a must-have summer checklist

The summer season freely gives us warm weather, a push towards adventure, and that restless call to pack it up and hit the road.

July is the month to check off as many things as you can on your family's summer bucket list. Whatever you and your loved ones are longing for, we have got you covered with things to do in our Sullivan Catskills. So, mark your calendar, reserve a room, and escape for the weekend – we are waiting for you.

Summer in our picturesque mountains offers plenty of opportunities for hiking, climbing, mountain biking, and horseback riding, and the area's many lakes and rivers provide swimming and boating recreation. Our Sullivan Catskills is also the fly-fishing capital of the world, boasting plenty of trout, bass, pickerel, pike, perch, and yellow crappie.

Want extreme adventure? Our Sullivan Catskills is known worldwide by champion cyclists for our adventurous road and mountain bike trails. We invite you to rent or bring your bike and test your stamina! Or undertake the longest zip line in the US while soaring with our bald eagles along our National Park River. Our spectacular outdoor trails are where you can immerse yourself in a great adventure. Whether you hike one of our scenic trails, horseback ride through our mountains, or kayak and white-water raft on our pristine waters, we guarantee you will feel exhilarated and inspired to explore more.

The benefits of enjoying the outdoors are endless. The joy of exploration brings families together, improves mental and physical health, and brings you peace and tranquility.

For those desiring to enjoy a unique and satisfying Sullivan Catskills sensory experience, let us quench your thirst with our Good Taste Craft Beverage Trail, featuring local beer, cider, wine, spirits, and plenty of Catskills Confidence.

The Sullivan Catskills Visitors Association is here to guide you to exciting new experiences. We are only 90 minutes from NYC and close to four international airports making access to our majestic mountains quick and easy.

Pack your bags and take a drive; good times and adventure await at our beautiful Sullivan Catskills!

callicoon country fair

A tradition for over 30 years, the Callicoon Country Fair will be a town-wide event, taking place on Upper and Lower Main Streets on Saturday, July 24 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Musical performances will be intermingled with over 60 vendors from throughout the region. Local farms, artisans and craftsmen will be selling their wares.

This year the fair falls on National Cowboy Day, so remember to wear your cowboy hat and boots!

Come down to Callicoon, NY, on the banks of the Delaware River and find out why the charming Catskill town is listed on the national register of historic places.

Enjoy one of the 16 eateries, including a distillery, brewery, and the newly opened cidery. Historic buildings house vintage shops, boutiques, gourmet takeaways, jewelry makers and more.

Callicoon has plenty to offer and will keep you coming back, centrally located on the Upper Delaware Scenic Byway, just 20 miles from Honesdale and even less to Bethel Woods Center for the Arts.

The Callicoon Country Fair is organized by the Callicoon Business Association, a local organization dedicated to the success and growth of its local businesses.

Callicoon Business Association diligently works to enhance Callicoon's standing in Sullivan County, the region and New York State, by focusing on its people, natural beauty and attractions.

The day starts off at 10 am with the return of “River Dogs on Parade” and is followed by the Riverfest Poster Auction, the centerpiece of the day’s events, at 1 pm on the main stage.

This year’s Riverfest will feature over 40 artists booths, information booths, a kids’ activity tent, and food court. Artisan booths include handcrafts in wood, ceramics, textiles, jewelry, and stone, and fine art mediums of photography, sculpture, and painting.

Live performances will fill the Main Stage and Main Street throughout the day. In the morning, families are invited for a special show by the duo “Nate and Hila” from 11 am - 12 pm. Following the Poster Auction, audiences will be invited to get their groove on with live music between 2 pm and 4 pm. And as always be on the lookout for stilt walkers!

No Riverfest is complete without grabbing a bite and a drink! Visitors will be able to enjoy a range of delicacies and inventive treats at the food court near the former Wayne Bank building. Plus Narrowsburg’s spectacular eateries will be open for business throughout the day.

music from the American Songbook on Saturday, August 7 at the Arnold House Barn & Greenhouse.

Tuesday, August 10 sees a return to the climate-controlled, fully accessible Sunset Concert Pavilion for the season's first "Evening of Chamber Music," presenting Sergey Antonov (cello) and Ilya Kazantsev (piano) to perform music from Popper, Richard Strauss, Rachmaninoff and Karl Davidov.

The music of Haydn, Schubert and Tailleferre, can be enjoyed on Thursday, August 12, when "An Evening of Chamber Music" features the popular, award-winning Ulysses String Quartet.

The Neave Trio will perform music from Ravel, Rachmaninoff and Brahms on Saturday, August 14 for the next "Evening of Chamber Music," and pianist Steven Lin will perform "An Evening of Piano Masterworks" on Tuesday, August 17, presenting the music of Scarlatti, Chopin, Beethoven, Debussy and Liszt.

Jazz and classical fans will especially enjoy the performance on Thursday, August 19 when the Mike Fahie Jazz Orchestra performs selections from Chopin, Debussy, Bartok, Bach, Tchaikovsky and others. All selections "re-imagined" and orchestrated by Mr. Fahie himself.

The final performance of the Sunset Concert Series on Saturday, August 21, will see The Alethia Piano Trio present "An Evening of Chamber Music," with works by Beethoven, Schumann and Dvorák.

The SMF is committed to the health and safety of its guests, artists and staff. During the 2021 season, the Sunset Concert Pavilion will be completely sanitized before and after every concert; SMF Face Masks will be available for purchase at the Box Office; and family and friends will be seated together, while other reservations will be seated at a distance.

Additionally, the SMF is thrilled to announce that for the first time in its history, simultaneous virtual concerts will be offered.

story and photos by Isabel Braverman

Step into a world where luxury meets nature when you find yourself at The Eldred Preserve.

This brand new resort features lodging, an on-site restaurant and an event center as well as sprawling grounds boasting walking trails, multiple ponds and a lake.

Located in Eldred, NY the property weaves together three Sullivan County legacy brands—The Eldred Preserve, The Bradstan Country Hotel and The Old Homestead Restaurant—to create an old-meets-new hospitality experience.

The hotel includes standard rooms, junior suites, signature suites and private cabins.

All accommodations are uniquely designed and decorated, so guests can have a different experience every time they visit.

Walking into the lobby you are greeted with large windows to take in the views and comfortable seating areas replete with a cozy fireplace.

“The idea was to bring the outside inside, which is why we have these windows facing over the ponds and into the trees on the mountain,” remarked Scott Samuelson, Chief Operating Officer.

Check-in and relax in the comforts of first-class linens and monogrammed bathrobes before exploring the property or grabbing a bite to eat.

A complimentary European-style continental breakfast is provided each morning with hot casseroles such as a baked cheese omelet, various quiches, and a country stuffed French toast, fruit, home baked goods and more.

“Nobody goes hungry,” Samuelson said. “And there’s gluten free, vegetarian, and we can pretty much cover anything else.”

The restaurant offers a truly divine dining experience with floor-to-ceiling windows, decadent chandeliers and food that will make your mouth water.

Posited as a modern steakhouse with farm-to-table fare, the menu includes a variety of options.

Prime-aged beef complements the side selections of baked potato, asparagus, creamed spinach, mushrooms and onions, or steak fries.

There are many fish and seafood dishes to choose from, such as seared tuna steak with wasabi lime butter or pecan-crusted local trout topped with a five-spice compound butter.

The rotating menu of salads, mains and pastas includes a grilled watermelon salad, sliced duck with raspberry sauce or a far-falle pasta with pesto and tomatoes.

There is really something for everyone and the dining menu is accompanied by a drinks menu with specialty cocktails, wines from around the world and a full-service bar in the lounge.

In addition, there is outdoor dining, a private dining room and a wine cellar with wine tastings available.

And if you want to get outdoors, there are ample opportunities to do so. A two-mile trail leads you to Sunrise Lake where you can paddle in a rowboat, kayak, or paddleboat and enjoy the view of surrounding forest.

Venture out to explore the 600-acre property while bird watching or hiking and then relax at the pool and hot tub (opening in August). For the fitness enthusiasts there is a gym and outdoor exercise equipment.

You'll end up wanting to stay at The Eldred Preserve for a lengthy time to really take it all in and enjoy the beauty and tranquility of nature.

FORTHRIGHT

Japheth Fitzpatrick is co-owner of Forthright Cyder & Mead in Youngsville, NY, which offers a unique blend of hard cider and honey wine.

the right stuff

by Isabel Braverman

Forthright Cyder & Mead, a new nanocidery located right in Youngsville, offers a unique specialty drink: cyser. It is a hybrid of hard cider and mead (honey wine) that produces a delicious apple-forward drink.

Their signature blend is the Bossfight, which is a semi-sweet variety with apples and honey. They always have a few options on tap, including seasonal specialties, so you can stop by for a glass or take a bottle to go.

Owners Michelle Eaton and Japheth Fitzpatrick opened up last summer after being stalled due to the pandemic.

"We got through the autumn and the winter and we got a lot of local support and also from some of the weekenders that came, so they kept us going," said Japheth. "And now every weekend is getting busier."

They have a New York State farm license meaning everything they offer uses New York-based ingredients.

For instance, maple syrup from Tree Juice in Arkville and honey from Phoenicia Honey Co. adds sweetness to the cyser.

"Our cyders are accessible to lots of different people, if you're a beer drinker or wine drinker,” Japheth said. “Our stuff runs from sweet to dry and in between, so there’s really something for everybody.”

They also will soon offer New York-based beer and wine and cocktails made with New York spirits as well as snacks and light food.

“We bring all the ingredients here... and ferment them into the alcohol, which is very similar to wine making,” Japheth said.

Walk into the tasting room and you are immersed in art deco design and blue walls—an homage to the color of New York State.

A New York State flag hangs on the wall and there is seating available at the bar and in a space next to it where you can play games or watch movies projected on the wall.

There is also outdoor seating and a yard with a fire pit so you can enjoy cyser all summer long.

Eaton and Japheth were living in New York City, she working in marketing and he in the restaurant industry.

Japheth began home brewing cider in their apartment in Queens and began entering competitions and winning.

With family ties to Sullivan County, they moved up here and live next to the cidery.

“It seemed like a great place to give this a try,” Japheth said.

SULLIVAN CATSKILLS

Always Catskill-icious.

From five course tasting menus to roadside barbeque our food is as inventive and original as the chefs who create it. Enjoy a meal from a James Beard Award Winner, a Norwegian Escoffier-trained chef, or a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America.

Pair your food with the beer, cider, wines, and spirits from our makers. There are over a dozen including an award-winning publisher turned beekeeper, a military vet, and two husband and wife duos whose entrepreneurial spirit turned their love for the Sullivan Catskills into breweries.

*Come hungry,
and quench your thirst!*
