Locally made is always a great gift

The past two years have certainly changed many of our habits and everyday activities as we stand tall against COVID-19.

Within the past two months, there has been nearly nightly reports about the United States' "broken supply chain" which is not only causing months-long delays of receiving ordered goods but also many empty shelves at some of our favorite stores.

But as we look around Sullivan and Wayne County this Holiday Season, we urge our residents and visitors to look at your gifts as a true investment in our local economy.

We all like to see the kinds of vibrant Main Streets we are experiencing across Sullivan County and Wayne County, PA – and this can only continue with your continued support.

We are frequent shoppers at dozens of shops and restaurants throughout this region and we are truly amazed at the wide selection these stores still maintain – despite what is happening elsewhere.

One – and we say one – of the reasons may be that many of our boutique stores actually go out and solicit their merchandise from local craftsmen and attend regional trade shows that feature American made goods.

So not only are you helping keep local businesses strong by shopping at our Main Streets, you are actually supporting a local tradesman, who is working hard to make a living.

That is a double win.

We are thrilled to see Sullivan County still enjoying busy weekends throughout the fall and into the colder days of November.

This is good news for everyone as visitors and year-round residents alike are doing their best to stay safe and enjoy some time out of the house at the same time.

There truly is a lot of hidden treasures in the foothills of the Catskills and Poconos, and we urge you to spend some time in Roscoe, Wurtsboro, Jeffersonville, Manor, Callicoon, Hancock, Liberty, Monticello or the host of other hamlets that dot our landscape.

And across the Delaware River in Pennsylvania, you will find fun in Equinunk, Hawley, Honesdale and Bethany, to name but a few communities.

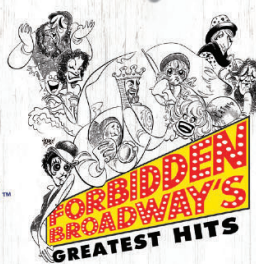

We have featured many "locally-made gifts" in this, our Gift Guide No. 1 of the Holiday Season.

Enjoy the read then get in your car and spend a weekend exploring our area.

We all need to support one another to get through this challenging time.

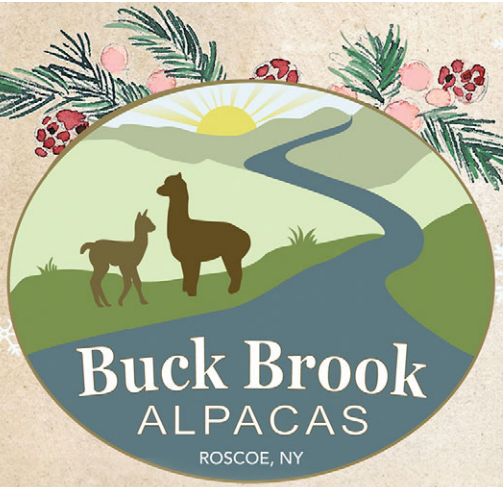

Happy Holidays!

New Hope Community joins the #GivingTuesday Movement

New Hope Community, in Loch Sheldrake, has announced it will launch its #GivingTuesday campaign to support programs and experiences that dynamically fuel meaningful life experiences for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and also support workforce recruitment efforts and specialized training opportunities.

#Giving Tuesday is a global generosity movement which will kick off the giving season by inspiring people to give back on Tuesday, November 30, and throughout the year.

“Giving Tuesday is a global movement that inspires generosity. It is a great way for people to share the gifts they have, whether they choose to do something good for others or make a monetary gift-- it’s about simply giving back and making a difference. It is easy to get caught up in decorations and shopping during the holidays, but that’s not really what this season of giving is all about,” says Tom Burnham, Executive Director, NHC Foundation.

New Hope Community’s goal is to obtain 250 gifts by December 31st. The gift goal of 250 is representative of every person receiving supports and services at New Hope Community.

“Giving Tuesday and year-end gifts are a boost to organizations such as ours, especially during this challenging year,” says Debra J. McGinness, Chief Executive Officer, New Hope Community.

“Like many of our families and supporters, we have had to become more resourceful. With the community’s support we will be able to enhance our diverse therapeutic and recreational programs as well as our recruitment and staff training efforts.”

The campaign kicked off November 1, continues through Giving Tuesday, and concludes on December 31, 2021. To make a gift to New Hope Community, visit Newhopecommunity.org/ donate or call (845) 468-5223.

Dworetzky Parade returns

The Annual James Dworetzky Holiday Parade will be held on Friday, November 26 at 7 p.m. down Main Street in Jeffersonville!

This firefighter's parade was started by Chief James Dworetzky from the Youngsville Fire Department almost 30 years ago for families to watch and enjoy at holiday time. Since Jim's passing, several groups, including firemen, have continued to meet every holiday season to keep the parade going.

This popular Jeffersonville holiday event is back on November 26 at 7 p.m. Pictured is Lumberland fireman Phil Talley rocking out to Jingle Bell Rock.

Just as he wished, there will be Fire Company's, Ambulance Corps., trucks and many floats with marching groups all decorated with Christmas lights and many with holiday songs. Santa will be in town to meet up with the kids too!

For those wanting to participate in the parade, line-up will be at 6 p.m. at the Sullivan West grade school located on Schoolhouse Road in Jeffersonville.

For questions call Bill at 845-482-4151 or Sue at 845-482-5354. Lots of fun for the whole family!

Spirited Gifting

BY MARGARET BRUETSCH

Sometimes it's hard to find the perfect gift during the holiday season. Maybe the person you're searching for is trying to downsize or looking to minimize the amount of stuff in their house. Or maybe they seem to have everything they need, want or desire. Do it up with Dickens this holiday season

Want to get in the holiday spirit and dress in fancy Victorian attire? Then you'll want to be in Callicoon on Saturday, December 11 at the hamlet's annual Dickens on the Delaware event, which showcases the retail community and businesses the town boasts.

In addition to some tasty treats and fun activities, Dickens on the Delaware is a great place to find gifts for the special people in your life.

Business owners will be highlighting all their holiday wares, and are ready to dazzle visitors with some holiday spirit. The whole town will be decorated to recreate the golden days of yore, and shopkeepers will be dressed in Victorian attire.

The event lasting from noon until 8 p.m. will include holiday markets; a holiday photo studio; caroling and live music; children's activities; free horse and buggy rides; free theater and dance performances; refreshments including hot chocolate, eggnog and spiced wine; and much more!
