot of friendly people. Join us at 2223 North 9th Street in Purcell. For more information call 527-6808.

Lexington Westside Church of Christ

Good week to all. Welcome to the “front porch.”

We have been traveling with the Israelites toward Canaan for the last few visits. The twelve spies Moses has sent over to the Promised Land are just now returning from their scouting journey; and the camp is buzzing as if it is the morning of the Red River Rivalry at the Cotton Bowl. The spies bring back luscious fruit from the land to showcase the glory over there, saying, “We went to the land where you sent us. It truly flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit” (Numbers 13:27).

The excitement is at a fever pitch at this moment – probably at a higher point than it would be for the next four decades. In fact, I doubt that the adults who are in the camp of Israel at that time would ever see such enthusiasm again; for, as you may remember, because of their lack of faith they all die in the wilderness. They die, their hopes and dreams unfulfilled. Not one soul over the age of 20 ever put even a toe over into the Promised Land. They are capsized, defeated, done-in by doubt and disbelief. They are all buried somewhere in a desert land. I’d say it was a desert-land of unbelief. It was a desert where faith could hardly grow, and God has to bury all that faithlessness on the outskirts of Canaan.

Things did not need to turn out that way. God had raised up two other great men to succeed Moses, two great leaders who would guide them by faith right over to the Promised Land, no questions asked. You likely will recognize one of those great men as an Israelite named Caleb.

One thing I’ve noticed in studying God’s Word is that God always raises up a great man to meet the greatest of needs. He raised up Elijah – who comes onto the scene in the days of wicked king Ahab almost as if he fell out of the sky (1 Kings 17:1) – to be a light in one of the darkest hours of Israel’s history. The same can be said of Enoch, Noah, Gideon, Nehemiah and many other great men of God.

Surely God chooses Caleb for “such a time as this,” as well. The people of God had hinged on disobedience and discontent for the entire journey, from the edge of the Red Sea until the time God commands Moses to choose 12 men to go and spy out the Promised Land (Numbers 13).

But this journey by these twelve men must have calmed the people’s inner fears. Can you imagine their excitement as these twelve hand-picked men gather their scant provisions together to take their journey? It rivaled that excitement 40 days later when the twelve men come home with samples of unbelievable fruit as evidence of God’s promise.

They leave with a hero’s send-off and go over to Canaan confidently. There is hope in Israel. But we are about to learn a great deal about faith – or a lack thereof – when they do. Stay tuned.

Notification to Parents

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) afford parents and eligible students certain rights with respect to their education records. When a student reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level these rights are transferred to the student. (An "eligible student" under FERPA is a student who is 18 years of age or older or who attends a postsecondary institution.) These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days after the day Mid-America Technology Center receives a request for access. A parent or eligible student should submit to the Assistant Superintendent, Tony Hancock a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The school official will make arrangements for access and notify the parent or eligible student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the school official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the parent or eligible student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the parent or eligible student believes is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA. A parent or eligible student who wishes to ask the school to amend a record should write the school official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why it should be changed. If the school decides not to amend the record as requested, the school will notify the parent or eligible student in writing of the decision and the student's right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment.
